DOGGY STOPS THE DIVORCE.

A Touching Incident in a Berlin Courtroom.

A very touching incident occurred recently in the Berlin Divorce Court, says an exchange. A lady, well-known in society, had caught her husband, who was sportively inclined, paying much attention to one of the stars of the ballet in the royal opera. The consequence was a divorce suit.

Both parties appeared early on the day the trial was to come off with their lawyers. She arrived dressed in mourning, tried to appear indifferent, but tears trickling down once in awhile, which she quickly wiped off with a lace handkerchief, proved that the defendant on the other side of the room was not quite forgotten. He spoke with his lawyer, who had taken all steps he considered possible to bring about their reconciliation; now and then he threw imploring glances upon the little woman, which she did not seem to notice at all.

With him was a little Skye terrier, Peti, who once was the declared favorite of his wife, but now did not receive any encouragement from his former gracious mistress. Sadly the small dog looked from one to the other and evidently could not understand why these two people were so estranged. By accident the lady dropped her handkerchief.

Quick as lightning the little Skye terrier jumped at it, picked it up, and brought it to his mistress, rising upon his hind legs, which trick he had been taught by her, and glanced up with a truly pitiful look to his mistress.

Sobbing loudly she raised up the dog and kissed him and as her husband, making good use of the opportunity, went up toward her she met him half way and, throwing her arms around his neck, sobbed loudly on his breast and promised him forgiveness.

The divorce, of course, was out of the question, and he, she and both lawyers adjourned to a near restaurant to celebrate the reunion, brought about by the little Skye terrier.

How much business can a man do whose system is in a state of disorder? Headache is only a symptom. It is not a disease. The pain in the head is a sign of rebellion. There have been mistakes in diet and other abuses. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are a gentle, effective renovator and invigorator of stomach, liver and bowels. They assist nature without threatening to tear the body pie apart. There are no gripping pains, no nausea. One is a laxative.

A book of 1008 pages, profusely illustrated, written by Dr. R. V. Pierce, called "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," will be sent free for 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only. World's Dispensary Medical Association, No. 663 Main street, Buffalo, N. Y.

ONE WAY TO LEARN.

A Lesson Taught By a Wealthy New York Girl.

New York World. The girl was not pretty. However, she knew that herself, and this went a long way towards making her good looking. She was an orphan, worth $200,000, and was greatly admired by many young men in consequence thereof. To one she had at times been friendly, and at other times chilly. When he was away from the town she sometimes wrote him long letters, with hints of love in them. One of these letters would be followed by a neglect lasting for months, until he returned and called on her. On one of these visits he said:

"When you think about me you see wedding rings, marriage certificates, orange blossoms and Ministers in the air. The visit would not be an altogether unpleasant one if you were certain that I cared for you instead of your money. You may call me impudent, if you like, and tell me to leave, but you know I am telling the truth."

"Perhaps you are," she replied. "If I admit that much will you admit that my suspicions are well founded?"

He did not answer, and the young woman continued:

"I will admit that I have entertained such thoughts as you suggest. I like you and I wish I were sure of you. If you can convince me that you love me instead of my money I will not only be willing, but glad, to marry you."

"I would be foolish to try to convince you," he said, "when I have been unable to convince myself. Your money is something tangible, and I have always associated it with you. I cannot think of you as not having it. Perhaps I would want to marry you if you were as poor as I am, but I am not certain."

"I thought as much," she said. "Since I am in doubt as to the matter as well as yourself, why not marry me anyway? How will you ever know that a man loves you for yourself and not for your money?"

"Easily," she responded. "I will marry a man worth ten times as much as I am."

And she did.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

The little daughter of Mr. Fred Webber, Holland, Mass., had a very bad cold and cough which he had not been able to cure with any thing. I gave him a 25-cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says W. P. Holden, merchant and Postmaster at West Brimfield, and the next time I saw him he said it worked like a charm. This remedy is intended especially for acute throat and lung diseases such as colds, croup and whooping cough, and it is famous for its cures. There is no danger in giving it to children for it contains nothing injurious. For sale by J. James Wood, Druggist.
