WHAT OTHERS SAY.
A SUCCESSFUL BANKING INSTITUTION.

The People's Savings Bank and Trust Co., located at 410 Cedar street, (the youngest institution of the kind in the city, is enjoying a measure of prosperity which its most anguine friends and ardent supporters did not expect within such a short period of time. It is regarded as the people's institution, just what its name signifies. The poorest man, the humblest walks of life, feels in ease and contentment and a de gree of satisfaction within its walls that he does not feel in other similar places. He is given a kind, considerate sympathetic hearing; and, if his application for help has merit and worthiness, his business wants are met in a strictly business manner. The officials of this bank are polite, painstaking and obliging; they are impartial in their dealing; no customer is given the preference over another because of the color of his skin, the texture of his hair, or his standing in the social body. Because of the magnificent business made by this young bank is growing most rapidly. Its volume of business is increasing daily, and its friends are continually multiplying among the common people. In the banking world the poor man's sheldon checks as well as the large drafts and checks of the more wealthy. The officials of this bank have learned that politeness is like an air-cushion—there may be jolting solid in it, but it eases the jolt wonderfully. This bank has nearly two thousand depositors, who feel that their money is a secure and safe within its vaults as if it were in United States Bonds. The bank has fully Eighty Thousand Dollars in resources, and is well prepared to give its customers and patrons perfect satisfaction.

WASHINGTON'S GROWTH CHECKED.

Demand for the Return of the Right to Vote to Black and White Citizens of the District of Columbia—Wealthy Citizens Being Driven Away.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 16.—Washington, the Capital of the Nation, still clamors for the right of suffrage. Years ago, the franchise was taken away from white citizens so as to deprive colored citizens of the right to vote, but like all such injustices this prohibition against colored citizens has reached, and it is now White Washington which is clamoring loudly for a return to the Days of Suffrage. The Washington (D. C.) Times has a most vehement plea in its issue of today, and it is worth reading in its entirety. It compares conditions in Washington with Paris, capital of the French nation, and says: "The city of Paris—although some would say from the middle West—has known it is a temperate city, far more temperate for instance, than the average prohibition city of the United States. In Paris they have temperance and NOT prohibition. And they have visitors from all over the world that spend tens of millions annually, and contribute to the vast wealth of Paris. If Paris were like Washington, which is a temperate city, and a group of Congressmen, indifferent to the rights and interests of hundreds of thousands of citizens should make Paris a prohibition city, as Congress is about to make a prohibition city of Washington, what do you think would happen to Paris? What would become of the prosperity of that city, of its throng of visitors from all over the world? Prohibition would affect Paris as the war affects her now—putting a damper on gaiety, on travel and on prosperity. Prohibition will affect Washington as it would affect Paris—if the Parisians were unfortunate enough to live in a city where they had no vote, Washington by prohibition, which will make of the Nation's Capital a middle West dreary prohibition example, ruled by big meaning and ignorant prohibitionists. Washington with a sane government, free from fanaticism, would inevitably become the great center of wealth and social life in the United States. More and more well-to-do citizens come here to live, bringing with them the spending of wealth and the creation of prosperity. More and more would increase the value of the land in this city, the building of magnificent houses, the possibility of just and reasonable taxation, revenues constantly increasing without hardship, because of the ever growing influx of wealthy citizens—and all to Washington's advantage. But wealth is NOT prohibitionist. Ice water is not the beverage of the successful man—prohibition 'facts' to the contrary notwithstanding. It is not ice water that gave his fortune to J. Pierpont Morgan, although Mr. Morgan has been killed by E. H. Harriman before his time. There have been too many such cases. American citizens that cannot trust themselves far from the ice water cities. But these are not the SUCCESSFUL men of America or of the world. They are not those that, if permitted, would and WILL make Washington the city of wealth and prosperity that it ought to be.

NATIONAL NEWS NOTES.

Brief Bits of News and Comments On Men and Measures.

NEGRO SELECTIVES WARMLY WELCOMED AT ATLANTA.

Atlanta, Georgia, Oct. 16.—Some parts of the South may be opposed to the Negro Soldier, but Atlanta, located in the heart of the South, greeted the Negro draft men as it should to its white draft men when they began to arrive last week. The Atlanta Constitution calls attention on its first page to the arrangements made for the reception of the colored men, and to the camp activities for their enjoyment which are being organized. The Constitution says that these camp activities for colored men will vary in no way from those organized for the white selectmen. Every effort will be made to minimize friction and misunderstanding.

ST. ANDREWS PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Twentieth Sunday after Trinity. Rally Day service at 11 a. m. Lessons Eph. 5:15-21. St. Matt. 22:1-14.

Early services and meditation on "God's Care of the Poor." Vesper services and sermon on "The Two Foundations."

The Woman's Guild service was well attended and a very beautiful and helpful program rendered. The public is invited to attend the rally day service. Fine program.

Dear Mr. Boyd: "Permit me to say to you that our school has grown wonderfully more than ever since you were here in August and delivered the address on 'Front Line Sunday Schools' before the Eastern Shore Association in this place. Our Sunday school workers who were in attendance in large numbers, and who had been invited to hear you, went away inspired to do greater work. 'I do not know of any address or sermon that has put so much life and energy into our workers. Our superintendent, and teachers began the very next Sunday to follow your advice. They drank deep from the well of your experience. If your lecture effect other communities and schools as it has effected and inspired ours, the time will not be far distant when there will be 'Front Line Sunday Schools' all over this broad land and country. 'Continue the work that you are doing. Your reward is sure. I trust that I may be able to attend the session of the Sunday School Congress next year.' Mrs. Wright.

At St. Luke A. M. E. Church on the third Sunday, October 21, 1917, will be a grand closing dollar money rally for the purpose of making the reports round for the annual conference. Some of the able and noted speakers of the day are Rev. S. S. Page and Rev. A. M. Mair of Corinthia Church, Hon. A. N. Johnson, who has won much affection at sway over West Nashville, the pastor, Rev. Jas. K. Childers is doing all he can to raise his conference claims. Every church member and friend is cordially invited to attend. The sisters of the church will be the aid of Mrs. H. E. Kirby is planning for Tuesday night an entertainment known as the 'Stock Wedding.' The bride and groom both being very small children. The bride being Miss Claude M. Totty the beautiful little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Totty of 42nd Avenue and groom being little Nathaniel Horton.

Miss Walton, contralto, continued her favorite. Miss Curran, soprano, ever a star; Miss White, a mistress of piano technique. The young men Messrs. Jones, Gilbert, Williams and Williams, were potent factors. Mrs. Townsend's compliments for her skillful training and interpretation were many. The tour ended in Memphis, which carried off the honors by the biggest crowd of the season. That the people appreciate the work of President Townsend, called by many the 'Boy President,' on account of his age, was shown in a donation of $500 (five hundred dollars) by Mr. Theophilus Bond of Madison, Ark., a wealthy planter and graduate of Roger. Mr. Bond certainly has not, as some others, forgotten his alma mater. The success of the trip is due Mrs. A. M. Townsend, whose management and keen appreciation of shifting circumstances and conditions and sacrifices were a stimulus to Roger. All the singers are down to study. Great history for the school male. Many new students, Roger in class standing. President Townsend smiling (the one he never loses). Thus Roger Williams is opened for another successful year.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the 15th Avenue Baptist Church met with Mrs. Paralee Hughes at her residence, 911 14th Avenue, N. The meeting was opened with song and prayer by the president. The business part of the meeting was carried out with the presence of Miss Cushing from the Fireside School who made a brief talk about the comfort bugs which all agreed to make for our soldier boys who are in service for our country. All members responded with due. The meeting was dismissed with prayer. The hostess, Mrs. Hughes, assisted by Mrs. Mary King, served a two course menu, which was enjoyed to the highest by all present. Quite a number was present. The Auxiliary will give a Tack Party the last Thursday night in this month.

THE QUALITY AMUSEMENT COMPANY.

The Lincoln and the Bijou are putting on some excellent vaudeville this week. Hamboe Jones and Co. Wats Bros. Davenport and Davenport are delivering the goods nightly to pleased audiences.

The excel and the Star are having some splendid pictures that all should see. Manager Moore, especially deserves encouragement not because he is a Negro but rather because he gives you the best in pictures.

The Quality Amusement Company comes to the Howard next week in "The Heart of Weona." The cast will include Cleo Desmond, Carlotta Freeman, Arthur T. Ray, Charles Moore, Clarence E. Muse, Ophelia B. Muse, H. L. Pryor, Andrew S. Bishop and others.

Washington friends are anxious to hear from Earl and Lulu Walton, Bessie Oliver, Brown-Miller, Browne and Demont and the members of The Smarter Set.

Mary Lee Brown, the butterfly dancer and posing wonder, is at the Empire Theater, Lynchburg, Va. this week.

S. H. Rudley, with Dave Marion's World of Frolic combination, is scheduled for the Gayety week of October 23. He will be entertained by the Boosters and Knockers on Halloween night.

"Dr. Beans From Boston" at the Howard last week was a "frost," the first that has been put over the usually astute manager Thomas in a long time. The mantle of charity is thrown over the distressing details.

Miss Marjorie Sipp, a soubrette of talent has been painfully ill for the past week here. She was unable to appear in the "Dr. Beans" production, in which she was announced as leading lady.

Miss Goldie Chappelle was at Dudley's last week and is at the Blue Mouse this week, with more Dudley time to follow. She is putting on a fine singing act.

Carrier Lockhart, house manager at the Mid-City, has been drawn for the United States National Army and will go with the boys to Camp Meade.

MRS. JENNIE STRATTON ENTERTAINS.

The Misses Lewery of Nashville and a number of Meharry students were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Stratton, 4853 Lanxley Ave., Chicago, Ill.

The guests were entertained by the sweet singing of little Lenard Loutens who is now registered in the city school of Chicago.

Whist and music were the features of the evening. A two course luncheon was served. The party left at a late hour with pleasant memories of the hostess
