

PUBLIC LEDGER

FOURTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 13, 1895.

ONE CENT.

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Steadily Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising notices free any more than a merchant can toss over his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Calls

upon THE LEDGER for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Suppers,

excursions, fairs, or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and for obituary notices, resolutions of respect, etc., THE LEDGER will charge FIVE CENTS A LINE, and heretofore this will be the invariable rule. This, however,

Does Not Include

notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for Business Local in THE LEDGER is 10 cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a five-line local inserted in the paper. "I'll tell you when to take it out," he says to the bookkeeper. But he forgets all about it. The notice runs for two months—32 times—the bill is $16. When he finds it out, there is a "kick," and a controversy, followed probably by an icy feeling. Now, to obviate this trouble, no "bill for" notices will be accepted hereafter. Let's have a definite agreement at the outset and the termination will be pleasant all around.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

E. R. Young of Ripley was here yesterday.

S. L. Dayton of Mt. Olivet was in town yesterday.

J. A. Graves of Ewing was in this city yesterday.

A. B. Anderson of Shannon was in this city Monday.

Miss Ella Adams of Georgetown was in Maysville Monday.

F. R. Jones of Millersburg was a visitor to our city Monday.

W. G. Swope of Felicity, O., was in Maysville yesterday.

J. W. Rand of Vanceburg was a visitor to our city yesterday.

A. B. Scott of Manchester visited friends in this city yesterday.

John P. Bayne of Dover was in the city yesterday, the guest of genial J. D. Hummans.

Messrs. R. Cassidy, J. W. Lee and William Knox of Flemingsburg were in Maysville Monday.

Aaron Carver, a well known citizen of Montgomery, W. Va., was in Maysville Monday for a short while.

Lexington Leader.—President W. W. Baldwin of the Maysville and Lexington Turnpike Company is in the city.

Frank Groppenbacher and Ernest Bambach, two of Ripley's most prominent young men, were visitors to our city yesterday.

The many friends in this city of Mrs. Layton, the mother of Mrs. George M. Clinger, will regret to learn that she suffered a stroke of paralysis at her home near Fearis, Lewis county, Saturday, and is now in a precarious condition.

The statement of that solid financial institution, the State National Bank, will be found on the fourth page of this issue. It has individual deposits of $322,256 50, and loans and discounts amounting to $425,888 96, a most gratifying showing.

On Wednesday evening, March 27th, at the Opera-house, the following from the Cincinnati Conservatory will appear in an elaborate musical program: Mr. Jacob Bloom, violinist; Mrs. Jacob Bloom, pianist; Mrs. Hattie Blatterman, vocalist; Miss Mannheimer, elocutionist, from the Cincinnati School of Expression, Cincinnati; also Master David Abramowitz, aged 13, a violinist. The entertainment will no doubt prove a treat for lovers of music.

FAREWELL TO CONGRESS.

The record will show that the aggregate appropriation will exceed a billion dollars for the two sessions of this Congress—Washington Dispatch.

"Good-bye,"

We sigh,
But still without regret.

Though left bereft,
We may be happy yet.

You've quit—
That's it;

We're glad that some are lost.
Because—
Here a pause—
A billion you have cost.

You've balked,
And talked;

But little have you said.
We've found
Mere sound

Your long debates have led.
But now
We vow

We know you cut a dash,
For we Can see

You've cost a billion cash.

We find
How blind

We have been in the past,
And so,
You know.

We're glad you're through at last.
We fear
It's clear

From what you've done before.
If you
Weren't through

You'd cost a billion more.

The price
Is thrice

As much as you are worth;
Else, then,
Few men

Would almost own the earth.
"Too high!"
We cry,

And urge when we're allowed
You're not
God wot,

A billion-dollar crowd.

Some good
You should

Have right to claim you've done.
Then, too,
'Tis true,

You've had a lot of fun.
This claim
To fame

We will not now deny,
But still
Your bill

Is very much too high.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—FAIR;
Blue—RAIN or SNOW;
With Black ABOVE—'Twill WARMER grow.

If Black's BENEATH—COLDER 'twill be;
Unless Black's shown—no change we'll see

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock o-morrow evening.

We respectfully invite the comparison of THE LEDGER with any other daily newspaper in all Northeastern Kentucky if any one can find a daily paper printed in the Ninth Congressional District that has

A Larger Circulation, or More Original Reading Matter.

We will take pleasure in presenting him with a year's subscription to THE LEDGER. And this paper is furnished at same price as inferior ones.

Fire Insurance—Duley & Baldwin.

A line of beautiful new Velling just received by Mrs. L. V. Davis, Zweigart Block.

Mr. Thomas Wells, Cashier of the First National Bank, who has been ill for several days, is better this morning.

Detective John Saucks of the Cincinnati police force was here yesterday looking into the Shackelford diamond robbery.

A negro was sentenced to thirty days hard labor at Paris for stealing a cart. We'd like to know what's any harder labor than stealing a cart.

The Directors of the People's Building Association have declared a dividend of 6 1/2 per cent., together with return of monthly dues paid in during the year.

The Winchester Sun says the Opera Company at that place and the lessee, Mr. E. L. Kinneman of this city, have disagreed about their contract, and the management of the house has been taken charge of by the company.

The Law and Order League of Flemingsburg, having done a great deal towards stopping the illicit sale of liquor in that town, has now turned its attention toward some of the city ordinances, which have been openly violated for years, one of them being an ordinance against using profane language on the streets.

See the turnpike notices in another place in this issue.

See the famous Gold Band Minstrels at the Opera-house tonight.

The C. and O. will use a switch engine in their yards here, beginning the first of April.

Miss Sadie Hickey of January street, who has been critically ill for the past week, is no better this morning.

The mother of George Magee, the negro murderer who was hanged at Frankfort not long ago, has died of grief.

Mr. George Frank, the popular clerk at the Red Corner Clothing House, is confined to his room, threatened with fever.

Fred Jones, a colored boy about 14 years of age, was before Squire Bramel yesterday charged with carrying concealed weapons. He was sent to the Hotel de Johnson to do about the place for the next 45 days.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Pat Punch was here Monday summoning witnesses in the case against Wayne, Dameron and others of Catlettsburg, charged with using the mail for fraudulent purposes. The trial is now in progress in Louisville.

A "colored gemmen" filled up on Paris whisky, met a young negro boy, whipped out his knife and cut a cross on his head.

Madison county young men have decided to go West and grow up with the country, eighteen leaving on one train Tuesday.

George Washington, an aged colored man, used abusive language to his mother-in-law and he was given 20 days in jail by Squire Bramel yesterday.

The Secretary of the Treasury has abated the internal revenue tax, amounting to $640,794, on 711,994 gallons of spirits destroyed by fire April 5th, 1893, at Louisville. The spirits were owned by William E. Bradley, Allen Bradley Company and John McKim.

HE DESERTED HER.

Mrs. Emma Evans, 40, of Plummer's Landing, was tried in the County Court at Flemingsburg yesterday morning for insanity and sent to the asylum for the second time.

She was of violent temperament, and had to be confined for a month previous. She was married once, and her husband deserted her, which probably brought on her mental derangement.

AND THIS CAUSED A FLEMING COUNTY WOMAN'S INSANITY.

WHITE RIBBON BAND.

THE LADIES OF MT. OLIVET HAVE FORMED ONE TO FIGHT AGAINST HAVING A SALOON.

The ladies of Mt. Olivet have banded themselves together to work against the whisky traffic and the opening of a saloon in that town.

Saturday night they had a most interesting meeting at the Courthouse in that place.

Their program consisted of recitations, readings, music, addresses, prayers and a temperance paper.

They implored the men to protect them and help them keep this terrible temptation—an open saloon—from their husbands, sons and brothers.

Everything that was said and done showed how this deadly poison would wreck a man's life and make a brute of him.

We don't see how the men could turn against the piteous appeals of the women and vote for an open saloon.

Keep the saloon out as long as you possibly can.

COUNTY COURT.

A GREAT DEAL OF BUSINESS TRANSACTED AT THE LAST SESSION IN THIS CITY.

The will of Mrs. Evaline Hutchins, deceased, in her own handwriting, was presented and ordered recorded. Morris C. Hutchins, named in the will as executor, declined to act. Essie C. Hutchins and Charles Phister were appointed administrators with the will annexed, and gave bond, with Thomas R. and Margaret Phister as sureties.

Wood Bramel was appointed overseer of the road running from Reed's Pond to Maysville and Mt. Sterling Turnpike, in place of Johnson Branch, resigned.

Emmitt Bramel was appointed overseer of the road beginning at Reed's Pond and running to Fleming county line then to Maysville and Mt. Sterling Turnpike, vice Abner Bramel, resigned.

The following settlements were ordered laid over to April term of court for exceptions:

A. J. Styles and H. D. Watson, guardians of Mary M., William H. and Lula B. Howard.

A. P. Gooding, guardian of Lizzie Gooding.

John W. Wallingford, guardian of Francis D. Jones.

Sallie Hopper, administratrix of John R. Hopper.

The will of the late Charles D. Shepard was filed and ordered recorded. The will named his widow, Mary W. Shepard, as administratrix. She declined to act in that capacity and on her motion J. M. C. Ballenger was appointed administrator, with the will annexed. Mr. Ballenger qualified, with I. M. Lane and William Shepard as sureties.

Messrs. George W. Crowell and John O'Brien were appointed to appraise the estate of the late Charles D. Shepard.

MONEY FOR TEACHERS.

All Claims Will Be Satisfied By July 1st, Probably.

State Superintendent of Schools Ed. Porter Thompson has issued the following to County Superintendents:

"The State Treasurer is now assured that by the 1st of April he can honor warrants for half of the balance yet due your teachers. He cannot confidently promise that the remainder can be paid before July 1st."

WASHINGTON SIMPSON DEAD.

This Well Known Colored Man Passed Away Yesterday.

Washington Simpson, a highly respected colored man of the Washington precinct, aged 85 years, died yesterday about noon of pneumonia.

This old colored man was indeed a Christian, he having been a member of the Colored Baptist Church for many years.

He had the confidence and respect of the entire community in which he resided.

He had a number of friends and acquaintances in this city.

The funeral will occur this afternoon, the burial being at the Baptist Cemetery at Washington.

SURE ENOUGH MUSIC

IN MAYSVILLE BY THE FAMOUS MARINE BAND NEXT MONTH.

The citizens of Maysville and vicinity will have an opportunity of hearing the famous United States Marine Band of Washington, D. C.

The band has obtained permission to take a Southern tour, and it is to be strictly a Southern tour. The band will not play North of Mason and Dixon's line, consequently they cannot play in Aberdeen.

Four cities will be played in this state—Louisville, Lexington, this city and Covington or Newport.

The band consists of fifty-five pieces, and their red uniforms are gayly decorated with gold cord and gold buttons.

The band is expected here in about three weeks.

Newport's Chief of Police reports only $37 collected on fines during the month of February.

Grayson Council has passed an ordinance against hogs running at large in the streets of that town.

Postmaster at Caseyville wants to resign, but no person can be found in the town to accept the office.

F. Devine has sold for W. J. Bloom his house on Third street, Fifth Ward, to Mrs. Amelia Terry for $1,000.

Jailer Davis of Carter county refused to allow the Courthouse to be used for a temperance meeting, although it had been advertised to be held there.

An ordinance providing for the election of city officers in November has been passed by the Lexington Council, and now the question will go to the courts for a decision.

The boys arrested Sunday, charged with breaking a seal on a C. and O. freight car, were examined before Judge Wadsworth yesterday and held in $300, which they could not give.

Real Estate Transfers.

The farm of W. A. Powell and wife to C. W. Williams, containing 104 acres; consideration, $5,321 88.

E. R. Davis and wife et al, to C. W. Howard, house and lot located in Sardis; consideration, $1,000 cash.

W. W. Sisson et al by Master Commissioner to Thomas Lally, farm in Mayslick Precinct; consideration, $5,911 15.

W. D. Ray and wife to Thomas Lally, a small tract of land on Mayslick and Millers Creek Turnpike; consideration, $60.

LETTER LIST.

Those Who Have Missives in the Maysville Postoffice.

Below is a list of letters remaining uncalled for at the Maysville Postoffice for the week ending March 12th, 1895:

Crawford, Miss M. Meyers, Will G.

Holton, Miss Martha Nabers, J. E.

Irwin, Mrs. Anna Patterson, Miss A.

King, Geo. H. Rhoden, Rev. Thos.

Kennedy, Elena Steward, Geo. H.

Lysle, Miss Edith (Mrs.) Schwartz, Henry

Lee, Jasper Strawder, Miss Rattie

Luman, Joseph Thompson, R. T.

Martin, Mrs. Lorena Webster, E. P. C.

One cent due on each of above.

Persons calling for these letters will please say that they are advertised.

THOS. J. CHENOWETH, Postmaster.

GOT SATAN ON THE GO.

A REVIVAL AT FLEMINGSBURG NOW GOING ON, AND ONE JUST CLOSED AT FEARIS.

The Flemingsburg Gazette says that a committee composed of one lady from each church in that town waited on the business men of that town with a request that all stores be closed after 7.30 o'clock in the evening, so that everyone might have an opportunity of attending the union revival meeting which is in progress at the Presbyterian Church.

The request, we are pleased to say, is being complied with, and at the hour mentioned nearly all the stores in that town are closed.

There were four additions at the service Monday night, and the interest is increasing at every meeting.

As soon as that meeting closes the Christian Church at that place will begin a similar service.

THE FEARIS REVIVAL.

A three weeks religious meeting at Fearis, conducted by the Pastor, Rev. N. G. Grizzle, who is also Pastor of Sedden's Chapel, M. E. Church, of the Sixth Ward of this city, closed at the M. E. Church Friday evening, the 8th inst., at that place.

The meeting was the best and most successful one held there since the Rev. E. C. Pollard organized the church.

There were about twelve old members renewed their membership and about twenty seven joined the church, a few from other churches requested membership and several conversions are reported.

The church will be thoroughly organized by the Pastor the third Sunday in this month, and after that a full report can be had.

Notwithstanding the opposition some of the people of Fearis have against churches, the one there will show its faith by its work from now on if they can only secure such preachers as the Pastor, Rev. N. G. Grizzle, they will soon have all in some church.

There has been much done to build up and to reopen the church there, but there are a great many more things to be done yet.

Go see Gorton's Minstrels at the Opera-house tonight.

A horse attached to a buggy met a streetcar in front of the Express office last night, and the horse tried to walk or jump over the car—and the car kept on running.

James Cullen, the tonsorial artist, has spent a great deal of time and money in beautifying his place on Market street and it is now as bright and attractive as a sweet girl graduate.

RIVER NEWS.

Numerous Items of Interest Found Floating on the Current.

Stanley for Kanawha tonight.

Telegraph for Pomeroy tonight.

The gauge reads 20.5 feet and falling.

The Keystone State from Pittsburgh tonight.

The City of Vevay delayed this morning by fog.

Sunshine out from Cincinnati tonight for Pomeroy.

The Ohio river is falling from Pittsburgh to Cairo.

Sunshine down from Pomeroy during the night with a big trip.

The Ruth will be the afternoon packet from Portsmouth today.

The Sea Lion is coming with a big tow of timber for Louisville.

About all the coal that was loaded at Pittsburgh has been shipped.

The Iron Queen passed up yesterday at noon for Pittsburgh with a good trip.

The Dick Fulton passed down last night with a small tow from Pittsburgh.

The Bonanza for Pomeroy and the Ruth for Portsmouth passed up last night.

The Tom Dodsworth will leave Pittsburgh Saturday with the last tow of coal loaded.

The outlook is considered favorable for a good river business from now until low water again sets in.

The Iron Age will leave Pittsburgh with a big tow of steel rails for the South as soon as they can be loaded.

The Pacific No. 1, sunk by the ice up the river, has been raised and will be taken to Pittsburgh and repaired.

Mate Berry of the Iron Queen was arrested at Parkersburg on the up trip of the boat for attempting to kill one of the colored deckhands.

The Kentucky River Snagboat General O. M. Poe is on its way up for the Big Sandy river, where the dredge will be used in cleaning out the channel in several places.

On her down trip Friday morning early the Telegraph ran sternwise on the grade at Portsmouth, and in getting off broke her wheel in such fashion as to necessitate a lay up of half a day for repairs.

The Norton Iron Works at Ashland had a shipment of 2,500 kegs of nails on the New Orleans packet Longfellow, that sank at Cincinnati Friday morning striking a bridge pier. The boat owners will have to stand good for the loss.

The U. S. Goldenrod is one of the jauntiest little crafts on the Ohio river, says The Ashland News, and is always kept as if she had just escaped from a finishing room. The boat's present trip will last nearly a month, extending to above Pittsburgh.

Captain A. J. Cook, the veteran coal gauger of Cincinnati, died at noon Sunday after an illness which has extended over many months. Few men had a wider acquaintance among river and coal men than Captain Cook, who was well known in Maysville.

When the steamer Longfellow was built Captain Carter superintended her structure and just before the iron was nailed down on her bow he tacked a dollar of 1876 to the woodwork, and this was covered by the sheet iron. He told his family of the location of the money and said that he wanted some one of them to get the dollar after his death.

The Pittsburgh and Cincinnati packet Andes was burned to the water's edge at Pittsburgh Sunday night. She was built by Captain Muleman in 1877 in Cincinnati for the Wheeling and Pittsburgh trade, after which she was purchased by the Pittsburgh and Cincinnati Packet Company, and Captain Cooper was put on command. The dull business compelled the company to lay her up. She was 230 feet long. For the past two summers she has been run in the excursion business about Pittsburgh.
