

PUBLIC DAILY LEDGER

FOURTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., WEDNESDAY, MAY 15, 1895.

ONE CENT.

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can toss over his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Calls

UPON THE LEDGER for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Suppliers

excursions, fairs, or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and for obituary notices, resolutions of respect, &c., THE LEDGER will charge FIVE CENTS A LINE, and hereafter this will be the invariable rule. This, however,

Does Not Include

notices of lodge meetings or church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for Business Locals in THE LEDGER is 10 cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a five-line local inserted in the paper. "I'll tell you when to take it out," he says to the bookkeeper. But he forgets all about it. The notice runs for two months—32 times;—the bill is $16. When he finds it out there is a "klick" and a controversy, followed probably by an icy feeling. Now, to obviate this trouble, no "bill for" notices will be accepted hereafter. Let's have a definite agreement at the outset and the termination will be pleasant all around.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

"Beneath the sun there's nothing new;" So sang of old the Psalmist; Who contradicts wise Solomon Is but a false alarmist.

There's nothing new beneath the sun To-day nor ever will be; The woman we call new is old, And so's Du Maurier's Trilby.

She's one we've worshiped all our lives; And yet he so disguised her That not till 't'other day has one Among us recognized her.

Oh, how he must have laughed within His sleeve, what time he's seen us Have o'er his model, dreaming not She was the armless Venus!

Who'd think that arms and foot pleted out A blousy sort of bodice, And back hair down, would change her so We wouldn't know our goddess?

E'en modernized—brought down to date— She's fair; but all who love her— And who does not?—must fain admit That dress does not improve her.

'Tis sacrilege to cover up Her beauty? Ay, out high, low, Or how you will, much raimenting Must ruin her of Milo.

Oh, from our slavery to dress It is enough to wren us To know that Trilby was evolved By putting clothes on Venus!

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—FAIR; Blue—RAIN or SNOW; With Black ABOVE—WILL WARMER grow. If Black's BENEATH—COLDER'll will be; Unless Black's shown—no change we'll see.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening.

We respectfully invite the comparison of THE LEDGER with any other daily newspaper in all Northeastern Kentucky. If any one can find a daily paper printed in the Ninth Congressional District that has

A Larger Circulation, or More Original Reading Matter, we will take pleasure in presenting him with a year's subscription to THE LEDGER.

And this paper is furnished at same price as inferior ones.

MRS. MARY COX'S WILL.

Handsome Bequests, the Balance to Her Husband's Heirs.

The will of the late Mrs. Mary C. Cox was admitted to record in the County Court yesterday.

Mrs. Cox, a devoted Baptist, had already contributed liberally in aid of the new church building, but she manifested the Christian spirit when she provided a final sum which would leave the congregation free of debt.

After this and the remaining bequests are paid, she directs that the handsome estate received from her late husband shall revert to his heirs at-law.

The document entire is as follows: I, Mary C. Cox, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and publish this my last will and testament, to-wit:

First—I bequeath to the First Baptist Church of Maysville, Ky., the sum of $6,000.

Second—I bequeath to Annie Dimmitt, my niece, the sum of $5,000.

Third—I bequeath to my niece, Mary Ann Grannan, the sum of $1,000.

Fourth—I bequeath to my niece, Carrie Queen, the sum of $1,000.

Fifth—I bequeath to Josephine Wood, who has lived with me the past ten years, the sum of $300.

Sixth—All the rest and residue of my estate I will and bequeath and devise to the heirs-at-law of my late husband George Cox.

Seventh—I do not name any person as Executor hereof, but request the County Court to appoint some suitable person as Executor of this will.

Given under my hand this April 5th, 1895. MARY C. COX.

Subscribed by the testatrix in our presence, and by us at her request, in her presence and in the presence of each other, this April 5th, 1895. ALEX. HUNTER, A. M. J. COCHRAN.

Following the probate of the will came a paper, signed by the heirs-at-law of the late George Cox, requesting Judge Hutchins to appoint Mr. George L. Cox as Administrator or Executor, with the will annexed, of the testatrix.

The Judge announced that he would take the matter under advisement.
