CITY ITEMS.

The Households of Ruth, the ladies, department of the Odd Fellows, had their installation in the Odd Fellows hall on Spring street, East Nashville, Monday night. After a business meeting it was turned over to a committee and it proved one of the most enjoyable social gatherings of the season. The tables were elaborately decorated in ferns and palms, and a four-course menu was served.

Mr. Frank Carter, of Ohio, accompanied by his wife, is in the city, the guests of his mother, Mrs. Ella Carter, of Lischey avenue.

Mr. George Darden, of Williams street, is suffering from a sprained ankle caused by a fall.

Mrs. Julia Bosley, of St. Louis, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Kennedy, who live across the new bridge on Hyde's Ferry Pike. She has been out of the city for twenty years. Mrs. Bosley is the sister of Mr. Fred Bains.

Mrs. Annie Hatcher has been very sick for two weeks at her residence, 62 Green street.

Miss Alberta R. Harrison, of 1226 Fourth avenue, South, was very much delighted over the birthday present which she received from her little niece, Alberta Bell Porter, of Chicago, Ill.

Miss Bettie E. Allen, of Twenty-first avenue, entertained in honor of a few friends last Thursday evening. The features of the evening were whist and other games. The parlor was beautifully arrayed in palms and vines. Among those present were Johnnie Avey and Lizella, of Murfreesboro, Kate Boze, Julia McChristine, Daisy McRoberts, Messrs. R. M. Mason, Arthur Harris, John Massey, John McCoy, Dr. Johnson. A two-course menu was served.

DAY AND NIGHT.

Miss Daisy Roberts left Nashville Saturday en route to Algood, Tenn., where she will attend the bedside of her father, who is very sick.

The Marechal Niel Club held a pleasant meeting Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Julia Flagg, at her home on Eighth street. They added three new members to the club. The Flagg home was beautified with ferns, and refreshments were served during the final social hours. Interesting topics were brought before the club and matters of general interest discussed.

Col. B. F. Johnson, Uniform Rank, K. of P., of Chattanooga, Tenn., spent last Friday in the city attending the meeting of the Endowment Board of the Knights of Pythias.

Mrs. Cage Cannon, who has been ill, is able to be out again.

Mr. N. N. Reynolds, of Pulaski, spent Friday and Saturday in the city. Mr. Reynolds is Grand Lecturer for the Court of Calanthe and reports that the order is progressing.

Mr. B. J. Ferrandis, of Memphis, spent three days in the city last week attending the regular quarterly meeting of the Endowment Board of the Knights of Pythias.

President Merrill, of Fisk University, addressed the congregation after the regular sermon at the First Baptist Church Sunday morning. The sermon, which was a very powerful one, was preached by the pastor, Rev. W. S. Ellington.

Miss Mamie L. Alexander, of Providence, Tenn., spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Matilda Alexander, of 704 Ewing avenue.

Mrs. Marie Ransome, of William street, gave an elegant luncheon Tuesday evening, her guests including Mrs. A. Julius Williams, Mrs. Mabel Overton, Mrs. C. McGavock and Mrs. Mamie Turner. The table was radiant in decorations, the table having a centerpiece of a cluster of crimson and purple.

Mrs. Sophia Cannon, of Ninth street, who was reported very ill last week, is much better.

Mrs. Mattie Statton, of Berry street, who was on the sick list last week, is able to be out again.

Miss Bessie Whiten, of Ohio, is in the city on business, stopping with Mrs. Elam on Smiley street, East Nashville. She will be here until March.

The sermon preached by Rev. Fields at the First Baptist Church, East Nashville, Sunday was very much enjoyed by the members.

Rev. Goodall was in Clarksville last week.

One of the most charming occasions of the season was a valentine reception given by a jolly little crowd of East Nashville girls at the residence of little Miss Viola Bibbs, on Webster street, last week.

Shirley Nichols, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nora Nichols, of Crooked street, is on the sick list this week with malarial fever.

Miss Mary Walker, of 410 Ninth avenue, North, is on the sick list, not being able to be about her duties in the music room.

Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Boyd, of 523 Second avenue, North, are both on the sick list this week. Dr. Boyd is convalescing, while Mrs. Boyd at this writing is still in bed.

Miss Josie Joyce, of Manchester, Tenn., an ardent supporter of the Globe, was in Nashville last Sunday and took advantage to have the Globe sent to her Manchester address, where she hopes to keep up with the news of Nashville.

Tickets for Prince Herrman's special engagement at Meharry Auditorium Friday night, March 8th, may be had at the One Cent Savings Bank, 411 Fourth avenue, North, Wilson's Drug Store, University street, and Crescent Drug Store, Main street, East Nashville.*

Miss Bessie L. Woodford, who resides at 1036 Sixteenth avenue, North, has been seriously ill. The doctors pronounced it heart disease, but she shows signs of rapid improvement. Although not able to be out of bed, it is her desire to see many of her friends.

Mrs. M. L. Foston, of 1509 Harding street, is another one of the cold sufferers of North Nashville; but this has not detained her from being about the house during the week.

Miss Susie A. Webb, of 3711 Wabash avenue, Chicago, who is a native Tennessee girl and who visited her sister in East Nashville last fall, writes that through the columns of the Globe she is able to keep up with all that is going on in Nashville. If she misses her paper one week she feels like coming back South.

Mr. H. C. Scarlett is one of the prominent seniors at the Meharry Medical College. It is learned from different sources that Mr. Scarlett will possibly locate, after he has finished, in his old home at Waycross, Ga., where he is much admired and holds a good reputation.

Mrs. Chas. A. Kelly, of Clarksville, Tenn., a prominent secretary of one of the leading lodges, is expected to arrive in Nashville within a few days on business connected with the organization.

A party of ladies last week, who have been in Nashville for some time, went on an inspecting tour of the various publishing houses. In the party were Mrs. A. T. Cooper, wife of Rev. Cooper; Miss E. B. Williams, and Mrs. M. L. Gallaway. They expressed themselves as well pleased with the remarkable progress being made in Nashville. These remarks were made to a Globe reporter, who chanced to see them just as they were completing their trip.

Rev. S. Thompson, B. Th., is occasionally in the city. Hardly a week passes but that he is in Nashville on various official duties. He is a minister of good reputation and is always ready to assist in some good work for our people.

Mr. Wm. A. Ewing, who is at present residing in Muncie, Ind., is in Nashville on a visit to his brother, Mr. Paul Ewing, of Stevens street. His many friends will possibly be glad to know that he is in town, as he lived in Nashville some years ago.

Mrs. Fannie M. Lauier, of Martin, Tenn., continues to write encouragingly of the standard maintained by the Globe as a newsy journal.

Some very excellent photographs of Miss Aurelia Mildred Ford have been received in Nashville. Miss Ford is from Little Rock, Ark., and it will be remembered spent an excellent summer in Nashville last year. She was indeed the recipient of much social attention.

Tickets for Prince Herrman's special engagement at Meharry Auditorium Friday night, March 8th, may be had at the One Cent Savings Bank, 411 Fourth avenue, North, Wilson's Drug Store, University street, and Crescent Drug Store, Main street, East Nashville.*

Mr. John Moore, of 1213 Thirteenth avenue, South, contemplates making in extended trip during the summer months. Just what points will be visited is not yet known, but it will appear in the columns of the Globe later.

Miss Philster Womack, of 1502 Hamilton street, who was reported ill a few days ago, is now entirely well.

Little Willie Brooks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Brooks, of 504 Fourteenth avenue, North, who has been ill for the past three or four weeks is slowly improving.

Miss Willie Battle, who has been in poor health for the past six or seven months, walks down town occasionally and apparently enjoys the exercise.

BEAUTIFULLY APPOINTED DINER.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pointer, of 1051 Edgehill avenue, passed a very pleasant evening on the 17th inst., at their home with a large number of friends. All enjoyed themselves to the utmost, the host and hostess doing all in their power to render the occasion one of enjoyment. The house looked well in its neat and rich dress of flowers and ferns, while the table decorations made a picture long to be remembered. At four o'clock dinner was served and was in keeping with the richness and beauty of surroundings of the occasion. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Norman; Mr. Will Norman, Mr. Nelson Napier, Mr. and Mrs. Will Thompson, Mr. Archie Pointer, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pointer, Mr. Edward Williams, Mr. Waiker, Mrs. Jeff. Rhodes, Mrs. Clara Hill, Mrs. Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. James McCullough. After the delightful repast, Mr. Ed Williams entertained the guests with his graphophone.

SUBORDINATE CHAPTERS O. E. S. CALLED TO MEET.

All Subordinate Chapters O. E. S., are called to meet in Masonic Hall on Monday night, February 25, at eight o'clock, to complete their arrangements for the celebration of Palm Sunday.

By order of
J. H. ADAMS, Chairman.

SONS AND DAUGHTERS OF ABRAHAM.

Lewis Lodge, No. 1, Sons and Daughters of Abraham, met at High-tower's Hall, Thursday evening, February 14, for the purpose of installing officers for the ensuing term. The following were installed: T. M. Rideout, W. S.; Mrs. Alice Davis, V. S.; Nat Jones, F. J.; W. J. Baugus, Chaplain; W. Macoroy, Conductor; Mrs. M. L. Amos, Secretary; Mr. L. Jones, Assistant Secretary; Jere Amos, Treasurer; E. Bivens, Lecturer.

Mr. Rideout installed the officers in a most impressive manner. Chaplain Baugus read a communication from the courts re-establishing the rights of Lewis Lodge. Mr. E. Bivens, who, with his associates, has worked constantly for the Lodge during the past eighteen months, exhibited the old charter. After the installation, the ladies served a delightful repast.
