many friends regretting her departure and extend to her best wishes and God's speed in her new work, supervising domestic science in the rural Union City. Little Willie Von Brandon, the baby son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brandon gave his oldest sister, Gentry, a terrible blow on her head with a broom stick, the blow gave his sister a weeping Xmas. A suggestion from Prof. J. R. Patton, musician, gave the beautiful church of a Xmas tree and unique idea of a Xmas tree. Presuming that the dear professor entertained an idea that a tree would picture breezes too chilly for prosents of all descriptions, is why for the suggestion of a cozy little house beautifully decorated with Old Glory in the air from the steeple of this structure. It was a beautiful and beautiful and wonderful sight of mother gave cause for a three week visit of Miss Eva Cook from St. Louis.
