MR. W. O. THOMPSON, OF MICHIGAN.

An interesting visitor, one who has travelled extensively in the South, yet lived in the North, and who has lived to see the rapid advance and improvement along many racial lines, in the person of Mr. W. O. Thompson, of Lansing, Mich., passed through the city one day this past week. Mr. Thompson has been studying conditions in the South for about four years, from the fact that he is connected with many leading educational institutions in the United States. Prior to his coming South he knew nothing of the conditions. He had Durand has ruled that in cities and counties where two-fifths of the population are Negroes, a Negro enumerator may be appointed, we see no reason why some young man or woman from Clarksville should not go after the job. It will last about 30 days, will pay from $3 to $5 per day.

Mr. H. W. Randals left for Owensboro, Ky., last Friday evening. Examinations were held at the public schools last week.

See Geo. C. Dabney, Newsdealer, for the Globe and other reading matter.

MEHARRY NOTES.

The members and friends of the Y. M. C. A. enjoyed a rare treat on last Sunday. The address was delivered by Rev. J. E. McColluch. His subject, "What are the sacred things?" was forcefully brought out. On next Sunday at 3 p. m. the Rev. Dr. H. M. Dabney, editor of the Christian Era, will address the Y. M. C. A. The public is cordially invited.

The course of lectures in medical jurisprudence has been started; these lectures are delivered by the Hon. J. C. Napier, one of Nashville's well-known attorneys.

Mrs. L. C. Isabelle Blake, M. D., late of Battle Creek Sanitarium, Michigan, has started her lectures in hydrotherapy.

Dr. D. R. Neil, professor of practice of medicine, has been engaged to deliver an additional lecture to the senior and junior classes on Tuesday mornings.

Dr. C. V. Roman, professor of eye, ear, nose and throat, has completed the theoretical part of his branch, but the clinics will be continued to the end of the school year.

On next Saturday morning Dr. F. A. Stewart, professor of surgery, will conduct his first examination in that subject.

Dr. W. H. Slaughter, of Oklahoma City, Okla., has sent us a most encouraging report of his work for the past year.

The student body enjoyed the phenomenal skill of Prof. C. A. Hilliard, of Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia. His demonstrations were especially beneficial to those surgically inclined. Prof. Hilliard occupies a warm place with the students of Meharry.

SPRINGFIELD NOTES.

Mr. C. B. Butts, who is confined with rheumatism, is slowly improving.

Miss Pearl Bell, who was taken suddenly ill while visiting her mother at Franklin, Ky., during the Christmas holidays, has returned home, though she is not yet thoroughly well.

Mr. Irvin Talley left for Jacksonville, Fla., this week.

Mr. Harrison Shook spent a few days in Nashville last week.

Miss Hattie Bradley and Mr. Charles Drane were quietly married Sunday night at the home of the bride.

Miss Lena M. Bransford, for many years an instructor in the city school and the last one of the well-proven Bransford family remaining here, has decided to break up house-keeping and will live, in the future, with Miss Martha Bell, of Cheatham street.
