WHAT IT COST TO RAISE WHEAT. Elizabethton News.—Now that the harvest is upon us, the question as to what the farmers can afford to sell wheat at is much discussed. The old idea was that it takes $1 a bushel to pay the farmer a good profit. But things have materially changed. By the use of fertilizers, the yield per acre is largely increased, and, by means of improved machinery, the wheat can be sown, harvested and threshed for about half the cost of twenty years ago.

WHEN A FELLER TAKES A DAY OFF.

When a feller takes a day off—sets his soul to loatin' round.

Where the hills climb up to heaven, an' the rapid rivers sound.

'Pears like the world is newer, with its loveliness and light.

An' his eyes are seein' truer, an' his heart's a-beatin' right!

When a feller takes a day off, there's lots o' things to see:

I kin hear the winds away off, jes' a-welcomin' of me;

An' the violets peep so purty! an' the rose I feels the red a-rushin' round it, an' comes climbin' for a kiss!

When a feller takes a day off—O, he learns a lot o' things.

From the very doves a-flyin', with the music in their wings;

From the hills an' from the valleys, where the dreams an' dew is found—

When a feller takes a day off, an' his soul is loatin' round!

ATTEMPTED RAPE.

Grant Ward, Colored, Assaults Mrs. J. E. Gault.

Constable Hiram Sutcliffe and Ed. Roach of Murphysville brought to the city last evening Grant Ward, a negro about 18 years of age, and had him confined in the jail.

The charge against Ward is the attempted rape of Mrs. Gault, the estimable wife of J. E. Gault, who lives about a mile South of Murphysville. Ward was a farm hand in the employ of Mr. Gault.

The attack was made about 10 o'clock yesterday morning in the corn-crib while Mr. Gault was out on his farm. The brute grabbed her and threw her to the floor and but for her frantic screams, which brought to her rescue Sam Taylor, another farm hand, who arrived just in time to prevent the fiendish scoundrel from accomplishing his purpose. The lady was in no way injured, but was very badly frightened.

Ward got his clothes and made his escape. Constable Sutcliffe was summoned and to him is due the capture of the villain. He advised that the matter be kept as quiet as possible, for if any great excitement was created and any personal violence threatened the negro would probably flee from the country. The Constable was satisfied that the brute was at the home of a colored friend near by and that he could capture him there.

Armed with a warrant issued by Squire Worthington, Mr. Sutcliffe rode to the home of Charley Deman, colored, where he found Ward, who made no resistance or any attempt to escape, which, perhaps, is due to the fact that the officer was upon him before he noticed him and that an attempt to escape would be useless.

The Constable, with Ward in his custody, met Mr. Gault on the pike and feared that the negro would be killed, as the justly angered husband had told the officer he would shoot the assaulter on sight. However, he heeded Mr. Sutcliffe's advice and made no attempt to take the man's life, and rode quietly on home.

Ward asked permission to get his clothes, and he was accompanied to a woods, where he had hidden them after their removal from Mr. Gault's house. He says he did not intend to commit rape, but simply wanted to frighten the lady. However, the dose of justice he should get will keep him over at Frankfort the remainder of his life.

Ward was taken before Judge Phister this morning, waived examination and was remanded to jail in default of $3,000 bail.

A Woman's Remedy for Inflammatory Rheumatism.

I am an old sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism. The past winter it came upon me again, very acute and severe. My joints swelled and became inflamed, sore to touch or almost to look at. Upon the urgent request of my mother-in-law I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm to reduce the swelling and ease the pain, and to my agreeable surprise it did both. I have used three fifty-cent bottles and believe it to be the finest thing for rheumatism, pains and swellings extant. D. E. CARL, 123 Harrison street, Kansas City, Mo. Fant had no evidence to substantiate his story, and the women were allowed to go.

THROUGH HIS HEAD.

Passed a Bullet From His Own Revolver.

Charley Long, aged 36 years, son of Mrs. Frank Long of Lewisburg, shot himself through the head at 6 o'clock last evening.

It is not positively known whether he shot himself with suicidal intent or whether it was accidentally done.

The ball, a .38-caliber, entered the right temple, passed through the brain, completely destroying it, crushing the upper part of the skull and lodging near the left temple. He was almost completely paralyzed.

Dr. Dobyns of Lewisburg, the family physician, was called, and later in the evening Dr. Owens of this city was summoned and they pronounced him fatally wounded.

Mr. Long was in the city yesterday, accompanied by his sister. He ate his dinner at Eitel's and while he had been drinking he was not considered drunk.

He arrived home late in the afternoon. He told his grandfather that he had made arrangements to help a neighbor thresh the next day, and going upstairs to his room, placed his revolver, which he always carried, in a drawer in the dresser and lay down on the bed. In a short time he called to a little colored boy, who works about the house, and had him make him a mint julep, which he drank, and before the boy left the room Long requested him to hand him his revolver, which he did. Soon afterwards the report of the revolver was heard with the result above stated. Charley was greatly grieved over the death of his brother, who returned from school at Lexington and died about six weeks ago, and has constantly brooded over his demise, and if he shot was fired with the intention of self-destruction it was on this account and not because of the liquor he had drunk.

It is believed by some that the revolver was accidentally discharged, as Charley did not appear to be dependant and besides there were no powder burns about his face, which is evidence that the firearm had not been held near his head.

This is a great blow to his poor mother, who has experienced a world of trouble during the past several years, her husband having died about two years ago and her son Frank only a short time since a above mentioned.

Later—Long was still alive at 5 o'clock this morning, but no possible chance for his recovery.

The concert on the esplanade last evening by Hauke's band was somewhat of a treat. Market street from Second to Third was crowded with men, women and children who highly appreciated the music.

The boys were roundly applauded by the crowd after the rendition of each piece, which is evidence that they were delighted and the music appreciated. The boys played with the interest of yore, and with a little practice and a full membership can come up to the standard of their palmiest days.

HENRY GAULT INSANE.

He Was Taken to the Anchorage Asylum This Morning.

Chief Fitzgerald received a telegram from the Conductor on the Maysville Accommodation requesting him to meet the train at the depot. The Chief and Officer W. A. Stockdale were at the depot upon the arrival of the train and found Henry Gault, who was insane, tied down in one of the seats. The officers took him to the jail for safe keeping over night and this morning he was taken to the Asylum at Anchorage.

Mr. Gault is about 23 years old and lives in the Shannon neighborhood. He has a wife and one child. He has not been of sound mind for several years, and has received treatment at different sanitariums, but derived no permanent relief.

He had been closely watched for the past two or three weeks by his friends, who knew that he was growing worse, but he escaped and went to Cincinnati yesterday morning on Train No. 1, and in returning last night he became so unmanageable that the train men found it necessary to tie him as above stated. He gave the officers no trouble, however, except that he insisted on preaching them a sermon frequently, which privilege he was granted. The unfortunate man imagined that Captain Fitzgerald was Grover Cleveland.

ALL CLOSED.

For the First Time in the History of the Trade

Every Plate-Glass Factory in the Country is Indefinitely Closed.

Fully Ten Thousand Men Are Thus Thrown Out of Work—Over Production, Tight Money Market and Arbitrary Methods of the Trust the Cause.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 14.—For the first time in the history of the trade every plate-glass factory in the United States is closed, and that indefinitely. Fully 10,000 men are idle as a result.

The depression is attributed to three elements—overproduction, a tight money market and the arbitrary methods of the plate-glass trust.

There are twelve plate-glass factories in this country, where a few years ago the entire industry was carried on by two concerns.

It has been the custom of late to operate plate glass factories the year round, notwithstanding the usual summer shut-down of the other glass industries. Every plant in the country is now stocked with a large surplus, with no orders.

It is the impression that the factories will resume about the middle of September. Many of the glassworkers are in straightened circumstances, and are entirely dependent upon aid.

THE PRESIDENT

And Chief General of Nicaragua Prisoners—A New Revolution.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, July 14.—Civil war has again broken out in Nicaragua. The citizens of Leon are in arms against the government established when Somoza was overthrown. More important still is the fact that President Don Salvador Machado and Gen. Aviles, commander-in-chief of the army, are held as prisoners by the revolutionists.

The president and general were paying a visit to Leon. Their presence there probably caused the rebels to open their fight at a time when the president and commander of the army could be easily got under their control. Having made the president and Gen. Aviles prisoners, the revolutionists seized the military barracks, which were yielded without opposition. Besides taking possession of the barracks the revolutionists seized three steamers on Lake Managua. These will be used in transporting their troops.

News of the outbreak reached Managua Thursday afternoon. It is not known how strong the revolutionists are, but it is learned that they are being supported by the republic of San Salvador.

Troops have been ordered to march to Leon and quell the revolt and release President Machado and Gen. Aviles from prison.

A FIRE BUG

Tries to Burn the Germania Hall at Cleveland, O.

CLEVELAND, O., July 14.—At 9 o'clock Thursday morning the janitor and his assistants, at Germania hall, saw a stranger descend the stairs from the attic and leisurely leave the building. In a few minutes smoke and flames began rolling from the attic and burst from the roof.

The firemen made a sharp fight and conquered the flames before they could reach the lower stories, which were badly flooded. A number of singing societies attending the Saengerfest, which were quartered in the hall, were drowned out. One of these was the Maennerchor, of Cincinnati. Workmen who saw the incendiary are positive they can identify him.

A Waiting Policy.

CITY OF MEXICO, July 14.—The government is pursuing a waiting policy with regard to silver, and is not disposed to take decisive action regarding its foreign debt until events so shape themselves that it is clearly seen that silver is not to go much lower. The sincere desire of President Diaz and Finance Minister Limantour is to meet the foreign interest in full, and they will do so if not absolutely compelled by circumstances to adopt another policy.

Man Will Fight France.

LONDON, July 14.—The Times correspondent at Bangkok telegraphs that the Siamese government has refused to permit two more French gunboats to enter the Meinam river, 90 miles from the mouth of which Bangkok is situated, and has threatened that if the gunboats attempt to cross the bar at the mouth of the river they will be sunk. France, the correspondent adds, has officially held that this action is practically a declaration of war.

NEWYORK, N. Y., July 14.—A terrible accident occurred here at 12 o'clock. A large number of badly injured are being taken in all kinds of conveyances to the hospitals. It is said there are from eight to ten killed and a dozen injured.
