

PUBLIC LEDGER

FOURTH YEAR.      MAYSVILLE, KY., THURSDAY, JANUARY 3, 1895.      ONE CENT.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can lose over his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Calls

Upon THE LEDGER for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Success.

Restaurants, taverns, or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and for obituary notices, resolutions of respect, etc. THE LEDGER will charge FIVE CENTS A LINE, and hereafter this will be the invariable rule. This, however.

Does Not Include

Notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for Business Locals in THE LEDGER is 10 cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a five-line local inserted in the paper. "I'll tell you when to take it out," he says to the bookkeeper. But he forgets all about it. The notice runs for two months—52 times—the bill is $112. When he finds it out, there is a "kick" and a controversy, followed probably by an icy feeling. Now, to obviate this trouble, no "I'll forbid" notices will be accepted hereafter. Let's have a definite agreement at the outset and the termination will be pleasant all around.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

Mr. E. Stanley Lee is at Bluefield, W. Va., on a business trip.

Constable S. J. Nower of Dover was in Maysville Tuesday on business.

Mrs. Adolph Schriber and son Fred of Cincinnati are in town visiting relatives.

Miss Jessie Carlisle of Walnut Hills, Cincinnati, is visiting Miss Margaret Hill of West Second street.

Mrs. Dr. F. J. Locke of Newport is spending the week with the family of her father, Squire John L. Grant.

Mr. Charles A. Wood returned yesterday to Middlesborough after spending several weeks here with his parents.

Miss Helen Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Nelson, is home from Cincinnati after a pleasant visit to relatives.

Mr. Will N. Stockton started out Tuesday night for Kenova, W. Va., in the interest of E. A. Robinson's Limestone Cigar Factory.

Mr. W. H. Means and Mr. George H. Brodt, Superintendent of the Maysville Shoe Factory, left yesterday for Cincinnati and Memphis on business.

Miss Katie Bierley handsomely entertained a number of her friends Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCarthy of the Fifth Ward are rejoicing on the arrival of their first born, a son.

Mrs. Alice O'Mara has discontinued the saloon business in connection with her grocery on Market street.

Stockholders of the Mason County Building Association are requested to call today at the Bank of Maysville and get their dividends.

Yesterday Colonel R. K. Hoeflich, Treasurer, paid out $7,040 20 in dividends to stockholders of the Mason County Building Association.

Judge Paynter is this week engaged in becoming a resident of that hole in the ground partially filled by the Penitentiary and the State Capitol.

M. F. Coughlin, who has been conducting a saloon in the "Arcade," has quit business, and has leased his fixtures to Joseph Metcalfe, who will occupy the "Arcade."

Thomas Neal of this city has been a patron of the drygoods firm of George Cox & Son for sixty-five years, and twenty-two years of that period he has furnished milk to members of the firm. And in all that time there has never been an error in the accounts of either, nor the slightest controversy. This is certainly a remarkable record.

Colonel William B. Grant, who advertised in THE LEDGER for $10 he had lost, called in this morning to say that it was found by Messrs. Sam and Louis Metzger of the Fifth Ward, and was returned to him through the notice in THE LEDGER. His proves two things—that the little boys who found the money were neat, and that it pays to advertise in THE LEDGER. Now is the time to send your copy.

THE BREAD THAT MOTHER MADE.

You may write about your toothsome pies, your puddin's sweet and rich; You may give receipts in plenty, too, for cookies, buns and such; You kin talk about your doughnuts, and your jelly rolls and cake, But I'd rather have a piece of bread like mother used to make!

The bread they set before us now is just as white as snow, And for satisfying hunger doesn't any further go; It's just a "whited sepulcher," it is an' no mistake— Oh, I wish I had a piece of bread like mother used to make!

It was when I was a schoolboy, 'fore I started for the cow I'd scour the pantry for a lunch—I wish I had one now! A plenty of golden butter and of pear preserves I'd take, And pile it on that splendid bread that mother used to make!

At good, old-fashioned cookin' mother was a master hand; At good, old-fashioned eatin' her son at the head could stand; I never slighted anything, from pickles up to cake— But you'd ought to see me reach for bread that mother used to make!

The truth to you I'm tellin', now; it nearly turns my head When I see the white, unnatural stuff they pass to us for bread. This roller flour's the fashion now; it's fruit we have to take— But 'tain't a patchin' to the bread that mother used to make!

—Eugene Lightle.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—FAIR; Blue—RAIN or SNOW; With Black ABOVE—IT WILL WARMER GROW; If Black's BENEATH—COLDER IT WILL BE; Unless Black's shown—no change we'll see

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening.

Buyers are similar to other people—they like to be asked, and when they see an advertisement in THE LEDGER they naturally regard it as an invitation to call. No one likes to go where he is not invited or wanted.

J. C. Jefferson has been allowed $8 40 for conveying Hiram Poe to the Asylum at Lexington.

There were 66 interments in the Flemingsburg Cemetery last year—57 white and 9 colored.

P. J. Maley has been appointed Administrator of Mrs. Maggie Frey, with J. N. Kehoe surety.

W. L. Woodward qualified as Magistrate, with David Hechinger and Charles B. Pearce, Jr., as sureties.

At Hopkinsville a daughter of George Bowles sued Barrett E. McKnight for $30,000 for breach of promise.

Sheriff J. C. Jefferson has been allowed $38 for attendance on the County Court from July to the close of the year.

A few of John Holland Gold Fountain Pens, 75 cents each.

J. T. KACKLEY & Co.

During the turkey season Warren Bacon of Flemingsburg killed and shipped East 13,330 fowls, paying out $11,000.

The shortage of Lexington's Treasury, under the administration of Collector J. Hull Davidson, is now fixed at $14,713 63.

Books at cost and under for cash. Marked in plain figures. A cash price on Webster's International Dictionary.

J. T. KACKLEY & Co.

The case of Colonel W. C. P. Breckinridge to recover the receipts levied upon at his lecture last Thursday night was lost by the Congressman.

Mr. H. A. Bierley, formerly of Maysville, now of Portsmouth, has invented a cork which he claims will prevent the adulteration of the contents of a bottle.

Carlisle is to have another newspaper. Green Keller must have made enough last year to buy a hand-me-down suit, thus exciting envy and inviting rivalry.

Miss Sophia Waugh, aged 77, died at the home of her brother, Dr. J. C. Waugh, at Flemingsburg Monday. She was a sister of Mrs. Charles White of this city.

J. Dave Dye has qualified as County Assessor, with George W. Dye, J. D. Peed, E. A. Robinson and H. Duke Watson sureties—a pretty good bond, by the way.

The colored citizens of Danville had a big celebration on the anniversary of Emancipation Day. There was a long procession and many patriotic speeches at the Courthouse.

The internal revenue receipts at this point last month were $6,449 53, and for the year $195,844 91

Will close out at once our entire stock to change business. THE FAIR, 115 West Second street.

Charles L. Dawson, who had his arm amputate by Dr. J. H. Samuel of this city at Dunkinsville, O., on Sunday last is getting along nicely.

Hon. W. C. Owens and Senator Blackburn ate crow from the same table at Lexington a few nights ago, and every thing is lovely once more.

Miss Florence Wilson was awarded the Webster's Unabridged Dictionary in the voting contest at Kackley's for the most popular teacher in Maysville.

I know who took the Florence Comb and Brush from case in my store. Return it the same way you took it and save trouble. THRO. C. POWER.

The "Topsy Turvy Social" at the M. E. Church last night was a grand success, both financially and otherwise, quite a neat little sum being realized by the young people. Lunch was served in the basement of the church.

Ringgold Lodge No. 27, I. O. O. F., installed the following officers last night:

- N. G.—Simon Nelson. V. G.—J. B. Newton. Secretary—A. N. Huff. Treasurer—J. F. Barbour. R. S. N. G.—W. B. Pecor. L. S. N. G.—J. C. Rains. W.—W. L. Brose. C.—Jacob Miller. R. S. S.—W. E. Stallcup. L. S. S.—C. J. Collins. O. G.—W. H. Dersch. I. G.—J. N. Lynch. R. S. V. G.—Robert Dawson. L. S. V. G.—John D. Cobb. Relief Committee—W. L. Brosee. W. E. Stallcup, James Childs.

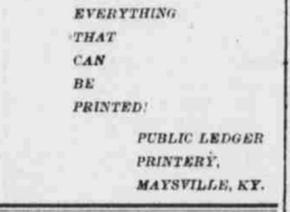

The Robinson Opera Company's interpretation of "Girofle-Girofia" pleased the largest and most fashionable audience of their engagement last night. All the parts of that charming opera were handled in an artistic and painstaking manner by this excellent company. The dancing of the Dempsy sisters between the second and third acts added much to the enjoyment of the entertainment. It was decided at the beginning of the present engagement to repeat "La Mascotte" to night, but by urgent request the beautiful "Chimes of Normandy" will be repeated. Those who failed to hear the "Chimes" Tuesday evening should avail themselves of the opportunity tonight. The reduced prices, 15, 25 and 35 cents, will prevail.

JOB PRINTING!

WE PRINT EVERYTHING THAT CAN BE PRINTED! PUBLIC LEDGER PRINTERY, MAYSVILLE, KY.

DELIGHTFUL RECEPTION.

Miss Nannie D. Peed Proves an Ideal Hostess Yesterday.

The handsome parlors of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Peed were doubly attractive yesterday afternoon from 3 to 6—the shimmer of many brilliant gas jets dwarfing before the radiant beauty of lovely young ladies who had gathered at the invitation of Miss Nannie D. Peed, than whom no hostess could be more fascinating or hospitable.

The reception committee was composed of—

- Miss Nannie D. Peed. Miss Lida B. Owens. Miss Suzanne Hall. Miss Florence Darnall. Miss Bessie Calk. Miss Berta Robinson. Miss Ellen L. Shackelford. Miss Elizabeth Best. Mr. Ass Burgess. Mr. Robert Bisset, Jr. Mr. Joe Evans. Mr. Thomas Darnall. Mr. Thomas J. Hall. Mr. James H. Hall, Jr. Captain Walker Coleman. Mr. Pearce Browning.

During the afternoon there were many guests, who were most delightfully entertained, the informality of the reception lending charm and imparting a peculiar pleasure to the occasion.

Delicious chocolate was served from dainty cups, and every one voted the reception an ideal one.

Eli Groves and Miss Sarah Stanley married in Greenup.

Musical critics of this city speak in high terms of the Robinson Opera Company now playing here.

Hon. J. C. Chensault of Richmond states that he will not be a candidate for Attorney General as rumored.

Frank Owens Hardware Co. have just received a supply of Eastern Manila Rope, which they are offering very cheap.

The Cincinnati, Portsmouth and Virginia Railroad has abandoned the Hillsboro and Sardinia gap of the Columbus and Maysville Railroad, and the latter has "shut up shop."

The suits against E. E. Pearce, W. S. Pant, W. T. Armstrong and H. B. Cushman of Flemingsburg, brought by the state for $56,000 back taxes, have been continued till January 24th.

It has been thought best, owing to sickness in some families, the inclement weather and the difficulty in attending two services, to defer the Womens' Union Prayer-meeting until after the week of prayer.

The annual meeting of the Maysville and Mason County Auxiliary of the American Bible Society will be held next Sunday night at the M. E. Church, South. A report from all the churches in the county is desired.

W. H. Harris of New York, who was released from jail at Cincinnati several days ago after being confined for two weeks on the charge of being a fugitive from justice, is a very sick man. He is attended by his wife, who arrived from New York several days ago.

IN HOC SWIG-O VICES!

Officers Land a Well Known Member of a Thieving Gang.

Pete Stevenson of Covington was arrested last Friday by Special Agent E. W. Fitzgerald and Detective Gaffney of the Covington Police Force on a charge of breaking into and robbing a C. and O. freight car.

On searching their prisoner the officers found some goods that were stolen from W. A. P. Lurty at Dover on the night of December 25th.

The officers went to Dover and located all of the stolen goods.

The stuff, which consisted of shoes, shirts, pants and handkerchiefs belonging to Mr. Lurty, and a pair of pants and a gum coat that were stolen from the car near the depot in this city, was found in a sack under a barn.

A brace and bit were also found on Stevenson. The bit fit the holes bored in the store door at Dover through which the thief effected an entrance.

Judge Athey of Covington sent the prisoner to this city in charge of the officers who made the arrest.

He was taken before Squire Grant last night and sent to jail in default of $500. Stevenson belongs to a gang of thieves who operate in the railroad yards in Covington and Cincinnati.

When clothing is stolen by them in Cincinnati it is colored and all the marks removed, and it is sold in Covington, and vice versa.

BRIDE'S SUPPER PARTY.

A Woman's Way of Sharing Her Happiness.

A pretty story is told of a recent New Orleans bride, a social belle, who on account of her rare beauty and grace, is known among her friends by the name of Venus. Now, all brides have to purchase their trousseaus, but it is not every bride that would have thought out the graceful deed that this bride did.

Her purchases were made at a leading store, and in all, counting the various departments that were called upon to contribute their beautiful stock to the trousseau, 15 young ladies served the bonnie bride-elect. She managed in some way to get the name of each one, and, when her wedding invitations were issued, each of these 15 young saleswomen received a dainty bidding to the church. Now, more.

At 6 p. m., the hour at which the bridal cortege, flushed with excitement from the beautiful church ceremony, entered the home of the bride, these 15 young women, busily at work behind the store counters, were summoned by their employers to the rear of the establishment.

There they found a sumptuous repast spread, with all manner of dainty cakes and confections. Accompanying the fine bridal supper was a letter which the employer read to the assembled girls. It was from the beautiful girl bride whom they had served so amiably, and she told them how she could not be happy on this day without letting them feel a glow of the happiness that had come to her.

James Chandler, aged about 70, died Tuesday afternoon at his home on Lawrence Creek. His wife, a son, Mr. Frank Chandler, and a daughter, Mrs. Collins Ricketts, survive. Funeral this morning at 11:30 at the Christian Church on Lawrence Creek, services by Rev. W. W. Hall.

Misses Agnes and Anna Dinger entertained a few of their friends last evening with progressive euchre at their home in the West End. Dancing was the feature of the evening, followed by a delightful luncheon. Among those present were Misses Mamie Wheeler, Retta Squires, Katie Friend, Mary Heimer, and Messrs. Ed. Landgraf, Sherman Arn, Robert Chinn, George Dinger and Charles Bright.

The Watters party of Crayon Artists have just finished a most difficult piece of work, and that to the perfect satisfaction of the gentleman for whom it was done. It is a correct portrait of the late Mr. William S. Samuel, and was made under adverse circumstances. Some years ago Mr. Samuel, composing one of a hunting party, was photographed with the group, having on a broad-brimmed hat, an overcoat and mounted. Previously he had had a picture taken with the hat off, but the face was not a good one, while that in the group was. How to combine the pictures was the question with Dr. Samuel, and he submitted the matter to Mr. Watters. That gentleman readily accepted the commission, and the result is a most perfect and satisfactory likeness—the face from the group, a dress coat taking the place of the overcoat, with the head and hair from the previous photograph substituted for the hat. It is unnecessary to say that Dr. Samuel is highly pleased with the outcome, and that the Watters Party have scored an artistic success. The portrait can be seen in the window of Messrs. John T. Martin & Co.

The Watters party of Crayon Artists have just finished a most difficult piece of work, and that to the perfect satisfaction of the gentleman for whom it was done. It is a correct portrait of the late Mr. William S. Samuel, and was made under adverse circumstances. Some years ago Mr. Samuel, composing one of a hunting party, was photographed with the group, having on a broad-brimmed hat, an overcoat and mounted. Previously he had had a picture taken with the hat off, but the face was not a good one, while that in the group was. How to combine the pictures was the question with Dr. Samuel, and he submitted the matter to Mr. Watters. That gentleman readily accepted the commission, and the result is a most perfect and satisfactory likeness—the face from the group, a dress coat taking the place of the overcoat, with the head and hair from the previous photograph substituted for the hat. It is unnecessary to say that Dr. Samuel is highly pleased with the outcome, and that the Watters Party have scored an artistic success. The portrait can be seen in the window of Messrs. John T. Martin & Co.

WATCH FOR TOMORROW'S LEDGER!

MASONIC INFIRMARY.

Call Upon the Kentucky Brethren For Contributions Therefor.

RICHMOND, KY., Dec. 10th, 1894. Under resolutions of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, passed by a unanimous voting vote, the undersigned were appointed to devise plans for the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the formation of our Grand Lodge.

As was fully explained at the time, the object in thus early beginning the preparation for our centennial was to give ample time in which the craft could, by voluntary subscriptions, raise a fund by small pledges from each, arranged on easy payments, secure a fund to build and endow a home for aged, infirm and destitute Masons, and equip an infirmary in which the sick and their wives, widows and children might receive treatment.

There are 18,000 affiliated Masons in this Grand Jurisdiction. There ought to be among them 1,000 who would give $10 per year for five years; 2,000 who would give $5 per year for five years; $1 per year for five years, to say nothing of the 50,000 Masonic children who can give 10 cents a year for five years and the 20,000 wives, widows and sweethearts who can give 50 cents a year for five years.

Thus, brethren, by prompt action, united effort and that generosity for which the craft is justly celebrated we can have for dedication and occupancy by our centennial year a home for our destitute brethren, built and endowed without the assessment of a single dollar, all by voluntary offerings, a home in which each Mason will take a just pride and interest, and one in which, by the vicissitudes of fortune, any one of us who are now able and willing to contribute, may find repose and support in our old age among kind friends and brothers.

With this we send you subscription blanks, which fully explain themselves. Let every Mason who is in attendance at your anniversary meeting, December 27th, promptly sign a pledge, and have a committee appointed to wait on those not present as soon as practicable. Don't fail to give all non-affiliates an opportunity to contribute to this great Masonic charity. Be sure to call on every one of them.

As fast as pledges are signed send them, stub and all, the entire sheet without mutilation, to the Chairman of the Committee, J. Speed Smith, Richmond, Ky., who will furnish The Masonic Home Journal a list of subscribers for publication as fast as received.

Brethren, let's have the January number of our paper filled with your names. Fraternally,

J. SPEED SMITH, JAS. E. WILHELM, ISAAC P. GOULD, SAM'L W. HAGER, PHILIP E. KEMP, JAMES W. STATON, Centennial Committee.

I heartily approve this and all you have done, and will be glad to render any service I can. H. H. HOLEMAN, Grand Master.

Subscription blanks may be had of Mr. R. P. Jenkins at The State National Bank, who will also be glad to give any further information.

Quarterly Report of The Bank of Maysville, MAYSVILLE, KY.

At the Close of Business on the 31st Day of December, 1894.

RESOURCES. 1. Loans and discounts $198,902 02 2. Overdrafts, secured and unsecured 10,796 00 3. Due from National banks 7,304 02 4. Due from state banks and bankers 37,457 45 5. Banking house and lot 64,961 47 6. Other real estate 1,100 00 7. Mortgages 30,290 00 8. Stocks and bonds 14,300 00 9. Specie $ 2,282 25 10. Currency 19,595 00 11. Exchanges for clearing 1,530 11 12. Other items carried as cash 342 25 Total $347,260 19

LIABILITIES. 1. Capital stock paid in, in cash $ 25,000 00 2. Surplus fund 15,000 00 3. Due depositors 234,401 44 4. Due National banks 7,715 48 5. Due state banks and bankers 2,162 31 6. Taxes due and unpaid 110 71 Total $347,260 19

J. F. Barbour, Cashier of the Bank of Maysville, a bank located and doing business at No. 33 West Second street, in the city of Maysville, in said county, being duly sworn, says that the foregoing report is in all respects a true statement of the condition of said bank, at the close of business on the 31st day of December, 1894, to the best of his knowledge and belief; and further says that the business of said bank has been transacted at the location named, and not elsewhere; and that the above report is made in compliance with an official notice received from the Secretary of State designating the 31st day of December, 1894, as the day on which such report shall be made.

Subscribed and sworn to before me by J. F. Barbour the 2d day of January, 1895. R. K. HOSKETCH, Notary Public.

The Globe Laundry has removed to its new building, Commerce street. Office at Harry Taylor's. Goods will be called for and delivered in any part of the city.

Frank Armitage, traveling salesman for Russell, Vincent & Williams, Portsmouth, has entered suit for $10,000 damages for a discharge that was made September 1st last. He claims to have been employed by the year at $100 a month and five per cent. of the sales over $25,000. In September he was discharged, but received no notice until November 10th. Armitage resides in Baltimore.

The Watters party of Crayon Artists have just finished a most difficult piece of work, and that to the perfect satisfaction of the gentleman for whom it was done. It is a correct portrait of the late Mr. William S. Samuel, and was made under adverse circumstances. Some years ago Mr. Samuel, composing one of a hunting party, was photographed with the group, having on a broad-brimmed hat, an overcoat and mounted. Previously he had had a picture taken with the hat off, but the face was not a good one, while that in the group was. How to combine the pictures was the question with Dr. Samuel, and he submitted the matter to Mr. Watters. That gentleman readily accepted the commission, and the result is a most perfect and satisfactory likeness—the face from the group, a dress coat taking the place of the overcoat, with the head and hair from the previous photograph substituted for the hat. It is unnecessary to say that Dr. Samuel is highly pleased with the outcome, and that the Watters Party have scored an artistic success. The portrait can be seen in the window of Messrs. John T. Martin & Co.

The Watters party of Crayon Artists have just finished a most difficult piece of work, and that to the perfect satisfaction of the gentleman for whom it was done. It is a correct portrait of the late Mr. William S. Samuel, and was made under adverse circumstances. Some years ago Mr. Samuel, composing one of a hunting party, was photographed with the group, having on a broad-brimmed hat, an overcoat and mounted. Previously he had had a picture taken with the hat off, but the face was not a good one, while that in the group was. How to combine the pictures was the question with Dr. Samuel, and he submitted the matter to Mr. Watters. That gentleman readily accepted the commission, and the result is a most perfect and satisfactory likeness—the face from the group, a dress coat taking the place of the overcoat, with the head and hair from the previous photograph substituted for the hat. It is unnecessary to say that Dr. Samuel is highly pleased with the outcome, and that the Watters Party have scored an artistic success. The portrait can be seen in the window of Messrs. John T. Martin & Co.

The Watters party of Crayon Artists have just finished a most difficult piece of work, and that to the perfect satisfaction of the gentleman for whom it was done. It is a correct portrait of the late Mr. William S. Samuel, and was made under adverse circumstances. Some years ago Mr. Samuel, composing one of a hunting party, was photographed with the group, having on a broad-brimmed hat, an overcoat and mounted. Previously he had had a picture taken with the hat off, but the face was not a good one, while that in the group was. How to combine the pictures was the question with Dr. Samuel, and he submitted the matter to Mr. Watters. That gentleman readily accepted the commission, and the result is a most perfect and satisfactory likeness—the face from the group, a dress coat taking the place of the overcoat, with the head and hair from the previous photograph substituted for the hat. It is unnecessary to say that Dr. Samuel is highly pleased with the outcome, and that the Watters Party have scored an artistic success. The portrait can be seen in the window of Messrs. John T. Martin & Co.

The Watters party of Crayon Artists have just finished a most difficult piece of work, and that to the perfect satisfaction of the gentleman for whom it was done. It is a correct portrait of the late Mr. William S. Samuel, and was made under adverse circumstances. Some years ago Mr. Samuel, composing one of a hunting party, was photographed with the group, having on a broad-brimmed hat, an overcoat and mounted. Previously he had had a picture taken with the hat off, but the face was not a good one, while that in the group was. How to combine the pictures was the question with Dr. Samuel, and he submitted the matter to Mr. Watters. That gentleman readily accepted the commission, and the result is a most perfect and satisfactory likeness—the face from the group, a dress coat taking the place of the overcoat, with the head and hair from the previous photograph substituted for the hat. It is unnecessary to say that Dr. Samuel is highly pleased with the outcome, and that the Watters Party have scored an artistic success. The portrait can be seen in the window of Messrs. John T. Martin & Co.

The Watters party of Crayon Artists have just finished a most difficult piece of work, and that to the perfect satisfaction of the gentleman for whom it was done. It is a correct portrait of the late Mr. William S. Samuel, and was made under adverse circumstances. Some years ago Mr. Samuel, composing one of a hunting party, was photographed with the group, having on a broad-brimmed hat, an overcoat and mounted. Previously he had had a picture taken with the hat off, but the face was not a good one, while that in the group was. How to combine the pictures was the question with Dr. Samuel, and he submitted the matter to Mr. Watters. That gentleman readily accepted the commission, and the result is a most perfect and satisfactory likeness—the face from the group, a dress coat taking the place of the overcoat, with the head and hair from the previous photograph substituted for the hat. It is unnecessary to say that Dr. Samuel is highly pleased with the outcome, and that the Watters Party have scored an artistic success. The portrait can be seen in the window of Messrs. John T. Martin & Co.

The Watters party of Crayon Artists have just finished a most difficult piece of work, and that to the perfect satisfaction of the gentleman for whom it was done. It is a correct portrait of the late Mr. William S. Samuel, and was made under adverse circumstances. Some years ago Mr. Samuel, composing one of a hunting party, was photographed with the group, having on a broad-brimmed hat, an overcoat and mounted. Previously he had had a picture taken with the hat off, but the face was not a good one, while that in the group was. How to combine the pictures was the question with Dr. Samuel, and he submitted the matter to Mr. Watters. That gentleman readily accepted the commission, and the result is a most perfect and satisfactory likeness—the face from the group, a dress coat taking the place of the overcoat, with the head and hair from the previous photograph substituted for the hat. It is unnecessary to say that Dr. Samuel is highly pleased with the outcome, and that the Watters Party have scored an artistic success. The portrait can be seen in the window of Messrs. John T. Martin & Co.

The Watters party of Crayon Artists have just finished a most difficult piece of work, and that to the perfect satisfaction of the gentleman for whom it was done. It is a correct portrait of the late Mr. William S. Samuel, and was made under adverse circumstances. Some years ago Mr. Samuel, composing one of a hunting party, was photographed with the group, having on a broad-brimmed hat, an overcoat and mounted. Previously he had had a picture taken with the hat off, but the face was not a good one, while that in the group was. How to combine the pictures was the question with Dr. Samuel, and he submitted the matter to Mr. Watters. That gentleman readily accepted the commission, and the result is a most perfect and satisfactory likeness—the face from the group, a dress coat taking the place of the overcoat, with the head and hair from the previous photograph substituted for the hat. It is unnecessary to say that Dr. Samuel is highly pleased with the outcome, and that the Watters Party have scored an artistic success. The portrait can be seen in the window of Messrs. John T. Martin & Co.

The Watters party of Crayon Artists have just finished a most difficult piece of work, and that to the perfect satisfaction of the gentleman for whom it was done. It is a correct