

Why Not Try Paine's Celery Compound?

The loss of a single night's sleep tells in the drawn expression on the face and the sluggish powers of the mind. When this unfortunate privation continues night after night, no one can shut his eyes to the disastrous outcome.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-four Hours. THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNAL.

FRANK OWEN'S HARDWARE CO.

THE PRINTERMAN'S LIFE.

His Daily Walk and How the Round Always Terminates. Yes, verily, a printer's life is full of changes,—but very little "change."

Would Please the Professor. "Mister," said Reginald de Bumme to the man who looked as if he must be a college professor.

THE TAIN ON HIM.

Pardoned Convict Pushed Along as Not a Good Thing.

Henry Wilson, who was a few days ago released from the Frankfort Penitentiary, where he had been confined for murder, was arrested in Cincinnati.

NOT DEAF AND DUMB.

Postoffice Regulation Encountered By an Information Seeker.

He Came All the Way From Washington City, Too.

Little Johnny Whalen was one of the Government employees who came on from Washington to vote this fall.

Now for the denouement.

Johnnie is of a convivial turn and likes nothing better than a jug.

Now, Johnnie had cut many a funny caper in his time, and doubtless a good many that were not funny.

Once upon a time the said Johnnie walked out of Joe Ryan's back door at Washington, which was some twelve feet higher than the front, and gathered himself up and kept on as if nothing unusual had happened.

Is it any wonder that the Democrats were beaten when everybody was against them and they were against themselves?

It reminds us of the time the McMurphy war was on at Washington, when Dick Henry and John Garter were in a fight about the case.

THE LEADING GROCER.

Here's something new! The Ledger wishes its Patrons, one and all, a Merry Christmas and a Prosperous New Year; and as Prosperity is essential to Happiness, it presents the channel through which it may be secured.

J. W. Overby has been appointed Postmaster at Piqua.

Dr. John A. Mitchell is seriously ill at the home of Mr. C. P. Vawter of Springdale.

Don't wait until it's too late to get into THE LEDGER'S Holiday Page. It will be too late when all the spaces are gone.

It is stated at the Postoffice Department that the President's attention will probably be called to the Flemingsburg Post office case as soon as he returns from his ducking expedition.

Congressman Clardy has gone to work to secure an appropriation for a Public Building at Hopkinsville. Let's request Mr. Clardy to move for one at Orangeburg.

PROPOSED NEW PARTY. Will Be One If the Old Ones Don't Do Right.

During several days of last week the National Council of Patriotic Organizations was in session at Washington City.

Delegates were present representing over 8,000,000 members, and the platform adopted covers these points:

Demanding that stringent laws be enacted by Congress to restrict immigration:

That no public funds be appropriated for any sectarian purposes, and indorsing the proposed sixteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States;

That no state shall grant the right of suffrage to any person not a citizen of the United States;

Demanding that all property—public property alone excepted—be subject to equal taxation.

A committee was appointed to attend the National Conventions of the political parties for the purpose of inducing them to incorporate these principles into their platforms, and in the event that none of the political parties recognize these principles, steps will be taken to form an American party.

The father of Mrs. Kilgore of the Washington neighborhood died in Adams county, O., this week.

Wheat is said to look very poorly the county over, and the weather it is experiencing in its weak condition is very hard on it.

"Why, I am surprised to see so large a stock of Christmas goods!" is the talk of the city at J. T. Kackley & Co.'s. Come and see.

The advertising columns of THE LEDGER speak for themselves. They show that people who know how to advertise know also WHERE to advertise.

It is said the reason Chicago lost in the fight for the next Republican-National Convention was that she was unable to furnish a guarantee for $100,000.

Mr. Joseph Larkin and others of the Washington neighborhood were at Cincinnati this week selling tobacco, and report a rather discouraging market.

The merchants of Ashland have got their thinking caps on, and are wondering whether the proposed bridge over the Ohio will most benefit Ashland or Iron-ton.

The gross earnings of the L. and N. for the first week in December were $426,710, an increase of $4,905 over 1894, of $20,845 over 1893, but still $54,405 shy of 1892, the last Republican year.

The show-window of Theo. C. Power's Drugstore is most attractive. It is, to say the least, unique; and if there should be as many frogs in your throat as there are in his window, the remedy is adequate.

L. C. Blattman, Room No. 8, Cox Building, Agent Union Central Life Insurance Company of Cincinnati, 29 years old, Old Line, courteously invites his friends and the public to call. Reliable life insurance at moderate cost. Several plans to offer.

The wife of Dr. D. Robinson, a prominent lumberman of Hartwick, N. Y., was sick with rheumatism for five months. In speaking of it, Mr. Robinson says: "Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the only thing that gave her any rest from pain. For the relief of pain it cannot be beat." Many very bad cases of rheumatism have been cured by it. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by J. James Wood, Druggist.

THE BIG FOX CHASE.

And the "Man From Maysville" Was There of Course.

In his account of the big fox hunt at Owingsville The Outlook says: "Ed. Nesbitt of Maysville was awarded first prize on the score of getting more fun out of it than anybody. Ed. was on the old beat he used to pace in bygone days, and was as happy as a ten year-old spending Saturday at his grandpa's. He was in Friday's big chase and his tale of it is enjoyable in-lend."
