MISSISSIPPI STATE TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION MEETS IN UTICA.

Utica, Miss., June 23.—The fifth annual session of the State Association of Colored Teachers was held at the Utica Normal and Industrial Institute, June 20, 21, 22. The meeting was attended by a large number of teachers. The convention was marked by several important and strong papers bearing upon various phases of the profession, punctured by several vigorous discussions, the chief of which were an interesting talk on the Jeannes Fund by Prof. J. H. Webber, of Darbut; a discussion of "How to Make Negro Education Popular in the South," by W. A. Battle, of Okolona Normal and Industrial Institute; Self-Help in the Secondary Schools, Prof. J. C. Moseley, Christ's College, Jackson, and the Responsibility of Women as Teachers," by Misses Armelda Greene and L. P. Winfrey, of Jackson.

The "back to the farm" slogan was changed to "stay on the farm," Prof. W. H. Holtzclaw, principal of the Utica Institute, declaring that the farm was too important in the economy of the race and the nation to be made a refuge for failures in other walks of life. Farming subjects were given the lion's share of attention and industrial education stressed by nearly every speaker, while President Martin in his annual address made several important recommendations with reference to agricultural and other industrial work in the public schools.

Prof. Z. T. Hubert, the new president of Jackson College, by whose coming means the placing of an all Negro faculty into this well-equipped institution, was introduced to the association. He declared it his intention to enter heartily into co-operation with other schools in the state, and that henceforth Jackson College would enter the field of extension work in the effort to reach the colored people.

Dr. J. B. Lehman, president of the Southern Christian Institute, Edwards, Miss., spoke to the teachers at a special hour Wednesday, and Bishop Theodore D. Bratton, of the Episcopal Diocese of Mississippi, was the guest of the institution and the Association Thursday. Bishop Bratton is a wholehearted Christian gentleman, a worthy successor to the late Bishop Charles B. Galloway, and in every respect a friend to the black man. His subject was "The Ministry of Education," yet throughout his discourse, he breathed the spirit of friendliness and sympathy with the work of the colored teacher.

Prof. A. Martin was re-elected President, and William H. Holtzclaw made corresponding secretary in the place of President L. J. Rowan, of Alcorn College, who becomes first vice president. There were no important changes in the officery of the convention, the list standing as formerly. The next session will be held in Okolona.

PREPARATIONS ALL READY FOR THE MEETING OF THE NATIONAL NEGRO BUSINESS LEAGUE.

Special to the Globe.

Little Rock, Ark., June 26.—The twelfth annual meeting of the National Negro Business League will be held here Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, August 16, 17 and 18, 1911. The program for the meeting is now being formulated and will soon be published.

The progress being made by the Negro people of Oklahoma has induced the officers of the League to set aside the morning session, Thursday, August 17th, as Oklahoma Day. Opportunity will be afforded the live Negro business men of this new state to put before the country not only the opportunities that are open to enterprising people, but a statement as to how these opportunities are already being taken advantage of along all lines of business and in professional and educational directions as well. The Negro town of Boley, for instance, has just installed a $35,000 light and power plant, and there are many other evidences of superior progress being made by the Negroes of that state.

Hon. Scipio A. Jones, President of the State Negro Business League of Arkansas, announces that the State League and the Local Negro Business League of Little Rock, now have their plans fully matured for the coming meeting. The Chamber of Commerce and the Board of Trade, through their representative secretaries, are in active co-operation with Messrs. Jones, Bush, Booker and others. The Entertainment Committee of the Chamber of Commerce has appropriated $500.00 for the entertainment of the League, and in addition will provide for the place of meeting. The Local Negro Business League of Little Rock will also make large appropriations to cover all features of entertainment for those who are present at the coming meeting.

Delegates from the Eastern and Western states can reach Little Rock without annoyance of any character, if they will organize special Pullman or Tourist Car Parties in accordance with the plans already announced by the National Organization and published in the various newspapers of the country. Hon. John E. Bush, a member of the Executive Committee of the National Organization is especially anxious that large numbers of delegates from the Northern, Eastern
