

Out of Town Notes.

CEDAR HILL NOTES.

Mr. Alfred Tibbs returned home after a short stay in Terre Haute, Ind., and Mr. Annius Wilson called on Miss Virginia Dickerson Saturday night. Mrs. Joy Fry has a very sick baby. Mrs. Sallie Tibbs has been sick but is better. Miss Lula B. Washington spent the day in Springfield Saturday. There was a grand picnic to be given at the A. M. E. Church Saturday and Sunday night, but we did not have any success. The Missionary Society is preparing for their annual convention to be held at the St. James Baptist Church, July 6 to the 9th. Mrs. Addie Washington is still on the lingering list. The tobacco growers of Robertson county are not going to get out more than a half crop of tobacco on account of the dry weather. Mrs. Daisy Washington, of Springfield, is visiting her cousin, Miss Bessie Williams, of Cedar Hill.

PULASKI NOTES.

The State Normal Institute has closed and most of the visitors have left town. Mrs. Landon and Miss Harris were among the last to leave. Quite a number of whist parties were had at the close of the institute. There was a reception in honor of the visiting teachers of some kind each night last week, and several in the afternoons. Professor L. Murray, of Lane College, Jackson, spent a few days in our city. Prof. L. Meredith has returned home for the summer and is not as well as usual. The final entertainment and ball was given at the McKissack hall, when about seventy-five or eighty persons were served. This reception was given by Dr. and Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Leslie G. Stevens, Mrs. Lula Mason and others, and everything was fun.

Mr. and Mrs. Dangerfield entertained Monday afternoon with a whist party in honor of the visitors from Chattanooga and Nashville. Progressive whist was played and a beautiful hand-painted puff box was presented to Mrs. Stevens, who secured the greatest score. The consolation was given Mrs. Mason. Delightful refreshments were served at seven o'clock. Those present were Professors Hale, Tabb, Batte, Mesdames Allen, Billingsley, Rhue, Henderson, Landon, Washington, Davis, Misses Watson, Ernest, Shoffner, Barnett, Butcher, Prof. and Mrs. T. P. Turner, Prof. and Mrs. Morrill, Dr. and Mrs. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Stevens, Mr. White, Mrs. Mason, Mrs. Suges, Mr. and Mrs. Martin, Mrs. McLemore, Misses Upshaw, Bramlett, Turner, Shannon and Harris. E. Mayberry, who was attending the State Normal Institute: Prof. J. W. Hale, Chattanooga; Prof. Tabb, of Chattanooga; Prof. Batte, of Nashville; Mrs. M. Davis, of Tuskegee, Ala.; Mrs. Mattie Harris, of Memphis; Mrs. M. Phillips, of Pulaski; Miss E. Watson, of Nashville; Mrs. M. M. Lane, of Nashville; Mrs. L. Martin, of Deatur; Miss E. Butcher, of Nashville; Mr. Thos. Allison, of Nashville; Mrs. Laidis. The dining-room was artistically decorated. The menu consisted of five courses, ices cream and coffee. Mrs. A. White serving as hostess. The teachers spent an enjoyable evening.

FRANKLIN NOTES.

The Carnation Art Club met with Mrs. D. Short last week. The club was opened by song and prayer, after which Mrs. D. Short gave an interesting lecture. Each member engaged in needle work for one hour. A three-course menu was served. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Alston Griffin.

CLARKSVILLE NOTES.

Rev. G. W. Porter, presiding elder of the A. M. E. Church of this district, is out again after spending several days at the infirmary, and will preside at the District Conference at Erin, after which he will go to Dawson Springs for ten days of recuperation. Mrs. Porter, who came from Memphis to be at the bedside of her husband during his illness, returned home last week. Services at St. Peters A. M. E. Church Sunday morning were out of the ordinary. The audience was large and the sermon by Dr. D. A. Graham was both logical and inspiring. More than 100 communed at the altar. The District Conference of the A. M. E. Church of the Clarksville district is in session this week at Erin. All the ministers and delegates from this place left Wednesday morning. Mr. Sam Ferguson and his little son spent Sunday with Mrs. Weaver. The series of concerts held at Wesley Chapel C. M. E. Church was a grand success. Large crowds were present at each one of the three entertainments. Visitors to the infirmary this week were Mr. E. V. Harrison, Attorney Austin Peay, Rev. J. S. Kelly, of Guthrie, Ky.; Mrs. Porter, of Memphis; Mrs. Emma Shelton, Rev. Dr. D. A. Graham, pastor of St. Peters A. M. E. Church; Prof. H. R. Merry, Mr. Norman Foster, of Edgerton; Mr. S. A. Dabney and Mr. C. I. Metcalf. Miss May Howard Smith, who suffered of ankylosis of the wrist, the result of rheumatism, was sent to the infirmary Tuesday, where she underwent an operation for the same. She is now doing splendidly. Rev. G. W. Harris, pastor of Fifth Ward Baptist Church, has been a little indisposed for the past few days. Misses Blondella Dunlop, Ophelia Gray, Eliza Miles and Mr. Mitchel Johnson, after having spent a very pleasant year at Fisk University, have returned home to spend their vacation. Mrs. Genie Terry, of Armstead, Ky., is at the infirmary for operation this week. Mr. Sam Peay, of Oakgrove, Ky., and Mrs. Peter Riley are still at the infirmary. Odd Fellows, Mt. Vernon No. 1644, laid the corner-stone of Andrews Chapel, Sunday, June 25th. Brother E. F. Tompkins officiated as master of ceremonies. J. A. Armstrong, chaplain; A. W. Firse, marshal; H. R. Merry, orator of the day. After the ceremony, barbecue and other refreshments were served by the ladies of the church. Prof. H. R. Merry left Thursday night for Ashland City to address the Teacher's Institute of that city.

COLUMBIA NOTES.

Miss Ida Love, of Penasco, Fla., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ike Love, on South Glade street. Miss Mary Bradshaw and Mrs. A. Pearl Crews are visiting Mrs. Lizzie McConico, at Gravel Hill. Mrs. Winnie Hart, of Nashville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Miller, who is in very feeble health. Miss Mamie Sanderson spent the week-end with Mr. John Williams and family at Theta. Mrs. Alice Morgan died June 1st at the home of her brother, Mr. Wm. Stone, East Eighth street. Work has been resumed on the Presbyterian Church, and before long that congregation will be in a beautiful brick house of worship. Rev. Drain, of Chattanooga, filled the pulpit at the First Baptist Church last Sunday. Mr. Andrew Cleggett has moved his family home from Theta. They are now occupying their beautiful new home recently finished on the corner of Eighth and East End streets. Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Stockard, Jr., are visiting friends here. They got home to St. Louis to visit Mr. Stockard's grandmother, Mrs. Emily Cain. Rev. Ivory, pastor of Mt. Lebanon Church, went to Gravel Hill last Sunday and preached for Rev. Hayden. The occasion was a rally and basket dinner. Rev. and Mrs. Marion Riley have returned from Nashville. The Lebanon Sunday-school had their picnic at Gravel Hill last Thursday. It was a grand day spent in the woods. The church and Sunday-school turned out in full with a large number of friends as invited guests. Dr. Shoffner attended services at Gravel Hill last Sunday. Miss Estiza Watson, of Nashville, is visiting Miss Ida Halfacre. Rev. J. C. MacLin, pastor of Salem Presbyterian Church, preached a very thoughtful sermon from Acts 8:20, at 11:30 a. m. He went to Cannon M. E. Church and preached an excellent sermon from Eph. 2:19, "Now therefore, ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but citizens with the saints, and of the household of God."

WARREN NOTES.

Mr. Henry Montague and sisters and Mrs. Sylvester Keath went to Belle Grove Sunday to attend the Children Day exercises. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Montague visited the home of Mr. Dennis Hall. Mr. Hall's wife has been quite ill for some time. Mrs. A. Howell went to Somerville Sunday to church. Miss Cora B. Flippin and Miss Ether Belle Howell returned from Somerville last Saturday, where they had been attending the county examination since Thursday, the 29th inst. The Spring Hill members are making great preparation to entertain the District Conference which will convene the first of August.

SOUTH PITTSBURG NOTES.

Dr. W. J. Astrapp, Miss Janie Lightfoot and Mrs. Ruby Brooks Armstrong have returned from Chattanooga, where they attended the State Medical Association, and also the banquet on Wednesday night, the 21st. Mr. G. W. Franklin, undertaker and embalmer, of Chattanooga, was here on the 22nd. The threatening storm prevented him from his public lecture, although a creditable number were in the church early. Mr. Franklin puts into operation a commission room, whose agent is Mr. Luther J. Cummings, street contractor and deputy sheriff of this place, and his assistant is a prominent lady, Mrs. Carroll Hawkins, of this place. Mr. Franklin asks the patronage of the people in their affliction, and assures them of getting immediate attention in the most up-to-date way. Mr. Walter Gaines is up and out again, after several weeks' illness. Mr. Hell Wiggins remains in a very precarious condition. Mrs. Maggie Lane fell and broke her arm some days ago. She is doing well at this writing. Mr. Ed Buchanan, groceryman, is able to be on duty again at the store. Revs. A. McCarty and Ross Woodard report a great success of C. P. Church work at Victoria recently. Mrs. O. Patton and Mrs. Ola James were in Chattanooga recently. Revs. Monroe and Gibbs passed through Jasper, where on Sunday the rally resulted in more than enough money to pay for the A. M. E. Zion church lot. The third quarterly conference of the M. E. Church was held here Sunday. The annual sermon of the Daughters of Africa was preached by Rev. Mr. Caswell; despite the rainfall, there was a large attendance; $22 and some cents were taken up. The assignment of the district school teachers is as follows: H. B. Douglas, South Pittsburg, 14th District; Mrs. Ella E. McElroy, 11th District; Fred C. Shockley, 7th District; Jasper; S. C. Kearley, Victoria; John Griffith, Whitwell; Mrs. S. E. Oliver, Gaines Chapel. Miss Margery Gaines was married to Mr. Wm. Tremew, of Bass, Ala., near Stephenson, last Sunday at high noon, at the First Baptist Church, Rev. Thomas officiating. News reaches here that Mr. John Baines, of this, married a Warren County girl a few days ago. Little Dudley Northern is on the sick list this week. The Children's Day program at the A. M. E. Zion Church was a splendid affair. Miss Winnie Smith and Miss Beatrice Hise were the promoters, while Rev. W. B. Gibbs was master of ceremonies. The instrumental duet by Misses Hise and Smith was dextrously performed. The select reading by Mrs. J. M. Hawkins was a display of elocution. The District Conference of the A. M. E. Zion Church convenes here on Wednesday, the 12th. Possibly between fifty and seventy-five delegates will be entertained five days by this people. Bishop Andrew J. Warner, Presiding Elder of A. S. Monroe and Pastor W. B. Gibbs will hold the reins of the meeting generally. Other pastors and delegates will instruct how to drive. Mrs. J. D. Martin is visiting in Tullahoma this week. Rev. M. S. Hight is conducting a series of meetings at the Eleventh District schoolhouse this week with success.

ALLENSVILLE (KY.) NOTES.
