

The Globe is in receipt of a letter from Mr. William Merrill, of Flisk University, who is spending his vacation in the West. Mr. Merrill is enjoying excellent health, and is very favorably impressed with that section of the country, though he is of the opinion that the South is the best place for the colored man.

Miss Emma James will leave the city to-morrow to spend her vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Jere R. Reid, of Chicago.

Miss Georgia A. Buford spent Sunday with Dr. and Mrs. Elliot, of Maple street.

Mrs. Melinda McDowell has returned to her home in Alabama after a three weeks' stay with Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Buford.

Miss Minnie White spent last Sunday in Clarksville.

Mrs. Edna Shelton Reynold, of Greenville, Ky., is the guest of Mrs. Sarah Jones Allen, of 1011 South street.

Mrs. Sam Dillahanty had as her guest Sunday Mrs. Edna Shelton Reynolds, of Greenville, Ky.

Little Gilbert White recently met with a very painful but not serious accident. He fell from a wagon and one of the wheels passed over his body.

Mrs. S. D. Killebrew left a few days ago for Chicago and other points of interest. She will be gone for several months visiting her daughter, Mrs. G. W. Watson, of Chicago.

Mrs. Lizzie Anderson, of Chicago, who has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. Perkins, of Harding street, for several weeks, left the city for her home last night.

Mr. Willis J. Jones, Jr., of 1011 South street, who went to St. Louis, Mo., in search of better wages, was very successful and is having a very nice time.

Mr. J. Thomas Caruthers, of Amherst, Mass., who has been visiting in the city, the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Cartwright, of Patterson street, left Monday morning in company with his grandmother, Mrs. Stevenson, for Madisonville, Ky., to spend a few weeks before going to New Jersey, to accept a position as teacher of science in one of the leading schools.

Miss Alice Stevenson, of Chicago, after spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. Cartwright, left the city for Columbia for a short stay before going North.

Mrs. Sarah Carter is visiting friends in Chattanooga and Northern Alabama.

Miss Willie Nichol, of this city, is visiting in Owensboro, Ky.

Miss Lillian Hill bookkeeper at the A. M. E. Sunday School Union, is now taking her vacation.

Misses Gertrude Lewis, Ada J. Bedford, Susie McGee and Mrs. J. H. Franklin spent last Sunday with Mrs. John Jumper, of Eastside.

Mrs. Inez White, of 735 Ninth avenue, South, is suffering intensely with a sprained toe.

The attendance of St. Paul A. M. E. Sunday School is rapidly increasing. On last Sunday there were about twelve new pupils enrolled.

Mr. Thos. W. Caldwell and wife, formerly of this city, are now living in Kansas City, Mo., and write that they are much pleased with their surroundings.

Miss Susie McGee spent a few days in the city, the guests of Miss Ada J. Bedford, of Wharf avenue.

Mr. Wm. Jones, of Bryson, Tenn., is here this week as a delegate to the District Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows.

Mr. Wm. McLaurine, a prominent Odd Fellow from Bryson, Tenn., contributed his presence at the Grand Lodge sessions in this city.

Mr. Willis Bramlette, of Pulaski, Tenn., one of the oldest Odd Fellows in the state, spent the week in Nashville.

Rev. Mr. Cross, of Clarksville, Tenn., was over attending the District Grand Lodge, which opened at Greenwood Park Tuesday at noon.

Mrs. Mollie McGavock, who has been in the city visiting relatives, left Monday afternoon for her home in Chicago.

Mrs. Anna B. Spence, of the mailing department of the Baptist Publishing House, has returned from her visit to the country.

Mr. Green Garrett, of 919 Blank street, has returned from Murfreesboro, where he has been spending a few days with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Berry Roberson, of 1311 Tremont avenue, spent several days in the country this week.

Mrs. Will Thompson, of Tremont avenue, who has been ill for several weeks, is convalescent.

Little Alice Webster, of Tremont avenue, had the misfortune of sticking a nail into her foot.

Mr. William Toney, of Chicago, is in the city visiting relatives.

Mrs. Batson, of Louisville, is spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. John Batson, of Third avenue, North.

Miss Cora Allen, of Tremont avenue, spent Sunday in Franklin.

Dr. J. P. Crawford, Grand Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias, who has been spending a few weeks' vacation in Pulaski, returned to the city Monday.

Miss Isora Garrett, a Nashville young lady, is doing exceptionally well in Birmingham. She is the chief clerk and bookkeeper for the the great Southern Industrial Home and People's Banking Co.

Rev. J. C. Lott, of Lebanon, Tenn., spoke at the Kayne Avenue Baptist Church Sunday at 11 o'clock and at night. Rev. Mr. Lott is an able young minister and made quite an impression.

Dr. Brown, of Birmingham, Ala., one of the leading physicians of that city, will visit Nashville and Meharry Medical School this fall.

Mrs. Frank Shields, of St. Louis, Mo., who has been here visiting her sick sister, Mrs. Fannie Lusk, of 905 Fairmont street, and her aunt, Mrs. Dave Driver, of East Nashville, will leave in a few days for St. Louis. Before going she left a year's subscription for the Nashville Globe and urges that it be sent her each week.

Mrs. Hardina Ransom of 901 Blank street, is suffering with a badly sprained ankle.

Miss Delola Macarley, of Chattanooga, is visiting Miss John Thompson, of 1305 Dehonbreun street, where she will remain this week.

Rev. G. Wm. Ward, who was recently pastor of the Monumental Baptist Church of Chattanooga, but now pastoring at Indianapolis, Ind., could not attend the meeting of the National Baptist Publishing Board last week, owing to making extensive preparations for the National Convention and making some necessary repairs in the church over which he now presides.

Miss Wilma B. Pettiford, of Birmingham, Ala., the daughter of W. R. Pettiford, president of the Alabama Penny Savings Bank, will pass through Nashville en route to Boston, Mass., next month and will possibly spend a day here visiting friends.

Miss Pettiford will graduate from the Boston Conservatory of Music this term and she has already been offered several flattering positions.

Miss Beatrice Hudson and Miss Annie May Clower, of Birmingham, Ala., who visited Nashville en route home this summer from Oberlin, will return next month to take up their studies at the Conservatory of Music at Oberlin, but they will not come via Nashville, says the latest advice from Birmingham, but will go over the Northern Route from Chattanooga.

Prof. J. H. Martin and Prof. J. H. Weber, two prominent teachers of Washington Parish, La., will possibly be among the young men to spend the winter in Nashville taking special courses. One will be at Meharry, while the other is expected to attend Flisk.

Miss Helen Alston McAlpine, of Selma, Ala., a very accomplished instructor in millinery, will not make the proposed trip to Nashville owing to having accepted a position to give millinery instruction at Selma University.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Oneal, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Battle, with their little daughter, Mary K., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Norah King, of Flat Rock, last week.

The Hotel Winston, at Meridian, Miss., is owned and operated by Mr. John Winston, who married one of the Nashville girls several years ago. Mrs. Winston remembers many of her old acquaintances in Nashville. Their business is progressing nicely.

Mrs. Oneal was very much pleased with a visit from Mrs. N. Bishop and Misses H. P. Page and Katherine Battle on last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bishop left the city last Saturday for Lewisburg to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Battle, with their sister and little daughter, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oneal for tea last Monday evening.

Mrs. Cornelia Ewing, of Eleventh avenue, North, left the city Thursday morning for Franklin, where she will spend her vacation with relatives in that place.

Mrs. Anna Kelly, of Columbia, is the guest of her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kelly, Jr.

Mrs. H. S. Killebrew, of this city, is spending her vacation in Chicago with relatives and friends.

Rev. C. H. Boone, pastor of St. Paul A. M. E. Church, is out of the city this week.

Little Estella Black and Mattie Caldwell, of Pulaski, are the guests of little Hellyn and J. B. Batte, Jr., this week.

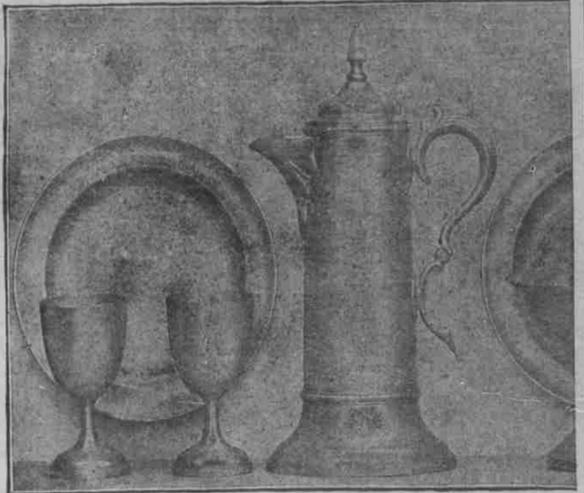

Among the Pulaskians who are attending the G. U. O. F.'s convention are Rev. A. P. Gray, Prof. and Mrs. T. P. Turner, Miss H. N. Carter, Wm. Burch, Jas. Gordon, Wm. Goff, Willis Bramlette and Mrs. V. S. Caldwell, who is the guest of her daughter, Miss J. V. Dixon, of 653 Bass street.

Mrs. Fannie Lusk, of Tenth avenue, South, is improving slowly.

COMMUNION SETS.

VESSELS WITH WHICH TO ADMINISTER THE LORD'S SUPPER.

A QUADRUPLE-PLATED COMMUNION SET.

2 Plates, 2 Goblets, 1 Quart Flagon.

CHURCH SUPPLY DEPARTMENT NATIONAL BAPTIST PUBLISHING BOARD, OF THE
523 SECOND AVENUE, NORTH, NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE.

Miss Ella J. Howard, of Pulaski, Tenn., is now connected with the Clerical Department at the A. M. E. Sunday School Union.

Dr. W. D. Chappelle will fill St. Paul A. M. E. Church pulpit Sunday morning.

Mrs. A. L. Pinkston is at home again after spending a few weeks in West Tennessee.

Mrs. W. A. Lewis, of 1702 Jefferson street, spent Sunday at Pegram, Tenn.

Mr. J. W. Page, of Clarksville, is in the city attending the G. U. O. of O. F.'s convention.

Miss Julia Smith, of Tenth avenue, South, is visiting relatives in Murfreesboro.

Mrs. Edith Matthews, of Ninth avenue, North, left Wednesday for Louisville.

Mr. W. J. Blanton, Mrs. McMinnville and Mrs. Horace Canada, of 15 Garden street, were the guests of Mrs. Oneal, who served an elaborate three-course dinner.

Prof. and Mrs. Neal, of Harding street, have returned to the city after an absence of about a month in Kentucky.

Mrs. S. M. Lowe, matron of the school for the blind, is still sojourning in East Tennessee. Her post-office address is Grandview. She expects to return about September 1 to open her school.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE AT TULLAHOMA.

The second session of the Nashville District of the Tennessee Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church began its session Tuesday, August 6, 1907, at 2:30 p. m., in Howard Chapel, Tullahoma, Tenn., Rev. W. R. Smith, Presiding Elder, in the chair. Most of the pastors and delegates were present and splendid reports came up from the various charges of the district, showing that faithful work is being done.

Quite a number of visitors were present, among whom the Rev. Bishop C. H. Phillips, of the C. M. E. Church, Prof. W. D. Hawkins, A. M., and Dr. E. W. S. Hammond, of Walden University; Rev. S. M. Utley, Presiding Elder, Rev. J. M. Lyte and Rev. A. L. Nelson, of the West Nashville District; Rev. S. Knight, of the Cumberland River District, and Prof. W. L. Miller, of South Pittsburg. These brethren by their splendid addresses and strong remarks greatly inspired the conference. Other inspiring and very helpful words came from Dr. G. C. Hardin, of Murfreesboro; Prof. J. W. House, A. B.; Rev. C. C. Bright, pastor of the A. M. E. Church, and Rev. J. G. Swift, pastor Baptist church of Tullahoma.

A strong sermon was delivered by Rev. H. Primm on Tuesday night. Wednesday night Walden University was ably presented by Dean E. W. S. Hammond. Dr. G. C. Hardin spoke of the history and work of the church and Walden. Collection for Walden, $6.17.

Rev. F. N. Collier, pastor of Howard Chapel, and his people by hard, faithful and self-sacrificing work were able to present to this District Conference a very beautifully decorated new Telephone 896.

TAYLOR & CO.

Funeral Directors and Embalmers.

CARRIAGES FOR HIRE.

449 Fourth Avenue, North,
Nashville, - - Tenn.

church in which to hold its meetings, besides throwing wide their doors to entertain the conference.

The choir under the management of Prof. House with Miss Lady Emma Phillips at the organ, furnished sweet and high-class music.

The pastor and his good people will spread a dinner on the grounds Sunday, and are begging for more people to come and join in the feast.

The presiding elder is displaying that usual tact and ability which has characterized him since his appointment as presiding elder of the Nashville District.

On Thursday afternoon, the presiding elder called forward Mrs. Bishop Phillips and introduced her to the conference. She delivered a very excellent address.

ENJOYABLE OCCASION.

On Wednesday evening, August 7, a club of young ladies gave a most charming social at the well appointed home of Misses Marie and Virginia Whittaker, 2028 Jefferson street. A merry crowd left at 8 o'clock on a hay ride, chaperoned by Mrs. Pearly Jackson and Mrs. Allison, returning at 10 o'clock where a sumptuous repast awaited them. Frappe was dispensed by Miss Virginia Whittaker. Those present were: Misses Lavinia McLemore, Amanda Edmondson, Clara Lowe, Bruce Ewing, Josephine Lowe, Malinda Holbrooks, Marie and Virginia Whittaker, Eloise and Clara Frierson, Selene Peterson, Luella Mayberry, Mamie and Addie Allison, Beatrice and Florence Laprade, Orlene Patterson, Mesdames Jackson and Allison, Messrs. Jno Fleming, Richard Perkins, Edgar Frierson, Hewitt Box, Thomas Webster, Geo. Upshaw, Samuel Houston, Hubert Adams, Henry Glover, Versie Whittaker, Douglass Harding, Allen Whittaker, Clarence Laprade, Ivo Street, Geo. Yeowall and Pete Stevens.

IN HONOR OF MISS CAGE.

Miss Mary Julia Wright, of 1720 Patterson street, entertained Friday evening in honor of Miss Lucy Cage, of Oklahoma City. The house was beautifully decorated with ferns and flowers. At a late hour the guests were invited into the dining room, where a three-course menu was served. Those present were Misses Willie Nichols, Lucy Cage, Effie B. Hadley, Alberta Brown, of Athens, Ala.; Lavinia McLemore, Minnie L. Glover, Messrs. R. F. North, G. Nixon, A. B. Coffee, J. W. Pinckney, Douglass Harding, A. Stump.

USE Kuhn's Capiline

TO INCREASE THE GROWTH OF HAIR AND REMOVE DANDRUFF.

We think this preparation will give entire satisfaction when used to arrest decay and falling out of the hair. If used as directed, it will tend to change dry, wiry, discolored hair to glossy and luxuriant tresses, and will keep the scalp clean and healthy. It is germicidal and antiseptic, and will relieve dandruff in a short time.

PRICE PER BOTTLE, 25 & 50 CENTS.
All Telephone Orders Delivered.

DAVID J. KUHN, Druggist,
Cor. Cedar and Twelfth Ave., North.
PHONES, MAIN 1718 AND 4036.

The EAGLE RESTAURANT
Is the Place to get Good Things to Eat.
Meals, 10, 15 and 25 Cents.
MRS. H. T. ATE, MGR.
Corner Cedar and 11th Avenue, North.

Phone 2705. Rooms 3 & 4.

R. L. MAYFIELD, LAWYER.

410 Cedar St., NASHVILLE, TENN.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Mrs. Lizzie Anderson, of 319 Highland street, wishes to announce the marriage of her daughter, Addie Beatrice Anderson to Mr. Thomas Holland on the evening of Thursday, Aug. 29.