

KENTUCKY WEATHER REPORT.

What We May Expect Between This Time and To-morrow Evening.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—FAIR; Blue—RAIN or SNOW; With Black ABOVE—'twill WARMER grow. If Black's BENEATH—COLDER 'twill be; Unless Black's shown—no change we'll see.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening.

THE SUMMER SEASON.

The season of the year's at hand When the Summer girl so port. Will stroll along the whitened sand Clad in her brother's shirt. With dainty straw hat on her head, And freckles on her face, With sprightly air she'll gaily tread To Summer's breezy pace. And each young man will not inquire Her pedigree or birth, But he will wonder, walking by her, How much her pa is worth.

GIMLET SHARP, Bobowens, George Rogers, Frankanson, Will Jenkins and Johnduley composed a party of pleasure-seekers who went out yesterday to sit in the shade of the humbrageous humbrilla tree beside the lemonade spring on Colonelbaldwin's bluegrass farm. It would have been a nice day if it hadn't rained, but then the boys would have been too much affected by "that tired feeling" to have done justice to Mr. Baldwin's ample dinner, which was superb from 'way back. Will McCann of Lexington, Mr. Baldwin's brother-in-law, added to the pleasures of the day by his presence.

THE school board of Flemingsburg has retained G. W. Leby as Principal of the Graded High School for the next year, and O. F. Long, Miss Lena Prather, Miss Maud Talferro, Miss Cora Barkley, Miss Frances Kendrick and Miss Brethia Swartz as assistants in the several departments.

THE First Presbyterian Church is soon to be thoroughly overhauled and put upon a modern basis. POLITENESS costs nothing, but the lack of it sometimes costs a great deal. Life is brief, and we shan't pass this way but once. We can't be happy all the time, but we can duck when we come to a low bridge, or we can remain silent when the average damphool opens his question box.

IN ancient times Greece possessed something like 7,500,000 acres of dense forest, and she was comparatively rich in timber until half a century ago. Many forests have now disappeared, and the result is seen both in the scarcity of the water supply and in various injurious climate effects.

JAMES HOLLAND, a negro real estate agent at Kingsfisher, O. T., was with difficulty saved from lynching by the police of that town. Holland had promised to give every negro applicant a claim for $10, and he failed to keep his word. When rescued by the police the mob was about to hang him to a telegraph pole.

- Treasurer—M. R. Gilmore.
- Sergeant-at-Arms—John J. McCarthy.
- Jaigitor—John Gill.
- John T. Short was chosen County Delegate.

THE electrical water display at the World's Fair will surpass anything ever attempted. The great basin which runs from the lake to the Administration Building will be encircled with electric lights, and lights will be sunk under the water, and the effect will be a lake of gold. The fountains will flow over electric rays of all the colors of the rainbow, and there will be search lights, arc lights and all sorts of electrical appliances, even to the most wonderful fireworks operated by electricity and made to go off by the playing of keys of a piano-like instrument, so that they will change at the will of the player, and produce wonderful fire pictures.

OFFICER STOCKDALE is still holding his own, though he passed a somewhat restless night.

INDIANA has more Germans than any other state. They constitute 55 per cent. of the population.

THE army of weather prophets are mistaken again. Most of them had predicted a long dry spell.

PRESIDENT HARRISON's father-in-law Dr. Scott, and many of the oldest men in Washington are preachers.

JOHN CARLETON, who during the war was Auditor of Hamilton county, O., died in Indianapolis in comparative poverty, it is said.

THE General Deficiency, the last of the appropriation bills, was reported to the House to-day. It appropriated $4,850,350, of which $910,000 is for the Census Bureau.

HARRY SPALDING, aged 18, of Covington, convicted of robbing the Postoffice at Coney Island, has been sentenced to the House of Correction at Washington City until he is 21.

EX-CHANCELLOR JOHN BRIGHT MORGAN of Hernando, Miss., was shot and killed aboard an Illinois Central train, at Alden Station, near Hernando, by Henry Foster, a lawyer whom the Judge had caded.

IT is claimed that the boundary line between Idaho and Washington is thirty miles out of the way, and a resurvey would probably place Spokane in Idaho, increasing the population of that state 75,000.

A SNEAK THIEF entered the home of Rev. C. S. Lucas yesterday morning and stole an umbrella. He was discovered and arrested, however. The first real hard shower he will be started out of town.

EMMONS BLAINE died at Chicago Saturday noon. Within two years Mr. Blaine has lost three of his children. Of a truth, says The Louisville Times, the path of glory, in his case, has led but to the grave.

THREE documents have been found in the military archives at Madrid which go to prove that Columbus was born at a place called Saora, near Genoa. These documents confer a title of nobility on Columbus and his son.

THE Legislature is still monkeying with the judicial redistricting business. The last report, submitted to the House Saturday, makes ours the nineteenth, Samuel of Bracken, Mason, Fleming, Lewis and Greenup. This, however, may be changed before another week.

HIS name is John Elias and he was born in far-off Arabia. Such is an outline of the ass who was walking the trestle at Foster when the "Flyer" caught him a few days ago. He could have escaped by a jump of eight feet, but he preferred to have both legs broken. He is now peddling his patience in the hospital at Covington.

THE nickel and bronze one cent pieces are a legal tender in sums of twenty-five cents, and so are the bronze two cent pieces and the nickel three cent pieces and five cent pieces. The silver five cent pieces are a legal tender for $5, and the ten cent, twenty-five cent and fifty cent for $10, while in the standard dollars the legal tender quality is unlimited.

THE Franklin Circuit Court began its June term to-day. Besides a docket of three murder cases, the thirty-three railroad suits for state taxes due, also the case of the State vs. James W. Tate and sureties on his bond will be called during the term. The Tate case will be tried in accordance with the decision of the Court of Appeals, reversing the judgment of the lower court in a former trial of the case, and holding the securities on the bonds, liable for the ex-Treasurer's actual delinquency, but requiring the state to prove the shortage and separate the bonds or sue such sureties as may be on more than one bond.

AT a performance called an amateur Wild West Show, given by the Staten Island (N. Y.) Athletic Club, Edward W. Gould, a popular stock broker, was instantly killed. He was thrown from the roof of the Deadwood coach. The coach was rounding the corner in front of the grand stand, when the horses became frightened at the shooting and ran away, upsetting the coach. Mr. Gould, who was taking the part of the old settler, was shooting a rifle. The coach turned over and Mr. Gould was hurled from the roof, a distance of twelve feet. His neck was broken. Mr. Gould's wife was in the grand stand, only a few feet away. His son and partner, Edward W. Gould, Jr., who was taking the part of Standing Bear, in full Indian war paint, was just behind the coach, and was first to reach his father.

THE pay aboard the South Shoal lightship is somewhat higher than other lightships. The captain receives $1,000, the mate $700 and the crew $600. These sums may not seem large, but it must be borne in mind that even the prodigal son would have found it impossible to make away with his patrimony on the South Shoal lightship, especially as the Government furnishes all supplies. Opportunities for extravagance are absolutely wanting. Occasionally a member of the crew may remark in a sadly jocose tone that he is going around the corner to order a case of champagne, or to be measured for a dress suit, but there is no corner.

Attention, Sir Knights! Special Conclave of Maysville Commandery No. 10, K. T., will be held Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Order of Red Cross will be conferred. A full attendance is desired. JOHN H. HALL, E. C. A. H. Thompson, Recorder.

"Are you going to Chicago?" inquires the railroad head-line. No, thank you; it is hot enough here. Besides, whisky is only ten cents a drink in Maysville, while this week's demand will advance the rate in Chicago.

ABOUT 800 members, nearly the entire congregation of St. Stanislaus Church, in Cleveland, O., have been excommunicated by Bishop Horstman until they shall make a public confession of repentance for engaging in a factional quarrel that resulted in a riot.

GEORGE R. DAULTON has been on a visit to a family at Billtown, O., among the members of which is Mrs. Nancy Covert, who, at the age of 95, can thread a cambric needle and do her own patching and mending without glasses. She cares for her own room, and between times she chops her own firewood.

THE committee to notify President Harrison of his nomination, of which William H. Cox of this city is a member, will wait upon the President to-day. To-morrow they will leave New York for White Plains, to notify Mr. Reid, nominated for Vice-President, and he will receive them at "Ophir" Hall, his country seat.

MISS LUCY LEE HILL has been apportioned the following towns to canvass in order to arouse an interest in Kentucky's work at the Columbian Exposition: Lexington, Nicholasville, Versailles, Paris, Georgetown, Winchester, Richmond, Lancaster, Stanfords, Flemingsburg, Mt. Sterling, Cynthiana, Maysville, Lawrenceburg, Harrodsburg, Danville.

AT Syracuse, N. Y., Rev. Charles A. Briggs of Union Theological Seminary delivered an address at the banquet of the Presbyterian Social Union of Central New York, at which 350 were present. Of church unity he said: "If we consolidated the different churches, I have estimated that we could spare 50,000 ministers and save annually $50,000,000."

THE marble statue of Henry Clay, which for thirty years has stood in the Courthouse in Louisville, has been removed to be taken to Chicago to be exhibited at the World's Fair. The statue is one of the greatest productions of Kentucky's most famous sculptor, Joel T. Hart, and was placed in the Courthouse in 1866, at a cost of something more than $10,000.

THE President has received hundreds of congratulatory letters from all parts of the country, and they still continue to pour into the White House by every mail. It is utterly impossible for him to acknowledge any considerable number of them even in the briefest way, and he hopes the writers will not think he fails to appreciate their kindness because they do not receive the answer he would be glad to send were it within his power to do so.

W. S. MCCREARY, a race follower, whose home is in Pittsburgh, but who has been stopping at the Emery Hotel, Cincinnati, is minus his trunk and wearing apparel, which were seized on an execution for $120 obtained by W. Austin Goodman, an attorney. Two years ago McCreary visited the city, and apparently with plenty of money, he cut quite a dash, but before his departure he ran a little short and borrowed $120 from the lawyer, whose acquaintance he had made.

JAMES LYONS, living at Santa Fe, O., died of hydrophobia. Lyons was attacked by a vicious dog several weeks ago, and his arm and hand lacerated in a terrible manner, necessitating the amputation of one of his fingers. His wounds healed rapidly, and he was thought to be out of danger, but he was suddenly attacked with hydrophobia, requiring the combined strength of several persons to quiet him. When given a glass of water he began frothing, barking and m nifesting all the signs of that dread disease, which culminated in his agonizing death.

SAM PERRY and ANNA G. Hill, a young colored couple, arrived in Covington from Cynthiana, and at once made a bee line for the Clerk's office, where they got a marriage license, both of them swearing they were of age. They sailed out to get a colored preacher to marry them, and had scarcely disappeared when the girl's father came in, all blown up with hurry and rage, and with barely enough breath left to tell the clerks not to give his daughter a license, as she was only seventeen years old. He was paralyzed to learn that he was too late. The couple was married, and are staying for a while out of reach of the irate father.
