Mrs. A. J. Bright of 8 N. Hill St., has just returned from a five weeks' visit to Chicago, Ill., where she was the guest of the Williams and Crutcher families; and Detroit, Mich., where she was the guest of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. London. She also visited points in Canada. While in Chicago she had the pleasure of meeting her cousin Grant, Rockford, Ill., where the brother of Mrs. Williams was stationed.

Mrs. Bright was the recipient of many social courtesies and in her affable way formed many new acquaintances. Mrs. Bright was accompanied to Chicago by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. W. Bright, who spent a fortnight there visiting her brother, Dr. Winston. Both report satisfactory trips.

CLEAN UP DAY AT MT. ARARAT CEMETERY.
Last Monday a steady stream of people came to Mt. Ararat to clean up and beautify their lots. Many friends of long ago met, shook hands and exchanged friendly greetings. Some helped to clear off other lots than their own. Men women and children were there at work and all worked willingly with loving hearts and hands. Some tears fell upon the graves of loved ones. Many new resolutions were made to meet our loved ones in heaven.

The sunshine was lovely, the day a most ideal one and all the work went on beautifully. A great improvement was seen when the day's work was completed. The committee deserves great credit for starting and carrying forward the movement. Many who could not get to the cemetery Monday will go some other day and see after their lots.

IMPROVED FROM THE BEGINNING
Nashville Woman Suffers for Five Years.
COULD DO NO WORK
Doing All of Her Work Since Taking Lung-Vita.

Mrs. Mollie Underhill, who lives at 1701 1/2 Hamilton street, Nashville, Tenn., is a big booster for Lung-Vita, and is convinced that there is no medicine anywhere that is its equal. Mrs. Underhill's statement follows:

"I have suffered for five years with lung trouble, and couldn't do anything at all. But fortunately, after trying everything else I heard of, I got Lung-Vita. I began taking it and improved from the beginning. I am now doing my work—all of it—even to washing and ironing. I am feeling good, and think that Lung-Vita is the finest medicine in the whole world. I can certainly say one thing—Lung-Vita has sure helped me and my husband."

Mrs. progressive druggists and dealers have already stocked Lung-Vita, but if yours should have failed to do so, write Nashville Medicine Co., Nashville, Tenn., for a free booklet telling of this wonderful medicine.
