

REJOICING OVER THE RESULTS Lung-Vita Relieved Her Lung Trouble of Years' Stand! IMPROVEMENT AT ONCE

"I have suffered for years with weak lungs and had a dreadful cough," says Mrs. Katie Reed, who lives at 350 Twenty-fourth avenue north, Nashville, Tenn., in her statement given Feb. 8, 1917. "I could not stop it at all, though I treated it, until I began taking Lung-Vita. But with this medicine I could notice that the cough was leaving, and soreness in my chest was better before I had taken a half bottle. And I continued to improve as I took the Lung-Vita, and am now rejoicing over the effects of my medicine, and think it is worth its weight in gold to people who have sore lungs or a cough."

Lung-Vita is sold by druggists and dealers. (Adv)

I was out on one of my old missionary tours last week in the Cumberland River District Association, where I served as district missionary for twelve years. Places visited were Springfield, Adams Station, Ador Hill, Guthrie, Ky. There I met Rev. F. D. Dennis, D. Moderator of the Cumberland River Association, pastor of the Gifford Baptist Church State line and found him in four great services, Sunday school with an attendance of 150, at the eleven o'clock service, the K. of P's had their annual Thanksgiving services, Communion was administered in the afternoon. Dr. Dennis is a broad hearted pastor and a reliable Baptist. He is making great efforts to help to entertain the state convention in Clarksville and his Association as Moderator and his Sunday school gave the missionary $2.00 and the church contributed $3.00 by order of Rev. Dennis.

OUT OF TOWN NOTES

SOUTH PITTSBURG. Easter was an ideal day in these parts. The weather was just a little wintry; just cold enough to wear a winter wrap over a light-weight frock. Notwithstanding the economy effort, there were many pretty dresses and hats conspicuous in Sunday school and in church. Yes and we were about to forget to say many pretty shoes. Kids varying in color were also very conspicuous. The Easter programs of the different churches varied in form but all of them were tastefully carried out. A. P. Church rendered a splendid program. Mr. James Polk, Mr. and Mrs. Fleming, promoters. The A. M. E. Zion Church had a most unique performance while the A. M. E. program was in a manner perfect and the Mt. Bethlehem Baptist program was short and spicy, $15 being the collection. Randolph Chapel M. E. was the most elaborate of the day. Collection, $34. Mesdames Jessie Mae Jones and Pauline Sims of Bridgeport, Ala., were the guests of Mrs. Lillie Cox through Sunday. Mr. Clyde Gaines and Miss Annie Williams were united in holy bonds of matrimony one day last week in Comfort, Tenn. They both are industrious young people and Miss Annie is accused of being very pretty and Mr. Gaines of being the most handsome of the Gaines brothers. Congratulations. Mrs. Ediza Edge is again a reader of the Nashville Globe. Mrs. J. M. Hawkins has bought out the Hawkins heirs' interest in the Hawkins homestead and is the sole owner herself. Mr. H. Hooker was out of town again recently. Is that the way you are going to do all the time, old chap? It's all right. I was just "spresen" myself. Mr. George Ziegler, of Key West, Fla., is at Mesdames Bivens and Brooks for an indefinite period. Mr. R. Glover of Birmingham, Ala., is under the appointment of the manager of the telephone company. Miss Louise Lamberson has returned from Stevenson, Ala., where she attended the funeral and burial of her grandmother, Mrs. Betsy Lamberson, who was about 83 years old. Friends here will be surprised to learn that Miss Estella Sims of Chattanooga who taught at Orme is married to a Mr. James Phillips of Chattanooga. Mrs. Jarrett Jones of Chattanooga spent Easter with her folks. Mr. Wyatt Waites is planning on being in a house to himself soon. That's all right. Get you a "rib." Trooper Eddy Robinson writes from Fort Allapachie, Ariz., a very encouraging letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Robinson, this city. The concert put on at the A. M. E. Zion Church by Mrs. E. M. Oliver was well attended and Rev. Mr. McFields and his people appreciate the work of Mrs. Oliver and the patronage of the people. A revival effort by the Baptist congregation and pastor will begin Sunday, April 7th. It is for all the people.

SPRING HILL. The Easter program under the direction of Mrs. L. E. Overton was quite grand. The church was appropriately decorated for the occasion. The decorations typifying the peace of the Easter day. Mr. E. A. Bond furnished some very pretty music for the occasion. Mr. S. B. Bond, Sr., offered prayer and delivered a fine address to the children. The program was a decided success from the beginning to the end and the children were at their best in every way. Mr. E. A. Bond sang a beautiful solo. Mrs. Overton is a fine worker with children. Dr. D. J. Mitchell, of Franklin, was present and gave a fine address. He also filled the pulpit at night. The house was very largely crowded during the exercises. The Social Union's first quarter met with St. Mark Baptist Church. Rev. Green Thompson, pastor. Devotional exercises, Brother Richard Kirell sang "Lord in the morning thou shalt hear." Introduction by Rev. Alex Harlan. Welcome by Rev. Henry McCullum. There was a large delegation from Nashville and the meeting was a success. The collection was $100.69. Roll of officers: President, Rev. Green Thompson; vice president, Elder McMeans; chaplain, Sister Rachel Graham; spokesman, Sister Mary Black; clerk, Sister Izra Stratton; assistant clerk, Sister Eva Myers. The Spring Hill Improvement Association met March 29, 1918 at the M. E. Church with the president in the chair. Song which was one of the best. Minutes of the last meeting were read, after which Miss Cannon outlined the work for the public school. The meeting adjourned to meet again the third week in April. The following were elected to be on funds for the school: Miss Cassia Cannon, Mr. Rush Renfro, Albert McKissack, Dr. Overton, Peter Bond, S. B. Bond, president; M. L. Byers, vice president; L. E. Overton, secretary; L. R. Alderson, treasurer. Mr. W. M. McLemore, a well known citizen of this community died Sunday night at 5 o'clock. He has been sick for quite a while. The funeral will be held Wednesday, conducted by Rev. A. B. Thompson and Rev. Green Thompson at the M. E. Church, which he was member for several years. Mrs. Lizzie Ellison died Sunday night at 12 o'clock. Her funeral will be Tuesday, conducted by Rev. Green Thompson. Many visitors were in our town Sunday. Mrs. Lizzie Caruthers and Miss Mary Hargrave of Nashville were here Sunday to attend the social union and to see their friends, who were more than glad to see them. Mr. Sam C. Bond of A and I State Normal was here to spend Easter with his parents and friends. Miss Mamie Blair has gone to Nashville to her post of duty. We were very sorry to see her go but hope she will be with us real soon. Rev. Ernest Foster filled the pulpit at the Baptist church Wednesday night. Rev. Butler and Deason Caruthers were also here Sunday and many other visiting friends. We were more than glad to see them. Mr. Willie Blair, the son of Mr. J. W. Blair, was called to the war service. He left Friday for the camp.

PROVIDENCE NOTES. We, the Sunday school of Lake Providence, are doing a splendid work. Sunday morning the school was called to order by the superintendent at 9:30 o'clock. Teachers took charge of the classes for 30 minutes. Classes numbered four, composed of the young ladies who received the banner. The amount contributed was $2c. (The total amount was $1. The 11 o'clock service was largely attended, as a rally was on for the day in behalf of the pastor's club. Song for opening was led by Brother R. B. Edmondson. Prayer, Brother Sam Pointer, Song, pastor, Rev. S. F. Swift. "Come, ye that love the Lord." Scripture reading by Rev. Jackson from Isaiah 55, Song by Rev. F. Edmondson, "That awful day will surely come." Prayer by Rev. R. B. Davis. Song by the choir, "Rock of Ages." Introduction of the speaker of the hour by our pastor. The speaker was Rev. E. W. Hawthorne, one of the noble ministers that Nashville affords. He is also a national Sunday school commander. He is a man whom we all as missionaries are proud of. He preached a very strong sermon from Rev. 2:7, subject, "The Message of the Earth to the Modern Sunday School." Text, "He that hath ears let him hear, what the Spirit saith." After a very strong sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr. Hawthorne the congregation joined in with the pastor and sang with the spirit and understanding "I heard the voice of Jesus saying."

CARD OF APPRECIATION. Brownsville, Tenn., April 3, 1918. I take this method in thanking my many friends for their kindness shown during the illness and death of my loving husband, Mr. Robert McLean, also for the beautiful floral offerings. (Mrs.) Bertha (Dixon) McLin.

CARD OF APPRECIATION. Brownsville, Tenn., April 3, 1918. We wish to thank our many friends for their loving sympathy and many kindnesses shown during the illness and death of our devoted wife, daughter and sister, Mrs. Ethel (Tallaferro) Hill, also for the beautiful floral offerings. Alex Hill, husband. (Mrs.) Elsie Tallaferro, Mother. Albert, Earle, Erma and Clarence Tallaferro, brothers.

LEBANON. Mrs. Mary Muhead of Chicago, Ill., is with friends here this week. Miss Bettie Clark of Water Town, Tenn., was a pleasant visitor of this place Friday. Mr. Ernest Hancock left today for Cleveland, Ohio, where he will spend the spring and summer. Mr. Will Henry Allen of Newport News, Va., Camp Hill, spent Friday in Lebanon and dined at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Anderson and left on the evening train accompanied by his wife, Mrs. Amerika Allen, and little daughter, Novella, for Carthage to spend the night with their mother, Mrs. Albert Johnson. They will also visit Mr. Allen's mother at Donelson and stop over in Nashville and leave Tuesday for Virginia, where they will make their future home. Miss Nannie Louise Myles of Walden spent Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Myles. Mr. Ernie Muhead spent Sunday in Lebanon. Prof. N. C. Woods' little granddaughter of Chicago, Ill., is spending the week with him. The series of meetings closed on Thursday night at Pickett Chapel M. E. Church on account of fire. The parsonage was burned down and the church suffered over a thousand dollar damage. The church was covered by insurance, but no insurance on the parsonage and household furniture. The pastor, Rev. T. W. Johnson, and Rev. W. B. Crenshaw lost all their clothing in the fire. We extend to Dr. T. W. Johnson and Rev. W. B. Crenshaw our heartfelt sympathy. The church is soon to be repaired and the parsonage rebuilt. The people of said church are now in Benevolent Hall. Rev. T. W. Johnson was in a strange pulp Sunday morning but he was a live wire. Sunday night Mrs. A. L. Anderson had charge of the Easter program, which proved to be quite a success. Total collection, $47.10. Mr. Hershel Blackmon, of Cookeville, Tenn., spent Sunday here. He left Monday for Nashville, where he will spend a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Antreane and children of Water Town spent Easter in Lebanon with his mother, Mrs. John Sweat, of East Main street. After being served a most delicious dinner the children enjoyed an Easter egg hunt given by little Miss Julia Sweet. Mr. Shelby Clark and his lady friend spent a happy Easter in Lebanon

Afterwards prayer was offered by Rev. Jackson. Next a collection was raised by Deacons Elmore and Lee amounting to $15.50. Benediction by Rev. Dr. Hawthorne. Afternoon Service. Song by Sister Hattie Whitlow. The congregation sang with her "Jesus Christ I long to find." Prayer by Brother John Collins. Song by Third Avenue Baptist Church Choir. Prayer by Rev. Porter, pastor Third Avenue Baptist Church. Solo, Rev. E. W. Hawthorne. "Some day the silver cord will break. The speaker of the afternoon was introduced by our pastor. The speaker was Rev. Prince Condelee, a native young man of Africa, who is here in school. He preached a very strong sermon. His text was "A Christian's Duty." After the sermon the choir sang then prayer was offered by Brother Russell, a deacon of Third Avenue Baptist church. After prayer the congregation joined in with Pastor Swift and sang an old familiar hymn, "I wish my mother had not died." Next a collection was raised by Deacons Russell and a deacon of Fifteenth Avenue Baptist Church amounting to $11. After the collection the benediction was announced. Cream and cake were then served to all the people and was very much enjoyed.

GUTHRIE (KY.). Guthrie, like other towns, is stirred up over the war, but it is encouraging to see the colored soldiers and would-be soldiers passing through by the thousands. Montgomery Co. Lane sent one hundred and forty-five men with more to follow. The official Python anniversary services of State Lane Lodge No. 231 and Courts No. 177 were held at Guildfield Baptist Church on the third Sunday in March. Mr. E. D. Warfield was Chancellor Commander for the occasion. A special program was rendered in which a short talk was made by Mr. James Snadon and an excellent paper by Mrs. Emma Clark to an appreciative audience. Dr. A. M. Townsend, M. M. D., President of Rogers Williams University, Nashville, Tenn., delivered an appropriate and patriotic sermon. Dr. W. Justin Wayte was Master of Ceremonies.

WARTRACE. The second quarterly meeting of the Wartrace Circuit was held March 23 and 24th, at Union Ridge A. M. E. Church by Rev. L. J. Johnson in the absence of the Presiding Elder Rev. Hallburton of Haley preached March 23rd at 11:00 o'clock. He preached a powerful sermon which was enjoyed by everyone. Rev. Johnson, the president of Turner College, on Sunday preached two able and instructive sermons. Rev. J. B. Foxall, pastor, is doing a great work. He is the right man in the right place. The people are glad to have such a leader to follow. It was a most wonderful sight to see the dinner that the good sisters of Union Ridge had to feed the people. Rev. L. J. Johnson, P. E., opened the session at 2:00 p. m., and after organization, called for reports. Every department was ready and made reports which showed that they had been loyal at work. We raised for the quarter $94.76. God bless these men as leaders. Rev. J. W. Howard was also present. Easter, March 31st, was also a high day. The Easter exercise at St. Paul A. M. E. Church, Wartrace, Sunday night was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Sadie Reynolds. Total raised from all points, $21.36.

SHELBYVILLE. The red and blue contest closed at the A. M. E. Church Sunday night. It was indeed a battle royal. The team, Miss Coma Davidson, raised bids, led by their most efficient captain, Mrs. Clay Peppers, raised $74.97. Surely these worthy ladies and their helpers deserve and have the compliments of Woodfork chapel. It was aimed to raise in this rally $50. The amount raised was $150. The church is carried away with its scholastic victory. Rev. W. A. Smith and wife will all its might to make his stay a pleasant one. He does not sing the song "All of self and none of thee; but some for self and some for thee. He proposes to erect a parsonage on the Dixie Highway that will be a credit to the church and to the race. The rally at the M. E. between the reds, the white, and the blues, also ended Sunday night. The reds under the captaincy of Miss Cleudie Rire won the total amount raised was $33.11. President L. J. Johnson filled the pulpit Sunday night at the M. E. Church and preached a profound discourse. Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Willis have returned from Nashville. Mr. Willis is here to answer the call of the government. Mr. Thomas Hutton of Roanoke, Va., is here visiting his mother who is very ill at this writing. Mr. Ceola Bowman of Chattanooga is here at the head of his mother, Mrs. Elmore Bowman who is quite sick. Mr. Geo. Wilhote and Mr. Willie Sims have returned from St. Louis. They report a big time. By far the largest gathering of Negroes that ever assembled in the court house was here Saturday in a farewell meeting for the men who leave for Camp Meade. The meeting was presided over by Prof. J. C. McAdams who sounded the keynote of the occasion in a fifteen minutes address. Lawyer E. Sheppard, legal advisor to the local board next made a stirring address. The speech of the occasion was made by Rev. W. A. Smith, who raised the audience to a high pitch of enthusiasm. He addressed the white auditors in a naive and characteristic way that provoked much laughter. It was a great speech and was much complimented. The last speaker of the program was President L. J. Johnson, who owing to an urgent engagement spoke only a few moments. Mr. J. A. Woods, town secretary, gave special instructions on insurance, and Mr. Jones, the insurance man, presented each man with a cigar, thus closed an inspiring and most patriotic meeting. The house occupied by Mrs. Emma Tillman and Mrs. Ellen Mack, and owned by Mrs. Emma Cartwright, was destroyed by fire Monday at noon. Mrs. Tillman's belongings were saved; those of Mrs. Mack were lost. Late in the afternoon of the same day the house of Mrs. Fannie Little was burned with all the contents. The reception given Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Parker was one of the noted occasions of the week. Accompanying the bridal party from Winchester, were Mr. Will Trigg and Miss Almeda Finch of Winchester, and Miss Pauline Fletcher of Fayetteville. The following persons were present: Mr. and Mrs. Hopewood, Mrs. W. C. and Mrs. J. P. Cartwright, Mrs. M. D. Key, Mrs. Estie Davis and son, Mr. and Mrs. Leftwich, Mr. Monroe Gill, Mr. Sam Oates and son, Rev. and Mrs. E. F. Gooch, Mrs. Sallie Trill, Mrs. Theora Campbell, Mrs. Lizzie Ray and Mrs. Della Carpenter. It was unanimously voted that the occasion would be long remembered. Monday night at the A. M. E. Church, a banquet was given to the departing soldiers. The house was full. Several short addresses were made by several persons present. Responses were made by Mr. Willie Bell, Dr. Wilson and Dr. Suggs. The occasion, though tinged with sadness, was greatly enjoyed. The following Shelbyville

COLUMBIA. Dr. C. O. Hunter made a business trip to Memphis last week. Prof. J. H. Kelly spent Easter in Lebanon with his daughter, Mrs. A. Pearl Crews. Miss Susie Brown of State Normal, Nashville, spent the Easter holidays with her mother on East 11th street. The days of the school year of the C. H. P. Schooled are going forward. We are progressing nicely after a second quarterly examination. The advanced classes are now preparing for a successful commencement. We are doing our bit toward winning the war. We are planning to have one of the most productive gardens of Columbia. During the past month Columbia was visited by several distinguished out of town guests and we are glad to say that they did not forget to visit our school. They were Mrs. Burrus, of Lawrenceburg, Tenn.; Mrs. Blevings, of Birmingham, Ala., and Prof. Wallace, of Greensboro, S. C. Each gave us very instructive talks. The seniors were especially delighted with Dr. Wallace's visit to our geometry class and appreciated very much the talk he gave upon the subject. Rev. Dr. F. Chickzie Abyssinian Prince and dean of the University of Princeton, Indiana, visited our school recently. Mr. Brown, the science teacher, who has been absent on account of illness, is back in the school room again. Rev. Womack is protracting a meeting at the Lebanon Baptist church. Miss Stella Brown was one of the prize winners in the recent oratorical contest at State Normal. Miss Brown is a product of the Columbia Public School. As a pupil of the State Normal she has made good along all lines. Beginning with the Sabbath school special Easter services were held at St. Paul. A well prepared and beautifully rendered program was presented and the audience enjoyed the occasion. The Easter financial offering was larger than for several years. At 8 p. m., a sacred concert was presented to a very large audience. Miss Alleen M. Bowen was hostess to a few of her little friends at the beautiful home of Mrs. E. McLemore on W. 7th street. The hostess received the guests at her private reception room. The evening was passed in playing house games and out-door games in the beautiful flower garden. The guests were then, invited into the handsome library where a delightful course was served. Those partaking of Miss Bowen's hospitality were Misses Lucile Lawrence, Agnes Bradshaw, Caroline Hunter and Hretnae Hunter. Easter day was most beautifully observed at Bethel A. M. E. Church. A glorious sunrise meeting was held in which a large number participated. Rev. W. H. Adams, the pastor, preached a most interesting sermon at 11:00 o'clock a. m., using for his text, "And if Christ be not risen then your faith is vain also." Cor. 15:14. An Easter program was rendered Sunday evening at 8 o'clock by the primary and intermediate classes of the Sunday school consisting of choruses, solos, recitations, group exercises and dialogues. Each one played well his part. The church was beautifully decorated with pot flowers, cut flowers and ferns. The exercises were conducted by Mrs. W. H. Adams and Miss B. E. Gordon. The program was a decided success, both financially and spiritually. The following program will be rendered at Bethel Wednesday evening, Apr. 3, 1918, at 8 o'clock. Program. Suggs, Mack Knott, Ellis Ray, Horace Snelling, Dr. Wilson, Luther McGill and Walter McGill. TULLAHOOMA. A call coming from the United States for drafted men from this part of the county landed here last week and after they had been promptly notified the ladies and the wives and mothers of the boys got busy at once to give the boys a grand reception at the A. M. E. Church and by the prompt work and activity of Mr. Quiber Woods the use of the church was secured and preparations were made at once and on last Friday night a five course menu was served at the church to about one hundred people, and speeches were made by Revs. Paul Price, A. E. Martin, J. W. Sebastian, Dock Aydtott, (white), Lawyer Davidson, (white), Winnie Slack sang a solo. The Eureka Band furnished music. The boys that were called were: Albert Larkins, married and a railroad man; Albert Moore, single also a railroad man; Pete Davis, married and a daily laborer; Ben Darrell, married and wife and two children, a girl and a boy, occupation, hotel man, home in Winchester; Jerry Scott, married, occupation, miller, home in Wartrace. It was very sad to see the young men leave but they left with happy faces and they all said that they would lose their lives rather than see the American flag fall in the dust. Otie Brazleton, Earl Whittaker, Ernest Moore, and Lawson Moore said to the boys, Go on and hold the fort for they were coming. Jesus signal still waves the answer back to heaven by the grace we will. Then the train pulled off. The entertainment that was given at Jenkins pavilion last Thursday by Prof. Anderson and Wm. Jenkins was largely attended.
