GREENFIELD NOTES
 Mr. Child Malone came here from Jackson Saturday night. Miss Florence Williams, who has been in Cairo, Ill., for several weeks, returned Sunday morning. Her cousin, Mrs. Ludie DeGraffenried, came with her. Mrs. Birdie Shanley, of Memphis, is here the guest of Miss Pearl Lett. The following made a visit to Sharon Saturday and Sunday: Misses Ellen Hornbeak, Lena and Addie Massey, little Minnie Lee Allen, Miss Luther Donald, Messrs. Eddie Hornbeak, Johnnie Donald, Silas and Herbert Williams. Prof. M. A. Dobbs and family were much gratified last week from the presentation of a fine large watermelon by Mr. Nute Tyler. Such compliments are always highly accepted. If you want a good, sweet, fine watermelon get one from Mr. Tyler, for his are as good as the best and better than the rest. The following are reported ill: Mr. Clarence Allen, Mrs. Ellen Dempsey and Joe White. Mrs. Lizzie Bell left for Pulaski, Ill., Sunday morning to visit relatives. The next meeting of the Weakley County Teachers' Association will convene at Martin, the 4th Saturday in September. The County Superintendent will be present to make an address on the extracts of the late school law. All contracts will be ready to be signed there that day. Let every teacher be present. Visitors invited. Mrs. Susan Fisher, who has been visiting her granddaughter, Mrs. Emma Perrell, of Dyersburg, for the past five weeks, returned home Saturday afternoon. Her son, Rev. Lashley, met her at Fulton, Ky. The revival began at Allen's Chapel A. M. E. Church last Sunday night. Rev. F. E. Young, pastor, also the members are desirous of the assistance of the other pastors and members. Quarterly meeting will be at Allen's Chapel Sunday, August 31st. Rev. Shelby, of Nashville, who is presiding elder, will be present. The public has a cordial invitation to be present. Prof. M. A. Dobbs, representative for the Globe for West Tennessee, went to Union City Saturday in the interest of the paper. Union City is a splendid town. We hope the Globe will again be very popular there and that they will let us hear from them. Now is a splendid time to subscribe for the Globe. Many conventional meetings will be held this fall, also other interesting things. Let Prof. M. A. Dobbs have your subscription.

DYERSBURG NOTES.
 Bruce High School, of our city, will open Monday, September 22, 1913. Members of the faculty are: M. L. Morrison, principal; Miss Lelia Turner, Miss Almer E. Miller, Miss Lila C. McKinney, Mrs. Annie L. Morrison, Mrs. Josie B. Boyd, Miss Bettie Gordon, Mrs. Louella J. Roundtree, Miss Vennie Beckett, Supply and Miss Adena Huddleston. Music, Miss Nettie A. Ledsinger entertained in honor of Mrs. Ozie Campbell, of Memphis, Tuesday evening. The following persons were present: Miss Leala Mae Sawyers, Messrs. August Alexander and Roscoe C. Blakemore. Miss Vennie Beckett left for Brownsville, Tenn., to attend the Grand Lodge of the U. B. F. and S. M. T. Tuesday, August 26, 1913. Mrs. Ozie Campbell was accompanied to Memphis by Miss N. A. Ledsinger Sunday night. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wylie, of Cairo, spent Sunday with his brother, Mr. Cornelius Wylie, on Broadway. Mrs. Mary Gregory has returned from Milan and other points. She had a delightful trip. Miss Leala Mae Sawyer will open St. Matthew School in the absence of Miss Vennie Beckett.

NEELYVILLE (MO.) NOTES.
 Rev. E. S. Shaw, of Olyphant, Ark., pastor of the First Baptist Church, of Palestine and principal of Hickory Ridge Public School, preached at this place last Sunday and Sunday night. He indeed preached two strong sermons. Rev. Shaw is a tist. Convention and the Woman's E. W. Avant and Mrs. Luvice Burnett left Monday to attend the Baptist Convention at the Woman's Home and Foreign Mission Society, which convened at Cape Girardeau, Mo. Mrs. Iska Rowland, of Little Rock, Ark., who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Green Hudson, of this place, left for her home last Monday. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Essie Hudson, who will enter Arkansas Baptist College at the opening. Prof. Theodore G. Walker will open school on the second day of September. This will make his sixth year here. He will be assisted this year by Mr. Edward Wall. Miss Anna Davis, who has been visiting in Mississippi, has returned home. Mr. Ned Mathis has gone to Mississippi on business; he will be gone several days. Miss Anna Woodard, of Sedalia, Mo., is visiting friends and relatives here this week.

SHELBYVILLE NOTES.
 Rev. S. W. West, pastor of Haley Circuit A. M. E. Church, died last Friday and was buried Monday. The funeral took place at Woodfork Chapel, Dr. J. A. Jones and Rev. G. R. Norman officiating. Rev. A. P. Gray, presiding elder, acted as master of ceremonies. Several ministers of the district were present at the funeral. Dr. J. A. Jones spent several days in Nashville last week, visiting his family, who are now residing at their home in the city. The Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Nashville, was in town Monday on an excursion. They filled the town and picniced out on the Turner College campus. A game of baseball was played between the Nashville Athletics and the Shelbyville boys. The Athletics were the winners. Mr. Irvin Brown was seen among the picnickers from Nashville last Monday. Many of the excursionists went through the building at Turner College and looked over the beautiful grounds, and expressed themselves as being delighted at the splendid situation. Mr. Burrell Tillman left Monday night for St. Louis, where he went to make his fall purchases of ladies' goods for his business. Miss Cleo Buchanan is looking after his business during his absence. Rev. Theodore West, the young son of Rev. S. Y. West, is looking after the work left vacant by the death of his father, till the sitting of the annual conference. Mrs. G. C. Jones made a flying trip to Shelbyville Monday to visit her husband. She came with the picnicers, and returned at night. She was accompanied by her son and daughter. Miss Eva Bell Phillips, of Nashville, was in town this week, and paid a visit to some of her friends. She plans to return to Turner College this fall. Yorkmen are busy building an annex to the boys' building at Turner College. Mr. Emmett Campbell is again in town and has taken up residence at T. N. C., and is hard at work getting things in readiness for the opening which takes place September 29th. The public school opened last Monday. The compulsory attendance law is working a charm in the enrollment of new pupils. Many a ragamuffin that has hitherto been playing in the streets is now in school.

JACKSON NOTES.
 Rev. A. McKee closed a successful revival in the Carson Street Church, of which he is pastor, with twenty odd converts. Read the Globe. It is a worthy colored paper. Send in your news; give them your advertisement; bring them to the reporter, corner of Main and Shannon streets S. W., in the rear.

NEWPORT (KY.) NOTES.
 Rev. Williams, of Cincinnati, delivered a wonderful address at St. Paul A. M. E. Church last Friday evening on "Race Prejudice." Quite a large crowd was present; each one was much benefited. Rev. L. W. Gray, of Walnut Hills, Cincinnati, preached for Rev. A. W. Jackson Sunday afternoon. Rev. Gray brought with him his choir and a number of others. The choir rendered beautiful music. It being stewardess day, Mrs. S. C. Letcher received the collection which amounted to $11.10. Allen Christian Endeavor met at the usual hour Sunday evening with the president, Mrs. L. B. Darkins, presiding. Mr. Lawrence Knight, the vice president, made an interesting talk. Rev. A. W. Jackson explained the object of the endeavor. Mrs. Ida Smith has returned home after an absence of several weeks. She preached for Rev. Jackson Sunday evening after the adjournment of the Endeavor. Mrs. Smith is an excellent speaker. The ladies of Newport are preparing for a Chautauqua, which begins September 9th continuing to the 14th. Mrs. J. H. Starks, of Indianapolis, Ind., is visiting her sister, Mrs. M. E. Jackson, and Mrs. Bettie Moore, of Newport. Mrs. J. H. Starks, Mrs. M. E. Jackson and Mrs. Catherine Frey were pleasant callers at the home of Mrs. Ida Jackson and Mrs. Geneva Rutledge Saturday afternoon. Mr. Jacob Oliver has returned home after a pleasant journey of six weeks through Kentucky and West Virginia. Mr. Ernest S. Hall, of Chicago, and Misses Eliza McAfee, Lula Young, Jennie Duncan and Mr. Solomon Duncan were guests of Mrs. S. C. Letcher, 524 West Ninth street. Mrs. Nancy Lawrence is ill, having taken sick at church last Friday evening. She is much better at this writing. Others on the sick list are: Mrs. Harper and Miss Virgil Turner. Miss Birdie Boston was a pleasant caller at the home of Mesdames Jackson and Rutledge Thursday morning. Mrs. Geneva Rutledge went to Cincinnati last Friday to do some shopping for Mrs. Sallie Robinson, of Clifton. Mrs. John Johnson entertained at dinner last Wednesday Rev. and Mrs. Williams, of Cincinnati; Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Jackson and Mrs. Strother; all enjoyed the hospitality.

SMYRNA NOTES.
 The revival at the Baptist church has closed with fourteen converts. Smyrna was all excitement last week there were quite a crowd at church every night. They will be baptized on the second Sunday. Rev. Cunby has gone to Louisville, Ky., to conduct a revival. Baptizing will be on the first Sunday at the M. E. church. Mr. Hurly Tucker and brother, from Fosterville, were the guests of Mr. Romeo Frierson Sunday. Mr. Edward Kirkpatrick made a flying trip here Sunday from Nashville. Miss Lucinda Thompson went to Nashville Sunday to stay a while. Mrs. A. L. Perry will spend a week in Nashville with her daughter, Mrs. N. B. Wilson. Miss Alene Dillard, who has been with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dillard, for a while, returned to Nashville Sunday evening. Miss Sutee Gooch is here visiting her mother, Mrs. James Gooch. Mr. Gaston, of Knoxville, visited Mr. and Mrs. William Charlton Tuesday. Little Miss Cora L. Buchanan had a very bad tooth ache Sunday; as a result she has a big jaw.

JASPER NOTES.
 A grand reception was given by the ladies of the O. E. S. at the Masonic Hall Friday night was a grand success. Mr. T. P. Carter, the present Patron, introduced Mr. R. R. Robinson, the newly elected Patron, who spoke on the good of the sacred order; also Mrs. Joel Mabery, W. M., who in her modest way testified to the same; then Mr. S. F. Carter, last but not least, spoke of the good the Masonic craft had done and was still doing by the assistance of the ladies of the O. E. S. Mr. W. P. Pope was in South Pittsburg one day last week. Mrs. Marroh Pankey and daughter, of Guild, Tenn., spent Saturday in Jasper. Mrs. Hamilton is visiting her sister, Mrs. Sam Carter. Mrs. Henry Searcy and little son left Saturday for Pikeville, where they will spend some time at her home. Little Opella Robins, who has been very ill, is some better at this writing. Rev. Mr. S. L. Duncan and wife were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Fryor. Mr. John Greer spent Sunday very pleasantly at home. Mr. Luther Springs, of Victoria, Tenn., was seen in our town Sunday.

LAKE PROVIDENCE NOTES.
 The farmers of this section are busily engaged in gathering in their vegetables, each day rushing to the market. Our community is visited with a good deal of sickness at present. Mr. Sten Higgins, Mrs. Ada Davis, Mrs. Hannah Glenn, little Granvil Edmondson and mother are on the sick list this week, but all seem to be improving. Miss Mary Whitlow while in the city to shop Monday had the misfortune to lose $5 or $6. Our services Sunday were well attended. Attendance at Sunday-school, $3; collection, $1.01. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. by pastor. Total collection for day, $33.55. The Providence Baptist Church is taking on new life under the leadership of Rev. W. M. Harris. $300 has been used for improvement on the church. The Woman's Auxiliary is getting on nicely. They have recently purchased one dozen new Bibles to be used in their meetings each Sunday evening. Mrs. Joe Patton is in the lead this week in the Gleamer Rally set for the first Sunday in September, and we are hoping to raise $200 or more. A great time is anticipated on the 6th and 7th of September.

OGLESBY NOTES.
 Miss Fary L. Tullus is no more. She passed into the Great Beyond on Sunday morning, August 17, at 11:30 o'clock. Miss Tullus has been ill for some time. It was hoped at first that she would recover, but since her return from the infirmary she has been sinking. Her funeral was attended at home by Rev. G. B. Taylor. Mr. and Mrs. Tullus thank the many friends for their kindnesses during the illness of her daughter, also the beautiful floral designs.

BUFORD NOTES.
 Mrs. Maria Martin, who was very sick at her daughter's in Columbia, was brought home August 12th, and died the 16th. Her funeral was from Mt. Olivet Baptist Church, of which she was a member. Interment at Mt. Olivet Cemetery. She left a large family of children, relatives and friends to mourn their loss, which we feel is heaven's gain, as she was a good neighbor and a Christian woman. Mr. Frank Harwell, of Nashville, arrived in time to be with his sister in her last hour. Mr. Harwell had been out West for several months and was greatly affected on arriving and finding his sister in a dying condition. Mr. Alonzo Abernathy, while seated on the counter of a dry goods store, expired suddenly of heart failure, August 17th, and was buried at Mt. Olivet Cemetery on the 18th. Mr. Samuel Taylor, who was seriously hurt while extricating the machinery of a gin that a storm blew down last spring, is improving slowly. It is said that two ribs were broken and he was badly bruised otherwise. Mr. Fields Taylor, Jr., of Water Valley, visited homefolks recently. From here he went to Cincinnati, O., to visit his brothers. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Taylor recently spent several days with their grandmother, Mrs. Julia Taylor, of Odd Fellow Hall. Mr. Ed Buford, who teaches at Mt. Olivet school, and his ball team were guests of Rev. E. S. Rose and school last Thursday. After a spelling-match and a ball game every one was bountifully served to melons. Miss Mabel Jordan's boys were also present. Last week closed the first school month. The increase of schools and hard work seemed the topic of all teachers at the monthly meeting Saturday. Mr. Willie Cox, of "Round Hill," is assisting Mrs. M. K. Buford at Odd Fellow's Hall. Mr. Cox is a student of State Normal Industrial School at Nashville. Miss Ellen Upshaw, of Pulaski, is teaching at Pope's Chapel, a newly-organized school. Miss Naomi Randalls, of Nashville, was recently the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hezekiah Bills. Rev. and Mrs. Foster Bills entertained at dinner on the 15th in honor of Miss Randalls. Seated at the table were Mr. and Mrs. Hezekiah Bills and little daughter, Mesdames Inez McClure and Taylor, Rev. Bills and family. A nice menu was served. Mrs. M. K. Buford entertained the following in honor of Miss Randalls: Mr. and Mrs. Hezekiah Bills and daughter, Messrs. Blaine Bills and Esther Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Buford and little Jessie Buford. Pink cream, cake and melons were served. Miss Randalls returned on the evening train for Nashville. Mr. McBuford is remodeling his residence.

EAGLEVILLE NOTES.
 Mrs. Ida Bracy and Mrs. Maude Jordan have returned from Springfield, where they went as delegates for the B. O. Nos. 155 and 185, respectively. On account of the convention of the B. O. at Springfield our school did not open until last Monday. Pupils are pouring in daily, and the belief is that an assistant will have to be called. Mrs. Nannie Luckett, of White Plains, Ky., spent last week with her uncle Mr. F. M. Seay, of Rockvale. While here Mrs. Luckett was the recipient of many social affairs. Among those who delightfully entertained Mrs. Luckett were: Mrs. Mattie Henry, of Christians; Mrs. Ida Bracy and daughter, of Little Rock; Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Holford and Mrs. Frank Thomas, of Overall. Mrs. Luckett, who was formerly Miss Nannie Sharber, moved with her parents to Kentucky about thirty-five years ago, and this was the first visit to the scenes of her childhood. Mr. Billy Williamson, a highly respected citizen of the Allisons neighborhood, died Monday and was brought here Tuesday for burial. Mrs. Lulu Copeland (Jordan) is very sick at this writing. Mrs. Laura B. Swaney was called to Nashville Monday of last week on account of the illness of her granddaughter, little Mary L. Hendrix. She returned Sunday and reports the little girl doing nicely.

SAVANNAH NOTES.
 Mrs. Mary Graham and little Annie Lee Graham are spending a few days with relatives and friends across the river. Mr. Andy Bailey died last Wednesday morning; he had been sick for quite a while; he is survived by a wife and son; he was prominent in society and church, being superintendent of the C. M. E. Sunday-School and an honored member of Lodge No. 73 A. F. and A. M. He was buried with Masonic rights. Mr. Alonzo Cherry leaves this week for St. Louis, Mo., for a short stay. Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Kirk's little girl, Tommie, is very sick with the typhoid fever. The stewardesses of Graham Chapel C. M. E. Church gave a picnic last Saturday. All who attended report a nice time. Rev. and Mrs. S. L. McGee spent a few days at Satillo last week. Rev. Butler, of the M. E. church, held revival at his church last week. The Savannah ball team went to Watertown, Ala., last week to play ball. We have not heard from the game as yet, so don't know who gained the victory. Mr. J. C. Woods and Mr. C. W. Haley, the leading colored grocers of Savannah, are doing a thriving business; they have a new stock of goods equal to that of any grocery store in town; they truly believe in race enterprise. The Globe is an up-to-date Negro paper—one that should be in the home of every inteelligent person. I wish more of our people would read the Globe. Long may it live to encourage our people to nobler and higher things. The Knights and Daughters of Taber gave their annual picnic here on the 16th of August. A tremendous crowd was in attendance. They raised something over forty dollars; it was a decided success in every way; several out-of-town guests were in attendance.

MADISON STATION NOTES.
 There was a grand social given Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Jessie Benton in honor of Miss Minnie Lee Dower. The dining-room was beautifully decorated with Japanese lanterns and the tables were beautifully decorated with ferns and silver in the center of which was a cut glass bowl containing beautiful flowers. A tempting menu was served; music was furnished by Mr. Oliver Bates, Mr. Willie Franklin and Mr. Will Shie. There were 70 guests present. There was a grand picnic given Saturday and Sunday night out in the Fitch Grove, given by Mr. Felix Grazier and Mr. Lee Washington. Quite a number left this place Sunday to attend the basket dinner at Rock City. All reported a nice time. Little Miss Georgia Easley, of Nashville, sister of Miss Rachel Lewis, is spending a few days with Miss Marcella Bates, of Madison. Miss Henrietta Gee, of Indianapolis, Ind., spent Friday in Nashville visiting friends and relatives. Mr. Charlie Marshall, of Neely Bend, is very ill with fever. Miss Henrietta Gee, of Indianapolis, Ind., was the merry guest of Mrs. Josie Benton Sunday night.

Can You Afford It?

Can you afford to buy a stock of coal for your range, pay for it and tie up your money?

Can you afford to let your wife carry heavy buckets of coal to the range; remove the ashes; chop the wood and clean up the spot and dirt?

Can you afford to keep a coal fire going 24 hours a day in order to have heat for a few hours' cooking?
