

This group shows some of the men who are engaged in the financial campaign in the city in the interest of the People's Savings Bank and Trust Company. Several mass-meetings are being held each week at the various churches, and the Negro citizens are being taught the wisdom of preparing for the rainy day. Meetings were held this week at Lane Tabernacle C.

M. E. Church, East Nashville, and at the Mt. Nebo Baptist Church, Mt. Nebo. Large crowds greeted the campaigners at every meeting, and showed deep interest in the proceedings.

The program for next week had not been completed at the time of going to press, but plans had been perfected for a meeting at the leading hall in West Nashville on Wednesday night.

Farewell to Mrs. Hammond.
 The Nonpareil Club met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. A. L. Pinkston, 1706 Jefferson street. A most delightful hour was spent. The ladies were busy with various designs in all kinds of fancy work, and interest in the work is intense. Mrs. G. L. Jackson and Mrs. C. E. Lewis, Misses Pinkard and Overstreet were the honored guests. Interesting talks, words of farewell and well wishes for the honoree, Mrs. Hammond, were expressed by the membership and visitors. Mrs. Hammond responded in her characteristic manner. She expressed her appreciation for the words of love and the wishes for her success. She promised to keep the memory of her club-mates and friends ever in her heart of hearts.
 Mrs. Pinkston, assisted by Miss Overstreet, served a delightful two-course menu.

Phyllis Wheatley Club.
 Mrs. A. H. McClendon, of Sixth avenue, South, was hostess to the Phyllis Wheatley Club, on Thursday afternoon, April 27. An unusual number of its members were present and a most delightful and profitable hour was spent in this beautiful home. A report on the distribution of some charities, especially a ton of coal donated by our worthy Mayor, Hillary E. Howse, was read and approved. The current notes as read by Miss Sophia Jackson proved the most interesting feature of the afternoon.
 The visitors were Rev. G. L. Jackson and Mrs. G. L. Lampkins. Both made interesting and encouraging remarks on and in behalf of such worthy work as being done by this Club.

Housekeeper's Club.
 The Housekeepers Club met with Mrs. Wm. Smith, Monday, May 2nd, aside from the regular routine work, the business pertaining to the State Federation was discussed and delegates to the same were elected. The guest of the club was Mrs. Louis Owens, of Chicago, Ill. The last meeting of the year will be held with Mrs. Evans Tyree. The meeting will be given as a farewell to Mrs. E. W. S. Hammond, who will leave our city in the early part of next month for Covington, Ky. Light refreshments were served.

Merry Makers' Club.
 The club held an interesting meeting at the residence of Miss Frances Boyd last Thursday. The meeting was opened by roll call, each member present responding with a quotation. After a short business session a tempting menu was served by the hostess. The club was honored with several visitors. The next meeting will be with Miss Folsom.

EVERY CHURCH NEEDS A GOOD COMMUNION SET.
 Any congregation can have their wants supplied, by securing one of these quadruple plated silver communion sets at a moderate price and on reasonable terms. A set consists of one flagon, two goblets and two bread plates. Extra goblets and plates, if desired, can be supplied at an additional cost. The commemoration of the Lord's supper, is a very sacred ordinance. Special vessels set apart for the occasion, have been the custom for centuries and thus a communion set becomes an important part of this service. Many churches have used the old style communion set, while others use an individual set. They are both appropriate, and well recommended. One is no reflection upon the other. For further information concerning prices and terms, write to the Church Supply Department of the National Baptist Publishing Board, R. H. Boyd, Secretary, 523 Second avenue, North, Nashville, Tenn.
