Three houses were destroyed here by fire last week. Mr. Maury Wade is ill.

DRESDEN NOTES.

There was a grand barbecue at Vincent Grove Saturday, August 9, 1913 given by Vincent Odd Fellow Lodge. Everybody present expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the entertainment. The new school building is nearing completion. There will be four rooms and two halls to serve as recess rooms in bad weather. We hope to begin school about the 15th of September. Miss Mary Fitzgerald was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Thomas Sunday. Miss Mildred Morton was at home Sunday visiting her parents. She is teaching at Bowdens near McKenzie. Quite a few from Dresden took a trip to the Athens of the South Monday, August 4th and reports a lovely time. The stork recently visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lige McClain and left with them a little Miss. Mrs. Lucy Hill is on the sick list. Prof. Jas. Vincent made a flying trip to Beech Grove Sunday after having delivered an address to quite a number in Sunday-school. Rev. Craig which dinner was spread on preached an excellent sermon after ground and everyone dined sumptuously. But to make everything complete that hustling Globe representative Prof. M. A. Dobbs of Greenfield was there putting forth every effort possible to secure subscriptions to the globe. No race can be a success without keeping in touch with what is going on among her people. So see or write Prof. Jas. Vincent, Box 152, Dresden, Tenn., he will be glad to take your subscription to the Globe.
