RIGHT IN THE SWIM.

Colonel George W. Dye of Sardis Cut a Swath in Washington.

The publisher kindly sent THE LEDGER a copy of The Daily Hotel Reporter of Washington City, of date March 6th, in which appears this notice of a well known Mason county man:

"G. W. Dye, Sardis, Ky., one of the old-time Republicans, attended the Inauguration, and stopped at the Arlington. Mr. Dye was granted an interview with the new President yesterday, and is sure of the appointment of several of his friends to office in Mason county, Ky."

How his less fortunate friends must have envied the clever Colonel as they beheld his "feet under the Arlington's mahogany" at $2 50 per foot per day; and what chagrin must the ordinary herd of place hunters have felt as he waltzed into President McKinley's sanctum sanctorum and left them sitting in the buck-a-goose atmosphere of the lobby. But you can always bet on Colonel Dye "gittin' thar" every time!

MARRIED YESTERDAY.

Miss Lida Owens and Mr. Samuel English United in Cincinnati at Noon.

The many friends of Miss Lida Owens will be surprised to learn of her marriage, which occurred in Cincinnati yesterday at high noon, with Mr. Pearce Browning and Miss Maggie Duke Watson of this city as attendants.

The fortunate gentleman is Mr. Samuel English of Louisville, connected with The Louisville Times.

The marriage was not a surprise to the family of the bride, because she had often spoken of the desired step, and no objection was raised only because of the tender age of Miss Owens, who has just passed the 17th milestone in life's journey.

A telegram to Mrs. Owens apprised her of the hour of the ceremony, and the answer back was a message containing the maternal blessing as well as to announce to them her desire to have them come home before leaving for Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. English are expected here in a day or so.

The congratulations of a host of friends of the bride go out to the groom, while the choicest blessings are showered on the beautiful bride.

Miss Owens is the youngest daughter of the late Colonel Frank S. Owens.

NEWSY NOTES FROM NATURE'S GREAT HIGHWAY.

The danger line of the river at Cincinnati is 45 feet.

The Hudson will be the next Pittsburgh packet for Cincinnati, passing this city tomorrow night.

The Henry M. Stanley passed down last night from Pomeroy, and will return tonight for Charleston and way points.

The Keystone State, with a big trip of miscellaneous freight and a fair passenger list, was at the wharf last night, discharging quite liberally here. She returns to Pittsburgh tonight.

Water is again lapping the streets of Limestone and Wall, and those residents who had just cleaned up and moved back into the houses vacated by the last high water are watching the approaching river with great anxiety. Many thought the rainstorm of Tuesday was another general rain throughout the entire watershed of the Ohio, and when they saw the lightning Tuesday night the crack of doom would have been more preferable, as the thought of water, mud and ooze had no glories for them. People are becoming discouraged. Every time a cloud appears it brings fear. The ground is full of water, and every drop that falls starts immediately to run off, and thus keeps the muddy Ohio at floodtide. But the worst is over on the present rise, as the river is on a stand this morning, while all stations above report it falling. The gauge at this point this morning registered 45.2.

WHAT THEY SAY!

Remarks By Brother Editors on "The Ledger" Man's Anniversary.

The recent double number of THE LEDGER, issued on the occasion of the Thirtieth Anniversary of a Republican newspaper in Maysville, has received many kind notices at the hands of Brother Editors. For their generous expressions of goodwill, and that fraternal feeling that characterizes all genuine newspapermen, we tender our sincerest thanks.

Manchester Signal, (Republican.)

Hon. Thomas A. Davis celebrated his Thirtieth Anniversary of his entrance into newspaper work, starting a Republican newspaper at Maysville on March 2d, 1867. Bro. Davis has had many ups and downs, but he is still good for thirty years more. Here's to him.

Richmond Pantagraph, (Republican.)

Editor Thomas A. Davis of THE MAYSVILLE LEDGER issued a handsome eight-page paper, commemorative of the Thirtieth Anniversary of the establishment of a Republican paper in Maysville by himself. Mr. Davis is a newspaperman to the manner born, and of whom Kentucky is and should be proud. He is the best Republican of them all.

Portsmouth Blade, (Republican.)

THE MAYSVILLE LEDGER celebrated last Tuesday its Thirtieth Birthday. The issue of that day contained some interesting reflections on the progress of Republicanism in Mason county.

Flemingsburg Times-Democrat, (Democratic.)

Thomas A. Davis issued a double edition Tuesday to celebrate his first start in Maysville journalism 30 years ago.

Portsmouth Blade, (Republican.)

THE MAYSVILLE LEDGER celebrated last Tuesday its Thirtieth Birthday. The issue of that day contained some interesting reflections on the progress of Republicanism in Mason county.

Felicity Times, (Republican.)

Col. "Tom" Davis of THE MAYSVILLE PUBLIC LEDGER celebrated the Thirtieth Anniversary of his establishing a newspaper at that city on Tuesday. A special edition of THE LEDGER was issued in honor of the felicitous occasion.

Flemingsburg Gazette, (Republican.)

THE PUBLIC LEDGER of Maysville came out with a double edition on Tuesday of last week in celebration of the Thirtieth Anniversary of the establishment of a Republican paper in that city by Mr. Thomas A. Davis. Mr. Davis is one of the best known newspapermen on the state press, though as a veteran in the business, of course he cannot rank with Craddock.

Aberdeen Gretna Green, (Republican.)

The Thirtieth Anniversary of a Republican paper in Maysville, started by Thomas A. Davis, new owner and Editor of THE PUBLIC LEDGER, was a handsome sheet, and explains the whys and wherefores of Mr. Davis's success more fully than words can. Just such vim, vigor and nerve as displayed in getting up the anniversary sheet is what has made Mr. Davis so successful in all business enterprises. Brother Davis, may you be on hand to issue your sixtieth anniversary.

Vanceburg Sun, (Republican.)

Tom Davis and THE MAYSVILLE PUBLIC LEDGER celebrated Tuesday last. The cause was its being the Thirtieth Anniversary of Tom's advent into the journalistic ring at Maysville. Tom is getting out one of the best little dailies in the state at present. We judge that the reason Tom has not been recognized by the party more than he has is because they know him to be a willing worker, and so long as a slave works willingly you can bet there will be no inducements thrown out to him in the way of pay or recognition. Kick, Tom, kick; and if they still remain regardless, why take up your little pen and poke a few of them in the ribs, and if that don't bring them, jump up and down on their past records, then

More Talk About Time.

Some people are peculiar in the matter of buying a Watch. A silver Watch is good enough for one man so long as it keeps good time. Another one wants something a little more showy---a gold one,---but it, too, must keep good time. Some want a high-priced Watch, others a cheaper one, but after all everybody wants a correct timepiece. We selected our stock with time in view, and can sell you a high, low or medium-priced Watch ---and any of them will keep time---the essential point.

We repair Watches so that we can guarantee them to keep time. Charges low.
