Mrs. P. F. Martin, Miss Effie Million, Miss Ketta Martin and Prof. C. G. Deegan were handsomely entertained by the family of Mrs. Luther Strode of Daleburg Saturday.

Your correspondent visited Sugarloaf Mountain one day recently and was truly astonished at the wonderful display of natural scenery which greets the artistic eye from the summit under the sweet influence of singing birds, humming bees and babbling brooks. In the midst of blooming flowers and shady paths we wended our way to its lofty summit where we drank in long views of cultivated farms, green fields and long stretches of primeval forests until we were fairly intoxicated. In the distance, we could see Tollesboro, Mayslick, the smoke from Maysville, the green hills of Adams county, O., while near by it seemed as though we could step over on Mt. Carmel, Wallingford or Foxport. Any artist wanting excellent views or any worn-out editor desiring a peaceful hour, come and take a climb on our mountain.

Don't fail to place your "ad" in THE LEDGER if you want the most for your money.

FREAKS OF THE MISSOURI.

Singular Vagaries of the World's Most Wonderful River.

St. Nicholas for May.

Of course, you've heard of the curious freaks of the Missouri River—the "Big Muddy"; how the sudden, treacherous mountain waters roll down in mighty floods from Montana and Wyoming, ricochet from side to side of the broad valley they have eaten deep into the prairies, and pour head-long into the Mississippi near St. Louis; how, night and day, winter and summer, the twisting torrent shifts its channel, cuts its bank, undermines railroads, astonishes the muskrats, keeps the fish studying guide-posts, worries the bridge guards and sets the farmers crazy. For, just think of it, the Nebraska farmers whose land stretches along the river goes to bed thinking he will cut his broad acres of golden wheat in the morning, but lo! in the night that madcap river has entered his waving fields, and, like snow, they have melted away. Grain, fences, trees, buildings, land—are gone! And a great, sullen, yellow flood boils and eddies where his harvest smiled yesterday.

Next week, very likely, the reckless stream will make his neighbor across the river a present of 100 or more acres, just because he doesn't need them. Of course, it was natural for a man who had lost his land that way to look longingly across the river and think, after awhile, that the newly made land over there belonged to him; and many a wearisome lawsuit has been begun to recover title to "made" land which lies, maybe, exactly where the lost farm lies, but on the other side of the river. Perhaps there is some equity in such a claim; but the trouble is, that sort of thing is going on all the time, and the courts say they couldn't keep track of such pranks; that land acquired by accretion—mark that word—should belong to the farmer who owned the river bank where they were thrown up; that if the river took your farm you would have to fish it out of the stream you lost it in; at least, you needn't ask the courts to give you another for it.

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates a diseased condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is positive evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists; price fifty cents and one dollar. For a simple bottle and pamphlet, both sent free by mail, mention THE PUBLIC LEDGER and send your full Postoffice address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this offer.
