CLARISON is said to be the man who will support Quay as chairman of the National Republican committee.

THE Mizzards, political and financial, are freezing out ambitious Caesars and aspiring Wall street Napoleons.

PROFESSOR KOCH'S determination not to tell the secret of his cure for consumption smacks more of the charlatan than the philanthropist.

TEXAS does nothing by halves, from Democratic majorities to rain. In politics she is never in the soup, but this part of the grand state is at present in the mud.

SKILL in bicycling is likely to become one of the qualifications that will be required in an applicant to Mr. Wannamaker for the place of mail collector.

manoe, but history as it affects individuals should at least be true, and fiction gains nothing by exposing real personages to ridicule and contempt.

A VOICE FROM THE TUREEN. Although fearfully availed by the polling on the 4th, Col. Web Flanagan of Flanagan's Mills is not, as many may suppose, entirely overwhelmed.

There are two gins at Oenaville, says Waco Plaindealer, which have ginned 2500 bales of cotton to date. There may be 200 more yet to gin.

TEXAS IN TYPE.

TEXAS CROPS AND WEATHER. Corn is somewhat short in Camp county, but cotton is fair and cane is turning out a good yield of syrup.

There are two gins at Oenaville, says Waco Plaindealer, which have ginned 2500 bales of cotton to date.

But little wheat has been sown in Coryell county. Cotton is the great crop. The rain in Lipscomb county was needed.

The young wheat in Runnels county has been greatly benefited by the recent fine rains. Wheat sowing has been the order of the day for six weeks or more in Childers county.

Clay county wheat is showing up in fine condition. The acreage will be doubled for next year. The cane and syrup yield of Houston county this season will be enormous.

Mr. J. G. Lee of the Brown county milling company urges the farmers to sow early to winter this fall.

GAINEVILLE, Nov. 16.—We have had a week of almost uninterrupted rain with no prospect now of an early breaking. The roads are very bad.

BELLS, Nov. 15.—Heavy rains have fallen here yesterday and to-day. Business is at a standstill. SHERMAN, Nov. 15.—Rain has fallen at intervals in Grayson county for one week and continues.

THE SERPENT DISASTER. Experience of the Three Survivors—They Were Life Belts—Story of a Latch Key. Evidence of Gull.

More About the Serpent Disaster. LONDON, Nov. 15.—The British gun boat, Laping, has taken on board the survivors of the Serpent disaster.

property holders of East Houston street are going in together and will pave five blocks, from the square to the Central track.

TEXAS IMMIGRATION. A great many immigrants are now visiting into Willbarger county in wagons from the East.

Every week can be seen wagon trains of immigrants coming to Childers county, says the Star, to secure a home in the banner wheat county of the Panhandle.

Hamilton county is receiving a good many farmers. Several sales to Bell county farmers have been made. Several immigrants from Brown county say an exchange from there were in Merkel this week prospecting and taking in this part of Taylor county.

Every day we hear of fresh immigration arriving in Frio county, says the Pearson News, and the trustees are selling the school land so fast that before long, probably, none of it will be in the market.

BEIDEN, Nov. 15.—Eleven emigrant wagons passed through our town to-day for Brownwood, Tex., from Arkansas. TEXAS NEWS AND NOTES.

Adj.-Gen. King has informed the Seelye titles of Galveston that he has shipped them an entire outfit of new Springfield rifles with bayonets, scabbards, gun slings, cartridge boxes and arm chest.
