

ROASTED ALIVE.

Terrible Fate of Two Merchants in Mexico.

The Outlaw Chief Captured and Riddled With Bullets.

On Their Way to Buy Goods the Merchants Were Attacked by Bandits—Overpowered, They Were Tied to a Stake and Slowly Roasted to Death.

ZACATECAS, Mex., July 23.—In the little mountain town of Tlaltenango, this state, Candelario Perez, one of the most inhuman and desperate criminals of Mexico, was Friday shot to death by due process of law. Perez was a man about 40 years of age, and for the past three years he has been the leader of a band of brigands who have kept the people of Tlaltenango in a state of constant terror. Three weeks ago Ramon Morales and Carmen Pluvo, two prominent merchants of that place, started on an overland journey for Zacatecas.

They had in their possession $500 with which to buy goods in this city for their store. They were attacked when on a short distance out from Tlaltenango by Perez and his band. The merchants made a brave resistance, killed three of the bandits and wounded Perez in the arm. The brigands finally overpowered them, however, and, by direction of Perez, both merchants were taken to their rendezvous in the mountains and there horribly tortured. Their fingers and toes were cut off one by one, and then they were tied to stakes and a fire built around them, slowly roasting them to death.

"GREEN GOODS."

A Nebraskaan Beaten Out of $1,000—The Government Will Now Take Him in Hand.

OMAHA, Neb., July 23.—E. E. Ballinger, of Juanita, was brought to Omaha by Deputy U. S. Marshal Hall upon a charge of having entered into a scheme by which he expected to get possession of a large quantity of counterfeit money. Mr. Ballinger was induced to try his hand at the green goods business. He mortgaged his little store at Juanita, and with $1,000 went to New York. He found the men with whom he wanted to do business, selected $25,000 of the money and paid his $1,000 for the package. When he received his parcel at Juanita, however, he discovered that "the soundbells had changed boxes on him," and the parcel contained nothing but blank paper. Ballinger consulted the Pinkerton agency, and was referred to the secret service of the U. S. treasury. In the correspondence which followed between Mr. Ballinger and the treasury department, the former admitted that he bought what he supposed to be $25,000 in bills that looked as good as any money. The correspondence was referred to Attorney Baker with instructions to prosecute, and Mr. Ballinger was arrested.

Our Corn Going to Mexico.

EAGLE PASS, July 23.—The exportation of corn from the United States into Mexico through this port shows no abatement. The tracks in the railroad yards are crowded with cars loaded with grain. Since the commencement of these shipments four months ago, 23,000,000 pounds of corn have passed through here going south. All this grain commanded a good price, being sold at about eighty cents a bushel, and in Mexico at $2.50 to $3.00 a bushel. It is all white corn, and was grown in Kansas and Nebraska.

Hottest in Duluth's History.

DULUTH, Minn., July 23.—Duluth is suffering from the longest hot spell it has ever been the ill-fortune of the city to endure. The mercury has been as high as 94 degrees several days, and its lowest daily point rarely goes below 85 degrees. Never in the history of the signal service here has higher than 94 degrees been recorded.

A Toledo Paper Sold.

NEW YORK, July 23.—The Toledo (O.) Commercial was sold Friday to G. G. Hadley and Elmer White, who are large stockholders and officers of the Toledo Bee. The Commercial is the only morning paper in Toledo, and has been a leading republican in politics. What the future politics of the paper will be is not determined.

CANTON, O., July 23.—The family of John Wagner, of this city, has been singularly unfortunate the past month. On July 7 a little eight-year-old daughter died. July 17 Alvin, the three-year-old son, and Friday Edith, the ten-year-old daughter, died. All the deaths were caused by typhoid fever.

IN SMALL SQUADS

The Non-Union Men Are Going Into Homestead—Great Excitement.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., July 23.—Increased activity is noticeable inside the big mill fence to-day. Non-union workmen are coming in squads of from 10 to 20 at a time from Pittsburgh and a few have got in unobserved through the town of Homestead. Something like 250 non-union men are now inside the mill.

The armor plate mill, the open hearth mill and the press shop are in operation. Steel was passed through the rolls of the 119-inch mill Friday. The operation of these departments means that Mr. Frick and Superintendent Potter are making great efforts to convince their old men that the mills can be run without their aid.

The tonnage men are too well informed of the true condition of affairs inside the mill to be alarmed at the seeming activity.

They know that the mills now in partial operation are manned by bosses, superintendents and half a dozen non-union steel workers from the mills at Braddock. They know that 250 green men can not run a plant where 3,800 experienced hands were employed a month ago. The effect of the laborers and ignorant Hungarians may not be the same, but none of these men, with possibly half a dozen exceptions, show signs of weakening.

"Monongahela"—A New Drama.

NEW YORK, July 23.—Hugh O'Donnell has at last been dramatized, and Frank Norcross, an able actor, last season in the employ of Charles Frohman, has done the deed. The name of the play is "Monongahela; or, Homestead in '92." It will probably be acted during the present summer. It is said that several playwrights have been building upon the recent Homestead incidents for plots, and Mr. Norcross' play will probably not be the only one on the road next season dealing with this question.

Strikers Will Observe Law and Order.

HOMESTEAD, July 23.—The advisory committee on the Homestead lockout has prepared a statement of its position, in which the committee signifies its recognition of law and other peaceful means as the only elements that should have a part in the settlement of the present trouble, characterize the Carnegie policy as revolutionary and anarchistic, and pledges itself and the workmen of Homestead to refrain from violence and lawlessness.

Blaine to Go to Brussels.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—A report is in circulation that ex-Secretary Blaine has been asked to take a position on the international monetary conference. Although Blaine retired from the cabinet to rid himself of official cares, it is thought he may be persuaded to accept this position which lasts but sixty or ninety days and will give him a magnificent opportunity to render distinguished services to his country. The commission will likely meet in Brussels within forty days.

Single Tax to Be Tested.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—Hyattsville, a little place about six miles out on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, where scores of government employes live with their families, is excited greatly over the adoption of the Henry George single tax system by its board of tax commissioners. The opponents of the measure have caused the commissioners to be cited before the county court to show cause why a mandamus should not issue against them.

The Price of Sam Small's Tooth.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 23.—A special from Atlanta, Ga., says: Sam Small was given a legal basis upon which to calculate the value of his anatomy. During the prohibition fight, some months ago, a saloonist named Minor took occasion to chastise Small and knocked out one of his teeth. Sam sued for $5,000 damages. Minor made no defense, and Friday the jury awarded Small $500 for that tooth.

Etna Still in Eruption.

CATANIA, July 23.—The eruption of Mt. Etna continues to increase in violence. The lava flowing down the western side of the mountain is advancing rapidly. A fresh stream of lava now threatens the village of Nicolosi on the south. Continual shocks are felt in the vicinity of the volcano. Some of the shocks are felt as far as Syracuse, fifty miles distant.

Hiring Steel Workers.

PHILADELPHIA, July 23.—J. Ogden Hoffman, agent of the Carnegie Steel Co., in this city, has employed about thirty steel workers and dispatched them to Homestead. The hiring was done with great secrecy. The advertisement was in a morning paper, and asked those in search of work to call at an address on Arch street, whence they were sent to the company's headquarters.

A Minister in Disgrace.

LONDON, July 23.—The Star says that Rev. John Edwards, rector of Bessenden, has fled to avoid arrest for acts of gross indecency. The Rev. John Edwards was graduated from Oxford University, in 1874, and was curate at St. Mary's church, Oxford, until 1883, when he was made domestic chaplain to Lord Salisbury. He held this position for seven years.

Amalgamated Scale Signed.

PITTSBURGH, July 23.—The last signature to the amalgamated scale was from the Illinois Steel Co., Chicago. The plant is one of the largest in the country, having a capitalization of $50,000,000. No meeting of the conference committee will be held until Wednesday next.

Part of the Militia to Be Withdrawn.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 23.—It is stated on excellent authority that the Third Brigade of the national guard will be withdrawn from Camp Sam Black, at Homestead, an order to that effect having been made Friday by Maj.-Gen. Snowden.

Quit Out of Sympathy.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 23.—The skilled workmen at the Duquesne steel mills of the Carnegie Steel Co. to the number of three hundred, went out on strike Friday night in sympathy with the Homestead men.
