SIXTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., MONDAY, APRIL 19, 1897.

ONE CENT.

CATAclysmic CATAPULT!

CATCHERS CAUGHT

Accusers of Hunter Are Indicted Along With Accused.

MIGHTY MESS OF MACKEREL!

DR. W. GODFREY HUNTER.

Special to The Public Ledger.

FRANKFORT, April 17th.

The expected happened today;—and the unexpected also.

The Grand Jury returned indictments for attempted bribery against Dr. Hunter, ex-Congressman John H. Wilson and Hon. E. T. Franks; and the unexpected denouement was that indictments were returned also against Captain Noel Gaines and his brother-in-law, Thomas R. Tanner, on the same charge.

Gaines and Tanner are Democrats, and the former is the person who went before the Grand Jury to convict Dr. Hunter.

The cases may be tried this term of Court, or they may be tried in September, or if the indictments have the effect intended—that of forcing Dr. Hunter to quit the race—the indictments may be "fled away" as thousands of others have been.

Meanwhile, "Politics is hell!" And Kentucky has but one Senator at Washington.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

Mr. R. C. Farrow of Mt. Glead was in the city Saturday.

Mr. Geo. R. Humphreys arrived home from California yesterday.

Miss Etta Everett of Cincinnati spent Sunday with relatives here.

Dr. J. M. Worrall of Danville has been visiting in this city for a few days.

Miss Louie Bruer of Paris came down Saturday for a visit to friends in this city.

Mr. B. F. Thomas of Chattanooga was registered Saturday at the New Central.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Thompson of Fernleaf were visiting at Washington Sunday.

Mrs. Nellie Wood left today to visit her daughter, Miss Jennie Wood, at Cynthiana.

Mr. John Duley will return tonight from Chicago, bringing with him several sky-scrapers.

Mr. Henry Waller spent Sunday with his grandmother, Mrs. Chas. A. Marshall, at Washington.

Mrs. White W. Forman of Paris, who has been very ill for some weeks, is reported to be much better.

Mrs. Adolph Schreiber of Cincinnati came Saturday for a visit to her father, Colonel Fred Schatzman.

Mrs. J. J. Fitzgerald and daughter and Mrs. James Dunn are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Bona, at Lexington.

Messrs. Garrett B. and Buckner Wall of Richmond, Va., were yesterday visiting their parents, Hon. and Mrs. Garrett S. Wall.

Miss Mattie Clay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Shultz Wood of Covington, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Sadler.

Colonel J. B. Thomas of Philadelphia is on his customary visit to Maysville, still stoutly maintaining that Philadelphia is the greatest city on earth—of which she is a large slice of the choicest part.

Miss Marguerite Rudy of this city, who has been holding a position in Cincinnati for the past year, came up Saturday on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Rudy of Forest avenue.

If you have an item of news, please call up THE LEDGER, Telephone 33, and send it in.

The Presbyterian Sunday-school of Washington took up a collection yesterday for the aid of the starving people of India, of whom Miss Emily Forman, the Missionary, has written such pathetic accounts.

It is probable that the State Medical Association will be invited to hold its session in this city in May, 1898. If the invitation be accepted the members of that distinguished body will receive a cordial welcome.

The G. A. R. Post of this city will hold Memorial Day exercises on Sunday, May 30th. As the proceedings are of a most sacred character, it has not been deemed a violation of the Sabbath to pay tribute to the dead on that day.

Mr. Simon M. Crowell has entered the race for City Assessor, and solicits the support of the voters of Maysville. Mr. Crowell is well known to our people as an honest and industrious citizen, and as an officer will ever keep in mind the best interests of his city.

The members of Maysville Commandery attended the M. E. Church yesterday by invitation of the Pastor, Sir Knight Rev. F. W. Harrop, who had prepared a special Easter sermon and service for the occasion. All speak in high terms of the eloquent Pastor's discourse.

Thirty-six years ago today since the Sixth Massachusetts Regiment was fired on by a mob in Baltimore while marching from Camden Station to President Street Depot on their way to Washington. Three of the soldiers were killed and about forty wounded; but nobody ever found out how many of the mob were slain.

THIS HIS HOME.

Colonel Robert G. Lynn Will Come to Maysville to Spend His Time.

A New York letter to The Cincinnati Enquirer says Colonel Robert G. Lynn, that prince of old-time sportsmen, has notified his partners in the East that he will no longer retain with them his interests in a sporting line.

The Colonel has all the worldly goods he deems necessary for any one man, and will spend his remaining days about his old home at Maysville, taking his ease.

As he glides down through the evening of life he will have the satisfaction of knowing that no man has more well wishers, for Bob Lynn has truly been "a square man."

Eyesight

Is of such great value that one ought to take more than ordinary precautions to guard against every possible trouble.

If you have even a remote suspicion that there is any trouble with your eyes it will be for your own best interests to have your vision tested and trouble, if any, removed.

Very simple troubles may develop serious results if not properly treated.

Ordinary failing eyesight receives our most careful attention, both as to glasses and frames.

It's just as important to have the right frame as the right glass, and from our large stock we can give you the correct thing in either Gold, Silver or Steel.

We make no charge for examinations, and if yours is a case requiring the services of an oculist we will frankly tell you so.

VALUE OF A DOLLAR.

The Science of Economy Satisfactorily Worked Out.

YOUTH'S Companion.

"If you can demonstrate to me that you can actually relieve distress with a dollar I will give you what you want."

A rich cynic thus answered a woman who had come to him for aid to help the poor of their city. He hoped to silence her and send her away.

"Will you come with me?" said the woman challenged in this novel manner.

The man consented, and in a few minutes the two entered an unsightly tenement. The lady, who knew her ground, led the man up two flights of stairs into a cheerless room. The floor and walls were absolutely barren. The only piece of furniture, besides the bed, a chair and a dilapidated table, was a small stove, in which a scant fire was burning.

There was a middle-aged man in the room with two children, each poorly and thinly clad. The few dishes were empty. Destitution could hardly be more complete. The woman, accustomed to such pathetic sights, soon learned what was most needed, and from long experience she knew just what to purchase.

"Please wait," she said to the rich man, "while I run around to the store."

Full of compassion for this mute suffering, the gentleman waited. In a quarter of an hour a large grocer's basket, filled to the brim, was brought into the room. Soon the little stove threw out comforting heat, and the odor of food gave grateful cheer.

"Do you think this charity well bestowed?" asked the woman, as they left.

"Indeed, I do," came the answer, with a suspicious tremor in the voice.

"Well, here is the list." He took it and read. We quote it word for word:

25 pounds coal..... 20
2 bundles kindling..... 05
Half pound tea..... 15
2 loaves bread..... 08
2 pounds oatmeal..... 08
2 pounds beef for stew..... 14
Half pound sugar..... 05
Gallon kerosene oil..... 10
Measure potatoes..... 08
1 quart milk..... 04
Small bag salt..... 02
1 box matches..... 01
Total..... $1 00

Without hesitation the man of money took a dollar bill and handed it to the good woman, and the next day she received his check for a thousand like it.
