Grand Opening and Texas Night!

OF PAIN'S MARVELOUS WORK, THE LAST DAYS OF POMPEII

Which will be Given in Fort Worth For Fifteen Nights, At the Pompeiian Inclosure, SPRING PALACE GROUNDS,

This Magnificent Creation

Has been exhibited in the city of Baltimore during the past summer, where hundreds of thousands attended nightly. See what a few of the leading citizens of Baltimore have to say concerning the spectacle about to be produced in Fort Worth:

Cardinal Gibbons—I am greatly surprised and interested, as I had no idea such perfection in the presentation of Pompeii could be reached, while the realism of the destruction is wonderful. Mayor Davidson—Nothing ever seen in Baltimore compares with it. I have already been twice and am going again. John T. Ford, manager of Ford's opera house—I have seen a great many efforts in the way of scenic effects, but never anything upon such a scale and with so superb a result. Robinson & Cator of Armstrong, Cator & Co.—It is grand, and I would never tire of it. I have attended twice and am going again. Ex-Mayor Hodges—I have seen spectacles in Rome, Naples and Paris when these cities stood at the head for such efforts, but they were no comparison to Baltimore's fête. It is the finest thing I ever saw in my life. Postmaster Johnson—It greatly exceeded my anticipations, and I know of nothing I ever saw to compare with it. Grand Master of Masons Shyrook—Undoubtedly the grandest spectacle ever produced, and while I was prepared to witness something decidedly out of the usual run, I had no idea it would so far exceed expectations. City Editor Deshields of the Sun—Was actually astonished at its magnitude and splendor. Exhausts one's stock of adjectives in three minutes. Baltimore never had anything before to approach it. Ex-Mayor Latrobe—I never spent a pleasanter evening, and am proud of Baltimore that when she presents a spectacle of the kind she distances all other cities. Most certainly I never saw anything its equal. T. H. Hayward of Bartlett, Hayward & Co.—It is great. Finer than anything I ever saw at Manhattan Beach or anywhere else. Rev. Dr. Todd—The evening was like a dream, and I never expected to see so really a gorgeous and interesting an exhibition. President Hall of the First National Bank—A very fine thing. Undoubtedly the best in every respect I ever saw. Ernest Knabe of William Knabe & Sons—Magnificent. Was much surprised all the way through. There were thirty-eight in our party, and we are all going again. Dr. Brooks of the Sun—Never saw its equal either in this country or abroad; was more than surprised at its extent, and the place ought to be packed every night. Police Commissioner Shryver—Was the greatest thing I ever saw, and a man can by no means get enough to satisfy himself in one night. City Editor Strehlan of the Herald—It is an event in out-of-door entertainments, and Baltimore ought to be so proud of it and so interested as to fill every seat every night. Editor Young of the Telegram—Too much cannot be said in praise of it, and I tell all my friends they will miss the grandest entertainment Baltimore ever knew if they do not attend. Congressman Rusk—If congress knew what we had here in Baltimore, there would be no evening session for want of a quorum. Vice-President King of the B. & O.—I was greatly surprised at the magnificent extent of the production, which is in every respect far ahead of anything I imagined it would be.

Remember, in case of rain the performance will be postponed until the next clear night and tickets will be good, as each performance is numbered from 1 to 15, and
