

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising notices free any more than a merchant can toss over his counter...

The Continued Calls

UPON THE LEDGER for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Snappers.

excursions, fairs, or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and for obituary notices, resolutions of respect, etc.

Does Not Include

notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for Business Locals in THE LEDGER is 10 cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

IF you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

Three Away His Cases.

Mr. D. Wiley, ex Postmaster, Black Creek, N. Y., was so badly afflicted with rheumatism that he was only able to hobble around with canes, and even then it caused him great pain. After using Chamberlain's Pain Balm he was so much improved that he threw away his canes. He says this liniment did him more good than all other medicines and treatment put together. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by J. James Wood, Druggist.

WHEN WE KICK. We can stand the horseless carrying—Think it's just as fine as silk. But we kick hard, harder, hardest. When they mention cowless milk.

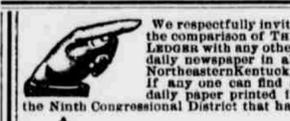

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect for the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—FAIR; Blue—RAIN or SNOW; With Black ABOVE—(WILL) WARMER grow. If Black's BENEATH—COLDER WILL be; Unless Black's shown—no CHANGE we'll see

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 9 o'clock tomorrow evening.

We respectfully invite the comparison of THE LEDGER with any other daily newspaper in all Northeastern Kentucky if any one can find a daily paper printed in the Ninth Congressional District that has a Larger Circulation, or More Original Reading Matter, we will take pleasure in presenting him with a year's subscription to THE LEDGER.

PADDY WHACK!

What a Pair of Toughs Got in the Police Court.

How Kentucky does need a Work-house!

Friday a pair of hopefuls, Strode Blythe, and Strode was particular to inform THE LEDGER that his name was spelled B-I-y-t-h-e, aged 13, and "Jack" Spencer—whose christening was probably John—aged 12, were arraigned in the Police Court.

The boys had gone into John T. Martin & Co's store to purchase a coat.

Each had on a pretty fair suit as it was, and Blythe sported an overcoat beside.

Mr. Martin, with his usual urbanity, was waiting on his customers, Blythe having entrusted the care of his coat to Jack.

To make a long story short, Blythe was hard to please, and in his untiring efforts to make a sale these dull times Captain Martin had gone upstairs to find what he wanted.

Before a sale was effected, however, the suspicions of Mr. George H. Frank were aroused, and as Blythe's overcoat in the arms of Spencer looked like a hungry man after a turkey dinner, he told Captain Martin that he thought there was too much overcoat there.

An examination revealed a second coat and two pairs of pants wrapped therein, which had been gathered from Captain Martin's stock.

The arrest of the boys followed. Judge Wadsworth thereupon wrote to the parents of the lads as follows:

MAYSVILLE, KY., Feb. 28th, 1896. Mrs. Blythe: Your son, Strode Blythe, has been taken in the act of stealing clothes from Mr. John Martin's store in this city.

The boy is old enough to understand and realize the wickedness of his act, and I therefore propose to make his punishment such a lesson to him as will have a tendency to prevent a repetition of the offense on his part in the future.

He tells me you are ill, and I therefore submit the alternative in his case to you in writing and request that you will do me the favor to reply in the same way. Either appear in person at this Court this afternoon and administer a sound thrashing (of which I shall be the Judge) to the lad, or I will first send him to the Stone Quarry for 60 days to wait upon the hands, and at the expiration of his sentence will take him before the County Court and have him bound as an apprentice until he is 21 years of age to some reliable person, where, it is hoped, he will learn those lessons of morality, which, it seems, he has failed to learn at home.

If you think that you are not physically able to administer the punishment adequate to the enormity of his offense, authorize one of my officers to do it under my supervision and I will see to it that the matter is properly attended to.

Please signify your choice in writing below on this letter. Respectfully, A. A. WADSWORTH, Judge. I authorize the officers to thrash Strode Blythe.

The same choice was offered to Mrs. Spencer, the grandmother of Jack Spencer, charged with the same offense, and the same authority granted.

After hearing the statements of witnesses and the accused Judge Wadsworth, under the foregoing authorization, directed Officers Stockdale and Parnell to give each of the lads a sound thrashing. They were taken to the "annex" of the Courtroom.

Barney Stockdale was chosen Paddle-master General.

Frank Parnell stretched Spencer across a big armchair, drew his pants so tight that a fly would have slid off and broken his neck.

And armed with an oaken paddle that was enough to raise a blister on the driving belt of the Cotton Mills.

Barney made a "ten strike" on the boy's seat of intelligence, each whack followed by a "I'll-never-do-it-again-kiy" from the whacked.

The same dose was administered to Blythe, and then the Judge warned them that the next time they came before him on a similar charge they were good for a task-master until they were 21.

Mrs. William Shepard is seriously ill at her home on East Fourth street with the quinsy.

Rev. F. M. Rains of Cincinnati will fill the pulpit at the Christian Church tomorrow morning.

The famous mineral spring at Mayslick has broken loose again. This spring, it is remembered, is the one which affords the water, reputed to be a cure for consumption.

A SAD DEATH.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dunn Lose Their Little Daughter.

Norma Ishmael, the sweet and lovely little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Dunn, at the tender age of 18 months, died Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, after a painful illness of a few days, suffering with measles and pneumonia.

The little cherub was the idol of its parents—the one pure and fragrant flower which has bloomed in the lives of its father and mother; but it now has withered—"Death fell upon her like an untimely frost upon the sweetest flower which bloomed in all the field."

The funeral will take place from the home on East Third street Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Father Ennis officiating.

Interment at Washington.

The little daughter of Mr. Fred Webber, Holland, Mass., had a very bad cold and cough which he had not been able to cure with any thing. I gave him a 25 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says W. P. Holden, merchant and Postmaster at West Brimfield, and the next time I saw him he said it worked like a charm. This remedy is intended especially for acute throat and lung diseases such as colds, croup and whooping cough, and it is famous for its cures. There is no danger in giving it to children for it contains nothing injurious. For sale by J. James Wood, Druggist.

ABOUT JURORS.

One May Be Right and the Eleven May Be Wrong.

A good deal has been said and written about the "one contrary Jurymen."

But that the solitary one may sometimes be right and the other eleven may be wrong is aptly illustrated by a case in point, furnished to THE LEDGER by one of our oldest and most respected citizens.

In the Poorhouse in Scott county there were two blind men, both of whom had beautiful wives. They kept the neighborhood in a perfect uproar. A party determined to break it up, after trying fair means. They went one night, the snow a foot deep, and took the doors and windows and piled them together and burned them up; also stoned the houses, and ran the inmates upstairs.

The consequence was several persons were arrested, among them a Methodist Preacher—one of the best men that ever mounted a pulpit. He wore an overcoat with five capes, and a broad-brimmed hat with a round top, and there was not one like it in the county.

Well, a Jury was summoned. I was too young, but they sent for me to be one of the Jury. All proved an alibi except the Parson, and the women knew him by his hat and coat. There were eleven for finding him guilty and one man hung the Jury.

The 'Squires made us come the next morning and kept us all that day and then dismissed us, saying it was a shame—as plain a case as that ought to be decided in two minutes.

The fact was, I wore the Parson's hat and coat that night myself; and that jury would have been hanging yet before I would have seen him hurt.

UNUSUALLY BLESSED.

Children Who Have Nine Parents and Grandparents Living.

Three children of Mr. and Mrs. William Walker of Fleming county are peculiarly and unusually, not to say prolifically, blessed with parents and grandparents. They can boast of nine persons now living who bear that relationship.

Their immediate parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Walker;

James Walker and wife are the first series of grandparents;

Mr. and Mrs. J. Harvey Rice of Lewisburg are Mrs. Walker's parents, and grandparents of the children;

Mr. and Mrs. Eneas Myall of Mayslick are grandparents of Mrs. Walker, and thus great grandparents of the children;

Mr. and Mrs. Rice—father and mother of Mr. J. Harvey Rice—are also great-grandparents;

And Mrs. Walker, grandmother of Mr. William Walker, is a great-grandmother of these children.

If Craddock can beat this, just let him trot out the record.

NEWSY NOTES FROM NATURE'S GREAT HIGHWAY.

The gauge reads 10.5 and falling.

New and Kanawha rivers are falling slowly.

The Shirley passed up last night for Pomeroy.

The Tom Lystle broke her starboard shaft at Sistersville.

The Fallice passed up with a tow of empties for Pittsburgh.

The Al. Martin has gone to Kentucky river with a small tow.

The Bonanza passed down last night from Pomeroy and returns tonight.

The Wash Honshell's model-berge of steel rails is still aground at Craig's.

The Bellevue passed down last night with a big tow of Sandy river timber.

The spring excursions to the South will be inaugurated today from Cincinnati.

The Henry M. Stanley will be down tomorrow afternoon on her first return trip from the Kanawha.

The Ohio is rising from Pittsburgh to Portsmouth, there being 10 1/2 feet in the channel at the latter place.

The rapidly falling river has left the banks at way points in an extremely muddy condition, and packets are having much trouble in getting shipments aboard.

The new Virginia's fast run from Pittsburgh has silenced those who have had so much to say about the boat lately. The fact is now established that the Virginia is what Captain J. Frank Ellison intended her to be—a model craft in every respect.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure Sold for circulars, free. F. J. CRENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
