MAYSVILLE MANUFACTURE.

Some Artistic Wood Work For Central Kentucky Mansions.

There are some just as good mechanics in Maysville as can be found anywhere; all they want is opportunity to display their skill.

This is especially true of the Maysville Manufacturing Company, which is now engaged on the hardwood finish of a couple of Central Kentucky mansions—one for Hon. W. T. Lafferty of Cynthiana, and one for Mr. H. P. Montgomery of Georgetown.

The writer saw yesterday at the Company's Factory in the West End some remarkably artistic effects in quartered oak and curly maple, the latter with a finish almost equal to satin, and the former tastefully adorned with hand-carving, the work of Mr. John Cobb.

Superintendent L. M. Mills informed us that heretofore all this class of work went to Cincinnati—the architects declaring that "country towns couldn't do it," so he set out to show them that Maysville could do just as good work as the larger cities, and securing the two contracts mentioned he has succeeded in surprising the architects and delighting the owners. For the Lafferty residence much of the work has already gone forward and been put in place, and it has met with unqualified approval.

Meantime, if you want to see some of this handsome work,—and it is well worth seeing,—Mr. Mills will take pleasure in showing it to you.

The Ways and Means Committee was instructed to borrow $500 to help pay the debts of the city for the past month.

C. E. Broese presented his bond to Council, which was accepted.

M. E. McKellup presented a bond for the office of Chief of Police. Mr. Allan D. Cole appeared for Mr. McKellup and asked to be heard in his behalf, which was granted. Mr. Cole made a speech to Council, of about forty minutes length, arguing, in substance, that Chief of Police Ort was elected unconstitutionally, and that Mr. McKellup was the one who was lawfully entitled to that office and his bond should be accepted. Mr. Cole advised Council to accept the bond of Mr. McKellup, and then let Mr. Ort bring an injunction suit, restraining Mr. McKellup from performing the duties of that office, throw the matter into the upper court and let them fight it out there.

Mr. A. M. J. Cochran then appeared for Mr. Ort. He introduced his remarks by calling the Council's attention to the acceptance of Mr. Broese's bond, claiming that it was illegal. He simply presented the law—the Constitution of the state of Kentucky—to protect Mr. Ort, and advised Council to take the advice of the City Attorney, who was elected for that purpose.

Mr. Cole again appeared, and stoutly maintained that, in the face of the Constitution, Mr. Ort had been illegally elected, and that Mr. McKellup was the man.

The City Attorney was then called upon, and made a brief speech, in which he stated that his opinion, based upon the Constitution, was that Mr. Ort was the legal Chief of Police.

The whole affair was left to the Committee on Laws and Ordinances.

Mr. Newell then moved to reconsider the vote of accepting Mr. Broese's bond, which was done, and his bond was also referred to the same committee.

The Clerk was authorized to have 200 lists of officers printed.

Council then adjourned to Luzi's.

It is stated that the Louisville and Nashville, the Cincinnati, Portsmouth and Virginia, and the Ohio River Railroad are jointly behind the movement to bridge the Ohio river at Ashland. The intention is said to gain a through line up the Ohio Valley from Louisville to Pittsburgh and by extending the C. P. and V. over the route proposed by the Charleston, Cincinnati and Chicago Railway to Johnston City, Tenn., to also have direct connection with the coast.

DON'T STOP TOBACCO

IT'S INJURIOUS TO STOP SUDDENLY, and don't be imposed upon by buying a remedy that requires you to do so, as it is nothing more than a substitute. In the sudden stoppage of tobacco you must have some stimulant, and in most all cases the effect of the stimulant, be it opium, morphine or other opiates, leaves a far worse habit contracted. Ask your druggist about BACO-CURO. It is purely vegetable. You do not have to stop using tobacco with BACO-CURO. It will notify you when to stop, and your desire for tobacco will cease. Your system will be as free from nicotine as the day before you took your first chew or smoke. An ironclad written guarantee to absolutely cure the tobacco habit in all its forms or money refunded. Price $1 per box, or 3 boxes (30 days treatment and guaranteed cure) $2 50. For sale by all druggists, or will be sent by mail upon receipt of price. SEND 6 TWO-CENT STAMPS FOR SAMPLE BOX. OFFICE OF THE PIONEER PRESS COMPANY,
C. W. HOBKICK, SUPERINTENDENT, ST. PAUL, MINN., September 10th, 1895.

Eureka Chemical and Mfg Co., La Crosse, Wis.—Dear Sir: I have been a tobacco habit for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, until my physician told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being at least. I tried the so-called "Cocaine Cure," "No-to-bac" and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco-Curo." Three weeks ago today I commenced using your preparation, and today I consider myself completely cured. I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which every inveterate smoker appreciates, has completely left me. I consider your "Baco-Curo" simply wonderful, and can truly recommend it. Yours truly,
C. W. HOBKICK.
