CLARKSVILLE NOTES.

Rev. R. J. Buckner, D. D., Louisville, arrived Sunday morning to take charge of St. Paul A. M. E. Zion Church. Dr. Buckner delivered two excellent sermons Sunday to large congregations upon which he made a fine impression. He was warmly received and every effort is being put forth to have him properly domiciled, that his excellent talents may have full play. It is said that his son, Dr. R. G. Buckner, Jr., will soon locate in our city also and practice medicine. He is a graduate of Mehary. St. Peter A. M. E. Church is enjoying a most refreshing revival, which began last week. Three conversions and five accessions were reported up to Sunday night and the church seemed greatly awakened. The funeral of Mrs. Willie Buffett, who died last Saturday, was held at St. Peter's Monday afternoon. The deceased had suffered many months, but bore it all with great Christian fortitude. She was the daughter of Rev. J. H. Martin, of Oakwood, and the very large attendance attested that she was much beloved. The W. H. and F. Missionary Society met at the residence of Mrs. Bettie Caudell last week and was largely attended. The reports were most encouraging and the ladies expect to make an excellent report to Conference. After business was concluded, an excellent luncheon was served by the hostess and all went away saying it was good to be there. Another addition to the Clarksville colony at the State Normal in Nashville was made last Sunday, in the person of Mr. Emmet Smith. He was accompanied to the city by his mother.

SHELBYVILLE NOTES.

BRIDGES-DUMAS NUPTIALS.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was that of Miss Portia E. Dumas and Mr. Robert Bridges, on Wednesday, October 2nd, at Quinn Chapel A. M. E. Church at 10:30, where an appreciative audience had gathered. The church was beautifully decorated the altar was banked effectively with evergreens and roses; the ceremony was performed under a large arch made of evergreens and roses, by Rev. J. S. Kelly, in an impressive way. The wedding march was played by Mrs. T. W. Hampton. Just before the bridal party entered, Mrs. J. S. Kelly and Miss Marion Epps rendered a solo each. Miss Dumas never looked more beautiful in her gown of white messaline satin draped in dewdrop chiffon and crystal trimming, and long white veil with pearl trimmings. She carried a large bouquet. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Ulysses Dumas. The ring ceremony was used. A watch was conveyed by little Hiawatha Mitchum, who wore a beautiful gown of satin. The best man was Mr. Jas. Branch. Messrs. Leslie Miller, George Blanton, Robert Woodson and Charles Porter were ushers. Little Willie Mai McIntyre, in a gown of white, carrying a beautiful bouquet, preceded the bride. The ushers entered from opposite doors. At 12 a. m. a two-course lunch was served at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Lemiel Dumas. Many pretty and useful presents were given them. They left Wednesday afternoon for a trip to Alabama and Florida, amid the showers of rice. The bride's traveling suit was a tailored suit of blue with hat to match.

GREENFIELD NOTES.

The fifth Sunday in October marked quite an important epoch in the history of Emanuel Lodge No. 64 A. F. & A. M., when that lodge in one common phalanx under the leadership of its W. M., Brother E. G. Bell, assisted by the wardens and brethren, went out to the home of Mr. Dick Richie and from there to their home, Cemetery, where the burial ceremonies of their Richie, a very devoted friend to all with whom he met, and a highly respected pastor in the C. M. E. Connection. There were more than 500 people present from the neighboring towns and vicinities, who witnessed the ceremonies with deep interest and admiration. The people of the community also showed their interest by having prepared quite a bountiful supply of dinner to be served to all present. Emanuel Lodge played well its part and the day will be long remembered by all present. Mrs. Eliza Robbins is improving this week. The picnic given by Arion Court No. 134 and the Juveniles last Saturday was a success and the Court wishes to thank all who attended for their liberality. Rev. Winters, P. C. of C. M. E. Church, was at his post Sunday. He and his people are busy getting ready for the Annual Conference, which will convene in Memphis in December. Nothing shorter than a round report is expected, as that has become a custom for Greenfield. Rev. J. W. H. Barham, P. C. of M. E. Church at Sharon, held his last services before Conference last Sunday. Conference convenes at Gallatin this week. Most of the claims had been raised. Rev. Barham has worked earnestly, together with his good people. The Woman's Aid Society deserves much praise for their assistance during the year. The W. T. C. Baptist Association convened near Fruitland last week. St. Luke Baptist Church was well represented by its pastor, Rev. C. H. Iv. c., who preached the educational sermon, and was also elected by the Sunday-school Convention as their delegate to the State Convention, which convened at Jackson October 23. This is his fourth election. Mrs. Millie Gleason, who represented the Sunday-school and Woman's Auxiliary work, did her part with great credit. Her paper, "Young Men of Business," was a masterpiece and was rendered with great satisfaction. Mrs. Bertha Taylor was also present and played her part as recording secretary with satisfaction. Her past experience in the Association work gives her quite an advantage of efficiency. Rev. D. F. Estis, who represented the church, brought back much valuable information of the Association. All the tion and was very much pleased with late brother, Rev. C. M. Richie, were appropriately carried out. The late Rev. C. M. Richie was one of the beloved sons of Mr. Dick and Mrs. Katie representatives made talks at church Sunday night which served quite an inspiration to all present. Prof. M. A. Dobbe made appropriate responses. Mrs. Millie Gleason went to Terrell Monday. Mrs. Redie Suid, of Humboldt, who has been visiting her sick mother, Mrs. Eliza Robin, returned home Tuesday morning.
