THE GREAT SURE-"NUFF" UNION CARNIVAL GOING ON TWO WEEKS.
 Under the auspices of Bethel A. M. E., 2nd and Kayne Avenue Baptist Churches, on Kayne avenue is indeed a record breaker. You ought to see their gorgeous midway. The famous actor walking the live wire every night.
 You don't have to walk anywhere after getting off the Kayne avenue car. You get off in ten feet of the grounds. The Popularity Contestants are making things hum. The managers have decided to go on two weeks and close out on the 16th instead of the 9th, inst.
 You are sure to get double your money's worth "and that is no joke." It is a peaceable affair so far. No arrests up to date. Seems like everybody wants to go.

WORKERS CONFERENCE MEETS.
 Workers' Conference will meet Monday, September 11th, at 10 a. m. The ladies are cordially invited to be present and we hope each will make an effort to be here at the appointed hour, as a special Bible course is to be explained. A large number of the Christian workers are urged to be present, as we believe it will be a great help to each. We meet at the usual place, headquarters of Fireside Schools, 513 Mulberry street. Miss Bushnell returned from her vacation Thursday, August 30th, seemingly very much refreshed for the many duties before her. Mrs. M. H. Flowers returned Monday after several days' absence, visiting associations in Orinda, Chattanooga and Winchester, Tenn. Prof. A. M. Jackson called in Wednesday evening to say good bye. He left on the 2 a. m. train for Atlanta, Ga., where he will spend a few days at home with his sister. He reported a very pleasant summer visiting the conventions and associations in this State in interest of Roger Williams University. In attendance of the Elk River Association, Winchester, Tenn., he was invited to Shelbyville, Tenn., to speak. He had quite a large and enthusiastic crowd to hear him speak on education. Mrs. H. P. Alston left Monday, September 4th, for her home in Lynchburg, Va. Miss Grace M. Eaton is busy getting her home ready in Grand View Heights, where she will locate permanently with her brother, W. C. Eaton and maid. Christian Workers F. M. Society held their usual meeting the fourth Monday in August, quite a few attending, but they were glad to raise the amount of ten ($10.75) dollars and seventy-five cents, which enabled them to pay their workers for the past quarter. Mrs. Williams, of Winchester, and Mrs. Hale, of Mt. Nebo, of this city, called in to see us Saturday. Miss F. E. Burnette returned after about six weeks' vacation. Miss Burnette is much better physically than while away.

Y. M. L. C. NOTES.
 A very interesting meeting was had at the home of H. Jordan Stockard. The manager-elect of the club and glee club, also of the quartette is making some preparations toward organizing and beginning actual work. The program, although very short, was interesting. "Does the young Negro boy show signs of progress?" was narrated by Jordan Stockard. Solo by A. R. Stockard. Remarks by Mr. I. B. Scott. The club will meet on next Tuesday at the home of Mr. I. B. Scott, 125 Fourteenth avenue, North, at 8 p. m.

GALILEAN ADULT BIBLE CLASS.
 The Galilean Adult Bible Class of the First Baptist Church, Eighth avenue, North, effected its organization Sunday, September 3rd, with the following officers: Dr. J. B. Singleton, President; Miss Nannie E. Perkins, Vice President; Mr. W. T. Hightower, Treasurer; Miss Julia A. Work, Secretary. Messrs. L. Fort, J. W. Scruggs, Mrs. W. H. McGavock, Social Committee. Mrs. Nellie Seay, Chairman, Missionary Committee. Miss Louretha Ursa Chambers, Teacher.
 The exact plans of the class have not as yet been laid, but all have an eye single to its upbuilding, and hope to have it the Banner Class of the Sunday-school.
MEN ONLY.
 Mr. Robert E. Clay will speak at a Mass-meeting for men only at St. Paul A. M. E. Church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mr. Clay is easily the greatest orator in the South. His style is pleasing, his diction perfect. It is hoped that a large audience will greet him. He deserves all the good things that have been written of him in the press of the country.
