Somerby Had Better Steer Clear of the Hoosier State.

He Attempts to Re-Organize the Iron Hall Contrary to Court Orders.

Members Advised to Pay No Attention to Orders of the Court and to Disregard Official Demands for Funds Retained by Local Branches.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 31.—If ex-Supreme Justice Somerby, of the Iron Hall, should venture on hoosier soil, it is not improbable that he will be called upon to show why he should not be dealt with for contempt. Receiver Failey has been notified from many cities that the late supreme justice and his chief deputy, Hosmer, have not only attempted to reorganize the Iron Hall, but have advised members to disregard orders of the court, and to pay no attention to the official demand for the funds retained by the local branches. It is held by the attorneys of the receiver that there is no authority in the order except the receiver. The local branches are not incorporated, and have no legal status apart from their relation to the supreme sitting, which has been superseded by the court's appointee.

To resist him is to stand in contempt of court. And in the end this can not be otherwise than disastrous to the offenders. Meanwhile Somerby is on a continental tour, and is making desperate effort to re-establish himself. One night he is in Chicago, another in Philadelphia, another in Baltimore and the fourth he jumps to Providence. Receiver Failey Tuesday afternoon mailed to the several branches official notification of his appointment, with the court's orders as to how he shall proceed. The notification concludes with this paragraph: "I would advise you that none of the officers of the supreme sitting are authorized to speak or act in any way in matters pertaining to the Order of the Iron Hall; that the receiver is the only one that can receive the money of the order, and that the using of such reserve and other funds by you contrary to the order of court would lay you liable to civil proceeding for its recovery, and possibly criminal proceedings for misappropriation of such funds."

CORBETT'S CAR.

How the Big Fighter Will Travel—A Palace on Wheels.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Millionaires have never traveled in a car more luxurious than that in which Pugnacious Jim Corbett will travel to New Orleans. It is called "The Escort," and it deserves its name. It is beautifully upholstered in blue silk plush, and the cushions are so deep and soft that when the train is in motion one feels as though rocked in the cradle of the deep. It has been especially prepared for Corbett's necessities at Washington. Its partition has been torn out between two state rooms, making a large, commodious apartment, in which the pugilist's bed—the one upon which he has slept all summer—has been placed. Here the great fistic aspirant for the championship can woo the balmy god while whirling along at the rate of fifty miles an hour toward the scene of the battle.

The Corbett train will leave Jersey City at 4:30 p. m. Saturday, arriving at New Orleans thirty-nine hours later, or at 7:30 on Monday morning. The train will be composed of five Pullman sleepers, a dining car and a training car, in which Corbett will while away the hours at the punching bag and pulleys. One of Corbett's trainers will stand at the door and nobody but his trusted lieutenants will be permitted to enter the car. The Piedmont Air line people have left nothing undone to make the pugilist's traveling car a dream of comfort. The gymnasium or training car will be placed next to the engine. Next will be Corbett's sleeping car, and behind that the car for newspaper men. Behind this there will be a dining car. Beyond Manager Brady, Trainers Delaney, Daly, Dillon, McVey and Mike Donovan nobody will be permitted to sleep in the car.

PISTOL AND POLITICS.

They Can a Fatal Encounter at a Political Meeting in Georgia.

NORWOOD, Ga., Aug. 31.—The first bloodshed in the political campaign of Warren county occurred in or near the northern part of the county at a camp-meeting, where a large crowd had gathered. It is reported that they were fighting all day about politics and by 1 o'clock the political fever was running pretty high. Two of the leaders in the discussion got into a dispute, which resulted in a deadly combat. Two bulldog revolvers played a conspicuous part. One was a Watson man and the other was for Black. The name of the Watson man was Jim Gressum, and the other went by the name of Collins. Gressum received a fatal shot in the left breast. He was taken to a physician, but died on the way. Collins received two wounds, one in the arm and the other in the leg. Gressum seems to have been the aggressor in the affair. Collins ran off and has not been seen or heard of since.

Self-Sustaining Storage Battery.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Aug. 31.—Dr. Winfield S. Bryan claims he has made a wonderful discovery in electricity—nothing less than a practically self-sustaining storage battery. He refuses to divulge his secret except in a general way. A combination of chemicals, altogether new, is made, and their action is so slow, yet strong, that the current generated will last with constant use, from estimates now made, from three to five years. An ordinary battery is good for only twelve hours. A reversal of the current causes a reoxydation of the chemicals, thus strengthening the battery.

He Favored a Mormon.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Attorney General Miller having recommended to the president that the resignation of United States Marshal Parsons, of Utah, be asked for immediately, the president approved the recommendation, and the marshal has been asked to resign. It is stated at the department of justice that this action was taken because the marshal and his deputies, on several occasions, allowed a Mormon prisoner, Groesbeck, to leave the prison and visit his third wife, for living with whom he had been convicted of the charge of adultery.

QUARANTINE.

Inspection and Disinfection From Louisiana to Maine,

And Along the Canadian and Mexican Borders Being Established.

A Suggestion That the Government Should Declare a National Quarantine Against All Cholera-Infected Ports—Special Instruction in Examinations.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—The consul at Bremen cabled Tuesday that there was no Asiatic cholera in that city and that every precaution is being taken to prevent it. Treasury officials have received assurances of the effectiveness of the national and state quarantine services and they say that the department has done all it can to prevent the cholera gaining admission into the United States.

It has been suggested in connection with the subject of cholera that the government should declare a national quarantine against all cholera-infected ports. Acting Secretary Spaulding when spoken to about the matter said that the hearty co-operation of the national and state quarantine services makes the existing quarantine practically a national one. Another proposition—that for a quarantine of twenty days for all vessels—has been suggested to the department, but it has proceeded no further than the consideration stage. A cord of inspection and disinfection is being rapidly established on the seaboard from Louisiana to Maine and along the Canadian and Mexican frontiers.

Collectors of frontiers on the Canadian and Mexican frontiers have been instructed to exercise special vigilance in the examination of immigrants and their effects, and to co-operate with the officers of the Marine hospital service and local health officers in such action as they may deem advisable to prevent the introduction of cholera.

Dr. Wyman, the supervising surgeon-general of the Marine hospital service, was again in consultation with Acting Secretary Spaulding Tuesday. The surgeon-general has received a request from the board of health of Philadelphia asking that American consular officers at all foreign ports be notified to direct all vessel owners and captains of vessels departing for Philadelphia to stop and report at the Delaware breakwater to the officer of the hospital service. Acting Secretary Spaulding has requested the department of state to notify consuls accordingly by cable.

The treasury department was notified Tuesday afternoon that the revenue steamer Winona had left Newberne, N. C., for Delaware breakwater, to assist in enforcing the quarantine regulations.

Woes of Non-Union Workmen.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Aug. 31.—Max Goodrich, of Bellefontaine, O., a non-union worker in Homestead mills, is dying in the West Penn hospital of injuries which he claims were due to carelessness in handling the rolls. While cleaning under them last Saturday they were let down and his back was broken. Alderman McPike took his deposition. John Snodgrass, another non-unionist, lies dying in the same hospital of injuries received in a boiler explosion in the Homestead mill.

Still Detained at Quarantine.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31.—The steamship British Princess, from Liverpool, with 600 immigrants aboard, 250 of whom are from Hamburg, is still detained at quarantine. The work of disinfecting the baggage of the immigrants has been completed, but, although there is no sickness aboard the steamship, she will be detained at quarantine until the board of health is satisfied that all danger of cholera is passed.

Refuses Part of His Salary.

PANAMA, Aug. 31.—Acting President Caro has refused to accept the presidential salary of $95,000 a year, although discharging the duties of president, and will accept only the pay of vice-president, $12,000 a year. Acting President Caro has also chosen to live in a private residence in preference to the presidential mansion, with its pompous surroundings. He is much commended for his disinterestedness and self-abnegation.

Kilrain Makes a Bet.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 31.—A few bets have been placed here within the past few days on Sullivan, the largest being that raised in a pool amounting to $3,000 against $2,000, put up by some admirers of Corbett. Kilrain has bet $100 even on Sullivan. The other fights are attracting very little interest and no betting on these are recorded. Everything is Sullivan at this end.

BRAVE GUARDS

Prevent Convicts Escaping From the Michigan Penitentiary.

JACKSON, Mich., Aug. 31.—Edward Huntley, a twenty-year Detroit burglar; John Davis, a five-year burglar from Kalamazoo, and Lige Bullard, sent from Detroit for six years for assault with attempt to kill, tried to escape Tuesday morning from the penitentiary by climbing the prison wall. Huntley and Davis were fatally shot and Bullard was captured. The attempt was made at just 7 o'clock, and was timed to advantage. The convicts secreted a ladder inside the wall. Keeper Case saw Huntley and Bullard leave the shop. They ran swiftly to the south corner, where Davis joined them. The three convicts placed the ladder against the wall, Davis running up. He threw stones at the guard on the wall as he advanced, and at others who followed inside the yard. Guard Clark fired three times at the men, but missed. His gun then failed to go off. Inside Guard Prangman attempted to pull the ladder down, when Huntley rushed at him with a knife, swearing "I will cut your heart out!" Prangman, not being armed, ran. The convicts stormed the guard-house, on the wall inside of which Guard Clark was. They attempted to batter in the door to kill Clark and secure the gun. Huntley carried a board shield four feet long and iron covered, which he held in front of him to protect him from the bullets and rocks which were directed toward him.

Seeing all three guards coming, Huntley jumped outside the wall and started to run. By this time Clark had put new cartridges in his gun and began firing again. He struck Huntley twice, Guard Freeman came up at this juncture and brought Davis down with a ball in the left hip, which shattered the bone, and he fell from the wall. Bullard threw up his hands, and was handcuffed and brought in. On Huntley was found the knife, ground to a keen point and as sharp as a razor. Davis also had a similar one. Both were taken to the hospital and their wounds examined. The doctors say neither will live. Huntley at once wired his sister, Mrs. L. A. Taft, of Oak Grove, to come on the first train. Bullard has a ball and chain attached to him. His parents and brothers reside here.
