GLORIOUS TENNESSEE.

It is a glorious thing to live in Tennessee. September's glory is peculiar to itself, but September is not the only month in the year in Tennessee which is glorious as well as glorious. A pean to all the months of the year, both singly and collectively, might be sung with truth. The months as they come and go in Tennessee delight us by their constant change, their infinite variety. Radiant summer is now melting into glorious autumn, to be succeeded in due course by the invigorating and regenerating cold of winter. Summer, autumn, winter, spring—each is glorious in Tennessee. The truth is that the climate in Tennessee, whether it be that of September or January, or of May or October, it is one of Tennessee's assets. We do not brag about it particularly and we do not commercialize it as do some of our sister states, but what would we be worth without it? It is climate which produces red blooded boys and girls—men and women of the highest type of citizenship—to say nothing of the magnificent crops of corn, cotton, wheat, potatoes, cattle, hogs and other things. Every month of the year is picturesque and inspiring in Tennessee. Each has its own individual beauty and charm, golden September being no more glorious in its own way than smiling June. Here's to all of them.

UP AND AT 'EM.

Well, we didn't exactly accomplish our aim in the primary Thursday. We'll do better Sept. 27th. Hilary Howse is the untrammelled choice of the voters of Nashville for Mayor, and it will be proven decisively in the next setto. The Negro voters did nobly, there were some stay-at-homes who must be gotten out to vote on the 27th inst. The loyal citizens of Nashville owe to themselves to put Howse back in the Mayors chair where he rightfully belongs. We cannot afford to do otherwise. It would be base ingratitude. Howse made it possible for us to enjoy Hadley Park, the Negro Library. He took the fetters from the City Prisoners. He provided the tuberculosis hospital. He is one of our most valiant friends in the time of need, and distress and that what counts. We must not forget his kind deeds which is proverbial of his whole life. He is Hilary E. Howse, and there is no other Hilary E. Howse, and we are for him for no other reason than he is what he is. Let us all gird our armor on anew and give battle to the foes of charity and generosity. Hilary E. Howse, has never gratuitously insulted the intelligence of any race, creed or color as some others we might mention have done. No, he is too big and broad for small contentions like that. Hilary Howse is a man, one of Gods noblest creatures, and deserves to fare well at the hands of his fellow man.

ROBERT ELLIOTT.

Robt. Elliott, and Paul Treanor, have got to go it again. The Globe thinks the voters of Nashville deserve clean streets, wholesome water, and a creditable work house. That being the fact, Robt. Elliott should be re-elected to his position. He has done his duty and that is all he is required of any official. Now the foregoing being true, we cannot see how the citizens of Nashville can withhold an endorsement. So on Sept. 27th do what you can for Robt. Elliott, he is the man for a man's size job.

PROF. WORK AS MANAGER.

The Howse headquarters under the management of Prof. J. W. Work, did herculean service for its choice for Mayor. There was some real energy exerted which brought good results. The old time beaten methods were discarded, the ancient stereotyped make-believe efforts were given a formal leave of absence, and sure enough got-together proclivities were much in evidence. Prof. Work was given whole hearted assistance by some of our foremost citizens whom leaders in former campaigns could not command. Prof. Work has the confidence of the entire Negro population of Nashville, and when he leads, the people are not afraid to follow. Unlike other so-called leaders, he wears no man's neck piece. He thinks and plans for himself. He has no dangerous past to loom up before him and destroy the good that he may accomplish in future campaigns. Prof. Work can give a reliable and trustworthy account of all of his dealings in the contest for Mayor. He has certainly made the only real first class Negro campaign manager that Nashville has seen in many a moon.

Furthermore, if our men folks would evince one-tenth of the interest in trying to better Nashville's inadequate school facilities as they evince in trying to elect their favorites to city office the millennium would dawn in a hurry.

"Hear the children gaily shout half past four, and school is out." Well that used to be, but now we really don't know "when school is out."

"Wilson Tires of Congress" says a news head. Any city directory will supply further names which may be substituted for that of "Wilson."

After all, any discussion as to whether King Constantine leaped or was pushed is rather academic at the present stage of the proceedings.

It is really nauseating to see some of our professional and business men take themselves so darn seriously when discussing ward politics.

If a certain would be Negro politician in Nashville would motorize his feet, he might make some headway as a leader of men.

The legitimacy of an Imperial family is no longer an issue in the world. It is the legitimacy of imperialism that is at the bar.

MOUNTED OFFICER SPARKS STARTED NEGRO RAID.

Struck Two Soldiers With Revolver and Shot When One Ran Away—Wild Rumors Follow Clash.

Houston, Tex., August 29.—Mounted Officer Lee Sparks, who testified that he struck two of the Negro soldiers—one of them Corporal Baltimore—with his pistol last Thursday afternoon, a few hours before the riot, was one of the principal witnesses to take the stand today in the inquiry being conducted by a board of citizens as representatives of the municipality into the riots which cost seventeen lives.

It was this Clash between the police and negro soldiers that caused a rumor to reach the Negro camp that Corporal Baltimore had been killed by a policeman. That rumor spread among the Negro soldiers and brought to a climax a smouldering feeling against policeman. Negro soldiers had been harboring for nearly two weeks.

Officer Sparks told the board of inquiry that he struck the first Negro four times with his revolver and that Corporal Baltimore was struck once by him. When Baltimore started to run a shot was fired into the ground to halt him.

On the afternoon that Sparks had his trouble with the two Negro soldiers he was accompanied by Officer Rufe Daniels. Daniels met his death a few hours later at the hands of the angry Negro soldiers on Sun Pelipe street. Officer Sparks also told the board that for striking the soldier he drew a suspension from the police force at the hands of Superintendent of Police Brock.

The suspension never went into effect as Sparks answered the riot call and has since continued to perform his duty as an officer.

MRS. DELPHIA SHANFORD MAXWELL GONE.

She passed into eternal adriyF August 10th, 1917. She was born about 1850 in North Georgia. She was converted when a child. She was baptized by her father in Georgia. She joined Mt. Bethlehem Baptist Church, South Pittsburg, Tenn., about 33 years ago during the pastorate of the late Rev. Frank Cobb. She was twice married and survived her first husband, Mr. Billy Shanford, after a union of twenty years. After living in loneliness in widowhood a reasonable period she was married to Mr. L. D. Maxwell October 31, 1906, making a total of about thirty-one years spent in the bonds of wedlock, a faithful and loving wife. Her last words were witnessed by her husband, L. D. Maxwell, her sister-in-law, Mrs. Henry Maxwell of Warrance, near daughter, Mrs. Pearlie Covington, Rock Mart, Ga., and Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Hill, this city. Her words: "I am willing and ready to die," etc. "There is nothing between me and my Saviour."

Sunday, the 13th her remains were brought to Mt. Bethlehem Baptist Church in Undertaker Wilkerson's funeral car, followed by relatives and friends as well as lodge sisters of O. E. S.; C. C.; and H. of these respective fraternities. Her funeral was very impressively preached by Rev. J. T. Martin, pastor. All that was mortal of Mrs. Maxwell was placed in the city cemetery, using the beautiful ritualistic burial ceremony of the O. E. S., followed by the C. C. and then by the H. of R., in all of these she had made a faithful member as well as in the church. Obituaries were read by Mrs. S. E. Oliver, Mrs. J. M. Hawkins and Mrs. M. E. Martin.

"Sleep on dear sister Maxwell, On thy Saviour's breast; We are doubly determined to meet thee.

In that Haven of Rest." Request of the lodges, but failed to get those Resolutions.—Edl. or.

ROCTOR T. B. SPENCER CROSSES THE BAR.

Dr. Astrup went to the funeral. The medical fraternity has lost one of its best physicians in the death of Dr. Spencer. While he was not so widely known he was a "David" in fame in his immediate territory. He must have merited it as he was in a few miles of the town in which he was reared. Being left an orphan when a youth, he was determined to make a man of himself and doubled that determination as he developed into manhood. He was a high-school graduate of his home town, McMinnville. He attended McSherry Medical College and graduated there about 10 years ago. He was married to Miss-Charlotte of Chattanooga and began his practice at Tullahoma, where he made "ago" of his profession and his wife was elected Assistant teacher in the public school there, which position she has filled satisfactorily for several years. Not only the profession has lost a physician, but the public generally has lost a prominent personage.

YOU CAN HAVE LONG STRAIGHT HAIR If Anxious to Improve Your Hair and General Appearance Read This Carefully

There are so many so-called hair-growers on the market, a large number of which are nothing more than perturbed grease, it is no wonder people get discouraged and lose faith in all hair tonics. In deciding on what to use on your scalp be sure and get a remedy of proven merit. Seeb's Quinoid is a highly medicated pomade that has stood the test of time. It is the invention of a New York chemist, and is made under the personal supervision of a licensed pharmacist of many years' experience. Quinoid stimulates and nourishes the roots of the hair, causing a natural growth of long hair. It makes the hair soft, smooth and glossy, and easy to put up in the style desired. To get the best results from the use of Quinoid the scalp should be shampooed at regular intervals with Seeb's Quinoid. Quinoid is made entirely out of vegetable oils, principally coconut oil, and contains no animal fat of any kind. It lathers very freely and is a thorough cleanser. Quinoid leaves the hair soft and fluffy, and imparts a refreshing feeling to the scalp, unequalled by any other shampoo. Do not accept any substitute, but insist on getting Seeb's Quinoid and Seeb's Quinoid, asking for the name by the full name. If your druggist or dealer does not stock these two articles ask him to obtain them for you from his wholesaler. The price is 25c each. Write to Seeb Drug Co., 75 East 13th street, New York City, for a sample, mentioning the name of this paper.—Adv.
