

GEN. WEYLER'S

Opinion of the Passage of Morgan's Resolutions.

Personally, He Would Be Glad if the House Would Adopt Them.

Cuba's Position Would Then Be Defined—He Claims the Old World Would Be Aligned With Spain in Case the Cuban Republic is Recognized.

New York, May 25.—A dispatch to the Journal from Cienfuegos, Cuba, says:

In an interview, Capt. Gen. Weyler, upon his arrival here from Pinar, in reference to Senator Morgan's Cuban resolution, said: "I am not surprised at the action thus far taken, nor shall I be if the house concurs in the senate resolution and sends it to the president. Your jingoes are in the saddle and evidently bent upon forcing the country into some foreign complications in order to distract attention from the fast approaching international crisis."

"The few scattering bands of Cuban dynamite, railroad wreckers, horse and cattle thieves, plantation burners and highwaymen, now in the field here, who hold no part and possess no seat of civil government, have no right to expect recognition. Such distinction at President McKinley's hands issued in the face of my own proclamation officially declaring the greater part of the island to be already pacified, would hold the Washington executive up to the ridicule of European powers and prompt a healthy outburst of sympathy for the Spanish cause, especially from neighboring old world governments, also possessing colonies in the West Indies."

"In brief, recognition may aid the Cuban junta in placing a few bonds in the United States, but will at the same time assure the successful issue of our proposed new Spanish loan in Paris, London and Vienna and enable us to carry on the war with renewed vigor."

"Personally, I shall be glad if recognition comes, our position will then be more clearly defined. It will work a virtual abrogation of our special treaty with the United States, place Yankees residing in Cuba in an identical position before the courts with other foreign residents, and I shall be troubled less by the constant complaints and often ridiculous demands of American consuls."

"It would also relieve the Spanish government of all responsibility for the destruction of foreign property not actually within the line of Spanish defenses, and further simplify matters by assuring us the right to board and search American vessels whenever suspected."

"For one, I shall heartily rejoice that the emptiness and hypocrisy of the United States government's reiterated professions of friendship shall be finally unmasked. I have always had little confidence in the sincerity of its assertions. Each new declaration from Washington calculated to throw our marine officials engaged in patrolling the Cuban coast off their guard has invariably been followed by the departure of some new Cuban filibuster from an American port with arms and munitions for our enemy."

Continuing, the captain general expressed delight at the proposition to have consuls here furnish free transportation to all Americans who desire to return to the United States, but he said he considered the plan to distribute food to resident Americans as an indirect and unjustified attempt to interfere in local affairs."

Seruggs and Langhorne Will Make a Vigorous Fight.

New York, May 25.—Richard M. Seruggs and E. J.
