

FIFTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., MONDAY, MARCH 8, 1896.

ONE CENT.

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising notices free any more than a merchant can give over his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes.

The Continued Calls

UPON THE LEDGER for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Suppers,

excursions, fairs, or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and for obituary notices, resolutions of respect, &c., THE LEDGER will charge FIVE CENTS A LINE, and hereafter this will be the invariable rule. This, however.

Does Not Include

notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for Business Local in THE LEDGER is 10 cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a five-line local inserted in the paper. "I'll tell you when to take it out," he says to the bookkeeper. But he forgets all about it. The notice runs for two months—52 times—the bill is $13.25. When he finds it out there is a "kick" and a controversy, followed probably by an icy feeling. Now, to obviate this trouble, we "fill forbid" notices will be accepted hereafter. Let's have a definite agreement at the outset and the termination will be pleasant all around.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

Mr. John Thornley has gone to Denton, Tex.

Mr. L. Rinninsland of Cincinnati is in the city.

Mrs. Austin Holmes and son Harry left Saturday for a visit at Vanceburg.

Miss Maude Reynolds of near Fern Leaf is visiting Miss Marian Wormald.

Miss Sudie H. Shepard returned yesterday from a week's visit to Mrs. Louis Rinninsland, Cincinnati.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Morgan of Columbus, O., and Miss Thomas of Martinsville, Va., are the guests of Mrs. Julia Morgan.

Asland News.—Miss Louise Condit of Bath avenue has gone to Maysville, where she will spend a few weeks with friends.

Very Personal.—Postage on drop letters, whether sealed or not, is 2 cents. Many persons send their notices through the Postoffice with only 1 cent stamp. These are "held for postage." Hereafter they must contain a 2 cent stamp.

Mr. Hiram Daughtery has been on the sick list for a few days.

A stock company is being organized at Louisville to erect a crematory.

The Louisville City Council proposes to raise $10,000 by taxing bicycles.

The personality of the late Nancy J. Asbury has been appraised at $498.20.

A little son of Al Hodge was run over and killed near Manchester a few days ago.

The Augusta Tribe, I. O. R. M., will assist at the institution of a tribe of 800 members at Louisville shortly.

The funeral of Alma, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Wormald, will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence in the West End, with services by the Rev. D. D. Chapin.

Encouraged by the success of a skunk farm in Clark county, Mr. H. J. Twigg, an Englishman, proposes a "possum farm" in Madison county. If he will only start sweet potato and water-melon farms in connection with it, he'll catch 'em a-comin' and a-gwine!

An old book quaintly says that "when the whole system is pervaded by well-oxygenated blood, vigorously propelled, life and activity are copiously communicated." Which means that when the blood is purified by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, perfect health is the result.

Fifty Horses Wanted!

Mr. Joe Kindig of York, Pa., will be at Mose Daulton & Bro.'s Stable, Maysville, Ky., Monday, March 10th, 1896, and will pay the highest market prices for good, sound Horses or Mares from 4 to 8 years old, well broken and in good flesh. Bring in good ones and get the money for them. Don't forget the date.

TOO FAST.

Age of twenty, Girls a-plenty, Wit and wine galore; Age of thirty, Still quite fleetly, Drinking more and more; Nearly forty, Would be naughty If he had the vim; Gone to pieces, Got paresis— That's the end of him! —Dubuque Times.

Hen. John P. McCartney of Flemingsburg will deliver the address at the Memorial Day exercises at Dieterich's Park in this city.

John Garrett, who was shot by Albert Garrett at Murphysville a few days ago, at last accounts was getting along as well as could be expected.

For Pure Drugs, Fancy and Toilet Articles, call at Ray's P. O. Drugstore.

Send your next order for Printing to THE LEDGER office. We do work cheap, but not cheap work.

Premature baldness may be prevented and the hair made to grow on heads already bald by the use of Hall's Vegetable Sillian Hair Renewer.

Jake Nash had such a severe cold Saturday that he was unable to talk. When it is known that Mr. Nash is a Barber, this statement may well be doubted.

Special Sale on Ladies' Sample Oxfords, Tan and Black, the latest style; prices from 98 cents to $1.49. PROGRESS SHOE STORE.

The books of the Limestone Building Association are now open for subscription to the Fourteenth Series. Take stock in a good 64 per cent. investment. This is an easy way to buy a home and stop paying rent. Call on H. C. Sharp, James E. Threlkeld or any of the Directors.

Taylor Brothers at Washington sell the best Tobacco Cotton at 2 cents per yard.

Services at the M. E. Church at 3 p. m. and 7 p. m. each day, conducted by the Pastor, Rev. E. L. Shepard.

The advertising columns of THE LEDGER speak for themselves. They show that people who know how to advertise know also WHERE to advertise.

Subscribers in Aberdeen may rely upon having THE LEDGER served to them regularly hereafter. They are invited to take advantage of our free book offer.

Simon S. Hartman of Tunnelton, W. Va., has been subject to attacks of colic about once a year, and would have to call a doctor and then suffer for about twelve hours as much as some do when they die. He was taken recently just the same as at other times, and concluded to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy. He says: "I took one dose of it and it gave me relief in five minutes. That is more than anything else has ever done for me." For sale by J. James Wood, Druggist.

Right Now! is the time to Advertise!

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS. Fair streamer—FAIR; Blue—RAIN or SNOW; With Blue ABOVE—TWO WARMER; With Black BELOW—COLDER; Will be; Unless Black's shows—NO CHANGE we'll have.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 9 o'clock tomorrow evening.

We respectfully invite the comparison of THE LEDGER with any other daily newspaper in all Northern Kentucky if any one can find a daily paper printed in the Ninth Congressional District that has Larger Circulation, or More Original Reading Matter, we will take pleasure in presenting him with a year's subscription to THE LEDGER. And this paper is furnished at same price as inferior ones.

William H. Hord has sold to Mrs. Lydia Polley a small piece of land near Plumville for $275.

Mr. F. A. Manhen, formerly of this city, is President of the Board of Public Works at Superior, Wis.

Mr. Jesse Eastwood died at Catlettsburg, after having been confined to his bed for thirty years.

A little son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bradford, living on Short street, died a few days since of measles.

John Bowen, who had been ill for some time, died Friday night at Springdale. He was an old soldier and one of Uncle Sam's pensioners.

The statement of the State National Bank shows deposits of $365,044.33, a handsome increase since the last report, a surplus of $30,000 and undivided profits amounting to $10,418.41.

A few days ago R. B. Lovel, the Leading Grocer, was tempting the palates and purses of his patrons with the spring styles in strawberries. They were dirt cheap at 45 cents a quart. The Scribe looked at them—it was all he could do.

All last winter Mr. George A. Mills of Lebanon, Conn., was badly afflicted with rheumatism. At times it was so severe that he could not stand up straight, but was drawn over on one side. "I tried different remedies without receiving relief," he says, "until about six months ago I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. After using it for three days my rheumatism was gone and has not returned since." For sale by J. James Wood, Druggist.

KLEPTOMANIA!

A Young Hopeful Invades Mr. John Caldwell's House and Is Captured!

What a crying shame that Maysville has no Workhouse. And that Kentucky has no House of Correction for depraved children.

Harry Brown, aged about 12 years, is a familiar figure on our streets.

He is a persistent beggar, a chronic kleptomaniac, and never hesitates to "lift" anything that he can carry when the owner's back is turned.

Sunday afternoon he got into the residence of Mr. John Caldwell in the Sixth Ward, and when Mr. Caldwell returned home and caught him, the bric-a-brac and light articles looked like they had been struck by a Kansas zephyr.

A search of the boy revealed $20 in money among the other things he had pocketed.

Mr. Caldwell landed the lad on a street-car and accompanied him to Police Headquarters.

But what could the authorities do with him? Being powerless, they had to let him go.

Rev. Henry W. Burton, lately consecrated Bishop of the new Diocese of Lexington, will visit the Church of the Nativity in this city the second week in April.

E. H. Taylor, Jr., & Sons, distillers at Frankfort, have brought suit against J. M. Atherton & Co., Louisville distillers, for $150,000 damages for infringement of trade-mark.

A card on the outside of office door says: "Gone to lunch. Be back in ten minutes." And the man will be there on time. That is, for some days, weeks or even months, he will. Then he will be at home occasionally for a day. He'll tell you he had a headache—a turn of cholera morbus, or maybe he'll say he had a lump in his stomach and felt too miserable to move. The lump was probably two or three ten-minute lunches condensed.

The man who "bolts" his lunches will find Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the best friend he ever met.

There is no case of biliousness, constipation, indigestion, "heartburn" or any of the rest of the nightmare breeding brood that these little "Pellets" will not cure. They cure permanently. Send 21 cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 100-page "Common Sense Medical Adviser," profusely illustrated.

Four boys, William Smith, John Ross, James Braerty and Sol. White, were put in Jail Sunday night for jumping on freight trains, and they are now on the rock pile for four days each.

Jerry McGlone went out alone and to have some fun he toted a gun. He stumbled and fell and the gun played havoc. It tore off his arm on a Fleming farm. His age was not great—just add 6 and 8.

Mrs. Mahala McGlone and Glem Jordan, charged with the murder of Mrs. McGlone's husband in Carter county, have been released. William McGlone, the supposed murdered man, has been found alive in Alabama.

Hi Henry's Minstrels minstrelled to a well filled house Saturday night. Several of the "gags" were too young for the barber-shop. Altogether it was a good entertainment, with McNish and Deming as leading fun-makers.

To lessen the taxes they're wielding the axes, Lexington's City Council has chopped down the salary of the Superintendent of Public Works from $1,800 to $900. It also reduced the police force from 33 to 24, and cut the pay from $75 to $60 a month.

The C. and O. has decided to rerail their entire road with a special rail made expressly for this company. It is said that the amount to be expended on this improvement between Covington and Russell will cost something over $4,200,000.

Saturday at noon, just as the minstrel parade was passing Martin Bros.' store on East Third street, the man blew a blast out of the big horn which scared a horse on the opposite side of the street. The horse started to run, knocking down and tramping on the leg of a little colored boy named Sambo Lindsay, tearing the flesh from the bone. It took twenty stitches to patch it up again.

SUICIDE AT OWINGSVILLE.

William H. Scott Swallows Morphine and is Found Dead.

At Owingsville William H. Scott, aged 38, son of Henry Scott, Proprietor of the Owings House, committed suicide by the morphine route.

He went to his room, locked the door, took the morphine and was found unconscious.

Scott recently lost his wife, who was Miss Julia Borders of Catlettsburg, and this is supposed to have led to the rash act.

Scott was highly connected, his mother being a Goodloe.

He was a member of the M. E. Church, South, and leaves two children.

Taste in Jewelry.

You can be over-jeweled as well as over-dressed. Taste is necessary in selection of jewelry. That is eminently what we strive after; we select our stock with as much regard to taste as to prices. The result is we have one of the most beautiful displays of jewelry, watches, diamonds, silverware, &c., that can be found anyplace. Call, and we will take pleasure in showing you around whether you buy or not.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION!

IT WILL ASSEMBLE AT LEXINGTON ON APRIL 15th.

Call of the Chairman—Basis of Representation—How the Delegates Are Apportioned to Counties.

Below is the call of the State Central Committee for the coming State Convention:

FRANKFORT, KY., March 4th, 1896.

To the Republican Electors of Kentucky: Pursuant to the call of the National Republican Committee for a National Republican Convention, to be held in the city of St. Louis, in the state of Missouri, on Tuesday, the 16th day of June, 1896, at 12 m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for President and Vice-President of the United States, to be supported at the National election in November next, and for the transaction of such other and further business as may be brought before it, the Republican electors of this state and voters without regard to past political affiliations who believe in Republican principles and endorse the Republican policy, are cordially invited to unite under this call in the election of delegates to a State Convention to be held in the city of Lexington, on April 15th, 1896, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing four Delegates at-Large to the St. Louis Convention, and for the transaction of such other and further business as may properly come before it.

The basis of representation shall be one delegate for every 100 votes and one delegate for each fraction over fifty votes cast for Governor Bradley last November.

Each Congressional District is entitled to two delegates to the National Convention, who shall be elected at conventions called by the Congressional Committee of each District, in the same manner as the nomination of a Representative in Congress is made in said District. Said District Conventions will convene in their respective Districts and will elect in addition to the two delegates to the National Convention, one District Elector and one member of the State Central Committee, and may elect the following officers of the State Convention: One Vice-President, one member of the Committee on Resolutions, one member of the Committee on Credentials, one member of the Committee on Permanent Organization, one member of the Committee on Rules and Order of Business, and transact such other business as may properly come before it.

Delegates to the District and State Conventions will be elected on the call of the County Committees, and in the manner to be set forth in said calls, which shall be issued pursuant to the call of the District Committees and in accordance with the rules of the Republican organization of Kentucky.

Following is a list of the delegates apportioned to each county:

Table listing delegates by county: Adair, 14; Allen, 14; Anderson, 19; Ballard, 7; Barron, 18; Bath, 11; Bell, 12; Boone, 6; Bourbon, 29; Boyd, 18; Boyle, 14; Bracken, 11; Breathitt, 7; Breckinridge, 19; Bullitt, 5; Butler, 16; Caldwell, 12; Calloway, 5; Campbell, 47; Carter, 20; Casey, 13; Christian, 18; Clark, 17; Clay, 14; Clinton, 8; Crittenden, 13; Cumberland, 9; Davies, 23; Edmonson, 15; Elliott, 5; Esch, 11; Fayette, 13; Fleming, 15; Floyd, 9; Franklin, 17; Gallatin, 3; Garrard, 15; Grant, 13; Graves, 12; Grayson, 18; Green, 12; Greenup, 13; Hancock, 8; Hardin, 13; Harlan, 9; Harrison, 19; Hart, 13; Henderson, 18; Henry, 13; Hickman, 13; Hopkins, 19; Jackson, 13; Jefferson, 105; Jessamine, 12; Johnson, 16; Kenton, 49; Knott, 18; Knox, 18. Total, 1,660.

Respectfully, JOHN W. YERGES, Chairman.

William E. Riley, Secretary.

No alternates are provided for, as has been customary, nor will there be any to the National Convention. This is in accordance with a change adopted recently by the National Committee. However, if the people see fit they may elect alternates, but no provision will be made for their accommodation at the State or National Convention.
