BUFORD

Our community is all alive over the war issues. We have the following organizations: The Farmers' Community Club, organized by Dr. Stevens; The Soldiers Comfort Kit Club, organized by Mack Buford; the Red Cross, organized by Mrs. M. K. Buford; the War Savings Society, organized by Esq. Abernathy (white), who made a very interesting talk, being followed by Prof. Dean, also white. By request of Prof. Dean, "Sweet and Low" was sung, being led by Mr. E. B. Buford. Sunday night the 24th, the Society was addressed by Hon. Newton White, ex-Speaker of the Senate. He spoke in glowing terms of the record of the colored soldiers and of the race as a whole saying we are the most patriotic people on the globe and that in his work on the exemption board he had rarely heard a complaint coming from the colored drafted boys. He also urged the importance of laying something by for a rainy day and adding that the buying of the War Stamp is nothing other than this: The meeting was opened with the song, "America," led by Mrs. M. K. Buford. Prayer was offered by Mr. Mack Buford. After speech making the church rally song which had been revised by Mack Buford and the song "I want to be a Christian," revised by Mr. M. K. Buford, were sung to the delight of the speakers of the evening and other white friends. In the background was gracefully unfurled a large U. S. Flag, while just over the rostrum hung Red Cross Pennants. Hon. White said it was the first decoration of its kind he had seen in going from place to place to speak and that this with "America" and other songs showed our loyalty with all the organizations connected with church and home duties. We are certainly being kept busy, busy, busy. Dr. Edwards preached an excellent sermon at Haywood, Sunday night, the 9th inst. Some said the doctor had never preached here before. He seemed at his best. His sermon closed the third quarter. There being realized $22.35, which was fair considering that small pox is raging in the neighborhood of one of our churches which left the burden on the other two churches, but the pastor, Rev. Tally says "Look who is pastoring." The Rev. filled his pulpit Sunday, urging the readiness for District conference. Messrs Mack Buford and Monroe Martin are delegates representing Sunday school and stewards Board. Mrs. M. K. Buford and Miss Rose representing the Stewardesses and Daughters of Conference. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Erick Coleman of Prospect, father and son of Mrs. Mack Buford visited here recently. Mr. Coleman, her son was a volunteer, he was sent to Newport News, last December but it developed that he is affected with rheumatism, so he was discharged. He speaks very complimentary of the treatment given to colored soldiers and is very much grieved because of his inability to remain, to go with the boys across the pond, he says, there is such a difference between military life and civil life, that he feels like he is in a cemetery here at home. He hopes to recover sufficiently to return. He says the boys for the most part are high spirited and jolly and seldom speak of wanting to be at home. Such reports are pleasing and comforting to the race as well as to the relatives of the boys. Mrs. Alice Shepherd and Miss Courtney Martin of Columbia were week-end guests of relatives here.

MANSFIELD.

The Sunday school is yet progressing nicely at New Hope, M. E. Church under the leadership of Bro. W. L. McCullough, supt. A wonderful lesson was taught Sunday by the teacher, Mr. L. T. Teague. At 11 o'clock Rev. E. D. Hall the pastor, preached a wonderful sermon. Quite a number were present to hear him. Rev. Hall is a leader among men, he does his utmost for his church, and has now gained the love from all in this community, and he is still working and planning to bring greater things to pass. Mrs. E. D. Hall from Paris is teaching music here. Miss Phyllis Bonar who underwent an operation a few weeks ago is doing fine at this writing. Mr. Wesley Bonar of Dickson is here visiting relatives this week. Pearl Mai is still on the sick list with no improvement at this writing. Mrs. Cora Teague is on the sick list, but is much improved at this writing. Mrs. Jno. Travis is expecting her two sons and their wives here very soon from Haskell Okla. Mrs. Bertha Dunlap and Mrs. Lovida Shoffner of Hollow Rock were visitors here at the home of their sister, Sunday. Mrs. Cora Teague. Mr. W. Elmus Perry spent Sunday in Hollow Rock.

TULLAHOMA

When the sad news reached here Saturday from St. Louis, that Mr. Milton Bate was dead, it spread like wild fire. Mr. Bate was at work in one of the great foundries and met with an accident and died from the effects. He was well known in our town being the son of the late Peter Bate and Dana Bate. He was the brother of Mrs. Minnie Roberson of South Pittsburg. Mrs. Bate and her daughter, Hattie left for St. Louis, Sunday evening. Mrs. Lue Winton was called to Memphis last week to be present at the death and burial of her son Elzie, who died there after a few weeks of illness. Elzie Lock was well known in this town as he was reared here, but had gone away and made good. More of our boys left last week for the camp. Large preparations were made for them. The ladies of the Red Cross prepared large baskets of food for them. Mitchell Moore (single) said that his going to the army meant something, and if there was any chance in the world to win the war or whip the Germans, he was in for it. Earl Whittaker (single), who said that the happiest word that he ever heard was when Mr. Davidson (white) said Get ready Earl to leave Friday evening. Ambrose Culley (single) but a good railroad man, said that he had rather fight the German any time than work on the railroad, so Ambrose said that he intended to make a brave soldier. Ernest Moore, last but not least but single said that if anybody could catch the Kaiser he was the man and that he was going to bring the bacon home. The boys all left happy and we hope that they will always remain the same until Germany surrenders. Rev. Busbee was at Rucker, Sunday, preaching the gospel. Mrs. Dixon was a live wire last week. Rev. S. Strayhorn was in town Wednesday en route to Sparta to set up a Masonic Lodge. He was accompanied by Rev. A. E. Martin, the popular pastor of the M. E. Church. The members of this Lodge are quite anxious to have Rev. Martin return again and give them more instruction on Masonry. Rev. Martin has the goods and he is well up and can deliver them. Large crowds rushed to the hall every night last week to hear the woman preacher of the Sanctified church. George Neal and father are at Hadley Bend this week. Mrs. Mary Russell is able to be out again. Miss Malissa White has returned from McMinnville where she was called to attend a funeral.

Mr. Barry Says He Has Been a Constant Suffer Since the

SPANISH - AMERICAN War

Had Bronchial Trouble and Asthma—Lung-Vita Gave Relief.

"I contracted a cold while in the Spanish-American war, and it left me with a bronchial trouble and asthma. I have been a constant sufferer ever since, and part of the time I could not lay down at night," says Mr. J. Barry of 361 Twenty-fifth avenue, north Nashville, Tenn.

"I was taking medicine all the time," continues Mr. Barry, "but found nothing that would cure me. Mr. J. A. Wells advised me to try Lung-Vita. I did so, and want to say that this is the first winter in twenty years that I have not been bothered with asthma and bronchial trouble.

"I can hardly realize that I am now without either of these troubles. And just to think of going through a winter like this without either of those terrible diseases, is great."

Lung-Vita is sold by druggists and dealers. (Adv.)

THE DEVIL BOY

The Devil Boy is pressed with work, but whenever he gets a chance he surely lurks.

In his little home called the Devils' Hole.

Or around the corner his face you may behold.

After being away for some length of time.

He begins to rest in his foreman's mind.

Well says he (foreman) where is the boy.

He thinks he was employed as a play toy.

After a search the boy he beholds.

And in a nice way he begins to scold.

If up here you cannot stay.

You take your hat and go away.
