TOP OF HEAD BLOWN OFF.
Jealousy Prompts Assassination of Oliver Malone.

Dayton, Tenn.—Oliver Malone had the top of his head blown off with a shotgun in the hands of Chas. Tulloss, while on his way home from a dance here Monday night. Malone died instantly but was not found for some time as no one saw the shooting. The trouble arose over Malone's attentions to Tulloss' wife. An altercation was averted at the dance by the intervention of outsiders, when Tulloss left, threatening to get his gun and shoot the first man he saw wearing an overcoat. To some who inquired who fired the gun he remarked that he did. He then skipped out and has not been arrested.
