MADISON NOTES.

Marcella Bate a reporter for the Globe from this place celebrated her birthday last Thursday night. She received many presents, and the occasion was well attended. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wiley lost their baby boy last week. The funeral was preached by Rev. John Franklin. Rev. G. J.
Stanford filled Dr. J. T. Gilmore's pulpit Sunday at 11:30 a. m. and 8 p. m. and preached two good sermons. Hon.
J. W. Grant graced the congregation at Dry Creek with his presence at the morning service, and gave the congregation a splendid talk at the close of the sermon. He took dinner with Mr. E. McGee and wife, Mrs. Hattie McGee. Dr. J. T. Gilmore is busy pushing his conference claims to a finish, he will preach his farewell sermon at Hendersonville, the fourth Sunday at 11:30 a. m. and at Dry Creek on the same day at 8 p. m.
A grand entertainment will be given at Hendersonville Monday night for the benefit of Dr. Gilmore and conference, and another one will be at Dry Creek on Tuesday night following for the same purpose. The public is respectfully invited as it is the closing out of Rev. Gilmore's work. Some of the able speakers of Nashville will be present. Dr. Gilmore is receiving some splendid presents from his friends.

LAVERGNE NOTES.

Rev. A. J. Parker will preach his farewell sermon on the 4th Sunday night, Oct. 26. A concert will be given Saturday night by Miss E. M.
Baker. Come one and all and enjoy yourselves. Mr. Louis Lytle is confined to his room with his eyes. Mrs.
E. W. Lytle is visiting her mother at Antioch. Mrs. Aaron Trimble is E. Church has received of the governor his commission as delegate to the Emancipation Proclamation Celebration at New York City, N. Y., October 22-31. Rev. A. J. Leath, pastor of the A. M. E. Church is closing out his first conference year. Mr. H. J.

Ewing is doing a commendable business as undertaker. Mr. Tom Patton is also doing a nice business as undertaker, both young men are ideal undertakers. There will be a prize contest at the A. M. E. Church Monday night. Any one wishing a copy of the Globe will see Vernor T. Doyle or James Bennett.

was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Smith and reports a nice time. Mr.
Lovell Williams who is attending Lane College visited home last week.
South Before the War will be played at Lane Chapel Church Tuesday night, October 21 under the auspices of the Missionary Society. The people of this town were much surprised Monday morning to find the ground covered with snow. Dr. J. W. O.
Lee attended the 18 Semi-annual Session of the West Tennessee and West Kentucky Medical, Dental and Pharmaceutical Association. Dr.
Lee was elected vice President of the Association and reports a grand time.
Mrs. Sarah Roe has returned home feeling fine. We are rejoicing with her and family, Good for Hubbard Hospital and Dr. G. H. A. Bryant and better for her.

MARTIN NOTES.

Last Sunday was very cool and unpleasant in this section of the country, and caused a small church attendance, nevertheless all of the churches were represented either in Sunday-school or in church service.
Rev. H. G. Harris will leave Tuesday morning for the state convention at Knoxville, where he expects to meet a great number of the representatives from all over the state. Mrs. J. R.
Phillips, and little son Elmer Phillips were in Union City a few days last week visiting Mrs. Mollie King, and Mrs. Amenda Cross, while there she had the little sons eyes treated. We hope the treatment will prove successful. Dr. Jas. Raney is back from Nashville where he has been with one of his patients. He reports her condition fine. The sick for the week are as follows: Mrs. Mary Busby, Mrs. Mollie Johnson, and little Bernie Rogers, who received a severe accident by a fall. Mr. and Mrs.
Hargers of Palmersville, were in the city visiting relatives and friends last week. J. H. Bondurant, was in Dresden, last week attending to the barber business of Mr. F. B. Brown, while the fair was going on and reports much success. Get you a glob and learn the news.

BRIDGEPORT (ALA.) NOTES.

Mrs. Vella Rich of Chicago, who is lecturing in the interest of women, spoke here. Her subject: The woman as a world's builder, was very interesting. Miss Mamie Easley entertained on Thursday evening complimentary to Miss Mollie Leftwich. Games were indulged in. A delightful luncheon, and all enjoyed themselves. Those present were:
Mrs. Lula Gillard, Miss Saddle and Jessie Mai Sims, H. R. Sutton Sims, Will Robinson, Ed. Thompson and Jim Hill. Mrs. Pearl Woods and Nina Williams visited South Pittsburg last Hattie Webb also Mr. Ed. Staley of South Pittsburg, spent a few days in Bridgeport Saturday. Mrs. Susie Redd and Miss Vina Sharp entertained at 6 o'clock dinner on Tuesday evening last, in honor of Mrs. Della Higgins who left for Lawrence S. C., Wednesday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Daniels, Miss Pearl Hunter, Mrs. Lucile Higgins, Mrs. Ella Goodwin and Mrs. Mollie Kelso. All enjoyed a pleasant evening.

SMYRNA NOTES.

The young ladies on Friday and Saturday night had the church decorated beautifully with little trees and bowers which made the church take on a fall appearance. Mrs. R.
L. Perry spent few days in Nashville last week. Mr. George Smith made a flying trip to Nashville Friday. Mr.
A. L. Dremon is preparing to build a house on his lot here. Mr. Chester Frierson was at home Sunday.
Mr. Henry Buchanan of Nashville came here Saturday night. The good stork visited Mr. and Mrs. Am-ons Baker Friday and left a baby boy.
Miss Lucinda Thompson was at home Sunday. Mesdames Nellie Dakes and Mary A. Rose spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson and returned to Nashville on the evening train. Mrs. Jennie Mathews and Master Allen Cameron, Dr. H.
Hamilton and Mr. Jas Brown went to Nashville in Mr. Browns automobile Saturday. Smyrna was threatened again Thursday evening with fire but fortunately it was extinguished before much damage was done. Mrs.
Thompson became excited as the fire originated in the gin so near her house. Nearly all the bales of cotton were damaged. Little Cora Buchanna is again with her aunt, Mrs. John Hill. Mr. R. Wilson of 13 Trimble street, of Nashville visited relatives here Sunday. Mrs. Jennie Jones, of Winchester is here for SHELBYVILLE NOTES.

During the last two weeks the town has been flooded with entertainments given by the various churches, and all have been well attended. Dr.
Norman of the A. M. E. Church is getting ready to leave for the conference, which meets at Pulaski next week. The mock trial at the A. M.
E. Church, in which Mr. William Whiteside was accused of indifference to the matrimonial states was a success. He was convicted, and sentenced. Dr. J. A. Jones, president of Turner Collee, left this week for Fayetteville, where he went to attend the East Tennessee conference in the interest of the school. He will also attend the Tennessee conference next week, of which conference he is a member. Miss Dora B.
West, who has been ill for several weeks at the home of her people is again in school at Turner, rapidly improving. A very pleasant affair was pulled off out at the Turner College one night last week in the way of a "birthday party" given in honor of Miss Ella L. Jones. It was tendered by Mrs. A. E. Harrington, the matron.
A select number of the students were in attendance, and a happy time was enjoyed by the young people till the "retiring bell" broke up their fun.
The students of Turner Normal are preparing to give their first annual musical and social next Monday night in the college chapel. The entertainment is to be conducted under the auspices of Misses F. A. Kil-lain and Sallie M. Commons, who have charge of the musical department. Some of the latest arrival among the students are: Messrs.

Emo and Andrew Winters, and Albert Mangrum, all of Nopler, Tenn.
Turner Normal foot ball team has been organized and is now ready for engagements with other colleges and schools.

COWAN NOTES.

Rev. Wm. Simmons is quite sick at his home. His many friends are praying for his speedy recovery. The Nashville Boosters were here Tuesday evening and made the welkin ring with praises of Nashville and Nashville-made goods. Hon. J. C. Napier, Dr. G. H. Bandy, D. Wellington Berry, D. A. Hart were the forcible speakers.
Cowan's colored citizens were out in full force and extended a genuine old fashioned village welcome.

FARMINGTON NOTES.

The weather is very cool. We were very surprised to have a snow before a big frost. The school is getting on nicely. Prof. O. F. Bishop is doing all in his power to make his pupils what they should be. The Rev. S. M. Utley, A. B., M. D., our beloved District Superintendent was with us the 18, and 19 inst. to hold his first quarterly conference at this place. Though the weather was rough, things were very encouraging.
He preached a wonderful sermon on the subject of "Selfishness." The people were certainly proud to have him back as their superintendent. Miss Gertrude Rucker, Mr. John Crowell, Miss Mai Lizzie Rucker and Mr. Claud Gentry were the guests of Miss Cornelia Owens Sunda evening. They all were glad to see her up again and hope that she will be able to be out soon. The C. P. Church has planned to start their revival on the 4th Sunday. We hope for them much success. The Rev. H. W. Rucker is the pastor of Farmington M. E. Church for another year.

SOUTH PITTSBURGH NOTES.

Miss M. L. Evans of Chattanooga, is programed to sing at Randolph Chapel M. E. Church Tuesday evening this week. There is no doubt but that Miss Evans will entertain a attracting interest. She is the arth h ill house as her ability to sing is acknowledged by competent judges in the musical world. The teachers of Marion County will hold their third monthly meeting for this school year with the 14th District school. Mrs.
J. M. Hawkins teacher, Saturday 25th.
Patrons of the city public school with their teacher, Mrs. B. A. Morris will serve dinner. Mr. J. P. Green, teacher at Victoria spent a day here recently with his brother Sempel Greer.
Mrs. Gero, Greer and daughter of Jasper spent a day here with her son, Samuel. Mr. C. H. Lightfoot, who has been indisposed for several days is able to be up at this writing. Mrs.
Lorenzo Hyatt, out on Jasper pike is on the sick list again. Mrs. Lena Hogue, who has been under a Chattanooga physician for several weeks has returned home and about herself again. Mrs. Lula Kinnely and Miss Nora Jolly have gone to Birmingham, Ala., for an indefinite period. Rev.

William High, who has been changed from Knoxville circuit to Pulaski, Va. circuit by the recent annual conference of M. E. Church, visited home folks here last week. Mesdames Pearlie Davis and Pauline Cooley and Mr. Horace Campbell are on the sick list this week. Mrs. Ada Mayes of McMinnville, was the guest of Mrs.
James Staples and Mr. Lucile Mayes recently. Mrs. Emma Lamberson is in Chattanooga this week. Rev. B.
A. Morris, Mr. J. J. Cummings, Mrs.
Ellen Smith and others are in attendance at the A. M. E. Annual Conference at Fayetteville this week. The members of Little Bethel and friends generally will be disappointed if Rev.
Morris is not returned by the conference.

ROCK HILL NOTES.

Mrs. Bettie Clark is in our town this week. She is a great church worker and is loved by all who know her. She is being highly entertained this week. She spent yesterday in Nashville. Mrs. Clara Warters being hostess. Mrs. Clark will leave the 24th for Asheville, N. C. to make it her home. Mr. Williams held his last quarterly conference Sunday. Rev. Gray, the Presiding Elder was at his best. We will soon have our railroad completed and how we will ride. Mr. Benton Harvey and Mr. Howse will spend Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. McCleren.
Everybody is busy here in our town this fall. We have more than 15 families crying for the Globe; hope we will soon reach D. A. Hart. The marriage of Miss Irma McCord and Arthur Harris has been announced for the 15th of November at the Missionary Baptist Church. We are wishing them a happy life.

BELK NOTES.

Rev. P. H. Hall preached a powerful sermon Sunday. Rev. Hall had his annual baptizing Sunday which was witnessed by a large number.

He had thirty-seven converts and baptized twenty-four of them. Miss Florence Neal Morris spent Sunday with Mrs. S. S. Searcy on North Main street. The Court of Calanthe is expecting a nice time Saturday night; they are going to have a large supper and they are expecting a large crowd. Little Eddie Louise Searcy is on the sick list this week.
Mr. Ossie Taylor is on the sick list this week. Mr. David Jones of Jackson, Tenn., was the guest of Miss Read Sunday. Rev. W. M. Collier, the state missionary was here on business Wednesday. Mary Searcy spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Fruntville with Miss F. N.
Morris. She was accompanied home by Miss Morris Wednesday afternoon. Go to the supper Saturday night, October 18th given by the Court of Calanthe at the K. P. hall. Mrs. Lula Cole left Thursday morning for Paris to attend the fair. Read the Globe. See Mary Searcy, the agent for the Globe.

JASPER NOTES.

Rev. L. R. Diggs preached two excellent sermons Sunday at Wells Chapel. The storm party that was given Thursday night in honor of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Diggs was a grand success. Mrs. A. Hodge and daughter, Mrs. Will Younger, Mrs.
G. W. Greer and Mrs. Call Robinson were the guests of Mrs. Jno. Springs Saturday. Mr. S. F. Carter is indisposed this week. Mr. Sam Greer and Miss Vera Robinson of South Pittsburg spent Sunday with home folks. Mrs. James Pryor, Mrs.
Laura Ford and Mr. Edward Thurman were the guests of Mr. and Mrs.
S. F. Carter and Mrs. Springs Sunday. Rev. L. R. Diggs and wife and Mr. W. P. Pope spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Shockley.
Mr. and Mrs. James Maxwell and family spent Sunday with Mr. W. M.
