Miss Laura Shea is visiting in Cincinnati this week.

R. Lee Browning left last night for New York City.

George T. Barbour went to Richmond yesterday for a visit.

Miss Alice Shea is in Cincinnati attend ing the millinery openings.

Mrs. John Hettick of Covington spent Sunday here with relatives.

Miss Rosa Stephens of Cincinnati is the guest of Miss Nora Bloom.

Congressman Thomas H. Paynter was in the city last night and called on THE LEDGER.

Miss Belle Michaelson of Charleston, W. Va., is the guest of Miss Grace Greenwood.

W. S. Brittain came down from Lex ington Saturday and spent Sunday with his family.

Miss Anna Johnson has returned to her home at Mt. Sterling after a pleasant visit to Miss Tebie Farrow.

Miss Emma Schwartz of the West End has returned from a pleasant visit to friends in Cincinnati and Bellevue.

Miss Nannie Warder is spending the week with Miss Mollie Duke and Miss Fannie Lashbrooke near Lewisburg.

Samuel Pearce Browning of this city has been admitted to the second year's course at the Staunton (Va.) Military Academy.

Miss Mabel Foster of Cincinnati has returned to her home after a pleasant visit to her friends Misses Mary and Katie Miller.

Miss Marguerite Byrne has returned to her home at Elmwood Place after a pleasant visit to her friends Miss Maud and Anna Geis.

James Barbour, Jr., has returned from Charlottesville, Va., where he was attending the summer law course at the University of Virginia.

Miss Anna Johnson went yesterday to Paris, after a visit to Miss Tebie Farrow of this city. She will go from there to her home at Mt. Sterling.

Miss Emma Valentine and Miss Mary Cooper of Cincinnati returned to their homes Sunday after a pleasant visit to Mr. and Mrs. Ben T. Smith.

Messrs, A. McLachlan, R. C. Arnett and F. A. Foster and wife of Cincinnati returned home on the F. F. V. after a visit to the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Greenwood.

Mayor E. E. Pearce will leave to mor-row for a tour through the West. The itinerary of his trip is not fully made up but it will probably be an extended one. He will be gone about a month.

Thomas McNamara, a well known and opular young gentleman of this city left Sunday for Louisville where he will enter the College of Pharmacy. He has been clerking for some time in the drug store of Power & Reynolds.

ONE of the big fights is over with two Women began work in printing offices as early as 1520.

THE season of Cincinnati's so-called Coney Island has closed. An express engine consumes ten gallons of water per mile.

A GERMAN scientist holds that all diamonds come from meteors.

SEVEN-EIGHTHS of the bread used in London is made of American wheat.

An adult laboring man uses up about five ounces of his muscle every day.

THERE are nearly three thousand stitches in a pair of hand-sewed boots.

ALEX. RUMMANS, late Postmaster at Helena, is now living in Fayette county.

THE Mohammedans, it is said, consider silk unclean, because it is produed by a Cooking by electricity has been suc cessfully accomplished by a hotel in Ottawa, Ont.

A PATENT has been issued for a lock which can be operated only by a magne tized kev.

THE grain, the smallest weight in use, was thus called from being originally the weight of a grain of wheat.

Hars are no longer of a fore-and-aft order, a single mast being considered quite sufficient for smooth sailing.

BUTTERFLIES to the number of 150,000 will be shown in the Pennsylvania exhibits at the World's Fair at Chicago.

MRS, RICHARD FRINELL, wife of a re spected farmer, took rough on rats at Walton and is not expected to recover.

THE hardest known wood is said to be ocus wood. It turns the edge of any axe, however well tempered, so it is ONE million dollars in gold coin would weigh 3,685.8 pounds. The same amount of silver coins would weigh 58,939.9

WE acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to the reunion of the Orphan Brigade, C. S. A., to be held at Paris on

For the murder of a City Marshal, s man has been sentenced at Corpus Christi, Tex., to ninety-nine years' im-

THREE hundred and sixty different mountain peaks within the limits of the United States each exceed ten thousand feet in height

PUBLIC

LEDGER

FIRST YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 1892.

ONE CENT.

FIRST APPELLATE DISTRICT.

Ashland on September 22d.

hereby declares that a convention of the Republicans of said District, composed of the counties of Bath, Boyd, Brackea, Bourbon, Bell, Breathitt, Carter, Clark, Clay, Estill. Elliott, Floyd, Fleming Granup, Harley Lohnan, Labor, Labo of each county in the District is hereby earnestly requested to call and hold a County Convention in due time to select delegates to said convention at the time and place aforesaid.

The basis of representation from each county shall be one delegate for each one hundred and one delegate for each fraction over fifty votes cast for Ben-jamin Harrison in 1888.

District is urgently desired either by delegate or proxy. ED. DAUM.

delegate or proxy. ED. DAUM. Chair. First Appellate Court District.

EIGHTY-FIVE pupils were enrolled yes-terday at school No. 2.

THE Maysville Pilgrims were at Port-

HENRY GEORGE'S paper, The Standard,

JOHN L. SULLIVAN'S wind and weight

GEORGE H. MARTIN'S donation to the

THE public schools in the city opened yesterday and the children are corres-pondingly happy.

Ex-President Cleveland will visit General Stevenson at his home in Bloom-ington, Ill., about October 10th.

THE miners at Coal Creek and Knox

ITALIAN emigrants en route to this

BILLY MYER. "the Streator Cyclone."

ONE of the Building Committee re-juests THE LEDGER to inform "Inquirer"

South, will be here in the sweet bye and

COLORADO HOLIDAYS.

Grape and Cherry Days.

to an informant of the St. Louis Globe-melons. Car loads of melons are shipped the survivors of the Rockyford watermelon debauch go there to again gorge themselves. Bands of music and military companies parade the streets of the town in the morning to hold the hungry crowd in check while the local mountains of peach pits tell the tale of the day's orgies. Then along in October comes potato day at Monument.

Pretty much the same people are to be seen there as at Rocky ford and Grand Junction, and they consume enough

Irish potatoes in one day to check the worst famine Ireland has ever known.

The potatoes are cooked in every imaginable way—baked, boiled, roasted and mashed. They are served in great tin troughs that line the streets, and that remain stationary all the year. Two or three monster fat steers lie sputtering upon spits in convenient proximity to the potato tronghs, and the glutton can kill himself eating barbecued beef and potatoes if he wants to. No one will try to check him if his appetite runs riot. Grape and Cherry day is now a new institution lately established at

The section of the second

J. T. KACKLEY & CO.

ville, Tenn., have become ugly again.

Further outbreaks are expected.

Infirmary Library consists of sundry mag-are causing much anxiety to some people land, Oregon, September 1st.

will suspend after its next issue.

Representation from each county in the

KENTUCKY WEATHER REPORT.

What We May Expect Between This Time and To-morrow Evening.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—FAIR; Blue—RAIN or SNOW; With Black ABOVE—'twill warmer grow. It Black's neneath—Colden 'twill be; Unless Black's shown—no change we'll see.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock o-morrow evening.

She strolls beside the ocean blue The center of all eyes. In bathing robe of vivid hue And most alarming size.

But oh, how strange, two months from now To see her red lips curl, As at the play, with frowning brow, She views the ballet girl.

JAMES STRENG, a well-known merchant of Louisville, is dead.

MISS HATTIE ARNOLD of Bellevue had her arm broken in a runaway Sunday. Look out for "A Wild Goose Chase;" coming soon to Washington Opera-house.

A Kansas farmer recently sold his farm for the unique price of 100,000

THE news of the Sullivan-Corbett fight to-morrow night will be received in this city by rounds. JOHN ECKLE, a bicycle rider, was overcome by the heat at Cincinnati yesterday and will probably die. THE Standard, a newspaper owned and edited by colored people, has made its appearance at Lexington.

JUDGE J. S. MITCHELL of Winchester, who was ejected from an L. and N. train, has sued the company for $15,000.

IF some one would slip around some dark night and pin a few leaves on those trees on Sutton street they wouldn't look so lonesome.

Don't forget that the old Maysville favorite Charles A. Gardner will be at Washington Opera-house Thursday, September 15th.

Clerk's office yesterday morning by Rev. C. S. Lucas.

Miss Stella Logan arrived last eve ning from Cincinnati and will be with Mrs. L. V. Davis during the coming millinery season.

in a cylinder press and make other marked improvements. Success to you. The watch was taken across the river.

Brother Perry. WITHIN the last two weeks nearly a score of new patients have been enrolled at the Sanitarium. There are now eighteen under treatment. THE pension agency in Topeka is the largest in the country. It pays out annually $15,000,000 to the veterans of Kansas, Missouri and Colorado. Os account of the circus, after half will not run below the Opera-house or above the barn in the Sixth Ward. In his autobiography Sullivan confesses that, although in the past ten years he has taken in $700,000, he has been ass enough to spend nearly all of it

THE LEDGER doesn't know of anyone from Maysville who has gone to New Orleans to see the fights, but we are willing to wager that some Maysvillian turns

CHARLES A. GARDNER in his new play at the Opera-house Thursday evening, September 15th. Sale of seats opens Monday, September 12th, at 8 p. m. at

THE steamer Mansdam sailed from Amsterdam Saturday for New York. Among her passengers is Miss Lucy Rowland of Avondale, Cincinnati, who has many friends in this city.

THE Telegraphers' Convention at Kansas City, after a fight that caused case developed yesterday in the person of many delegates to leave, decided to form a new organization to be called the United Telegraphers' of North America.

THE work of remodeling the First Presbyterian Church is now in full blast. The congregation expects to spend $10,000 in repairs, when they will have one of the handsomest houses of worship in this city of fine churches.

R. D. CHINN died at his home near Mayslick at an early hour yesterday morning, aged 80 years. His death resulted from a complication of diseases. His wife and one daughter survive him. The funeral took place this morning from the family of the series was $45,000, about $4,000 being paid previous to yesterday.

Any one, no matter who it may be, that has a just complaint to enter for de-reliction of duty on the part of letter-car-riers or other employes of the Postoffice, will please report the facts to the Post-master. He will take pleasure in having any irregularities corrected.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Official Call for County Convention to Be Held on September 12th.

Pursuant to instructions of the Re publican Executive Committee of Mason county a mass convention of the Republicans of this county is called to meet at the Courthouse in the city of Maysville on Monday, September 12th, 1892, at 11 30 a. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for Sheriff, Circuit Court Clerk and Coroner. Also to select delegates to the Congressional and Judical Conventions to be held in Ashland September 22d, 1892.

M. C. HUTCHINS, Chairman.

S. T. Hickman, Secretary.

A LARGE barge, built by W. B. Mathews & Co. at the Fifth Ward Shipyards, was successfully launched yesterday afternon. Thomas Hall is owner and master of the new craft.

A PORTER at Berlin carried the linen of a traveler who had just arrived from Hamburg to the disinfecting chambers, and was taken down with a fatal case of cholera within an hour.

HON. GEORGE DENNY, Jr., of Lexington will address the Republicans of the Ninth District at the Convention to be held at Ashland on the 22d inst. at 8 p. m. Exchanges please notice.

ALL the wholesale liquor dealers of Grand Rapids, Mich., have been swindled out of 75 cents each through C.O.D.pack-ages, each of which called for $1 and contained a 25-cent Testament.

MUCH of the money which Mrs. General Custer realized by her seventy-two readings last winter has gone towards educating a young girl whose father died on the same field with her husband.

SATURDAY evening at Montgomery, Ala., a personal encounter took place between Captain Pollard, an ex-Sheriff, and Captain Kolb. late candidate for Governor. The lie was passed and blows struck.

REGULAR meeting of Maysville Division No. 6, U. R. K. of P., this evening at 7:30. A full attendance desired.

J. WESLEY LEE, S. K. C.

John L. Chamberlain, S. K. R.

REMEMBER, THE LEDGER prints "Help Wanted." "Lost." "Found," and similar notices not of a business character, free of charge. The only thing we require is that the copy be sent in before 9 o'clock on day of publication.

THE property holders of Middlesbo rough will mass meet at the Opera-house Thursday. We presume a committee will be appointed, armed with a search warrant for the "boom" that the outside world has heard so much about.

PARIS HINES and Miss Laura Proctor
Mower were married at the County

THE Board of Health met last night and placed Marshal Heffin in charge of the work of cleaning up the city. He will at once begin the work, and those who do not abate filthy places of their own accord will be forced to do it.

FRANK HASSON and Dennis Crow yesterday afternoon stole a watch at James Cullen's barber-shop. The ticker belonged THE Manchester Signal is going to put hanging up in the shop. Hasson escaped to Aberdeen but Crow broke into jail.

> THE bride's cake, approved according to the London idea, stands over five feet high, and is made in tiers wonderfully constructed and decorated with shields and flags bearing the names and crests of the bridal pair, emblems reproducing the husbands insignia, and wreaths and festoons of flowers.

For a lame back or for a pain in the side or chest, try saturating a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and binding it onto the affected parts. past 12 o'clock to-morrow the street cars This treatment will cure any ordinary case in one or two days. Pain Balm also cures rheumatism. 50 cent bottles for sale by Power & Reynolds.

A CINCINNATI Southern train carrying a party of "Pittsburgh sports" to the New Orleans pugilistic carnival, when about two miles North of Nicholasville, Ky., struck a buggy in which were Mrs. J. F. Farra and two children. One babe was instantly killed, and the mother and remaining child cannot recover.

Sot. WILLETT, an old-time Maysville boy, who hasn't been here before for forty years, is in the city. In company with several other capitalists and practical persons he will engage in the manu facture of plug tobacco here. They expect to begin operations in the near future. We are truly glad to see the dear old boys returning to their first love.

A SPECIAL to The Courier Journal from Ashland says: A remarkably peculiar a colored boy named Ford, eleven years old. Six years ago he chewed up a piece of a show bill, stuffing a portion of it in one ear. The doctors removed then what they thought was the entire obstruction. Yesterday the boy com-plained of a pain in the ear, and, on ex-amination, his mother removed the restruction. maining particle of paper about the size of a common pea, which had been in his car just six years.

PROBABLY no man in public life has been more eagerly sought by the publishers and editors of the critical reviews than Governor McKinley of Ohio, and he was recently offered a tempting sum for an article upon current topics. McKin-THE Mason County Building and Saving Association yesterday paid out about that Mr. White does. He believes that $38,000 on account of the Fifth Series of stock, which ran out. The total amount niary recognition commensurate with public recognition. The editor of one of public recognition. The editor of one of the greater reviews, in speaking of Mc-Kinley, said it would require almost as large a sum as was paid Gladstone, perhaps quite as large, to induce him to write a review article, and yet I am of the opinion that what he might write would be worth the money.—New York Press.

Transfers of Real Estate.

Mrs. Hannah M. Mullins to Mrs. Sarah E. Sapp, lot on West Second street; con-sideration, $220.

Notice.

A change has been made in the city delivery service of The Ledger, and those who did not get their paper promptly yesterday will understand the Attention Knights of St. John.

Regular meeting this evening at 7:30. All members requested to be present.

GEORGE F. BROWN, President.

William Moran, R. and C. Secretary.

Clark, Clay, Estill® Elliott, Floyd, Fleming, Greenup, Harlan, Johnson, Jackson, Knox. Knott, Laurel, Letcher, Leslie, Lee, Lewis, Lawrence, Madison, Mason, Montgomery, Morgan, Magoffin, Martin, Menifee, Nicholas, Owsley, Perry, Pike, Powell, Robertson, Rockcastle, Rowan and Wolfe will be held in the city of Ashland, Ky., on Thursday, September 22d, 1892, at 2 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals. The Chairman of the Republican Committee of each county in the District is hereby There will be a game of baseball at the Fair Grounds on Friday afternoon, Sep-tember 9th, between the Aberdeen game will be at two o'clock and will be for a purse of $50. Admission to the grounds 25 cents.

Clean Up.

The people of Maysville should wake up to the fact that the cholera each day assumes a more threatening and alarming attitude. Once established in New York City it will soon begin a journey Westward and Maysville is right on one of the great public highways.

See that your own premises are clean and if your neighbors' are not report the fact to Marshal Heflin.

A Good Thing to Keep at Hand.

From The Troy (Kansas) Chief .- Some ears ago we were very much subject to severe spells of cholera morbus; and now when we feel any of the symptoms that usually preced that ailment, such as sickness at the stomach, diarrhoa, etc., we become scary. We have found Cham-berlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoa Remedy the very tning to straighten one out in such cases, and always keep it about. We are not writing this for a pay testimonial, but to let our readers know what is a good thing to keep in the house. For sale by Power & Reynolds.

Our Army's Organization. The artillery regiments have each one colonel, one lieutenant colonel and three majors; the cavalry regiments have each one colonel, one lieutenant colonel and three majors: the infantry regiments have each one colonel, one lieutenant colonel and one major. There are in the United States Army five regiments of artillery, ten regiments of cavalry and twenty-five regiments of infantry. In the artillery and cavalry there are twelve companies to the regiment and in the infantry there are ten. As for hattalions, there is none and cavalry there are twelve companies to the regiment and in the infantry there are ten. As for battalions, there is none taken to San Francisco for deportation In our surface, so far as concerns the actual organization of the army.

Sells Brothers' To-morrow.

To-morrow will be the big day of all the days. Sells Brothers and their big show will be in Maysville and all the sights and scenes of circus day will be early and get choice. The Sells Brothers have long had a national reputation which has now become world wide. Their show- in all its ap-pointments is the largest and most complete that ever visited Maysville.

It is the first and perhaps the only circus of the season, and it is a source of congratulation that we are to have the cents per roll. very best now on the road.

A large crowd will be in the city and you will miss a big day if you don't come.

Horace Greeley's Creed.

Distant markets are all but inevitably inconsistent, uncertain markets. Europe has deficient harvests one year and buys grain of us freely, but next year her harvests are bounteous and she requires very little more food than she produces. no matter how freely we may be buying of her fabrics. Hence our wheat now sells very far below the price which ruled here when Europe had a meager harvest. A remote market virtually restricts the farmer to two or three great staples, while near markets enable him to diversify his products and thus maintain and increase the productive capacity of the

Mason Democrats.

Mason Democrats met in convention yesterday afternoon at the Courthouse. The proceedings were rather dull and uninteresting. The slate was fixed and everything was rushed through in the most formal manner.

J. B. Holton of Washington was unanimously chosen chairman, and M. F. Marsh and C. Burgess Taylor were made Secretaries.

All trusted and tried, weighed in the balance and never-found wanting Democrats of Mason county were made delecommittees are arranging the peaches gates to the Congressional Convention, so as to serve the greatest number at which meets at Carlisle to day, and were instructed to vote for Thomas H. Pyanter, the same moment, and in the afternoon the present representative. everybody falls to, and at night the

A Rotten Bealth Board.

Portsmouth through an unfortunate lefection on the part of the Republicans who opposed public improvements, elected, last spring a Democratic council. The council appointed a Democratic Board of Health, which installed Democraic sanitary police. Democrats also succeeded to the garbage contract and to the regular police force. Previously. there was no cleaner city, none more healthful or better protected. Now, The Blade has a regular column headed "Public Stinks," in which it points in which it points out, day after day, the foul gutter, vaults, recking alley, stagnant hog wallows, and a thousand and one neglected nuisances. Each day brings fourth a new list, and yet the awful story continues. Diphtheria, which was stamped out under previous health au-thorities, now rages, and is aided in its mortalities by fevers and other contagious diseases. In the health department Portsmouth officials have proved an utter

GLADIATORS.

Jack McAuliffe Still the Light Weight Champion.

Myer Succumbs After Fifteen Red-Hot Rattling Rounds.

Nothing Like the Fighting Ever Seen in the Olympic—Myer Knocked Down Twice in Rapid Succession— McAulife Gets First Blood.

Republican Convention Called to Meet at NEW ORLEANS Sept & - Jack McAuliff still retains the light-weight changionship. It was no easy victory, however.

The fight, though To the Republicans of the First Appel-late Court District: The new election law having rendered it necessary, the Republi can Executive Committee of the First Appellate Court District of Kentucky short, was of the biff-bang order and the hottest ever seen in the Olympic club-room. Mc-Auliff's terrible right did the trick. In the fifteenth round he knocked the JACK MCAULIFF. Streator eyclone silly and was borne from the ring on the shoulders of his second.

To canvas the rounds in detail is needless. To analyze the cause of victory and defeat is more to the pur-

Any close observer of man, any keen student of human impulse, saw at the outset that in his heart Myer did not expect to defeat his opponent. There was in his stolid face no glint of hard resolve. He was there because the match was made; because he had been trained for the encounter; because others, if not himself, believed there was a chance for him to succeed. The two men are scarcely to be compared as to scientific form, one shambled, the other trod firmly; one slouched loosely as he squared away, the other was alert, springy, confident

The offensive throughout the battle was assumed by McAuliffe. Myer to be sure, led occasionally. He could not always stand and wait, giving his foe his own time for rest. When in the second and McAuliffe knocked his man down twice, there came into Myer's face an expression born in his hopeless heart at the onset. When in the eighth round McAuliffe caught Myer on the right cheek and the blood trickled down his face, there came into the eyes of Myer a look like that dumb animals give to those whom they acknowledge their masters.

country were stopped at Paris, and shipped back to Italy at the expense of the French Government. MYEL He would fight. Oh, yes; but to win was not in Myer's near-by history and he knew it. Game, however, no one will deny, but his sallies were generalis a very gentle zephyr this morning.

The hurricane propensities seemed to be with the other fellow.

will deny, but his sallies were generally short and his wabbling anatomy held in it no power to stay or stop his opponent. The taunting smile on Mc-Embossed Wallpaper at 6, 8, 10 and 124 Auliff's face was met by Myer with an Good bargains; come expression of pitiful willingness to endure as long as he could. He had no steel in his muscles. There was no vicious spring in his arms. It was the spectacle of a sleek, forceful racer that the pews for the new M. E. Church, matched for a race of speed and endurance with a patient, heavy-hocked horse from the farm-yard. When in the fifteenth and last round McAuliffe slatted his fists on Myer's stomach, face and neck the willing fel-Her Watermelon, Peach, Potato and low he struck sank to his knees, reeled backward, recovered and lurched forward as though to rise. It was impos-Colorado has some holidays that other states have not thought of according sible. The dumb helplessness of the second round was noticeable. He fell Democrat. Among these are waterback upon the ropes, balanced, swerved melon day, peach day, potato day and and fell. grape and cherry day. Watermelon day occurs September 1 each year, and Meanwhile, as though made of steel springs, McAuliffe stood with arms in is celebrated at Rockyford. On that position to strike down again his heavy memorable occasion thousands of ex- foe should he get to his feet, but the cursionists from all parts of the state ten seconds passed and the shouts of flock to Rockyford and revel in water- victory broke forth. Myer lay defeated, but no more surein from the district, and they are as ly defeated than when he entered the free to all as water and air. The trains | ring. The difference was that exhaustion carry back hundreds of very sick pas- and bruises had been added to the desengers at night. Peach day is cele- feat that lay in his heart when time brated at Grand Junction with great was called Myer is not of a class to eclat. It falls September 17, and all meet McAuliffe, and the result of the fight is the demonstration of the fact.

> Andy Bowen and McAuliffe. NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 6 .- Before poor, bleeding Myer, unconscious, had been lifted from the ropes, the seconds of McAuliffe were hugging and kissing him. Referee Duffy announced that McAuliffe would fight any one-hundredand-thirty-three-pound man in the world for $10,000 a side. It was accepted by an unknown man, it is believed on behalf of Andy Bowen. The Weather.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.-For Ohio-Continued cool weather; fair; warmer by Tuesday night or Wednesday; northwest winds For Tennessee and Kentucky-Fair, except clearing to-night in Eastern Tennessee; slightly warmer; north winds, becoming variable in western portions. For West Virginia and Western Pennsylvania-Fair, except clearing to-nightin Western Pennsylvania; fairer and warmer Wednesday, northwest winds. For Indiana and Illinois - Fair, warmer; north winds, becoming vari-

Garfield Park Raided.

Canyon City, the center of the biggest CHICAGO, Sept. 6.-Two hundred offruit region in the eastern part of the ficers, commanded by Inspector Lewis, Capta Mahoney and Blettner, raided state, but the date is not yet mentioned. That it will attract thousands is attest-Garfield Park race track Monday aftered by the brilliant success of the other noon, and arrested 100 people. The three feast days I have mentioned. The governor attends each of these celebraprisoners were carted off to the station, and all were released on ball within a tions with his entire staff, and he would short time. As in the raid of last week, damn himself politically in Colorado if he should decline to go and eat himself the arrests were made upon warrants sworn out by private individuals.

