

GARY & CARUTHERS, GROCERS

PHONE, MAIN 2708.

410 CEDAR ST.

OUR DAILY PRICES:

SUGAR.		Beets, Extra Fine, 1 can.....15cts
20 lbs. Best Granulated Sugar.....$1.00		Baked Beans, 1 can.....5cts
21 " Best C. Sugar.....1.00		Heinz best Baked Beans with tomato sauce, 3 cans.....25cts
12 " Best Cut Leaf Sugar.....1.00
LARD.		FLOUR.
10 lb. Pall Pure Hog Lard.....$1.25		Extra quality Floria flour per barrel.....$4.85
20 " Pall Pure Hog Lard.....2.40		50 lb. sacks.....1.30
10 " Pure Hog Lard.....1.00		25 lb. sacks......65cts
50 " Compound Lard by tub..4.40		Gold Medal per bbl.....$4.55
CANNED FRUIT.		50 lb. sacks.....1.10
California Lemon Cling Peaches can.....20cts		25 lb. sacks.....55cts
Pie Peaches, 3 cans for.....25cts
CORN.		COFFEE.
Badger State cream corn, 2 cans.....15cts		Yale brand, Mocha and Java 1 lb. can.....25cts
Empress brand Sugar corn 3 cans.....25cts		Golden Glory, 1 lb. can.....20cts
Van Camp early June Peas 3 cans.....25cts		Maxwell House Blend, 1 lb.....35cts
		3 lb. cans Maxwell House Blend.....$1.00
		Dutch Java Blend 1 lb. can.....25cts
FISH.		TEAS.
Alaska Red Salmon, 2 cans...25cts		Fine mixed tea, 1 lb. package 60cts
Large, fancy Bloater Mack-erel, each.....20cts		English breakfast tea, 1 pkg. 60cts
Imported Sardines.....15 and 20cts		Green tea, 1 lb. package.....45cts
American Sardines, dozen...45cts
TOMATOES.		ROLLED OATS.
Standard quality.....10cts		Scotch Oats, 3 packages.....25cts
California, Mammoth white		Mother's Oats, 3 packages.....25cts
Asparagus, can.....35cts		Corn Flakes, 3 packages.....25cts
		Egg-o-See, 3 packages.....25cts

CITY ITEMS.

Miss Helen Lee Batte, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. J. B. Batte, of Stevenson avenue, is indisposed this week.

Miss Johnnie V. Dixon, the accomplished proofreader at the Methodist Publishing House and a Globe reporter, who was suffering from a purulent tumefaction on the anterior portion of her head, has entirely recovered.

Mr. Louis D. Bumbrey, of the composing room force of the Baptist Publishing House, was slightly indisposed the first of the week.

Mrs. John Barnes, of 1411 Pearl street, received word this week that her sister, who resides in St. Louis, is very low.

The Juvenile Club of Willing Workers of the Spruce Street is in a flourishing condition.

Miss Vannoy C. Webster and Miss Evaline Barnes spent a pleasant afternoon with Miss Florence Barnes last week.

Mr. George O. Boyd, the celebrated linotype operator of the Baptist publishing house force, and senior member of the firm of Boyd & Battle, the livery men, was indisposed last Wednesday. He has since recovered his usual good health.

Mrs. Mary E. Bowling, of Adairville, was called here on account of the illness of her mother, Mrs. Keil and her sister, Mrs. F. A. Petway.

All children wishing to enter the doll contest on May 11, at St. John A. M. E. Church, will see Miss Lizzie Dickerson, No. 423 Eighth Avenue, N., or 1503 Harding street. The girl or boy having the prettiest doll will be awarded a handsome prize. The one having the ugliest will be awarded second prize.

Miss Maggie Beard, of East Hill street, is very ill.

Dr. D. B. Miller left Friday for his home in Pittsburg, Pa.

Rev. Robert Page is convalescing slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Reeves are able to be out again after a short illness.

Mrs. Robert Fowler Edmondson, of Fayetteville, Tenn., is the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robinson, of Seventh avenue, North.

Mr. Walter Thomas, of Fourth avenue, North, has been somewhat indisposed.

The revival at Salem A. M. E. Church, which has been in progress for two weeks, closed last week, having been a great success.

The forty-second anniversary and rally of Salem Church will occur the first Sunday in May. All-day services. Programme begins at 2 o'clock p. m.

A most excellent sermon was preached at Third Avenue Baptist Church Sunday afternoon by Rev. I. J. Edwards, of Salem Church.

Rev. Robinson, of Indianapolis, Ind., preached for the congregation at Lea Avenue Christian Church Sunday morning and evening.

Misses Scales and Green, who were seriously injured on an electric car some time ago, are able to be out.

Little Oscar P. Cheatham, son of Mr. Albert Cheatham, of Patterson street, has returned from Smyrna.

Miss Louise Hall is quite sick at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Lytle, of Jackson street.

The contest for the Prince Herrman Free Trip to the Jamestown Exhibition goes on apace among the ministers and some two will surely ride at his expense if present indications be of worth.

Mr. Frank Paschal, of Twelfth avenue, N., was suffering slightly from the effects of a cold the first of the week.

Miss Pinkie Mayberry has returned from a visit to her parents at Franklin, Tenn.

Miss Sallie Ezell, of Georgia street, East Nashville, was slightly indisposed the first of the week.

Miss Hazel Baker, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phineas Baker, of Eleventh avenue, North, was out calling Sunday afternoon.

Telephone 4095 Main and the Economical Laundry wagon will call for your Laundry.

Mr. Pressly, of Springhill, Tenn., father of Mr. O. C. Pressly, of Patterson street, was in the city last week.

Miss Ethel Spence, formerly of the bookmaking department of the Baptist Publishing House, has been transferred to the mailing department of the same institution.

Miss Marion E. Lewis, of Porterfield street, one of the teachers at Carter School, was slightly indisposed the first of the week.

Miss J. D. Shorter, of Church street, who was sick for several days last week, is at her desk at the Baptist Publishing House.

Miss Janie Green and Mrs. Hattie Flemings, of Columbia, who recently were the guests of Mrs. Walter Green, of North High Street, returned to their home Tuesday evening. In a few weeks they will be in Nashville again and will make the city their home for the summer.

Prof. J. H. Kelly, the well-known principal of the Columbia, Tenn., High School, was in the city the latter part of last week. He attended the oratorio, "The Prodigal Son," at Fisk Memorial Chapel.

Miss Janie E. Benson, of Knowles School, is somewhat indisposed this week.

Prof. T. G. West, formerly a teacher in the public schools of the city, but now a clerk in the Nashville Post Office, has been dangerously ill for a week or two. It is now reported that there is a slight improvement in his condition.

Jessie May, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Randolph, of State street, is rapidly recovering.

Mrs. Anna Boxly, of Patterson street, continues very sick.

Mrs. Gertrude Watkins, of Pearl street, had the misfortune to lose a sum of money while returning from a meat market last Sunday morning.

There is being conducted every Sunday afternoon at 1611 Patterson street a Sunday school. It is under the direction of a number of young men in the interest of Congregationalism.

Last Tuesday Mr. D. A. Hart, business manager of the Globe, was obliged to leave his post of duty on account of a slight indisposition.

Mrs. Nellie Dunlap, of Warren street, missed her pocket book containing quite a sum of money last Tuesday morning. Later in the day her sorrow was turned to joy. The missing article was found.

Mrs. Henry, of Chattanooga, wife of Prof. Henry, of the city public schools of that city, is the guest of Mrs. Napier while attending the association of Congregational churches, which is in session at the Howard Congregational Church.

Little Miss Carrie Napier is now spending a pleasant stay in Washington, D. C. She left Monday night in company with Mr. J. C. Napier. She will remain in Washington some time visiting relatives before returning to Nashville.

Dr. E. W. D. Isaac, secretary of the B. Y. P. U. Board, is suffering with a severe attack of chills. It appears that the doctor took sick Sunday night. He was indisposed all day Monday, and Tuesday he was reported but little better.

Mr. Ernest Cole, one of the popular substitutes in the Nashville post office, who has been a carrier on route No. 9 for the past two weeks, proved to be a very competent substitute. He knows how to handle mail to an advantage.

Prof. W. M. Flowers, at one time foreman of the pressroom of the National Baptist Publishing House, and subsequently held a position in the printing establishment of the A. M. E. Church Sunday School Union, has resigned this place and contemplates going to Florida.

Mrs. J. Blaine Boyd, of Fourteenth avenue, North, had a severe attack of tictouloureux the first of the week.

Mrs. Delliah Ramsey, of Ninth avenue, North, is seriously ill.

The Verdi Choral Society had an excellent rehearsal last Monday night.

Miss Mary Walker, of 410 Ninth avenue, North, is somewhat indisposed this week.

Mrs. George Watkins, of 1307 Hynes street is ill.

Miss Anna Lee Austin was severely injured last week by sticking a nail in her foot.

Miss Lula Cummings, of 322 Sixth avenue, North, left for Pittsburg, Tenn., last Saturday.

Miss Cynthia House, of Franklin, Tenn., was in the city last week.

Dr. Jas. Henderson, of Springfield, Ill., spent four days in the city last week visiting his mother, Mrs. Eliza Thompson.

Mrs. J. W. Scruggs, of Patterson street, whose illness was chronicled in our columns last week, is much better.

Mr. J. W. DeWees, the publisher of the DeWees Series of Business Directories, spent last week in Cadiz, Ky., in the interest of his publications.

Rev. L. T. Cross, of Clarksville, Tenn., spent Sunday and Monday in the city. He filled the pulpit at the First Baptist Church, East Nashville. There was an appreciative audience at each service.

Mr. McNelly, one of the oldest members of the Second Baptist Church, died last Friday. The funeral ceremonies took place at the church, Rev. G. B. Taylor, officiating.

Misses Sarah and Viola Flagg, of 222 Eighth street, were both indisposed last week. Miss Sarah is still confined to the sick room with an acute case of la grippe.

Miss Ella Darden, of Williams street, is expecting to take up her school. She is due to leave the city this week to make final arrangements.

Mrs. Rebecca Webster, of Columbia, while en route to Evansville, Ind., to visit her sick sister, stopped over in the city Wednesday.

Mrs. Fred D. Thoms spent Sunday in Clarksville visiting friends she had not met in several years, returning Sunday night.

Miss Jennie P. Dunson, of Ninth avenue, North, had a narrow escape from serious injury early Tuesday morning. About 2 o'clock the plastering on the ceiling of her bedroom fell with a terrific crash, badly frightening the young lady, but fortunately doing no harm.

The First Baptist Church of East Nashville, is getting along nicely during the absence of its pastor; the services are good and largely attended. Rev. Mr. Windrow, of St. Louis, Mo., has been elected to take charge of the church until the return of Rev. S. E. Griggs.

Mary E. Landers, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Landers, of Harding street, was a little ill the first of the week.

Despite the inclement weather last Monday night, the Verdi Music room failed to seat the members of the Verdi Chorus. Miss Price felt very proud of their appreciation. The practices will continue each Monday night.

Miss Georgia Lee Hadley, of Eleventh avenue, North, has recovered from the throat trouble which was so severe the first of the week.

Mrs. Maggie Brown, accompanied by Messrs. Levi and Steve Pierce and John Ridley, spent Sunday at Walter Hill, Tenn., the guests of Messrs. Isaac and Edward Pierce. While there they had the pleasure of visiting the church they attended during their childhood days.

Little Miss Mollie Brown, of Patterson street, was suffering with neuralgia of the face last week.

Miss Sarah A. E. Jones, of First avenue, South, is not enjoying the best of health.

Mr. John Thomas, of Cedar street, is still in very poor health.

Miss Sophronia Mayberry, of Cedar street, is suffering from the effects of a heavy cold.

Mrs. Carrie White Brown, of fourteenth avenue, North, a teacher in Knowles School, had an attack of vertigo Wednesday morning and was confined to her bed all day.

Mr. Wilfred E. Lowery has been confined to his room this week with rheumatism.

Dr. R. H. Voorhees spent a few days in Columbia and Clarksville last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Cage Cannon entertained a few friends last Friday night.

Preston Taylor. Telephone 896.

TAYLOR & CO.

Funeral Directors and Embalmers.

CARRIAGES FOR HIRE.

449 North Avenue, North.

Nashville, - - Tenn.

J. R. BLAKE,

North Nashville Reliable Grocer.

Call and see my New Spring Stock.

ALL GOODS NEW.

Goods delivered anywhere in the city.

Corner Morrison and Jackson Streets.

AS USUAL WE ARE ALWAYS Up With The Times.

Our Superintendent's and Teacher's Handbook, containing Lesson Texts, Review Suggestions, School Readings, Musical Suggestions, etc. for the International Lessons for 1907 is now ready. No Superintendent or Teacher should be without this valuable little book. It is undenominational. Published for the interest of Sunday school Workers.

Prices: Cloth, 25 cts; Leather, 35 cents.

National Baptist Publishing Board, REV. E. M. BOYD, Sec'y, 523 Second Avenue, North, NASHVILLE, - - TENNESSEE. 12-2-0644

BUY YOUR SHOES OF BOB ROBERTSON.

PHONE Main 1614

RESIDENCE: 618 WEBSTER STREET.

WITH Cline & Gordon.

410 Union Street. Phone 1235.

The Best Variety and the Most Reliable Shoes Made.

BUY YOUR Clothing, Hats, Etc., OF BOB ROBERTSON.

PHONE Main 1614

RESIDENCE: 618 WEBSTER STREET.

WITH Varley & Bauman.

325 Union St. Phone Main 560.

The Best Variety and the Most Reliable Place in the City.

MONEY LOANED!

To Responsible Persons—on Their Own Notes—Business Confidential.

Tel. Main, 3755—E. and We Will Call on You.

301 FOURTH AVENUE, NORTH.

GORDON & CO.

Miss Emma L. C. Stone, who passed the State Board of Pharmacy on the 16th inst., left the city last Saturday for Pulaski, Tenn., where she will be employed as a registered pharmacist in the drug store of Dr. J. D. Fowler.

TENNESSEE CONFERENCE A. C. E. LEAGUE.

1. Will the Presiding Elders and pastors have the kindness to request the president of each league to send me the name of each president, the name of the league and the number of members in each league?
2. The May anniversary of each year is intended to raise the sum of ten cents per capita of its membership and forward the same to Rev. E. J. Gregg, D. D., Jacksonville, Fla. (See Discipline 1904, page 353, Article 6.) The raising of the per capita means better literature, greater variety, a generous supply for each league and funds to run the Home Office.
3. The first Biennial Session of the Connectional League Convention will convene at Nashville, Tenn., July 2-8, 1907, in St. John A. M. E. Church. Great preparation is being made by Rev. W. M. Flagg, D. D., President of the Local Union. It is said there will be over 5,000 young people at Nashville in July.
5. Let each A. C. E. L. be represented and let the good work move on.

T. W. HAIGLER, Conference Superintendent.

No. 927 Eleventh avenue, North, Nashville, Tenn.

LEESBURG NOTES.

Leesburg M. E. Church, of the McMinnville circuit, closed their two-weeks' revival Friday night, April 12. With the leadership of the pastor, Rev. H. W. Rucker, and the help of Rev. A. D. Butler, of Manchester, who preached soul-stirring sermons each night, and with the coworkers of the church and divine aid of the King of the Universe, six souls claimed Christ as their Savior.

BUY YOUR Dry Goods, Notions, Cloaks, Etc., OF Bob Robertson.

PHONE Main 1614

RESIDENCE: 618 WEBSTER STREET.

WITH The Castner-Knott Dry Goods Co.

618-622 Church St., Phone Main 620.

The Largest and Best Stock to Select from in the City.

Office Phone Main 2705. Residence 1834 Jefferson St. Residence Phone Main 3131Y.

DR. S. S. CARUTHERS,

Homeopathic Physician and Surgeon.

410 1/2 CEDAR STREET.

Office Hours: 9 to 11 a. m., 4 to 5 p. m., 7 to 8 p. m.

NASHVILLE, TENN.

WARD & BLAIR

Stone Contractors and BUILDERS.

One of the Oldest Contracting Firms in Nashville.

Every Job given Careful Attention, Satisfaction Guaranteed.

Telephone, Main 4525

E. Hill and S. Hill Sts., NASHVILLE, TENN. 2-22-07-tf.

Hattie L. Woldridge

Plain Sewing and Shirt Waists Specialties by Miss Hattie L. Woldridge

1307 HAYNES ST.

Work call for and delivered. Satisfaction Guaranteed.

4-19-07-tf

Rev. W. R. Smith, presiding elder, will hold his third quarterly conference of the above-named circuit on the first Saturday and Sunday in May.