

SAFE IN PRISON

The Sheriff of Shelby County Lands H. Clay King.

Gov. Buchanan Informs the Public Why He Commuted the Sentence.

A Formidable List of Pleaders for King's Life, Among Them Twenty-Six United States Senators and Representatives, Besides Many Others.

NASHVILLE, Aug. 12.—H. Clay King, the Memphis murderer, arrived in this city at an early hour Thursday morning and was at once conveyed to the state prison by Sheriff McLendon.

"Gov. Buchanan, will you give me your reasons for the commutation of Col. H. Clay King?" asked an Associated Press reporter of the chief executive Thursday morning.

"The action of Juror Mustni and of the jury in going to Arkansas to deliberate upon the case had their weight too; the dissension of one of the supreme judges; the defense of partial insanity; the pleadings of his wife and children and the most prominent men of the country, besides the hundreds of letters and petitions—those were my reasons for commuting the sentence."

"I am responsible for my actions," said the governor, "I thought I was doing right and acted according to my belief."

He then handed the reporter a petition signed by twenty-six United States senators and congressmen. The petitions were signed by senators Carlisle, of Kentucky; Voorhees, Indiana; Harris, Tennessee; Blackburn, Kentucky; Coke, Texas; Vest, Missouri; Call, Florida; Congressman Enloe, Richardson, Pierce, Tennessee; Breckinridge, Goodnight, Kentucky; Fellows, New York; Kilgore, Bailey, Long, Steward, Sayers, Charles Stewart, Crain, Texas; Edmonds, Virginia; Forman, Cable, Wike, Busey and Lane, Illinois.

Besides these important pleas Gov. Buchanan has letters from Gov. Hogg, of Texas, Congressman Snodgrass, of Tennessee, ex-Gov. Logan H. Boots, of Colorado, Simon B. Buckner, of Kentucky, Thos. M. Hanna, of Indiana and Gov. John Young Brown, of Kentucky, besides others of more or less prominence.

Something Like Cholera. NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Aug. 12.—An epidemic prevails at Helmetta, near New Brunswick, which has already claimed 30 victims. More than 50 people have been stricken. Physicians are puzzled over the peculiar character of the disease, which is much like dysentery, but far more severe, and many fear that it is cholera, as there are many Russians employed in the factories there. The disease has spread to Spottswood, a village a few miles from Helmetta, where a number of people who work in Helmetta live. Several people are ill at that place, though none have died.

The Federation to Consider the Boycott. NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—The general executive council of the American Federation of Labor is to meet some time this week in this city to consider the advisability of imposing a boycott upon the products of the Carnegie mills. A SECOND PLOT

To Assassinate Manager H. C. Frick Discovered.

Aaron Stamm, a New York Anarchist the Man Suspected.

The Information Was Given to the Police by Vice-Consul Eberhart, of Austria—Secretary Lovell Informed by Letter That His Days Are Few.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Aug. 12.—A morning paper Friday published a story to the effect that the police have discovered another plot to assassinate H. C. Frick. The name of the supposed intended assassin is Aaron Stamm, of York, an anarchist, who is friendly with Bergman and Emma Goldman.

The information was given by Vice-Consul Eberhart, of Austria. Stamm is being looked for. It is learned that Secretary Lovell, of New York, has been informed by letter that he has but a few days to live. Hugh O'Donnell, chairman of the advisory committee, returned to Homestead Thursday from his trip through Canada and the northern states. He was greeted with some cordiality by the locked-out men, but his appearance did not create a furore. Mr. O'Donnell stopped at Toronto, New York, Boston and other New England cities.

There are many who think that the settlement of the strike may lead to a reopening of conference. The Carnegie Co. is said to be affected both ways by the settlement, and that the benefits of it are equal by the disadvantages. The advisory committee adjourned at Homestead at 12 o'clock Thursday night, delivering a flattering report. It was received with enthusiasm and O'Donnell was indorsed by resolution. William A. Carney, member of the general executive council of the American federation of labor, who is also vice-president of the Amalgamated association of Iron and Steel workers, arrived in Homestead Thursday evening to arrange for the quarterly meeting of the council of the federation, which will meet here Friday.

In the council are Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation and representative from the Cigars Makers International union; Chris Evans, of the United Mine workers; J. B. Lennan, of the Tailors' and Cutters' union; P. J. McGuire, general secretary Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners.

To Save Wehrli's Neck.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 12.—An effort is being made to have the death sentence of Henry Wehrli, the Tuscarawas county murderer now in the annex, commuted to imprisonment for life. Attorney Omstead, of New Philadelphia, served notice on the governor and the state board of pardons Thursday that an application for a commutation will be made. Wehrli is sentenced to hang on September 30, and his case will be presented at the next meeting of the pardon board.
