Daily Review.

SALE OFFICE, FORT WORTH, TEX., Dec. 20, 1917.

The first receipts of the new crop lemons are in and quoted today. They go a dollar higher than the old crop.

Lard has gone up 1/2 cent all round.

Trade has been splendid to-day in all lines, both for wholesalers and retailers.

A good quantity of grain has been marketed in Fort Worth by surrounding farmers during the past few days.

THE NATIONAL BANKS.

The twenty-fifth annual report of the Comptroller of the Currency shows that the total number of national banks in operation on October 31 was 3061.

The total number of new banks formed during the last year is 225; the total number closed during the year is 33, of which 25 went into voluntary liquidation and 8 failed.

The gross increase in national bank capital during the year amounts to $36,874,775. There has been, however, a decrease of capital of $6,322,450.

The net increase of capital for the year is, therefore, $30,552,325. On the other hand, there is a net decrease of $59,495,500 in the circulation represented by bonds.
