

PUBLIC LEDGER

FOURTH YEAR. MAYSVILLE, KY., MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1895. ONE CENT.

Spoke CIRCULATION

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can afford to give his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Calls

upon THE LEDGER for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Successes

excursions, fairs, or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and for obituary notices, resolutions of respect, &c., THE LEDGER will charge FIVE CENTS A LINE, and hereafter this will be the invariable rule. This, however.

Does Not Include

notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for Business Notices in THE LEDGER is 10 cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a five-line local inserted in the paper. "I'll tell you when to take it out," he says to the bookkeeper. But he forgets all about it. The notice runs for two months—62 times—the bill is $12.50. When he finds it out there is a "kick" and a controversy, followed probably by an icy feeling. Now, to obviate this trouble, no "bill" notices will be accepted hereafter. Let's have a definite agreement at the outset and the termination will be pleasant all around.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

Dr. W. R. Heflin of Owensboro is in the city.

Mrs. E. H. Watson and son of Cleveland, O., are here visiting relatives.

Mr. J. M. Hubbard of St. Louis is visiting his mother, Mrs. Henry Hubbard.

Miss Mamie Faneler has returned home after a very pleasant visit to relatives at Bellevue.

Mr. Thomas Wallace, an old-time Maysville boy, is here for the first time in about forty years.

Mr. Buckner A. Wallingford of Cincinnati was in the city yesterday visiting relatives and friends.

Gay Lee of Terre Haute, Ind., is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Anderson, in the county.

Colonel A. S. Cole of Farris was in the city Saturday, on his way home from the big burgoe at Louisville.

Miss Eva A. Schatzmann left for Nepton Friday after a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Schatzmann.

Mr. J. M. Stockton, universally known as "Roe," will leave today for Cincinnati to make that city his future home.

Mr. George Berry of Pittsburgh, Pa., after a visit to the family of Mrs. Theo. Lowry, left for home Saturday afternoon.

Miss Edna Hunter of Washington and her visitor, Miss Bessie Barnes, visited the Indian Mounds near Maysville last Friday.

Colonel George Schwartz and daughter Miss Emma are expected home today from a protracted visit to several Eastern cities.

Mr. Richard Spalding left Saturday afternoon for his home in Louisville, after a visit to the family of Mr. William Davis and to relatives here.

Hon. William Bowman of Tollesboro, Past Department Commander, was in the city Saturday, on his way home from the Louisville Encampment.

Mr. William E. Davis will leave this afternoon to attend the Grand Encampment, Sons of Veterans, which convenes at Knoxville, Tenn., tomorrow. He will also go to Chokanawaga and will wind up at the Atlanta Exposition.

John Pollitt of this city won the potato race at the Spring Fair Saturday.

The Big Sandy valley sorghum product promises to be above the ordinary this year, and much of it will be gobbled up by the Cincinnati houses.

For Sale.

I have about 200,000 feet of fencing, siding, palings and all other kinds of lumber. Anyone desiring same will save money by addressing

D. G. Wilson, Orangeburg, Ky., Receiver at Lumber in the Hamrick case.

AN ALLITERATIVE POEM.

My Madeline, my Madeline!
Mark my me'odious midnights mean;
Much may my me'ing mistic mean,
My modulated monotonies.

My mando'in's mild minstre'ry,
My mental music mag'stine,
My mouth, my mind, my memory
Must mingle murmur "Made'ne."

Music 'mid midnights masquerade
Mark Moor's maidens, matrons mite,
'Mongst Murcia's most majestic maids,
Match me my matchless Madeline.

Man's malice may make
Much melancholy music mine;
Many my motives may mistake,
My modest merits much malign.

My Madeline's most meretricious mood
Much mo'ee my mind's machine;
My morose moods, magnitude
Melts—melts me merry, Madeline.

Match-making ma's may machineate,
Ma'ourning misses me misween;
Nere money may make mazy mate,
My mazy motto's "Made'ne!"

Meit, most mel'ious melody,
Must Murcia's misty mounts marine,
Meet me 'mid moonbeams—marry me,
Madonna mia!—Madeline!

—London Hermit.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-Four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—FAIR;
Blue—RAIN or SNOW;
With Black ABOVE—TWIL WARMER
STOW.
If Black's BENEATH—COLDER'll be;
Unless Black's shown—no change we'll see

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening.

George Cox & Son are now showing a nice line of Capes and Jackets for the fall.

Mr. Frank Warner of Manchester has succeeded Mr. C. P. Beckett as Clerk in the Adams Express Office in this city.

Mr. C. A. Dietrich, aged 27, and Miss Maud Irwin, aged 16, both of Lewis county, were married in this city Saturday.

The Chesapeake and Ohio earnings the first week in September increased $6,093, but from July 1st to September 7th they decreased $102,321.

The Rev. T. W. Watts preached his last sermon at the M. E. Church, South, last evening previous to the meeting of the Conference at Winchester.

The advertising columns of THE LEDGER speak for themselves. They show that people who know how to advertise know also where to advertise.

The approaching session of the Southern Presbyterian Synod in this city on October 8th will be its first meeting in Maysville in about twenty years.

The Grand Lodge of Kentucky, K. of P., will convene at Somerset tomorrow. The representatives from this city are D. P. Ort, J. C. Rains and W. C. Wills.

"I consider it my duty," says Mr. F. Z. Dias of San Diego, Texas, "to certify that Ayer's Pills have completely relieved my wife of neuralgia, from which complaint she was, for a long time, a great sufferer." They are easy to take and always effective.

Wat. McDaniel drew a knife on the Turnkey at the Jail. "Squire Bramel fined him $7 and the Turnkey locked him up. Soon after he fell in a fit and received a bad cut in the head.

Mr. Thomas Rogers of Covington died this morning at 6 o'clock at the home of Mr. James Brannon at Lewisburg. Mr. Rogers was in the 51st year of his age, and was a member of the Catholic Knights of Covington. The remains will be shipped to Covington tomorrow morning for burial.

Extensive repairs are being made at the Central Presbyterian Church. A new and larger boiler will take the place of the old one, which was entirely too small to furnish sufficient steam to heat the building, and when everything is completed it will be one of the cosiest churches in the city.

A Sunday-school was organized yesterday morning at the West End Presbyterian Church with fifty scholars and five teachers. Those who have classes are—Miss Anna Gray, Primary Department; Mrs. E. Elinor, Mr. L. Penrod, Mr. Eli Spurgeon and Superintendent John M. Scott. Miss Anna Gray was chosen Secretary and Treasurer.

If any of our agricultural subscribers who are in arrears haven't a "surplus" of silver, gold or greenbacks, they can settle with apples, beans, cabbage, doughnuts, eggs, fishhooks, gimcracks, hams, "ingles," jam, kershaws, lard, muskmelons, noddies, oligonunk, potatoes, "quackers," roosters, stewpans, tibbits, unicorns, vinegars, whatnots, zigzags, yamum and sang! Highest market price allowed under the Free-trade Tariff.

The Reservoir of the Water-works has been thoroughly cleaned.

Mr. Henry Stull Wood, a well known old resident of Washington, is now clerking in a grocery store at Dayton.

Mrs. Peter Parker, who met with such painful injuries by a fall at her home near Washington some days ago, is, we understand, rapidly improving.

The marriage of Mr. John W. Dickson and Miss Angelina Meadows took place at the Presbyterian Parsonage at Washington and was solemnized by Rev. W. T. Spears.

The funeral of the late Mr. John G. Payne will take place from the family residence, Front street above Commerce, Fifth Ward, at 2 o'clock this afternoon, under the auspices of the Oddfellows.

The Mutual Protective Association of Greenup county, commonly known as "Mules," is growing at a rapid rate. They are initiating new members at every meeting and will soon be a great power in county affairs.

The excursion to Oligonunk Saturday didn't excursion to Oligonunk.

Mrs. Kate Cochran was run down by a bicycle at Lexington and dangerously injured.

Lexington's School Board is in a muddle over inability to raise money with which to pay the teachers' salaries.

It is reported this morning that Dr. Leslie Robertson, formerly of this city, is dangerously ill at Middlesborough.

The Republicans of Bourbon county have nominated Mr. John Stuart for the Lower House of the Kentucky Legislature.

There will be given a delightful excursion to Cincinnati and return for $1 25 round trip over the C. and O. Thursday, September 19th, 1895, leaving Maysville at 7:30 a. m. Ladies will have separate coaches.

THE LEDGER'S hired man was misinformed, and consequently was in error when he said that "Squire Hook couldn't be found on the Fairground when an officer arrested the Sharpsburg fakir. 'Squire Hook says he was there, and the man was let go because the officers could not positively identify him, and the name in the warrant did not correspond with the name of the party arrested.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Holton, Mrs. Sallie McD. Humphreys and Miss Sallie Taylor were delightfully entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Longnecker near Maysville last Friday. In the afternoon they went over to the Indian mounds adjoining Mr. Longnecker's place and saw some of the skeletons that were being exhumed and other relics, together with photographs that had been made of some. They were informed that more than 160 skeletons had been unearthed to that time. They found the venerable Mr. George Kiley in very feeble health.

Building Association Receipts.

The receipts of the several Building Associations of this city Saturday night were as follows:

Mason County.....$ 418 80
Limestone..... 235 95
People's..... 248 10
Total.....$1,302 85

CAME TO TOWN.

A Large Party of Country Cousins Make Us a Visit.

Quite a nice party of excursionists paid Maysville a visit Saturday afternoon. They were from Germantown, Fern Leaf, Minerva and Tuckahoe. They had been taking in a large consignment of watermelons and Charleston Bottom, and concluded to try Maysville sodawater. The couples were Colonel John Evans and Miss Louise Kilgore, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Asbury, Mr. Boyd Reynolds and Miss Retta Smoot, Mr. Garrett Donovan and Miss Eva McDaniel, Mr. Louis Boyd and Miss Carrie Sidwell, Mr. A. Boyd and Miss Bertie Clift, Mr. Lee Boyd and Miss Cole, Mr. Dan Lloyd and Miss Fannie Frazee, Mr. Walter Reynolds and Miss Lol Lloyd, Mr. Leslie Smoot and Miss Biggers, Mr. Herbert Byar and Miss Maude Reynolds. Come again, and we will give you a brass band reception.

The Second District Union of the Y. P. S. C. E. meets Friday at the Central Presbyterian Church in this city.

Mrs. L. V. Davis has received the first invoice of Fall and Winter Millinery, bought direct from the importing houses in New York and selected in person for her trade. Remember the place,—Zweigart's Block.

Goodness gracious! Talk about your tall corn! Colonel Robert J. L. Hord of Farris sent to this office Saturday a stalk that measured 15 feet with one hand tied behind it. It's a cold day when the State of Lewis gets left.

Painful Accident.

Mr. Thomas L. Best, residing about four miles from the city on the Fleming pike, met with a painful accident yesterday morning. He was fondling a favorite cock when it kicked him in the mouth, knocking out several teeth and cutting his lips.

Dr. Alex. Hunter was summoned and attended the injuries.

DIED IN ILLINOIS.

Mrs. Tabitha Means, Formerly of This City, Dies Yesterday.

Mr. Robert F. Means yesterday received a telegram from Aurora, Ill., announcing the death at that place at 5 o'clock yesterday morning of Mrs. Tabitha Means, wife of his brother, Mr. Joan S. Means, aged about 70.

Deceased was the youngest daughter of Mr. Samuel Spencer, and she was born in Lewis county.

She came to Maysville in 1839, and a year later married Mr. Means.

In addition to her husband she leaves five children—one son and four daughters.

About fifteen years ago the family removed to Aurora, Ill., which has ever since been their home, and where Mrs. Means will be buried.

SEVERELY SCALDED.

Jesse Hoffman Met With a Painful Accident Saturday.

Jesse Hoffman, a bright lad of 12 years, son of Mr. Joseph P. Hoffman, Carpenter of the Cotton Mills, was terribly scalded Saturday evening.

About half past 7 o'clock, in company with an older brother and an uncle, he left his home at Front and Short streets, and in coming up the latter street they had to pass over the underground gutter through which the Cotton Mills boilers are emptied of hot water.

Just as the parties reached the line of the gutter the earth gave way and young Hoffman went down into the almost boiling stream.

His limbs were so badly burned that his shoes and stockings had to be cut off.

The left leg was scalded almost to the knee, and while his injuries are not necessarily dangerous they are painful in the extreme.

Judging from the surroundings, a little charitable work in the way of delicacies for the sick would not go amiss in that household.

THE BELLEVUE BROWNS.

They Play at East End Park Today and Tomorrow.

The Bellevue Browns are scheduled for a couple of games in this city at East End Park with Captain McGann and his team of good ball players.

The first game will be called at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The Browns are all good players, and there should be a crowd out to see these games, as they are the first we've had for some weeks, and then you know there's a possibility of these games being the last that will be played here this season.

SHORT STOPS.

The game at Cincinnati Thursday will prove a drawing card from this city, as there will be a large crowd go down with the boys on the special baseball train which leaves this city at 7:30 a. m. to "root" them on to victory.

Portsmouth, talking of a baseball circuit composed of Hamilton, Dayton, Columbus, Springfield, Chillicothe, Portsmouth, Maysville and Huntington, says a pay-roll of $800 a month could be met in case a good team could be secured.

We wish to say that in behalf of our nine, the intermediates, that we challenged the High School boys for a game Friday and they would not play us. They played the Neverweats; but we therefore challenge them for a game this afternoon. We beat them once, and can do it again. INTERMEDIATE MANAGER.

A countryman Saturday got stuck with a load of hay under the Bridge street viaduct, and Jim Luman hooked on to him with a motor car and jerked a logchain into smithereens, much to the amazement of the rural teamster. He finally got a stronger chain and was pulled out.

Lee Smith, a wealthy farmer of Bourbon county, who had lived the life of a hermit since the death of his wife several years ago, died on his farm near Jacksonville a few days ago. Soon after $4,172 38 was found in an old cheesebox in an outhouse on the farm. He leaves 1,800 acres of fine land, most of it in its natural state.

ACCIDENTAL DROWNING.

Mr. Robert Lee Simmons Drowned Off the Telegraph.

Robert Lee Simmons, son of Colonel and Mrs. Augustus Simmons of Aberdeen, was drowned last Wednesday night.

He was making a pleasure trip with his uncle, James Simmons, on the steamer Telegraph, between Cincinnati and Louisville, and was first missed at Vevay, Ind., on the trip of the boat.

A search resulted in finding his clothing in his stateroom, and the conclusion was reached at once that he had walked overboard in his sleep.

All rivermen were promptly notified to be on the lookout for the body, and Colonel Simmons took active measures for its recovery.

Saturday Captain Ross of the Hattie Brown reported to Colonel Simmons at Carrollton that he had seen a body three miles above that place, and the Colonel at once procured a skiff and conveyed it thence, where he had the Coroner and an undertaker in waiting.

After an inquest the body was embalmed and brought here at 1:35 yesterday afternoon, being taken direct to the undertaking rooms of Mr. Q. A. Means, from whence it was conveyed to the Maysville Cemetery at 9 o'clock this morning.

Deceased was aged 21 years and 9 months, and he was an exceptionally bright young man.

Colonel and Mrs. Simmons have the sympathy of a host of friends in their sad and sudden bereavement.

NEW RICHMOND'S TRAGEDY.

The Fiend Had Been Adjudged Insane in Kansas.

Felicity O. Times.

Hon. John Durbin Hill of Fort Scott, Kansas, has favored the Times with a copy of a current edition of the Daily Capital of Topeka, Kansas, which contains an account of New Richmond's last horrible tragedy, about as its details appeared in these columns following the awful and grewsome occurrence. It fully appears that Anderson was at least well enough known in Kansas to cause him to be committed to an asylum for the insane from which he appears to have been deliberately turned loose.

Here is what the Capital says with reference to the history of that case:

"Anderson lived at Newton, Kansas, for a number of years and was subject to fits of insanity. He entertained an idea that some one had dispossessed him of a large sum of money and it is supposed that he believed Fridman was the man who had done so. Anderson was a paper hanger by trade. That he was suffering from a return of the disease of insanity there is no doubt. He was adjudged insane by Probate Judge N. C. Groom at Newton in November, 1892, and was taken to the State Insane Asylum December 1st, 1892, but remained less than a year, escaping from the institution at Oswatomie November 8th, 1893. He was discharged from the asylum May 10th, 1894, but the record says, 'Discharged, not in his right mind.' He visited Newton just after his discharge and was there for several weeks. He left for the East last summer and had not been heard of until the news of the murder and lynching was received."

From the foregoing it clearly appears that he held his fancied grudge against his aged victim even while he lived at Newton. And why he should have been turned loose upon the Kansas public, vide the record as above, in the condition he was, certainly was the prime, serious mistake. But it is all over now.

It will not be lawful to kill partridges in this state until November 15th.

B. H. Coyle, a Paris merchant, was arrested on the charge of murdering Miss Olivia Hall, daughter of a prominent farmer, who was engaged to be married. Miss Hall disappeared, it is alleged, under peculiar circumstances; but when she was found in a questionable house the mystery exploded.

Card of Thanks.

Mr. Editor: Through the columns of your valuable paper we desire to express our most sincere thanks to Mrs. Charles Wetzel for the use of her beautiful lawn on Saturday, September 7th, on which was given an ice cream supper for the benefit of the M. E. Church, and for her generous hospitality, in which she so kindly aided us in this great work. Respectfully,
FRIENDS.

September 12th, 1895.

FLOTSAM AND JETSAM!

Driftwood Gathered and Split for Ledger Patrons.

No rain was reported Saturday at any point in the Ohio or Mississippi valleys.

Even the lightest pushboats cannot penetrate the Guyandote river at present.

A gang of river pirates was run down and one shot near Middleport the other day.

Pilots are complaining of the Government lights being obstructed at Tazewell and Big Locust Creek by trees and shrubbery. They claim they cannot be seen coming up stream.

Big Sandy now gives the pushboatmen all they can do, as the packets usually employed on the stream cannot get out, and the first consignments of fall merchandise are being rushed forward.

The stage of water at 6 p. m. was as follows: Oil City, .9 and falling; Pittsburgh, 5.9 and rising; Davis Island Dam, 2.1, rising; Wheeling, 1.7, falling; Parkersburg, 1.3, falling; New River at Hinton, 1.2 and falling; Kanawha at Charleston, 4.9 and rising; Point Pleasant, 1.4 and falling; Catlettsburg, 3.2 and falling; Portsmouth, 3.3 and falling.
