SPORTING NEWS.

By F. B. Wilson, Fisk University.
The football season has opened and the outlook appears satisfactory for our local teams. Fisk will be handicapped because she has lost some of her best players, and also her coach, but with Capt. King and Upshaw working out new material, we may expect Fisk to hold her own.
Meharry suffers by graduation, but with an excellent field to pick from will have her usual strong team.
Assistant Coach Archer, of Atlanta University, says: "Outlook not very encouraging, having lost some good players, and the uncertainty of the return of others, with the scarcity of new material forms our situation."
Fisk's schedule is as follows:
Oct. 15—Pearl High vs. second team (Fisk).
Oct. 21—Montgomery State Normal at Montgomery.
Oct. 24—Talladega at Birmingham.
Oct. 29—Open date.
Nov. 5—
Nov. 12—Atlanta Baptist College, Nashville.
Nov. 19—
Nov. 24—Meharry Medical College, Nashville.
Meharry's Schedule at Present.
Nov. 5—Tuskegee, Nashville.
Nov. 24—Fisk, Nashville.
Atlanta Baptist College's Schedule.
Oct. 15—Y. M. C. A.
Oct. 22—Athens.
Oct. 29—Open date.
Nov. 5—Montgomery State.
Nov. 12—Fisk.
Nov. 19—Tuskegee.
Nov. 24—Atlanta University.

The old game of last year has been changed slightly with a tendency to avoid accidents and otherwise popularize the sport. The game this year will present many possibilities, and will take us back to 1905. The game will produce many individual star players, because the man who is agile and an artful dodger will prove a menace to many aspiring teams.
The plays of the season will be forward passes, on-side kicks and fake tandems.
The limit placed upon the forward pass will have little effect to injure it, because it is seldom a successful forward pass is more than 20 yards, while the limit placed on an on-side kick will induce the backs to practice faithfully, because of the importance of plays. Prohibiting the interfering with a player about to receive a forward pass will greatly lessen the danger and enable the passes to be securely made. The penalty for crawling, pushing or pulling will eliminate some of the roughness and make the game faster. The substitution rule will be beneficial because valuable men may be sent in, withdrawn and then returned to the field of action. The rule dividing the game into four periods of 15 minutes each, with a three-minute intermission between periods first and second, and another between periods third and fourth, with the regular allowance between 2 and 3, first and second half, will benefit players both physically and intellectually, because they may change their plans of defense or offense, having time to consult together, and also secure rest, which is essential.

Barring "Interlocked Interference" will lessen the danger, require careful officials to note proper infringements and will make the player with the ball more rapid but cautious. The tackling rule will bring about unusual discussion because of the tendency to jump when tackling a player, though said tackle need not be what we call the Flying Tackle.

The greatest responsibility will rest upon the officials of the game and their knowledge and interpretation of the rules. Officials and captains should study carefully the rules and their changes this year, in justice to the teams and the spectators. With such adepts at the game as Archer, Bullock, Giles, Ransom, Washington and Cameron making a careful study of the new rules, there will be a corps of competent officials who can officiate without partiality.

Practice has begun at Fisk and daily one may see Capt. King and Upshaw instructing new players in the rudiments of the game. A fair number of new candidates have appeared in togs. A few old players are expected this week.

TWO BILLS.

"The people living in Black Bottom would find more desirable homes and make better and more useful citizens than is possible under Black Bottom environments.

"Crime would be reduced and morality promoted.

"Last, but not least, the city has no moral right to force thousands of her good people to endure the revolting sights and smells consequent to a round trip through Black Bottom each day in the year.

"Now for a few reasons why Nashville should possess a central park at the earliest date possible:

"The poor people, and especially little children living in the central portion of the city, and who are unable to pay car fare, should have a place in which to rest their tired bodies and enjoy some of the beauties of nature.

"The stranger in our midst and the homeless man should have an accessible place to rest, free from the motion ordinance which must be enforced upon the streets.

"This proposed park can be established now for less money than at any time in the future.

CITY'S FINANCES.

"The finances of our city were never in better condition, and our credit is better than it has been in many years.

"A city is conceded to be on the safe side of the ledger when its bonded indebtedness does not exceed 10 per cent of its assessed value.

"Nashville could issue three million dollars' worth of bonds and still not exceed 10 per cent. of her assessed value.

"Since it is admitted by practically everyone that Nashville can and should eliminate Black Bottom, and since we have an opportunity now, which may never present itself again, to establish a central park, I embrace this opportunity and call upon the voters of Nashville to ratify the proposed $300,000 Black Bottom bond issue at the polls on November 8.
"H. E. HOWSE, Mayor."

A JOLLY AFTERNOON.

Williams, of Columbia, Tenn.; Frances Butler, of Pulaski, Tenn.; Gertrude Mays and Alberta S. Rivers. Several songs were rendered by Miss Alberta S. Rivers.

CAPT. "GENE" ALLEN COMING TO NASHVILLE.

In the games of football to be played in Nashville this year none will attract more attention than the one proposed to be played between Howard University, of Washington, D. C., and Meharry. Both of these teams put up a great game, and the fact that "Gene" Allen, Roger Williams' old famous back, is captain of Howard this year, will cause the team to have many admirers in this city should the game be played on a local campus. "Terrible Terry" is also a member of the Howard squad but it is not known whether or not he will play against his old school team.

The Geo. W. Hubbard Hospital Club met Tuesday evening with a splendid attendance. There was a spirit of enthusiasm with each one present to do all in her power. Many new names were presented for membership. The club is growing in num-

An event of much interest to many friends was the approaching marriage of Miss Alice Barbee to Mr. Ned Thatch, of this city. Miss Barbee is a most charming young lady.
