

SIXTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., MONDAY, JULY 19, 1897.

ONE CENT.

Eyesight

Is of such great value that one ought to take more than ordinary precautions to guard against every possible trouble.

If you have even a remote suspicion that there is any trouble with your eyes it will be for your own best interests to have your vision tested and trouble, if any, removed.

Very simple troubles may develop serious results if not properly treated.

Ordinary failing eyesight receives our most careful attention, both as to glasses and frames.

It's just as important to have the right frame as the right glass, and from our large stock we can give you the correct thing in either Gold, Silver or Steel.

We make no charge for examinations, and if yours is a case requiring the services of an oculist we will frankly tell you so.

Spokane CIRCULATION

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can give over his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Calls

upon THE LEDGER for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Suppers, excursions, fairs, or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and for obituary notices, resolutions of respect, &c., THE LEDGER will charge FIVE CENTS A LINE, and hereafter this will be the invariable rule. This, however.

Does Not Include

notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for Business Leads in THE LEDGER is 10 cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a five-line local inserted in the paper. "I'll tell you when to take it out," he says to the bookkeeper. But he forgets all about it. The notice runs for two months—52 times—the bill is $13.25. When he finds it out there is a "kick" and a controversy, followed probably by an icy feeling. Now, to obviate this trouble, no "till forbid" notices will be accepted hereafter. Let us have a definite agreement at the outset and the termination will be pleasant all around.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

If you have an item of news, please call up THE LEDGER, Telephone 33, and send it in.

We Must Make Room

In anticipation of a big fall trade, and realizing that goods pertaining to our lines will advance, (a great many have already) we bought early and largely. We are already beginning to receive shipments. Moreover it will not be long before our great line of Men's Shoes will come in, so you see we must make room. Now, if you will look in our windows and see the line of suits we are offering at $10 you will assist us in making room. All of our Fancy Cheviot Suits, in Checks, Plaids, Stripes, etc., Suits that we sold at $18, $16.50 and $15, go in this sale.

No house in the state ever did or ever will offer a line of Suits like these for the price,

:-: $10.00!

It is the greatest sacrifice sale we ever made, but as our patrons will be benefited, and it secures us room and money, we will only be too glad to have you take advantage of this sale. We have no room to quote prices on our more medium grades, but the entire stock will be sold at proportionate prices.

Please bear in mind this: No Suit will be sent out on approval. No Suit will be charged. Only :-: CASH!

Will buy the goods during this sale. Money, however, will be cheerfully returned if goods don't suit upon home examination.

"Last summer one of our grand children was sick with a severe bowel trouble," says Mrs. E. G. Gregory, of Frederickstown, Mo. "Our doctor's remedy had failed, then we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which gave very speedy relief." For sale by J. Jas. Wood Druggist.

Within the past few weeks the firm of Gilmore & Co. has been doing some handsome monument work. They last week placed a very artistic stone over the grave of the late M. C. Blaine, Chaplain of the U. S. Army, and has just closed a contract for a handsome sarcophagus on the lot of the late Thomas Wells, which will be one of the finest in this section of the country when completed.

The class that builds up a town and country, and enjoys life and makes the best citizens, are the enterprising and liberal men who believe in living and letting others, and who when they get a dollar, do not squeeze it until the Goddess of Liberty feels as if a corset laced to the last notch would feel much more comfortable. Such squeezing is what causes hard times and stops the circulation of the American eagle. If it were not for our broad gauged, enterprising men it would be impossible to build a prosperous city.

A SAD DEATH.

James N. Lynch Passed Away Yesterday Morning.

ILLNESS OF SHORT DURATION.

Mr. James N. Lynch, aged 29 years, died yesterday morning about 1:15 o'clock.

Mr. Lynch was taken ill last Tuesday morning with a violent cramping in the stomach and lower bowels, increasing in intensity until it was found necessary to send for a physician, who at once applied the remedies that are used to relieve such cases, but they failed to give the sufferer any relief whatever.

On the contrary, he grew worse and worse, and a second physician was called in, both doing all in their power to give the patient relief.

On Saturday his father, Mr. W. W. Lynch, went to Cincinnati to procure the services of a surgeon to come and perform an operation upon his son, but owing to the wreck on the railroad he was unable to get here.

Dr. Ricketts, a prominent and well-known surgeon of Cincinnati, was in the city, however, and it was decided that he be called in and operate upon the sufferer and see if he could give him the necessary relief.

The doctor told his relatives that it was useless, as he was too weak to undergo the operation that was necessary, but if they were willing he would do all in his power to save him. Accordingly, Saturday night about 10 o'clock the operation was performed, when it was found that Mr. Lynch was suffering from intus-susception, from which he died about 1:15 o'clock.

He was a member of the Christian Church, and one of the most devoted Christian young men that could be found.

Mr. Lynch was a young man well liked by all who knew him, an industrious young man, whose many good traits of character made him one of those of whom a community is proud to boast.

He was engaged in the furniture business, was agent for The Cincinnati Post, and was a young man who never had an idle moment.

He leaves a wife, mother, father and sister,—Mrs. W. R. Iradella of Baltimore—and a brother—Mr. W. H. Lynch—to mourn his sad taking off.

He was a member of Ringgold Lodge No. 27, I. O. O. F., under whose auspices the funeral will occur this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence of his father in the Fifth Ward, services being conducted by Rev. J. S. Sims of the M. E. Church, South, assisted by Rev. I. P. Trotter of the Baptist Church and Rev. S. D. Dutcher of the Christian Church. Burial at the Maysville Cemetery.

His parents, wife and relatives have the sympathy of the entire community in the taking off of Mr. Lynch, as he was liked by everyone who knew him, and he will be sadly missed.

The Richmond Register says Henry Jiles, in jail there for shooting Joe Gatcliffe, has killed three men besides Gatcliffe, has four living wives and has lived all his life about moonshine distilleries and bawdy houses, while Gatcliffe, his victim, was a man beloved by all who knew him, his only fault being that he would occasionally drink too freely.

G. Matt Asher, of Lexington, but formerly of Ford, was this week sued for $5,000 damages by L. E. Pearce, City Auditor of Lexington. Pearce owned $12,000 of stock in a spoke company which he alleges Asher agreed to take for $7,000, but which he afterward refused to take. Pearce claims he was damaged $5,000 by this breach of contract and sues for it in the Fayette Circuit Court.
