Patton. A Grand Musical entertainment was given at the M. E. Church by Mrs. R. B. Ross and her pupils. Mr. J. H. Slaten of Columbia, Tenn., spent Monday and Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Wilkins, Sr. The literary concert at the Missionary Baptist Church, was quite a grand affair.

The Franklin baseball team played three days with the Columbia team this week. While playing the little two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Lawrence found a large snake and brought it into the house, the snake was killed. Mr. Jno. Lawrence is some better after a long spell of sickness.

SHELBYVILLE NOTES.

Mrs. J. A. Jones left Monday for Chicago, where she went to attend the wedding of her daughter, Miss Dora, to Herman Clayborne. The revival at the M. E. Church has closed, having been quite successful in the meeting. A grand rally has been set for the second Sunday at the A. M. E. Church, the object being to buy new pews for the church. Everything points to a successful effort. Dr. J. Q. Johnson, the pastor, seems determined to bring the church to the front rank. The rally at the M. E. Church last Sunday was quite a success. Rev. Rogers is bringing that congregation up to the place where it was some years ago. The public school will close next week with a series of interesting exercises, lasting several nights. The exercises will take place at the A. M. E. Church. Miss Madge C. Boddy spent last Sunday at Wartrace, visiting the Ervin family. An interesting game of baseball was played last Saturday between the Dickson Academy and Franklin County High School, white, on the campus of Turner College. Turner has the best grounds for athletic games in the county. The competitive drill between the male and female Zouave Guards, of Turner Normal College is to be repeated next Friday night, by special request of the citizens. They won the contest the last time they drilled before the public. Everything is astir out at Turner College, preparing for the closing exercises. The oratorical and elocutionary contest will be one of the most interesting features of the occasion. The class in needle work at Turner Normal, under the direction of Miss Mabel McKay, is preparing some most excellent samples for the exhibition during commencement. The manual training department is preparing to be one of the most important elements of the college work. Several students have left school recently for home, to engage in work for the Spring. Rev. F. W. Gardner is spending a few days at home with his family. He reports his district as moving on grandly. Miss Eva Harris entertained a few of her friends on last Thursday evening and a five-course menu was served. Those to enjoy her hospitality were Miss Lucy Cheatham, Mr. Allie Mitchell, Miss Fannie Filliman, Mr. Joe Cheatham, of St. Louis, Miss Charley Lee Peacock, Mr. Bay Sims, Miss Christine Burt, Mr. Rob Frazier, Miss Lillian Harris, Mr. Eddie Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Snelline, Mr. Ebert.

PULASKI NOTES.

Dr. W. M. A. Lewis, Dr. Gant, L. G. Stevens, Esq., Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Dangerfield, S. S. Jordan, L. D. Young, D. L. White, E. T. Johnson, Wm. Burch, Jr., James Smith, C. Bramlette went to Aspen Hill Sunday to attend the Pythian sermon. Messrs. John Abernathy and Walter McNairy spent a few hours in Nashville and Columbia last week. Rev. D. Howard and Mrs. M. A. Turner have returned from a visit to Nashville last week. Mrs. Ella Oliver has returned from Cincinnati, Ohio, where she was called to the bedside of her sick sister, who is now much better. Miss Ella Griggs was very much shocked to have learned of the death of her brother, who was away. Misses Myrtle Smith and Lizzie Vance visited the country Sunday. The revival meeting at old Zion is yet in progress and the meeting has been a decided success. The physical makeup of the popular pastor of old Zion is well suited to hold these series of meetings. Several persons have professed a hope in Christ and have been added to the church as candidates for baptism. Mr. James Hawkins and Miss B. M. Kizer were united in marriage last Sunday. Mrs. Clame Young visited Prospect Sunday. Mrs. Esther Bryant has removed her restaurant to her old stand, the T. P. Turner building on First Main street, North, No. 314. Rev. J. M. Gentry has moved his shoe shop two doors north which is the office in the main building of the Turner property on First Main street. Beulah Baptist Sunday-School is progressing nicely. 78 pupils were in attendance last Sunday, and the receipts were $1.62. The success of the Beulah Baptist Church is far beyond the expectation of some of its most zealous workers. The following are recent candidates for baptism that joined Beulah Baptist Church last Sunday: Mr. Joe Daly and Mrs. Charity Whitfield, making nineteen in all now ready for baptism. The barn of Mr. C. E. Brown was burned down last week, including all the contents. Mrs.

Emma Mason was in town last week visiting her mother, her school being one of the last of the district schools to close. Mr. E. T. Johnson made a flying trip to Lynnville this week and reports progress. Rev. S. L. McGee, of the C. M. E. Church here, has already begun to make preparations to entertain the annual conference of his church, which is to convene here in Black's Chapel. Rev. G. R. Norman, of the A. M. E. Church, his members and friends are hustling to make a financial success of his rally scheduled to come off on the second Sunday in May. Rev. David Howard, of the Beulah Baptist Church, will preach for Rev. Norman at his church at 3 p. m. on the second Sunday. The G. U. O. F. will also have their annual thanksgiving celebration that day, as the law directs. Rev. H. L. P. Jones, the popular presiding elder of the Columbia district of the A. M. E. Church, was in town last week mingling with home folks. The Pulaski Colored High School has considerably beautified their school campus by the work of the pupils, under the management of the principal and teachers, the entire building had a spring cleaning. On last Thursday Prof. W. E. Moore, Superintendent of the Pulaski City Schools, came over to the colored high school, which is also under his supervision, and brought thirteen of the students of the High School in Giles College, which is a public school for whites. The party consisted of eight young women and five young men. They spent the entire morning visiting the different recitation rooms and inspecting both the building and grounds. They expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the management, recitations and everything pertaining to the school. Prof. Hill and the senior class, Misses Josephine Bramlette, Dora Gardner, Georgia Malone and Maria A. Turner, ushered the distinguished visitors over the grounds before they left, and they were delighted to see such care that has been taken to improve and beautify the grounds of the school.

BROWNSVILLE NOTES.

The rally at Prospect C. M. E. Church was very successful, but owing to the inclement weather all the moneys were not reported, but will be next Sunday, May 7. The collection thus far is $136. Mrs. Julia Dixon was called to Memphis Sunday, April 30th, because of the death of her daughter. Rev. Bryant, of Nashville, lectured Tuesday night at Farmer's Chapel C. M. E. Church. The rally at Farmer's Chapel C. M. E. Church was not brought to a close Sunday because of the inclement weather, and will be continued until Sunday, May 7. The friends of Dr. O. W. Irving highly congratulate him for the honors lately conferred upon him. Success to him. Dr. W. T. Winfield has returned home from Nashville, where he has been attending the Meharry Medical College. The ensuing year will be his senior year. May success and health be his that he may reach the goal for which he is striving. We are glad to note that Mrs. Josephine Lee Grigly is up again.

COLUMBIA NOTES.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brown, on Wilkes street, were quietly married on Saturday evening Mr. Robert Bailey and Miss Emma J. Brown. Mr. Sampson Brown served as best man. Miss Samella Green was maid of honor. After congratulations refreshments were served. Mrs. Jane Crawley has returned from Nashville. Mr. Luther Roberson, of Chicago, and Mrs. Wesley Cordaway came here to attend the funeral of their father. At St. Paul Church Sunday, April 30th, Rev. Brooks, the pastor, preached a special sermon to women only. Mrs. Pauline Gentry, of Nashville, is visiting relatives here. She is accompanied by her niece, Miss Virginia Webb. Mr. Frank McLemore, of Spring Hill, was here last Monday. The Columbia Fisk Club met with Mrs. Lullia Lockridge Friday, April 28th. Columbia can boast of some fine fishermen, but the most expert is Mr. Will Evans. Last Saturday in Duck River, near the bridge here he caught a large cat fish weighing 58 pounds. Miss Elma Brown and Mr. Bennie Logue married last Sunday night. Rev. Macklin officiated. A drama was rendered at Bethel Church on May 1st, which was quite a success. Misses Novella Brown, Hattie Sargent and Beatrice Gordon were the managers. Mr. Cam Brown, of Nashville, is here sick at the home of his father on Hill street.

The remains of Miss Sadie Mai Patton were brought here Friday evening, April 28, and carried to the residence of her cousin, Mrs. Rankin Doyle. The funeral was from Mt. Lebanon Baptist Church Saturday, conducted by Rev. Brooks, of St. Paul, and Rev. Gilmore. Mrs. Andrew Jackson, Mrs. George Martin, Mrs. Fred Triggs, Miss Alice Patton and Mr. Patton all accompanied the remains from Nashville. Mrs. Rankin Doyle was called to the bedside of Miss Sadie Patton last Wednesday and remained until the end came. Mrs. John Rainey and daughters, Misses Mary Sue and Lona Rainey, have returned from Nashville, where they went to see Miss Sadie Patton. Mrs. Doyle wishes to thank her many friends of Columbia for their kindness and the many beautiful floral designs in memory of Miss Sadie Mai Patton.

OGLESBY NOTES.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Rucker delightfully entertained a large number of friends and relatives Sunday, April 30th, at 2 o'clock. An elaborate and tempting menu was served in the dining-room, where the height of decorative art was reached. The guests included Mrs. J. A. Hill, Lake Providence, Mrs. Cheek and nephew, Nashville, Mr. A. S. Rucker, of Nashville, Miss Bessie J. Harlem, Columbia, Tenn., Rev. H. W. Rucker, Murfreesboro, Miss Nannie L. Scruggs, Franklin, Tenn., Mrs. Emma Rucker, Miss Jessie Rucker, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rucker, Miss Bessie J. Harlem, of Columbia, Tenn., spent several days here with her sister, Mrs. Jas. Rucker. Mr. Harry Tulus and sister, Miss Margaret was the guest of Miss Nellie Folerson Sunday. Mr. B. F. Rucker has been very sick but is better at this writing. Mrs. Lia Phillip is able to be out again after several days' illness.

CLIFTON NOTES.

Last Sunday a party of eleven went to Decaturville in Mr. Wm. Robinson's steam yacht to attend the Commencement exercises of the school at that place. Sunday, Rev. D. W. Buford preached at 11 o'clock in the Bend; at night, Rev. A. Phillip preached at his church two good sermons and organized the League at 3:00 p. m. He also preached at night. Rev. A. Phillip is a great man. Miss Livena Novella and G. Yarbro John Churchwell, Frank Poynter called on Miss B. L. Spears and a deal of time was taken up at the organ. Mrs. Bettie Spears has been indisposed for a week but is better. The health doctor released all of Mr. Gib Roberson's family from the smallpox inclosure last week.

MURFREESBORO NOTES.

Mr. F. S. Knight, of Roger Williams, was the guest of Miss Willie Mai Ready Sunday. Misses Lizzie Mai Watkins and Willie Mai Ready spent Monday in Rucker visiting the latter's aunt, Mrs. Bell Cunningham. Mrs. Mamie Youngblood entertained last Friday night in honor of Miss Allie B. Dean. Those who enjoyed her hospitality were Misses Seppie Miller, Carrie B. Williams, Mabel and Willie Mai Ready, Fannie Alexander, Etta M. Lowe, Allie B. Dean, Messrs. Luther Miller, George Brown, Jesse Crockett, Minus Euleis, Andrew Rhodes and Dock Yeggins.

LYNCHBURG NOTES.

Rev. M. B. Newsom of Manchester delivered three interesting sermons at the Popular Street Christian Church Sunday and Sunday night. Mr. T. T. Ransoms and Rev. Hillsman of Shelbyville came to Lynchburg Monday. Mrs. Bettie Dennis and Mr. Harvey Whittaker spent Sunday here. Miss Jimmie Taylor and Langston Womack made a flying trip to Fayetteville Saturday. Mrs. Mary Ann Whittaker and Mr. Leslie Smith of near Lots attended church here Sunday.

BRENTWOOD NOTES.
