

SOUTH PITTSBURG NOTES.

The Elk River association which was held at Tullahoma is reported a great success. Mr. George Crowe and Miss Willa Hill represent the church and Sunday-school, respectively, from this point. Among others who attended from here were: Mr. and Mrs. Billy Robinson, Mrs. Anna Frita, Messrs. Hony Edge, Jesse Osborne and Robert Barrett. Rev. Wm. Simmons, moderator of the Association and pastor of this church, was reported at his best. Dr. Astripp is out of town this week in attendance at the National Medical Association in Nashville. From there he goes to Huntington and Decatur, Ala., for a short stay. The county teachers will hold their first monthly institute Saturday, the 30th, in this city. A very interesting program has been arranged by County Superintendent Kelly. The new subject, "Country Life and the Country School," by Carney, will be discussed. The whole of chapter I, "The Farm Problem and its Solution," is the lesson for study and recitation. Rev. Mr. Crutcher, of Stevenson, Ala., preached a most excellent sermon at Little Bethel A. M. E. Church to a large congregation Monday night of this week. Rev. B. A. Morris, the energetic pastor of Little Bethel, is also a financier. Mr. Joseph Johnson is ill at this writing. Miss Jessie Webb has returned from Chattanooga and Miss Lela Horton is visiting at Stevenson, Ala., this week. Mrs. Douglas, of Dayton, is visiting Mrs. C. W. Cain and family. The Henry Brown Literary Society met at Little Bethel A. M. E. Church. A splendid program was carried out. Mr. and Mrs. Elsie Martin, of McMinnville, are in the city. Mrs. George Greer, of Jasper, was here one day this week to visit her son, Prof. E. C. Greer. Mrs. Mary White, out on Jasper pike, remains critically ill. Mrs. Annie Johnson, who was reported better last week, is not doing so well at this writing. Miss Eden Hill was united in wedlock to Rev. Jos. Johnson, the recent pastor of First Baptist Church, last Sunday evening at 7:30. Rev. C. W. Cain officiated.

SOMERVILLE NOTES.

Dr. and Mrs. Bryant visited Mr. and Mrs. Henry Falls last Sunday. Several county teachers were here Saturday for the purpose of drawing their first month's salary for the summer. They all report an increase in attendance and claim the compulsory education laws the cause. Most every teacher needs an assistant and those who have no assistant are asking the County Board for help. Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Walker and children visited Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Walker last Sunday. Mrs. Dora Walker, who has charge of the town school here, visited relatives near La Grange Sunday. The pastors of different churches in this community are making the rounds of protracted meetings. They all report a successful meeting. The Sunday-School Convention convenes here on the 4th of September. The Benevolent Society accommodated nearly four hundred people last Friday. This train was run from Somerville to Memphis. We understand that the proceeds of this excursion will be spent on building a hall.

STEPHENSON (ALA.) NOTES.

The Educational Club No. 8, of which Mrs. Dora L. Smith is captain, gave a barbecue last Saturday which was a success. There were two ball games. The first game was between Stevenson and Packard, resulting in a victory for Stevenson. The next game was between Stevenson and Bridgeport, the latter winning the victory. The game was very interesting. Miss Beattie Lane, of South Pittsburg, attended her picnic. She was the guest of Mrs. Dora L. Smith. She also visited other friends while in the city. Mrs. Joannice Conroy, of Abbeville, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith. Last Sunday was communion day at Center Star Missionary Baptist Church; the services were quite interesting. Rev. E. L. Pope, pastor of morning Star M. E. Church, assisted Rev. Heiton in his services. Rev. F. F. Wrigley, pastor of the M. E. church, has begun a series of meetings. I am satisfied the manager of the Globe will join them in prayer that success will be theirs. Rev. O. A. Hines made a pleasant visit in South Pittsburg Saturday. The School Board met last Friday night and the meeting was a success.

DECATURVILLE NOTES.

The funeral of Brother Wash Pettigrew will be attended here on the 31st Sunday in August at Freedman Chapel A. M. E. Church, by Rev. Wm. Oliver, pastor, and Rev. E. E. Young, of Greeneville. Rev. Wm. Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Pettigrew, Mr. and Mrs. Jim White, Mrs. M. E. Parson and Prof. Young made a pleasant trip to Satullo Bend Saturday through the country. A barbecue was given at that place on Saturday and a rally on Sunday, which resulted in $100 in interest of the A. M. E. church. Rev. Wm. Oliver preached for them at 11 o'clock and at night. He will go back to Satullo to assist Rev. Jones in his revival next week. Our summer school is fine; the children are sorry to learn that it will close in two weeks. Learn the news by reading the Globe.

JACKSON NOTES.

The work of some of the worthy ministers of Jackson is much needed, as we see in the following. The anniversary of Rev. S. B. Burnett made quite a great day with his church. Macedonia Baptist Church accepted him as their pastor one year ago and it has been officially said that Rev. Burnett has been the means of raising $1,182 during his stay. He has increased the membership of the church from fifty odd to more than two hundred, and a parsonage has been purchased by the church and its pastor; we hope that the Religious and Educational Chautauqua of the Berean Baptist and Liberty C. M. E. Church will be a success. It began Monday night, August 25th. The Nashville Globe will do well to visit the services of Rev. T. J. Goodall, pastor of Berean Baptist Church. We are glad to know that Rev. J. W. Lester, at Jackson, Tenn., closed a successful revival at Mercer with fourteen converts and will be with Rev. Robertson at Brownsville this week in a series of meetings. The reader will find the Globe in the rear corner of Shannon and Main streets, S. W.

UNION CITY NOTES.

Rev. H. G. Harris, of Martin, who is pastor of the First Baptist Church here, has been conducting a successful revival for several days. Our town is in a peaceful and prosperous condition now and is again going to have the Union City notes in the Nashville Globe. Mrs. Cassie L. Fowkes will be glad to take your subscription at any time. The Sunday-school Convention of the A. M. E. Church will convene here September 4-6. Prof. Thomas Jackson, formerly of Martin but recently of Oklahoma, was here a few days ago. He is looking well and reports good things for Oklahoma. Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Walker are in Nashville this week attending the National Medical Association. Mrs. Mary Connel and little niece, Label Fowkes, of Dyersburg, are the guests of Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Fowkes, 408 E. Matthews street, for a week. Rev. W. M. Fowkes and mother-in-law, Mrs. Margaret Williams, have returned from a very successful revival at Tennessee Grove, Newbern. The funeral of Mrs. Mary Harris-Martin was quite sad. Mrs. B. L. Clark and daughter, Eva, have returned from Milan. Mrs. Wm. Fowkes, of 408 E. Matthews street, was the charming hostess of the F. L. C. Club the next meeting will be with Mrs. K. Lowe. Prof. M. A. Dobbs, of Greeneville, was the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Fowkes while in the city on business of the Globe. Mrs. Mattie Cross was the charming hostess of the Y. W. E. Club Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Judson DeShong, of East St. Louis, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Clemmons while in the city. Mrs. Willie Cowers is in the city visiting her mother-in-law. Miss Lizzie Weddington is having quite a success in the Glovin scalp treatment on E. Grove street. Rev. A. M. Bishop is in the city attending the revival of the First Baptist Church.
