Here is the forcible way an exchange puts it:

"One delinquent said he would pay us Saturday if he lived."

He's dead.

Another one said: "I'll see you tomorrow."

He's blind.

Another said: "I hope to go to the devil if I don't pay you this week."

He's gone to his reward.

All parents who are willing for their daughters to take part in the exercises to be given at the Opera-house for the benefit of the sick in town, will please send them to the Opera-house Monday evening after school. Thirty children are wanted. This will not interfere with their studies in any way. None over 13 years of age wanted. Our advice to mothers is to help a good thing along. Send your children; they will be well taken care of.

Fun For All.

A night of melody and fun is promised by that popular and recognized star attraction, Hi Henry's Premium Minstrels, consisting of forty prominent minstrel stars, among whom is the only Deming and the great McNish and other bright stars who appear at Washington Opera-house on Saturday, March 7th, and who, if press encomiums and public approvals count anything, will present one of the best amusements seen here for a long time. The seats are now on sale at Nelson's.

SOLID FOR BOYLE!

Was the Republican Vote For Senator on Friday's Ballot.

The last ballot taken in the Legislature for United States Senator resulted—

- St. John Boyle... 63
J. C. S. Blackburn... 48
John G. Carlisle... 15
Tom S. Pettit... 2

Total... 128

Necessary to elect, 65.

There were five Republicans absent.

If they had been in their places it is highly probable that Mr. Boyle would have been elected, thus ending the long-drawn agony. He received the solid vote of the Republicans present.

The two Populists voted for Pettit.

THE CONCRETED COW.

A haughty cow unto a horse. Remark: "Why cannot we, And only we two, practice for A dual jubilee? My bass profound is faultless, While your tenor tremolo Is heavenly; and our duet Would please our master so." With pleading mood she urged her case Then sadly turned away. For the horse looked up disdainfully And only answered: "Neigh!" -Harper's Round Table.

THE OLDEN TIME.

How an Ex-Mason Man Looks Back on Days Ago.

Mr. W. M. Paxton, a native of this county, but for half a century a resident of Missouri, reached his 77th birthday March 2d.

He devoted the day to writing and giving salutations to his friends.

He says: "In the streets of Washington, where I was born and reared, I am a stranger. Old men stare at me, and ask, 'Who is he?' I can count on my fingers all the living friends in that old and hallowed village. When I visit your town, the graveyard is my resort. I read the names of my friends on the cold marble. But in a few more years I will meet their happy spirits in a world of everlasting youth and bliss."

"PARALYZED" BY "LIGHTNING."

Why a "Fistic Bout" Didn't Come Off at Vanceburg.

A few nights since one of those high-toned and elevating entertainments known as a "fistic bout" was arranged to take place at Vanceburg.

The actors were to be a couple of society gentlemen named Jum Malone, white, we believe,—and "Black Lightning,"—colored, we know.

Near the appointed hour the inquiry was started, "Where is Black Lightning?"

A search was instituted, and finally a colored boy going into the woodshed of the St. Charles Hotel found Black Lightning helplessly limp.

He had been struck by Vanceburg lightning.

Much to the disgust of the gentlemen who had assembled to witness a refined entertainment, the "fistic bout" was declared off.

That is more than anything else has ever done for me." For sale by J. James Wood, Druggist.

Mr. William R. Gill improves very slowly, and is still confined to his bed.

The gross earnings of the L. and N. for the fourth week in February were $443,785, an increase of $56,131 over 1895, of $85,979 over 1894, but a loss of $35,607 as compared with 1894.

THAT PROJECT ONCE MORE!

Another Titch of a Corpse Thought to Be Very Dead.

When we were building the Columbus and Maysville Railroad, says Tae Morrytown (O.) Star, Judge Thompson of Hillsboro said to us, "Let us begin at the heart and it will beat both ways." We are glad that the heart still beats, but the extension is still dormant. Why not extend from Hillsboro to Greenfield? There would be much travel over this important 18 miles, to and from the county seat, for court callings, for churches in their "General Conferences," and "Presbyteries," for young people's societies and their Conventions, etc.

Why not extend from Sardinia to Ripley? The roadbed is ready for ties to Georgetown, Sardinia and Northern Brown county as well as Ripley and Southern Brown county need it for county seat demands. This would connect Highland and Brown county seats.

The heart—from Sardinia to Hillsboro, 18 miles,—is doing a profitable business. Would it not be still more profitable if the gaps of 18 miles North and 18 miles South were in operation? This would give us an outlet from Ripley over the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, via Maysville, through the great South to the Gulf; and from Greenfield, via Columbus to the lakes North, and also making connection with the East. There is no railroad North and South short of Cincinnati, about 50 miles East. Hence the need of the early completion of these two short gaps.

We hope that Ripley, Georgetown, Hillsboro and Greenfield will awake enough enthusiasm to complete this well begun enterprise and all important Columbus and Maysville Railway within the next twelve months.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly falling to cure with local treatment pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J.
