FIRST YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., SATURDAY, APRIL 30, 1892.

ONE CENT.

OUR TRAMP ABOUT THE CITY.

KENTUCKY WEATHER REPORT.

What We May Expect Between This Time and To-morrow Evening.

U. S. WEATHER BUREAU.
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 30 1892.
Special to THE PUBLIC LEDGER.
Fair and slightly warmer.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening.

ANOTHER SPRING AFFLICTION.
The Agent with his books and brass—
His monumental check—
Has made our life quite burdensome
Throughout this busy week.
We've tried in vain to choke him off—
To smite him on the hip—
We could not "face" his countenance—
Or stop his cussed lip.

Personal Mention.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

Henry V. Morris called on THE LEDGER last night.

Mrs. Sam M. Gaines has been on a visit to Frankfort.

J. Barbour Russell and wife were at Tollesboro yesterday.

Miss Nannie Peed has been on a visit to friends at Sharpshurg.

Mrs. Elder Ricketts of Lexington is visiting Mrs. Mary Spalding.

Miss Annie Tolle of Johnson is visiting her uncle, Mr. B. M. Tolle of January street.

Adam Geis of Brookville, Ind., is in the city, called by the illness of his mother.

Miss Lizzie Tolle has returned from Cincinnati, where she has been inspecting the latest styles in dressmaking.

W. H. Barksdale and J. Russell Crain of Hillsboro were here yesterday to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. William C. Payne.

The realty of the late Thomas J. Curley will be sold publicly on Saturday, May 14th.

A SO-CALLED newspaper says THE LEDGER has three editors. Sorry to say it, but the "so-called" hasn't even got one.

COUNTY Clerk W. B. Jett of Robertson county came near being drowned in the North Fork one day this week while fishing.

F. R. TOLLE received by Adams Express yesterday a pair of Cashmere goats from Springfield, Ill. They attracted as much attention as a runaway couple bound for Aberdeen.

MAJOR CULLEN the Postoffice Inspector made a friendly call on Postmaster Davis yesterday. He says Maysville has decidedly the best office of any city of its relative size in the state.

G. W. DYE of Sardis has a mocking bird which is a wonder. It can imitate any species of the bird family and can sing Yankee Doodle and several other tunes, so we are told by The Mt. Olivet Advance.

B. S. GRANNIS, who was a candidate for Circuit Clerk in Fleming, was in Cincinnati Thursday to employ a detective. He claims he had a majority of the votes cast, but was counted out, and he wants a detective to find the missing votes.

Mrs. MOLLIE MILBURN was found entirely nude on a hill near Danville with her four children, who were almost destitute of clothing. The woman's reason had fled and it was with difficulty that she was captured and clothed. It is thought the trouble was caused by her husband deserting her.

KENTUCKY GRAND ARMY BOYS.

State Encampment at Lebanon—General Hobson Elected Commander.

The State Encampment of the G. A. R. met at Lebanon Thursday, being called to order by Hon. Samuel G. Hillis, Department Commander.

After prayer by Chaplain Wood, Commander Hillis made his report for the year. On the subject of pensions he said:

"If we are true to ourselves we will see that every comrade disabled by age, sickness or accident, and his widow and orphans are placed upon the pension roll, and spot with your free ballot any party, man or set of men who, under the false cry of fraud and the wolfish disguise of economy, refuse or fail to appropriate a full sufficiency of this great and wealthy Government's funds and her unlimited resources to comfortably sustain her saviors and defenders."

A. S. Cole, Assistant Adjutant General, then read his report, showing that there was expended for charity during the past year $783, and that the Order lost fifty-four members by death.

The report of the Assistant Quartermaster General, T. F. Guthrie, showed that the receipts for the year were $4,966; disbursements, $2,240; balance on hand, $2,726.

In the election for State Commander General E. H. Hobson was chosen.

The candidates for Delegate to the National Encampment were Dan O'Reilly of Letchfield; Pat Rush of Hart county; A. T. Wood of Mt. Sterling; J. C. Freeman and Silas Adams of Casey county; L. M. Drye of Marion county; Dr. Samuel Pangburn of Maysville, and Albert Cheeseman of Larue county.

In the State Senate Wednesday Judge Lindsay refused to vote for a bill under discussion on the ground that it was about the same as is now found in the statute books. He read the Legislature a rasping lecture on its waste of time.

R. McMICHAEL of near Lexington, says The Kentucky Journal, had the horns taken off fifteen Jersey cows, one heifer and a bull, and they are all now doing well. Mr. M. says he never intends to allow horns on his cattle again. How anyone can spoil the beauty of a Jersey cow by dehorning her is what a great majority can't understand. It is also inhuman. How would Mr. M. feel if he were deprived of his horns?

THE pathetic story of the motherly devotion and sad death of Mrs. Ella Bramble at the Cincinnati Hospital, printed in yesterday's impression of THE LEDGER, should divert some of the solicitude shown for the far-off heathen, and direct Christian and charitable efforts and contributions toward the suffering poor of our own people before we send hundreds of thousands annually to maintain in distant lands what so nearly approaches that meretricious sentiment of Foreign Missions.

MISS CLARA ELLA CHILDE, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Colonel Charles B. Childe, of Wyoming, O., and one of the belles of the village, was united in marriage Thursday evening with Mr. Henry Harrell, a prosperous young farmer of Hermitage, Tenn. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. N. Field, of the Baptist Church of Canton, O. The happy young couple will make their future home in the South. Miss Childe is a daughter of Colonel Childe, who is known to almost everybody in Maysville.

THE following from The Ovington Opinion is a piece of news to the officials here: "George Jones, son of Oscar Jones, the negro murderer now in jail here under sentence of death, is in jail at Maysville charged with the murder of a negro in that town over a game of 'craps.' James McCue, a traveling man formerly of Sharpshurg, was here Monday, and says he went to the jail and identified the negro as George Jones. It will be remembered that George Jones was indicted for murder at the last session of the Circuit Court. When Mason county gets through with George Bath has a little score to settle with him."

A MEETING will be held at Lexington May 28, to complete the organization of the Trotting Horse Drivers' Association of the United States. This association promises to be very popular and to work good results for its members. One of the objects will be to establish among drivers a mutual insurance feature, conducted very much upon the same plan as that in vogue with the Knights of Honor. A sum will be agreed upon to be paid the family of a driver at his death, the sum to be raised by assessment, the amount to be regulated by the membership. Another good result will be elevation of the moral standard of the profession, as no unworthy persons will be permitted to enroll, and, of course, a dishonest driver can be easily located if he is not a member of the association.

THE Lexington races will begin to-day.

THE Water-works at Harrodsburg will be completed June 1st.

CYNTHIANA offers $1,000 for the arrest of the firebugs who have recently visited that city.

A POSTMASTER in North Carolina received a salary of eighty-eight cents for the year 1891.

OF the married couples living in Winchester in 1844 there remains but Elder J. W. Harding and wife.

THE E. L. and B. S. Division of the C. and O. earned during the third week of April $12,330 06, a decrease of $99 76.

H. H. SALLYARDS, a well-known newspaper man of Eastern Kentucky, has leased The Pikeville Monitor office for a term of years.

Mrs. ROBERT A. COCHRAN, Jr., will give a reception to Mr. and Mrs. William D. Cochran next Wednesday afternoon from 3 to 6.

THE subject of the sermon at the Central Presbyterian Church to-morrow morning will be, "The Influence of a Bad Woman."

JOHN ROBINSON'S circus in taking in all the country town this season, giving cities like Maysville the go-by. It will be in Lexington on the 9th and Paris on the 10th of May.

Mrs. ELLA BRAMBLE, whose death at the Cincinnati Hospital was surrounded by so much sadness,—as detailed in yesterday's LEDGER,—was a daughter of Thomas Sartain, living on Cabin creek.

H. E. WOOLFOLK of The Danville Advocate has been appointed one of the delegates from Kentucky to attend the meeting of the National Editorial Convention, which will be held at San Francisco next month.

IRVIN T. GREEN, a prominent citizen of Madison county, died Thursday, aged nearly eighty years. He had been married fifty-six years and had raised a family, and this is the first death that has occurred among them in that time.

THE Legislature has rejected the proposition to permit a person to deduct what he owed from what was owing to him. Gentlemen farmers and property-owners, get your pocketbooks ready to pay taxes on what you haven't got as well as on what you have.

BEGINNING to-morrow morning, the residents of the Sixth Ward will receive their mail from the Maysville Postoffice. At six o'clock this evening the Chester office will be discontinued, and all its stamps, records, &c., turned over to the Maysville Postmaster. The General Delivery of the Maysville office is open on Sundays from 8 to 10 a. m.

THE MASON CIRCUIT COURT.

Gleanings From Late Yesterday's and Early To-Day's Docket.

The report of Kenton Station Turnpike Company was filed as follows:

Tolls received during year.....	$331 20
Received on debt due the road.....	97 75
Total.....	$428 95
Expenditures for repairs.....	$241 16
Interest on debt.....	18 15
Principal of debt.....	78 40
Total.....	$348 59

Leaving balance on hand.....$ 88 36

There is a debt against the road, due November 19th, 1891, of $232 98, from which subtract the amount on hand, $88 36, leaves a balance of debt $144 62.

The entire day yesterday was consumed by the arguments in the Tolle-Cooper suit. E. L. Worthington opened for the defendant, followed by A. M. J. Cochran for the plaintiff. Judge Thomas R. Phister occupied most of the afternoon. W. H. Wadsworth, Sr., closes the argument this morning.

THE Duke of Slipup.

One of Maysville's prominent business men, accompanied by the Duke of Slipup, went over to Ohio the other day to look at some tobacco. Arriving at Aberdeen it was necessary to procure a rig. The M. P. B. M. engaged a team from the stableman, and while the hostler was hitching up the stableman was eyeing the elongated stranger. Curiosity getting the uppermost of his modesty, he tore two buttons off the Maysville man's coat but finally corralled him in a mule stall, when the pump was applied.

Stableman—"Joe, what is your friend selling, lightning rods or patent churns?" M. P. B. M.—"Why, that's the king bee of Mason county; he bought the truck yesterday and is having it toated to-day. He's now going out in the country to see if he can make arrangements for enough butter to spread over it."

And the stableman pulled the corncob out of a jug while a friendly Jack struck up "Room ta-ra-ta-ra."

Aberdeen Citizen—"Two skiff loads of driftwood."

Washington Opera-House.

HENDERSON Journal.—The Alba Heywood Company closed the season at the Opera-house last night with one of the best attractions that has been in Henderson this year. Alba Heywood as an impersonator leaves nothing to be desired. His power of mimicry was wonderful, and he costumed his characters faultlessly. His selections were all highly pleasing to the audience. His imitation of Edison's phonograph and the calypso were so true to fact that there was no room left for imitation.
The prima donna, Miss Siegfried, has a very pure and sweet voice. The selections of the lady violinist, Miss Drescher, was the most popular musical feature of the evening.
Mr. Julian Jordan, the tenor singer, showed a great deal of soul in his music, while Mr. Dewey Heywood, flute player, and Mr. Higgins, the cornetist, were both excellent on their instruments.

This excellent company will appear at Washington Opera-house Friday, May 6th, on the occasion of a benefit for the Washington Fire Company.

AND poor old sleepy Frankfort is trying to keep up with Maysville. They talk of having electric cars over there—to haul driftwood probably.

THE will of the late Mrs. David Keefer has been probated in Covington. Some of the heirs did not like the way the property was distributed, but the will was regular and they could not help themselves.

THE entertainment and luncheon given by the Young Ladies' Missionary Society of the Central Presbyterian Church at the residence of H. L. Newell, on Limestone street last night, was a financial success, $21 being the amount taken in at the door.

IT is rumored in Cynthiana that Collector Comingore is intending to make a change in revenue officials at that place. W. A. Thompson, the present Stamp Deputy, it is said, will resign May 1st, and R. H. Conway is talked of for the place and likely to get it.

CAPTAIN ALEX. CALHOUN, late of the St. Lawrence, has been in the city several days. While in the Maysville and Cincinnati trade, the Captain built up a good business for his boat. And now that the Bonanza has replaced her in this trade, the Captain is asked to take command of an excursion steamer to Coney Island. His friends here hope he will be given a place in the Maysville trade, where he can undoubtedly be a source of profit to the company.

MAY DAY.

The French Anarchists Are Excitingly Active,

But the People of France Have Become Thoroughly Aroused,

And Are Prepared to Put Down Any Outbreak—President Carnot Favors Most Stringent Measures to Wipe the Anarchists Off the Earth.

PARIS, April 30.—The recent dynamite outrages have caused a feeling among the people that, despite the reiterated assurances of the authorities that no trouble will occur on May day, the 1st of May will witness rioting and bloodshed, not only in Paris, but also in the various labor employing sections throughout the country. Notwithstanding the assertions that the anarchists have no organization; that each individual acts on his own responsibility, the public generally point out the recent explosions and attempts to cause explosions as direct proof to the contrary, claiming that the whole series of outrages have been the work of a regularly organized band of anarchists.

Though the authorities have repeatedly said that no trouble was anticipated in this city, they are nevertheless taking the most extensive precautions to repress any disorders on May day. On that day the municipal elections will take place throughout France, except in Paris, and it is feared that the crowds in the towns where elections occur, excited by partisan feeling, may, perhaps, fall an easy prey to the anarchist agitators, who are certain to inveigh against government and society, if the occasion offers. In Paris, which city is governed by a special law in regard to the municipal elections, no disturbance of a political nature will, of course, occur. The anarchists, however, are given to take advantage of any popular excitement to make trouble and they may, perhaps, try to incite the city workmen to rioting. The police will attempt to prevent any speech-making in the streets, and a large force of military will be held in readiness to aid them, if it is required.

In addition to the regular force stationed in Paris, the garrison has been reinforced by the Third huzars and the Ninth dragons. Six regiments of cavalry stationed near by the city will be held in readiness to start at once for Paris on receipt of signal.

On Sunday, in order that not a moment will be lost if their services are required, the horses of the cavalry will be kept saddled and bridled from day-break. The men will also be equipped, and as soon as "boots and saddles" is sounded the regiment will be ready to gallop to wherever they are summoned.

At a meeting of the cabinet Friday President Carnot said that he approved of the plan of taking the most stringent measures to preserve order on May day. In an interview on the anarchist question, M. Loubet, the prime minister and minister of the interior, said: "We are suffering from the faults of our predecessors, who for a succession of years allowed everything to be done and said under the guise of liberty of speech and pen to prostitute the cause of liberty, and this has resulted in the recent outbreaks of anarchism. I am collecting every thread of evidence against the agitators and their plots and intend to continue to do so." M. Loubet added: "There is absolutely no reason to fear that disturbances will occur on May day. Precise instructions have been sent everywhere and every contingency has been provided for. France may honestly and frankly be reassured."

A Murderous Young Thief.
PARKERSBURG, W. Va., April 30.—Friday afternoon Mr. J. L. Sorrell, a prominent business man of this city, detected a colored boy named Wade Grant, attempting to steal from his store, when he pursued him. The boy waited for the merchant, and when he came to the street he picked up a sharp piece of brick and hurled it with great force, striking Mr. Sorrell in the temple, severing an artery, and inflicting a dangerous wound. Grant is in jail.

CHINAMAN to Marry Million Girl.
PHILADELPHIA, April 30.—Clerk Bird, of the Philadelphia orphans' court, has issued a marriage license to Lee Kay, a member of a Chinese firm of importers of bulbs, ivory, etc., which has places of business in Hong Kong and New York, authorizing him to wed Miss Catherine S. Dorff, a missionary. It is said to be a love affair, and Rev. Dr. Hutton, of Media, will perform the ceremony at the bride's residence.

Probable Change of Date.
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 30.—Chairman Gowdy, of the state republican committee, and Secretary Millikin are in correspondence with members of the committee relative to a change of the date of the state convention, which is to be held at Ft. Wayne. The date as set is Tuesday, June 25. The probability is that Thursday, June 23 will be selected instead.

The Weather.
WASHINGTON, April 30.—For Tennessee, Kentucky and Indiana—Fair; slightly warmer; east winds.
For West Virginia and Ohio—Fair, warmer by Saturday night; variable winds.
For Michigan—Fair; warmer winds, becoming southeast.
