In Honor of Mesdames Waddy and Goodman.

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Woods, of 1901 Harding street, entertained at dinner Sunday, May 1, in the honor of Mrs. Georgia Goodman, of Milwaukee, Wis., and Miss Luella Waddy, of Fond Du-Lac, Wis. The dining-room was handsomely decorated and a six-course dinner was served. Among the other guests present were Mr. and Mrs. George Waddy, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Waddy, Mr. Ernest Waddy, Mr. James Smith and little Misses Minnette and Forstina Waddy.

Banks-Dixon.

A simple wedding but of unusual interest on account of the prominence of the contracting parties, was that of Dr. S. B. Banks, and Miss Johnnie V. Dixon. The wedding was solemnized at the residence of Prof. J. B. Batte, 805 Seventh avenue, South, on Tuesday evening, May 11th. Rev. W. Sampson Brooks officiated.

Miss Dixon was an employee of the A. M. E. Publishing House in the Proof-Reading Department. Dr. S. B. Banks is a member of the present graduating class of Meharry Medical College.

Mrs. V. S. Caldwell, of Pulaski, Tenn., the mother of the bride, was present to witness the ceremony, together with a few of the bride's most intimate friends.

Miss Gertrude Lampton Entertained by Miss Mayme Booze in Greenville, Miss.

Miss Gertrude Lampton, the accomplished and amiable daughter of Bishop E. W. Lampton, who will leave in the near future for Oberlin, Ohio, was charmingly entertained at the spacious residence of Mrs. Charles Banks, Friday evening by her friend, Miss Mayme L. Booze. A number of out of town guests were present. The guest of honor was very daintily gowned in a white lace princess trimmed with a touch of blue satin and light blue gloves. Other out of town guests who were elaborately attired to grace the occasion were Mrs. Marie Bell, Mrs. Eva Johnson, Misses M. L. Jones, Odessa Moyses and little Miss Daisy Miller of Greenville. Those from Clarksdale to enjoy the delightful affair were Misses Ida Moore and Jessie Frierson and Miss Sula Mizique, of Natchez, now teaching near Clarksdale. Episcopal Residence Occupied.

Some months past Bishop I. B. Scott purchased a handsome two-story brick residence on Fourteenth avenue, North. During the past week the family moved into their new home. This home is fitted up with all the modern conveniences and is large and commodious. This beautiful home should add pride and inspiration to every member of the race, as it shows what can be accomplished if we only aspire, and also shows the steady evolution in the homes of our people.

Entertainment for Miss Sadie Williams.

Miss Lavenia Green entertained in honor of Miss Sadie Williams, a recent graduate of Walden University, Saturday night, May 7, 1910, at her residence, 17th and Woodland streets. Those present were Misses Sadie and Elma Williams, of Murfreesboro; Misses Carrie, Mary and Parthena Page, Bessie Jennings, Mesdames Ella McLemore, Sarah Ewing, Julia Bramlett and Florence Jennings. After a few hours of pleasure were spent festooned with the club colors. Miss Tucker presided at the punch bowl and dispensed a delicious strawberry punch during the evening.

Whist was the chief feature of amusement, a series of seven games were played, at the end of which Misses Esther Pinkard, Lena Brown and Mr. Chas. Roman were contestants for the first prize, Miss Lillian Bright and Robt. Dobson for the consolation. Mr. Roman and Miss Bright proved to be the lucky contestants.

While Mrs. Glover is so soon to leave, we are glad to welcome as a new member Miss E. B. Moore. With such additions the growth and security of the club is assured.

Besides the membership quite a number of visitors shared the hospitalities of the club. A most delicious two-course menu was served.

Benefit Entertainment.

Mrs. J. B. Boyd, who is leader of one of the clubs of Mt. Olive Baptist Church, will give an entertainment at her home, 1502 Fourteenth avenue, North, next Tuesday night. A musical program will be rendered by well-known artists. There will also be various other amusements, such as the "Old Curiosity Shop," searching contest and marksman's contest. A small admission fee will be charged. All friends and members of the church are invited to attend.

Mrs. E. T. Page to Entertain.

Mrs. Eugene T. Page will give a luncheon one day next week to compliment Miss Willie Hobbs Page, when she will entertain a party of fourteen ladies drawn from the unmarried set.

Miss Page has just arrived from Florida, where she spent the winter, and will be in the city through the month of May visiting relatives, after which she will return to Chicago.

A Reunion Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Waddy gave a dinner Sunday at their home on Tennessee street in honor of their daughters, Mrs. Chas. S. Goodman, of Milwaukee, Wis., and Miss Louella Waddy, of Fondu Lac, Wis. A delightful three-course dinner was served, after which pictures were taken of the family. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Waddy, Mrs. Ethel Perkins, Mrs. S. M. Utley, Ernest Waddy and little Minnette and Fostein Waddy.

A. B. S. CLUB.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Bumbrey, of 1806 Jefferson street, was the scene of a beautifully planned social given by the A. B. S. Club, Friday night, May 6. The home was artistically decorated in the club colors, pink and green. Punch was served throughout the evening by little Misses Mary Sam Ewing and Luttrell Taylor. Mr. Edward Bailey, of Fisk University, presided at the piano. The young ladies were in full dress and wore pink carnations and maidenhair fern presented by the young men. Music and games were indulged in till a late hour, when the guests were invited to the dining-room, which was most beautifully decorated with pink and green. In the center of the table on large battenburg centerpiece over pink set a cut glass vase of pink roses and ferns. A four-course menu was served, the color-scheme being carried out in the ices, which were hearts. The Fleur-de-Lis Art Club with Mrs. A. M. Townsend as Hostess.

The Fleur-de-Lis Art Club met at the beautiful home of Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Townsend, Webster street, on Thursday afternoon, May 5. Mrs. Townsend has a genial manner which immediately makes her guests feel at home as soon as they enter her presence. The meeting was opened by Mrs. Hadley, president. Each member responded to the roll call with a quotation. A short programme was carried out by selected members of the club. The programme was practical. Several papers on intensive housekeeping having been read and discussed. Responses were then made by the visitors, among whom were Mesdames G. W. Hubbard, G. L. Jackson, Woodson, Hampton, Durant Houston and J. H. Hale, Misses Sadie Binford, of Birmingham, Ala.; J. E. Benson, E. J. Terry, M. E. Stockell, E. J. Pinkard and C. I. Brewster.

The guests repaired to the dining-room, where seated around a table spread with a beautiful Battenburg cover they were served a three-course a delicious two-course menu was served.

Personal Mention.

Miss Sadie Binford, of Birmingham, Ala., has been the guest of the Misses Hodgkins during the past week. Miss Binford was, during the past winter, Latin and Greek instructor in Sedalia, Mo. While in the city she was the recipient of many social favors. Thursday afternoon she was the guest of the Fleur-de-Lis Art Club, Friday evening, honoree of the Bachelor Maid, Saturday house guest of the Misses Phillips, Thirteenth avenue, North.

H. T. G. M. with Misses Atwood and Jackson.

The beautiful home of Capt. and Mrs. Richardson on Sixteenth avenue, North, was open to the H. T. G. M. Club on Saturday evening with Misses Blanche Atwood and Sophia Jackson as hostesses. The entertainment was in honor of Mrs. Mrs. Wm. Glover, our bride of the past year, who will leave our city in a few weeks to join her husband, who is now located in Henderson, Ky. The club presented Mrs. Glover with a handsome Marseilles quilt, which they trust will add to the beauty of her future home. The parlors were
