Diamond Shaped Paper Garlands

BEST AND CHEAPEST DECORATION YET PRODUCED.

View of Garland Partly Open.

No. 5064-H.—One of the finest, neatest and most effective decorations ever devised. It is made of imported tissue paper of a dark "Christmas green," and red. Each Garland is twelve feet long when extended.

They are easy to handle. When closed they occupy little space. Their extreme lightness reduces transportation charges to minimum, thereby cheapening cost to the purchaser. After use they can be quickly closed into compact form and thus readily preserved for future occasions. The possibilities of this device are almost without limit. For decorating churches, schoolrooms, halls or private residences, these Garlands may be used with the finest effect, their flexibility permitting the carrying out of many different ideas.

Price.—Each Garland (12 feet in length) 10 cents, by mail, prepaid.
One dozen Garlands (144 feet) $1.00, prepaid. In ordering mention No. 5064-H.

OUR FESTOONING.

Superior to any other material for producing a brilliant decorative effect. More elegant than real Christmas green and less costly to start with. Is much cleaner; does not dry up and litter the carpet. Can be used again and again from year to year for an indefinite period. One investment will avoid the usual annual expense for Christmas green.

Beside using for festooning, may be easily made into various designs—monograms, mottoes, letters, figures, etc.

Three Colors: Solid Green, No. 3049-H; Solid White, No. 3048-H; Red, White and Blue, No. 3015-H.

When not otherwise requested, all orders will be filled with solid green.

Price, per roll for ten yards, 25 cents, charges prepaid by us. Owing to the lightness and strength of this festooning, it is easily put into position, and gives a harmonious and beautiful effect, when wound around letters, ball, and other decorations.

Order liberally. Nothing else in the line of decorative material will give anywhere near the satisfaction for the money invested.

$3.15 pays for 150 yards (15 rolls), prepaid which will go far towards making a large church look delightful.

NOTE.—This festooning being made of light tissue paper, may be somewhat crushed in transportation, but can be quickly restored by passing the roll through the hands. Sections should be joined together by tying the ends with a bit of cord.

GREAT EFFORT FOR SCHOOLS.

In speaking to a Globe reporter, Rev. E. M. Lawrence, Superintendent of Missions for the Baptist of Tennessee, had the following to say concerning that denomination and its efforts to build and maintain schools for the education of the colored youth: "It will be gratifying to every Baptist in the State and many of them in our sister States to learn of the loyalty and constituency of this great denomination, so loyal are they that, many of them have sent in individual contributions to the mission work, and are encouraging the leaders to put on double energy, and thus bring about the much desired results. The entire brotherhood has learned that they are responsible for mission and educational work in the State of Tennessee, which must be done for the good of the denomination, and it depends greatly upon them and they are falling in line from Carter to Shelby, anxiously expecting great results to the satisfaction of their loyalty. We hear many of them asking, how much money are we to raise this Conventional year? The answer comes back to them we must raise ten thousand dollars for the mission and educational work this year. With the Alumni of Roger Williams University, in Nashville, Tenn., the Alumni of Nelson Merry College at Jefferson City and the Alumni of the Howe Institute in Memphis and with the many members of the above named organizations scattered over the United States, who have not forgotten their Alma Mater, and are full of energy and push, with the spirit of courage and magnanimity, the ten thousand dollars can, and must be raised. There is a splendid opportunity for the three schools. We beg for the cause a concentration of our forces in the State and when the great Convention shall meet in Nashville, Tenn., Wednesday before the fourth Sunday in July (for they are coming up from every quarter,) and the gavel is sounded by President Wm. Haynes, there will be a mighty number which no man can at this time numerate with heart, soul and spirit, not to bicker for office, nor to filibuster for points of order, but to do battle for him whose majesty is on high, and the angels bow at His behest.

Rev. J. M. Thompson, the missionary in the Eastern division of the State is working in harmony with the leaders in that division and says that he is expecting great things for the work this year. No Baptist from any part of the State should excuse his or herself from the great duty in which he is involved. The ten thousand dollars which will be raised at the State Convention will be for missions or church work proper, and our educational work throughout the State. The three schools will come in for their pro rata. This is to my way of thinking, a favorable opportunity for the three above named schools to push their claims for the work they are doing.

"Rev. Wm. Collier, the missionary for the Western division of the State, is visiting many churches, which should make it possible for great results in favor of success this conventional year. Let us harness our forces in our churches and Sunday schools and see to it that nothing gets between us and success; put the professional grumbler, the high-tone, sounding brass and tinkling cymbals behind us, and let us go on to success.

"We, the Board, must congratulate the many churches, Sunday schools and auxiliaries for their punctual responses to our appeals. We are looking for many others to fall in line.

"Last Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 8, 9 and 10 we held a successful institute at Antioch Baptist Church, Turnersville, Tenn. Collection, $14.95."

CHURCH DEDICATION.

Next Sunday the Rt. Rev. Dr. T. T. Gallor, Bishop of Tennessee, will dedicate to the use of the colored people of Nashville Holy Trinity Church, on the corner of Sixth and Ewing avenues. The services, which will begin at 8 p. m., will consist of evening prayer and confirmation, with a sermon by the Bishop. At the offertory a silver communion service, given by Mrs. Farrar Foster, will be presented, and consecrated by the Bishop.

Trinity Church is considered by many people the most beautiful church building in Nashville. It is built of stone in the English Gothic—Early English—style, and cost $32,000. It is said to be a reproduction, with some modifications, of a church built in England some thousand years ago.

This is the third large gift donated by the Episcopal Church for the uplift of the colored people in Nashville. Hoffman Hall, with St. Mary's Hall and the Warden's Cottage, which were built subsequently, cost $26,000. The church at the corner of Gay street and Eighth avenue, now occupied by the Presbyterians, was built through the exertions of Bishop Gray, then rector of the Church of the Advent. He raised the money from his friends giving personal notes for the balance still due when the church was opened. Now, next Sunday we enter into a third inheritance, which the anxiety of the Episcopal Church for our welfare has provided.

The Bishop of Tennessee will visit Holy Trinity Church Sunday, November 24, at 8 o'clock for the apostolic rite of confirmation.

SALEM SUNDAY SCHOOL.

In behalf of the Sunday school of Salem A. M. E. Church, we, the teachers, beg to urge the parents to send their children to Sunday school, and send them on time. Sunday school opens at 9:30 o'clock. Children should not be any later than 10 o'clock.

After this hour they do not derive the benefit they should. We are striving to build up our Sunday school and children likewise. Trusting you will take heed in the time of need, we are your humble servants: W. H. Shelby, Superintendent; J. R. Robinson, Assistant Superintendent; Miss Martha Stratton, Secretary; Mrs. Martha Turner, Organist.
