SPORTING NEWS.
 By LEON.
 Mr. Leon, Sporting Editor Nashville Globe:
 Dear Sir—Being a past knight of the baseball diamond and also a member of the famous '03 W. U. football team, you can see that I am a full lover of athletics; so don't be surprised if you should hear of me signing a contract with the N. N. G. for 1908.
 Having watched several of the teams play, I can't see why we cannot get a strong city League together for 1908. Let's hear from the other parts of the city and be up and doing for 1908.
 Thanking you, I am yours truly,
OVERTON WOODARD,

 Halt!
 It is rumored among the colleges that the Fisk-Meherry football game, the greatest meet of the year, will be pulled off early in the season. If true, it will be regretted by all as this is the social event, one that the public looks forward to with great expectations. It is hoped that this game will be near Thanksgiving, as in former years. Should this game be played early, then there will be no interest thereafter.

The baseball game on Labor Day was a very tame affair, the National Baptist boys merely toying with the Grays, and the score standing 9 to 0 at the finish.
 Positively the Last.
 The game that the public calls for with a loud voice is sure to be had on September 16, at Athletic Park, between the National Baptists and the Standard Giants. As both of these teams have been most successful all the season, a great and close game may be looked for. The appearance of the Baptists with a percentage of 850 and the Giants 800, should overflow the park with followers of the sport.
 There will be announced in this column next week the greatest event that was ever attempted in this city.

Loses First Game of the Season.
 The "Black Bronchoes," of San Antonio, Texas, which is the name of the baseball team of that city, gave the Birmingham, Ala., ball team the first defeat they have had this season. They took three straight games from Birmingham by close scores. The trick was turned in San Antonio before an enthusiastic crowd of fans, says a correspondent to the Globe, who further states that the "Alamo City" is and has been all the season, the best ball town in Texas. This new honor makes the team from the land of the cactus the undisputed champions of the South, as Birmingham had put Memphis, Nashville, Atlanta, Macon, New Orleans, Houston, Galveston and all others out of the game.

WOMEN'S MITE MISSIONARY SOCIETY.
 Lewisburg, Tenn., August 23, 1907.—The Women's Mite Missionary Society of Tennessee Annual Conference, A. M. E. Church, met at Allen's Chapel. The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. T. W. Haigler. The meeting opened with praise service, after which Mrs. Haigler made her annual address. The opening sermon was preached by Rev. J. Q. Johnson, D. D., his subject being "Missionary Expansion." The financial reports from the different districts were received. Devotional exercise at 8 p. m., by Rev. H. L. P. Jones, P. E. Music by the choir. Welcome address on behalf of Sunday school, Miss Maxie Davis; Church, Miss Mattie Davis; Mite Missionary Society, Miss Maud Davis; Citizens, Mr. J. B. Jones. Response, Mrs. Mary S. Peyton, Second Vice President.
 The second day's session opened at 9 a. m. Devotional exercises. Reading and approval of the journal. The Mite Missionary Society in Four Years, Miss Maud G. Davis. The Spirit of Missions, Mrs. H. L. P. Jones. The report on memoirs was read by Mrs. G. L. Jackson.
 Among the ministers present were Rev. Wm. Flagg, H. L. P. Jones, Charles H. Williams and S. L. Howard. Rev. S. L. Howard, the pastor, and members of Allen Chapel entertained the Convention royally. The following officers were elected: Mrs. G. L. Jackson, President; Mrs. Wm. Flagg, First Vice President; Mrs. Robinson, Second Vice President; Mrs. M. B. Reddick, Third Vice President; Mrs. M. S. Peyton, Secretary; Mrs. H. L. P. Jones, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. T. W. Haigler, Treasurer. The meeting closed by singing, "God be with you till we meet again."

Miss B. N. Washington, of Ninth avenue, South, who has been visiting in Louisville, has returned home.

FORTY AND THIRTY YEARS AGO.
 Mr. H. G. Scales, one of the leading stone contractors in Nashville, was quietly married last Sunday morning, September 1, at 2 o'clock, to Miss Lizzie Cleveland. Mr. Scales was asked by a Globe representative why he married at such an early hour; and he stated that just forty years ago, September 1, at just that hour, he married his first wife, and he had a preference to September 1, and the hour of two in the morning.
 But this was not the only pleasant incident Mr. Scales was able to relate. A few hours later the Globe representative was introduced to Mr. Green Holt, of Belfast, Tenn. Mr. Holt and Mr. Scales are first cousins. They had not seen each other for thirty years, and the meeting was a happy one. Mr. Holt is one of the leading farmers of Marshall County, and owns large farming tracts and timber land.
